@ASUSwimDive Splits Up, Heads to Indiana and Texas in Final Meet of Fall

TEMPE, Ariz. – In their last competition this calendar year, the Sun Devils are branching out to two different meets in the Indiana Invitational and Texas Diving Invitational this week.

While swimming heads to Bloomington, the Sun Devil diving squad stays a little closer to home, heading to the Texas Diving Invitational in Austin. The meet will have six diving sessions spanning three days, with preliminaries beginning at 10 a.m. and finals and relays at 5 p.m. each day. This format is similar to the NCAA National Championship, which gives the newer Sun Devil early experience with the format.

The Sun Devils have attended the invite on-and-off for the past 20 years, as it consistently features some of the top programs in the country. The invite includes top diving programs in Purdue, Tennessee and Texas, and will feature the NCAA Champion in both the 3M and Platform dives in Steele Johnson of Purdue and Brooke Schultz of Arkansas; and Colin Zeng of Tennessee, respectively.

"It will really be a test this early in the season to see how far we've come from when we started until now," diving coach Mark Bradshaw said. "It's the cream of the crop and the same divers that competed at the finals at the NCAA Championships last year."

Freshman Brandon Spencer and sophomore Ashley McCool have been standouts so far for ASU, with Spencer notching a NCAA Zone qualifying score in the 3M in his first collegiate meet and McCool already qualifying for both springboard events through three meets this year.

"Brandon Spencer was very steady and consistent in his first dual meet last weekend," Bradshaw said. "Ashley has also been diving very well, although honestly she hasn't come close to what she can achieve. I'm excited to see how she'll do in this environment at Texas."

The Invitational also provides a valuable chance for the Sun Devils to achieve some qualifying scores in the platform event, a chance which otherwise only would have come at the Pac-12 Championships in February. The extra chance will give ASU the opportunity to see where they stand in the event against the best as well, as traditional regular season dual meets only include springboard events.

"The opportunities to compete in platform are few, so we use this as our one-time platform contest before we go to Pac-12's to see where we are and see where we need to improve," Bradshaw said. "We've been working hard on platform since we started, so it'll give us a chance to see if we've been working on the right things in practice."

While diving heads to Austin, swimming heads to the Hoosier state for the first annual Indiana Invitational, an event concocted by Sun Devil coach Bob Bowman and Indiana coach Ray Looze. The Invitational welcomes ASU, NC State, Louisville, Indiana and the Purdue women into the confines of the Councilman-Billingsley Aquatics Center.

Similar to Austin, the invite features a morning-preliminary, evening-finals format with a full schedule linked above.

The Invitational features some of the top talent in the country, as all but one of the squads boasts a team ranked in the TYR Top-25 in at least one gender. This plethora of talent will provide the swimmers with ample opportunity to compete against some of the top swimmers in D1 swimming including several national champions in both genders.

NOTES

HEAD DIVE COACH MARK BRADSHAW

Completing his 20th season at ASU in 2016-17, Mark Bradshaw has proven to be one of the most successful NCAA diving coaches in the country.

With Bradshaw at the helm of the diving program, ASU has produced some of the NCAA's finest divers, including four-time NCAA Champion Joona Puhakka and six-time All-Americans Micky Benedetti and Trisha Tumlinson. Under Bradshaw's guidance, ASU has had nine divers earn four NCAA individual titles and 29 All-American honors. In addition, Bradshaw has been named NCAA Diving Coach of the Year twice, in 2003 and 2005.

With eight Pac-10 Men's Diving Coach of the Year and one Women's Diving Coach of the Year plaques on his wall, Bradshaw has earned more Pac-10 Diving Coach of the Year honors than any other coach in conference history and has been named Pac-10 Coach of the Year the most out of all ASU Head Coaches. His divers have earned a total of nine Pac-10 Diver of the Year awards and six Pac-10 Newcomer of the Year honors.

HEAD SWIM COACH BOB BOWMAN

Bob Bowman, mentor of the world's most decorated Olympian and two-time Big Ten Coach of the Year, was named Arizona State head men's and women's swimming coach prior to the 2015-16 season. He earned his third conference Coach of the Year honor in 2016-17, named Pac-12 Men's Swimming Coach of the Year.

A 2010 inductee into the American Swimming Coaches Association (ASCA) Hall of Fame, Bowman is a five-time ASCA Coach of the Year and is the most-honored coach in the 40-plus years of the award. He has earned USA Swimming Coach of the Year honors six times, the USA Swimming Foundation's Golden Goggle Award four times, and was the 2002 USA Swimming Developmental Coach of the Year.

In addition to Phelps, Bowman guided Allison Schmitt to five medals, including three gold, at the 2012 Olympics, and coached 13-time international medalist Conor Dwyer.

LAST TIME OUT

Evan Carlson raced to a 19.89 finish in the 50 freestyle and notched victories in the 50 and 100 free as ASU dropped their meet against No. 7/11 USC on Friday afternoon in Los Angeles, Calif. The men dropped their meet by a final of 173-126 while the women fell, 168-121.

Evan Carlson's two victories total four in those events on the season, taking the top spot in the 50 and 100 free in every meet so far this year. The sophomore's time in the 50 free today broke a personal best he set against Florida State that also secured him a NCAA B-Cut spot.

In the diving well, Brandon Spencer made his collegiate debut this afternoon, placing third on both the 1M and 3M dive. The freshman put up a score of 325.95 in the 3M springboard event, qualifying him for the NCAA Zone Championships. Sophomore Ashley McCool also had a solid outing against the Trojans, taking first in both the 1M (300.38) and 3M (332.85) events.

At UCLA, Chloe Isleta once again swept the backstroke events, which she has done in all but one of the Sun Devils' meets this season. The California native raced to a first place finish in the 100 and 200 back, and added a win in the 200 IM to cap off an impressive day for the junior.

BACK, BACK BACKIN' IT UP

Zach Poti and Chloe Isleta have dominated the backstroke events through the first three meets of the season, with both sweeping all but one event so far. Isleta took top honors in both the 100 and 200 backstroke at Oregon State, Florida State and UCLA while Poti took first in both events at FSU.

The Sun Devil men also went 1-2 in the 100 and 200 backstroke at FSU, with Poti and freshman Khalil Fonder combining in the 100 back and Poti and Noah Henry in the 200 back.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

Freshmen have had a nice showing so far with season, with many contributing points so far.

Against USC, backstroker Khalil Fonder headlined a group of freshmen that totaled 35 points on the men's side, putting up 12 points on his own. Fonder sprinted to a first-place finish in the 100 butterfly – an event in which the Sun Devils entered only freshman – behind a time of 48.33 and followed up with a third-place finish in the 100 back.

Eight other freshman contributed points: Jack Little (1650FR, 500FR), Noah Henry (200FR, 200BK), Jack Edgemond (200FL), Cody Bybee (200FL), Ethan Luc (50FR, 100FR), Brandon Spencer (1M, 3M) and Jakob Icimsoy (200BK).

On the women's side, Ruby Martin has been a consistent cog in the butterfly stroke, placing top three in the 100 and 200FL at Florida State and UCLA, and first in the 100FL at Oregon State.

ON THE WORLD STAGE

Freshman Ashley McCool represented her country in her native Calgary at the 2018 Canada Cup Grand Prix, earning silver in the 3M synchro ahead of the United States, Cuba and Germany.

SUN DEVIL SWIM/DIVE

NOTES

McCool added another medal to her collection at the Summer Speedo Nationals, putting up a score of 283.10 in the finals to place third in the event and earn a bronze medal.

Frida Kaellgren competed again in the 1M dive for her country at the Swedish National Championships, racking up her second-straight gold medal in the event to become a Swedish National Champion in the event. Kaellgren notched a gold medal in the same event in 2017 and a silver in the 3M dive as well.

HOME COMING

The Sun Devils added a new coach to the staff in the offseason -- #SunDevil4Life Herbie Behm.

Behm returns to Tempe after serving as the assistant sprints coach at the University of Utah for two seasons. During his tenure in Salt Lake, Behm led a group of 20+ student-athletes in their daily training programs while assisting and working with each individuals' technique, training strategies and post-race analysis. Under Behm's tutelage, 20 student-athletes set school records in just two seasons.

Behm, a Tucson-native, swam at Arizona State from 2010-13. Excelling in the classroom as well, Behm was a three-time Scholar-Athlete Award winner and graduated with his degree in Psychology while minoring in Communications. As a Sun Devil, Behm was a part of the foursome that set the school record in the 400 medley relay.

SUN DEVIL SWIM/DIVE

The class, recognized as one of the nation's largest signing groups, rose quickly through the rankings, as only one of the class' prospects broke the magazine's top-20 list in the summer of 2017. After huge senior campaigns, that number tripled to three.

The class boasts nine swimmers with 100 free times of 44.9 or better, five with 50 free bests of 20.3 or better and six with 200 free bests at 1:36.6 or better. This adds to an already strong crop of Sun Devil freestylers that includes Cameron Craig, who owns all 10 of the top-10 200 free times in ASU history and Grant House, who put up the No. 24 time in the world during the 2017-18 season in the 200 free over the summer.

POWERHOUSE SCHEDULE

This season, Arizona State will face last year's national champions on each side – Texas (men) and Stanford (women) – as well as two of the top five overall finishers at NCAA's a year ago.

During the dual season, the men's and women's teams also face seven top-25 teams to finish last season, including the top-ranked team for each. The men face No. 1 Stanford, No. 2 Cal, No. 3 Indiana, No. 6 Texas, No. 9 USC, No. 18 Arizona while the women face those teams plus No. 21 UCLA.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

The Sun Devils earned CSCAA Scholar All-America honors as a team, marking the 10th-consecutive semester dating back to Fall 2013 that both Sun Devil squads have earned a place in the team, while the ASU men have achieved upward improvement for the past three seasons. 17 individual Sun Devil swimmers and divers were also named Scholar All-Americans.
