Emily White - T19, 9.875 (avg)

Last Meet

The Gym Devils' second meet of the year was the Wasatch Classic in West Valley City, Utah last Monday. The team finished in first place out of four teams with a 195.675, beating Boise State, San Jose State and Iowa State.

Graduate Emily White had a stand-out meet, scoring 9.900s on bars and floor and a 9.875 on beam, all team bests. The floor score won her a share of that event title and she placed second on the other two events. White now has 40 total scores of 9.9 or better in her career.

Junior Kimberly Smith competed in the all-around and placed in first place for her first event title in her career. She finished with a total score of 39.100, marking her best all-around score in her career as well.

Debuts

There have been a number of new faces in lineups for the Sun Devils this season. There were three who made their collegiate debuts in the opener: Halle Braaflat (vault, bars, floor), Caroline Lichtman (vault, beam) and Tiara Platkin (bars). Additionally, Jenna Blair made her ASU debut, competing on vault and floor and earning career highs on both. Since then, Kayla Lee also made her bars debut and Chloe Seaga made her collegiate debut on beam.

Of the 24 routines in the season opener, 13 were returning Gym Devils that had competed on that event previously.

Preseason Awards

The Gym Devils have three gymnasts on the 2025 Big 12 Preseason Team. Graduate Jada Mangahas received a nod in the all-around, graduate Sarah Clark is on the beam team and graduate Emily White is honored for both beam and floor.

One More Year

Three gymnasts returned for fifth years in 2025: Sarah Clark, Jada Mangahas and White. Between the three of them, they had 26 scores of 9.9 or better this year, led by 12 from White. They also had 16 total event titles in 2024.

Last Season

The Gym Devils finished the season with an 8-5 record and ranked No. 16 on the Road to Nationals. This marked the seventh-consecutive year they have ended the season ranked in the top 25. Though the Sun Devils did not receive a seed to kick off the NCAA Regionals, they managed to advance to the NCAA Regional Finals for the third time in four years. The Gym Devils put together a solid regular season, remaining in the top 25 with an NQS of 196.920. The team finished the regular season with a winning record for the third-consecutive season, the longest such streak since the early 2000s. To close out Pac-12 conference play, the Sun Devils pulled out a huge win against No. 10-ranked UCLA. The season high of 197.600 came on senior night against Southern Connecticut, which is the 11th-highest team score in ASU history.

Newcomers

There are four freshmen for the Gym Devils this season in Halle Braaflat, Nina Laurito, Tiara Platkin, and Jenna Timmons. The freshman class is geographically diverse, with four competitors hailing from Canada, Florida, North Dakota and Texas. Additionally, senior transfer Jenna Blair joined the team after three seasons at Northern Illinois University.

White is Golden

White had a standout senior season, competing in every meet on bars, beam, and floor and appearing in the all-around in the final four meets. She earned seven event titles, including three on floor, two on beam, and one on bars and in the all-around. White scored at least a 9.800 in all but two meets on bars, and had five scores of 9.900 or higher on beam, where she anchored the team all year. On floor, she scored 9.900 or better in six meets. Her career-best all-around score of 39.625 at Southern Connecticut, which ranks 15th in program history, highlighted her impressive performances.

Super Sarah Clark

Clark had an outstanding senior season in 2024, consistently excelling on bars and beam. She competed in every meet on both events, earning five scores of 9.900 or better on bars and four on beam. Clark won a total of five event titles, including three on beam and two on bars. Clark tied for the beam title against Washington with a season-high 9.925, and she won the bars event title at Stanford with a career-best 9.950.

Main Event: Jada Mangahas

Mangahas had an exceptional senior season in 2024, competing in all but one meet and participating in 10 all-around competitions. She consistently led off on vault, scoring 9.800 or higher in all but two meets, and never scored below a 9.800 on bars, earning three scores of 9.900 or higher. On floor, she maintained consistency, scoring 9.800 or better in all but one meet. Mangahas won four event titles, including three in the all-around and one on vault. She qualified for the NCAA Championships on bars after scoring a 9.900 at the Cal Regional, going on to score a 9.875 at the championships. Mangahas scored 9.925s on both bars and beam during the season, the bars score matching her career high and the beam mark a new personal best. Notably, she earned a career-high 39.450 in the all-around at Stanford.

Santos Supremacy

This is the ninth season for two-time Pac-12 Coach of the Year Jay Santos. He has brought the program to new heights in time in Tempe. Aside from his first season, he has led the team to a 196-plus NQS and a top-25 ranking at the end of every season since.

COACHING HONORS

2023 Pac-12 Coach of the Year
2021 WCGA Regional Coach of the Year
2018 Pac-12 Coach of the Year
2016 NCAA Central Regional Coach of the Year

Jay Santos was named the head women's gymnastics coach on May 27, 2016.

Jay Santos' impact has been immediate for the Gym Devils. He has led the team to postseason each season since 2018 with two regional finals appearances (2023, 2021) and has coached two All-Americans (Hannah Scharf and Cairo Leonard-Baker). Both of those All-Americans also qualified for nationals as individuals, Scharf in 2021 and Leonard-Baker in 2018, 2019 and 2021. He was the Pac-12 Coach of the Year in 2018 and the WCGA Regional Coach of the Year in 2021. In the Road to Nationals rankings, he has helped the team finish in the top 25 for sixth-straight seasons.

The Gym Devils had another strong season for Jay's seventh season, earning a final rank of No. 15 and a team NQS of 197.105. This is the third time ever that ASU ends the regular season with an NQS over 197, two of which have been while Santos has been in Tempe. ASU went to NCAA Regionals and advanced to the regional finals. The team had an eight-meet streak of scoring 196.000 or better throughout the regular season. That run included a three-meet winning streak where the Gym Devils upset then-No. 4 Utah, set a program record road score in a win over Washington, and dealt then-No. 11 Oregon State its first loss of the season. He helped the team finish the season ranked in the top 20 on all four events and helped Hannah Scharf qualify as an individual in the all-around to nationals.

For Jay's sixth season, he helped the 2022 squad finish ranked No. 22. The team scored a 196-plus in all but one meet, including three 197s. Arizona State had five conference wins to tie for the 2022 Pac-12 Regular Season Title, the first one in program history. It was also the most conference wins in a single season in 2001. The biggest win came against UCLA as ASU scored a 197.800 to beat the Bruins for the first time since 2001. For the second year in a row, he helped coach Hannah Scharf to another WCGA Second Team All-America honor in the all-around.

Jay's fifth season was historic as he led Arizona State to its most successful season in 15 years in 2021, wrapping up the year ranked No. 9 on Road to Nationals, the best finish since 2006. The team ended the season with an NQS of 197.088 and finished in fourth in the Pac-12 regular season standings as well as in the Pac-12 Championship, making the night session for the first time. The success came off of an abbreviated 2020 season where Santos helped a young team, with seven making their collegiate debuts, reach new heights. The team went out on a high note before the cancellations began, finishing ranked No. 21 on Road to Nationals, the highest ranking of the year. The four meets before the cancellations were all 196.000s or better, with a total of five team scores surpassing that number in 2020.

Santos led the Gym Devils to another successful season in 2019, the first since 2014 to have a winning record (11-10) in the regular season. The team was ranked in the top-25 on Road to Nationals all year and earned four wins over top-25 teams throughout the season. They scored a 196.000 or better six times.

Santos has led ASU to arguably one of the most substantial turnarounds in recent collegiate gymnastics history after his first season as head coach in 2017. Santos' 2018 squad improved 18 spots from their 2017 national finish of 41, capping the season ranked at No. 23 nationally (highest finish since 2007). Ranking in the top-20 of the national standings for 12 consecutive weeks, Arizona State made its first team NCAA regional appearance since 2014. Santos was named the 2018 Pac-12 Coach of the Year.

Santos coached Eastern Michigan to the 2016 Mid-American Conference Championship, the program's first-ever NCAA Regional appearance, and finished the season ranked 17th in the nation – the highest national ranking in the history of the program. He earned NCAA Central Regional Head Coach of the Year honors. He had a 28-8-1 record while at EMU.

Santos has also coached at the University of Illinois-Champaign, Iowa State and Ohio State. Santos also spent eight years coaching at Somersault Gymnastics Center in Stoughton, Mass., serving as the women's team director and head coach for his last four years. Santos served as a nationally-rated men's gymnastics judge from 1997-2001, working numerous college dual meets as well as Junior Olympic state and regional championships.

Santos earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration in Operations Management from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst in 1995, and was a member of the Minutemen's gymnastics team from 1990-95. At Amherst, he was a three-time co-captain and founding member of the department's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

He and his wife Jess have two sons, Mason and Cooper.
