BEAR NECESSITIES

Coming off a successful start to conference play on the road, the Cal women's soccer team (8-1-0, 1-0-0 Pac-12) looks to continue its momentum on home turf, welcoming Arizona State (4-4-1, 1-0-0 Pac-12) and Arizona (4-2-2, 1-0-0 Pac-12) to Edwards Stadium. The Golden Bears will square off against the Sun Devils at 4 p.m. on Thursday afternoon before closing out the weekend with a 1 p.m. match against the Wildcats on Sunday.

Ranked No. 11 in the latest United Soccer Coaches poll, Cal enters Thursday's match on a six-game winning streak, the team's longest since 2014 and tied for the seventh-longest active winning streak in the nation. The Golden Bears have five shutouts during that streak and have held their opponents to a total of just one shot on goal in their last three games combined. Cal leads the Pac-12 with a 0.44 goals against average this season while senior goalkeeper Emily Boyd ranks second in the conference with a .826 save percentage.

The Golden Bears opened Pac-12 play Saturday evening in Seattle, beating Washington, 1-0, behind a goal from midfielder Anja Koehler. It was the first collegiate goal for Koehler, who earned Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week honors for her effort. Koehler is the fifth Cal player to earn a conference weekly award in 2017, the most by any team in the Pac-12 this season.

The Bears are unbeaten in five home matches this season, outscoring the opposition, 10-2, at Edwards Stadium. Cal looks to stay perfect in Berkeley while taking on Arizona State and Arizona squads that also began conference play in the win column. The Sun Devils opened Pac-12 play with a 2-1 win over Oregon State in Tempe. Arizona downed Oregon, 3-1, outshooting the Ducks 20-12.

Cal heads back on the road next weekend, traveling to the mountain states for tilts against Colorado and Utah.

BEARS BY THE NUMBERS

1

Cal is the only team in the Pac-12 that has held its opponents to one goal or fewer in every game this season. The Golden Bears have five shutouts so far in 2017 and are 21-2-3 over the last two seasons when holding their opponents to 1 goal or fewer, compared to 0-4-0 when allowing multiple goals.

6

Cal enters Saturday's match on a six-game winning streak, the team's longest winning streak since the start of the 2014 season. The Bears' win streak is tied for the longest active streak in the Pac-12 and ranks seventh overall in the nation. The last time Cal won seven or more games in a row was during the 2012 season.

5

Anja Koehler was named the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week this week, become the fifth different Cal player to earn a Pac-12 weekly honor in 2017. Cal's five weekly honors are the most by any school this season and mark Cal's highest single-season total since 2015.

557

The Golden Bears have conceded just one goal in their last 557 minutes of action, posting five clean sheets in their last six outings. Since conceding a goal in the 35th minute against Sacramento State, the Golden Bears have not been scored on in their last 339 minutes of play.

WE ARE CALIFORNIA

When referring to any California athletic team, please use either "California" or "Cal" to denote the institution and "Golden Bears" or "Bears" when indicating the mascot. Refrain from using names such as UC Berkeley, California-Berkeley, Cal-Berkeley, or Cal State Berkeley.

SCOUTING THE SUN DEVILS

Thursday's match will be the 21st meeting all-time between the Golden Bears and Sun Devils, with Cal holding a 13-4-3 edge in the series. Cal has won the last six meetings between the teams, its longest active winning streak against any conference foe. However, this will be just the fourth time in the last ten seasons that the teams have squared off in Berkeley, and the first since a 2-1 victory at Edwards Stadium on October 4, 2013.

Arizona State has won three of its last four matches and is coming off a 2-1 win over Oregon State on Friday evening. The Sun Devils took the lead in the 51st minute behind a goal from Jemma Purfield and doubled their advantage 30 minutes later behind a goal from Christina Edwards.

A transfer from South Alabama, Purfield leads the Sun Devils with nine points this season on three goals and three assists. Four other players have multiple goals this season for Arizona State, while Jazmarie Mader, the team's leading scorer in 2016, is tied for the team lead with three assists. Freshman Nikki Panas has seen the majority of minutes in goal this season, posting two shutouts to go with a .810 save percentage.

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS

Arizona enters the weekend on a three-game winning streak, posting victories over Texas Tech, BYU, and Oregon. The Wildcats were victorious in their Pac-12 home opener, beating the Ducks, 3-1, on Saturday evening. Senior midfielder Cali Crisler assisted two goals for the Wildcats while sophomore Samantha Falasco tallied the game-winning goal in the 48th minute.

Crisler leads Arizona with five points on five assists this season while Falasco and Gabi Stoian, an NSCAA All-Region selection in 2016, have a pair of goals each. Junior goalkeeper Lainey Burdett has played every minute for the Wildcats this season, recording three shutouts.

Arizona will face No. 2 Stanford on Thursday evening before traveling to Berkeley for Sunday's match. Cal leads the all-time series between the schools 15-4-3, but the Golden Bears have just one win in their last five meetings. Two of the last three meetings between the teams have gone to overtime, including a 2-1 double overtime victory for the Wildcats last season in Tucson.

NEXT UP

Cal heads back on the road next weekend, traveling to the mountain states for tilts against Colorado and Utah. The Buffaloes and Bears will meet at 2:30 pm PT on Thursday, October 5, a rematch of last season's double-overtime thriller. Cal will take on Utah at 1 p.m. PT on Sunday, October 8. Both matches will be broadcast live on Pac-12 Networks.

BOYD IN THE RECORD BOOKS

Cal senior goalkeeper Emily Boyd has 31 shutouts this season, already the most by any player in Cal women's soccer history and tied for sixth-most in conference history. An NSCAA Third-Team All-District selection in 2016, Boyd currently leads the conference in goals against average (0.44) and ranks second in save percentage (0.826).

LATE AND GREAT

Seven of Cal's 15 goals this season have come in the 69th minute or later, including six goals at or after the 80 minute-mark.

Five of Cal's eight game-winning goals this year have come in the final 30 minutes play.

CLEVERLEY CALLED IN

Freshman midfielder Daisy Cleverley will rejoin the Golden Bears this weekend after missing the last two matches due to international duty with the New Zealand Women's National Team. The rookie from Auckland, New Zealand, joined the Football Ferns for a pair of friendlies against the United States Women's National Team and saw 10 minutes of action during the match on September 19 in Cincinnati. A member of the Football Ferns roster for the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup in Canada and an alternate for the 2016 Olympics in Rio, Cleverley made her debut with the senior national team in October 2014 and has two goals in six caps.

McGUIRE SETS RECORD

The Golden Bears' victory over UC Irvine was one for the record books for head coach Neil McGuire, who became the all-time wins leader in Cal women's soccer history with 125 victories. Now in his 11th season in Berkeley, McGuire has an overall record of 132-63-25 at Cal, good for a 0.657 career winning percentage. McGuire has led the Golden Bears to the NCAA Tournament every year of his tenure, which began in 2007.

BEAR TERRITORY

With five wins at Edwards Stadium to start the year, the Golden Bears continued their tradition of success when playing at home.

Since the start of last season, Cal is 13-2-1 at Edwards Stadium.

With a perfect preseason campaign, Cal extended its streak to 16 consecutive wins at home in nonconference play. Cal's last home loss in non-conference play came on September 12, 2014, a 1-0 defeat to No. 7 Texas Tech in double-overtime that snapped Cal's six-game win streak.

WHAT SOPHOMORE SLUMP?

Sophomore striker Abi Kim scored three goals in 150 minutes of action opening weekend and set up the game-winning penalty kick against Santa Clara, as the Cal women's soccer team opened the year with a pair of 2-1 victories. For her performance, Kim was named to the TopDrawerSoccer National Team of the Week and earned Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week honors.

Kim scored the golden goal in Cal's double-overtime win at Sacramento State, her team-leading fourth goal of the season. The 2016 Pac-12 All-Freshman selection has already surpassed her goal scoring total (3) from last season and has two game-winning goals so far in 2017. The U-20 USWNT member has put 12 of her 21 shot attempts this season on target.

YOUTH IS SERVED

Cal's 11-member freshman class – ranked No. 3 in the nation by TopDrawerSoccer – has acclimated well to the college game, with eight rookies already seeing action this season. Center back Emily Smith is currently third overall on the team in minutes played and has started all nine matches this season. Five other rookies have earned at least one start of the Bears with season. Overall, 28 of Cal's 44 points this season (8 goals and 10 assists) have come from underclassmen, including nine points from the freshman class.

No. 1 IN THE CLASSROOM

Generally considered the top-ranked public university in the world, Cal has held the No. 1 spot among the U.S. News & World Report rankings of public national universities for 18 consecutive years. In its Best Global Universities ratings, U.S. News places Cal fourth overall behind Harvard, MIT and Stanford.
