Devils Face Road Test in Sooner State

TEMPE – The Sun Devil women's tennis team is off to the great state of Oklahoma to take on the Sooners in Norman Saturday.

The Devils roll into Norman fresh off a 6-1 home win over Cal State Fullerton last weekend. ASU was scheduled to play two more matches to get primed for their road trip into Big 12 country, but both were canceled due to inclement weather.

"The level is going to be the same as when we went to South Carolina for the kickoff weekend," associate head coach Matt Langley said. "We'll have to make sure that everyone is in the right mindset and ready to play to their best tennis because that's what it'll take to win there."

ASU's match against the Sooners will be the Sun Devils' first true road test of the season as their only other duals away from Tempe have been neutral site contests against Wake Forest and California in Columbia, South Carolina.

Oklahoma has only suffered one defeat this season, which came at the hands of No. 2 Vanderbilt at the Commodore stomping grounds in January.

"OU had a 4-3 loss to Vanderbilt who lost in the final last year, so they've proven they can play," Langley said. "Oklahoma has a couple of new players that sat out last year but are playing at the top of their lineup this year, so they're much improved from where they were last year."

The Sun Devils hold the advantage in the series against the Sooners as they've won both of their previous meetings. The pair of matchups both took place in 2013, and ASU ran away with a couple of wins. The Devils won the first meeting with the Sooners, 5-2, in a clash in Coral Gables, Florida, during the ITA Kickoff Weekend. The rematch during the 2013 NCAA Championships was more of the same as ASU walked away with a 4-1 victory in Athens, Georgia.

Laurn John-Baptiste is expected to return to action after being sidelined last weekend. The addition of the 2018 All-American will mean the return of the No. 7 doubles tandem in the nation in John-Baptiste/Hattingh on court one. They'll likely face the Sooners' court one duo, newly ranked No. 51 Romero/Cappuro.

The match in Norman will get underway bright and early at 9 a.m. MST. Live results and a live stream can be found on the Oklahoma athletics website.

Team Notes

Magnificent No. 7

The All-American duo of Lauryn John-Baptiste and Ilze Hattingh moved up one place to No. 7 in the latest Oracle/ITA doubles ranking to become the highest ranked doubles tandem in the Pac-12.

In 2019, the Devils duo sits at a perfect 3-0 on court one, including a win over No. 22 Bright/Dunk of California.

Since the start of fall play, the second-year pairing is 5-2, with four wins over ranked opponents. Both losses came against ranked foes including one against current No. 3 Koch/Khmelnitckaia of Kansas in an 8-6 barn-burner in the quarterfinal at the ITA All-American Championships in Surprise.

John-Baptiste/Hattingh avenged their loss to the Jayhawks a month later at the ITA Fall National Championships.

Hattingh played without John-Baptiste once this season, but the sophomore is expected to return to the lineup this weekend against Oklahoma in Norman.

Last Time Out

The Sun Devil women's tennis squad dismantled the Cal State Fullerton Titans in its return to the Whiteman Tennis Center last weekend.

ASU was scheduled to also face the Memphis Tigers and New Mexico State Aggies, but rain and inadequate court conditions forced both matches to be canceled Sunday.

Friday's match went off without a hitch though as the Devils cruised to a 6-1 win over the Titans.

Redshirt-junior Sammi Hampton got her first spring victory in more than a year when she won in three sets on court five. Hampton missed all of last season with a knee injury and missed the start of 2019 with a wrist injury.

The Devils were without the All-American doubles duo of John-Baptiste/Hattingh on court one with John-Baptiste out of the lineup, but ASU didn't need help from court one as Alicea/Slaysman and Hampton/Fisch got quick wins on two and three.

Ilze Hattingh got a singles win on court one, Samantha Alicea won on court four and Tereza Kolarova put the match away with a win on two. Court three and five were played out though, and Savannah Slaysman and Hampton both got wins.

Home, Sweet Home

The Whiteman Tennis Center has been a fortress for the Sun Devils in recent years.

The Sun Devil women's team has picked up 48 wins while dropping only three matches in the past six years during non-conference play at Whiteman.

Last year, ASU won every non-conference match at home and dropped one home match overall to eventual national champion Stanford.

Of the three non-conference losses since 2011, two have been to Ohio State, who returns to Tempe later this season, and the other came against then No. 9 Pepperdine, who the Devils will visit this season in Malibu.

In 2019, ASU has six more home non-conference matches, including battles against TCU, Ohio State and Denver.

Overall, ASU has 12 matches in the comfy confines of the Whiteman Tennis Center, including visits from Southern Cal and UCLA, and the school down south to wrap up the season.

In the past 34 years, Sheila McInerney has seen a vast amount of change at Arizona State, from new athletic directors, new head coaches, schools added to the conference, and numerous renovations to athletic facilities. Through the countless changes across Arizona State, McInerney has continued to lead the women's tennis program in a successful direction heading into her 34th season.

In Arizona State's history, no coach has the number of accolades that Sheila McInerney has accumulated during her 34-year tenure as a Sun Devil. Since her first season as head coach in 1985, Sun Devil women's tennis has won 512 matches, advanced to 32 of 33 NCAA Tournaments, including 31 straight, and has finished each season in the top 38 nationally. That's the second most wins by any Arizona State coach in school history. In the 2016 season, McInerney was named the Southwest Region Coach of the Year by the ITA, as well as the Pac-12 Coach of the Year. She also was awarded the 2016 ITA Meritorious Service Award, which is given to an ITA coach who has gone "above and beyond" in their commitment and contributions to the ITA and college tennis in general.

In recent years, Arizona State's tennis program has continued to thrive on and off the court. On the court, the Sun Devils have 87 wins against ranked opponents since 2008. Leading the way for the tennis program have been 47 All-Americans and 43 All-Pac-12 student-athletes. Of these integral players in Arizona State's history, there have been 40 players ranked in the Top 50 of the singles season-end ranking and 23 in the Top 25 of the doubles season-end ranking.

In the classroom, McInerney has recruited bright student-athletes. She has had four Academic All-Americans, 45 ITA Scholar-Athletes (since 2002), and 80 Academic All-Pac 12 student-athletes (since 1991). Of those 45 ITA Scholar-Athletes, four were named in 2015 – Alexandra Osborne, Aubria Solares, Gussie O'Sullivan and Cassidy Jump. Her players have had majors such as Bioscience, Business Management, Criminal Justice and Criminology, English, Journalism, Kinesiology, Marketing, Political Science, and Sociology.

McInerney has also been fundamental in helping players' development to reach high achievements in the NCAA. Among the achievements include Jacqueline Cako named Arizona State Female Athlete of the Year (2013), Michelle Brycki awarded Cissie Leary ITA National Sportsmanship Award (2012), Kelcy McKenna selected as the Pac-12 Post-Graduate Scholar (2011), four singles and four doubles All-Americans since 2009, 14 players ranked in the singles season-end ranking and seven doubles teams ranked in the doubles season-end ranking since 2009.

Prior to coming to Arizona State, McInerney served as assistant women's tennis coach at the University of Southern California during the 1983-84 season, in which the Trojans were NCAA finalists. In addition to her success as a collegiate coach, McInerney has traveled with various USTA junior and national teams. At the 1986 Goodwill Games, McInerney coached the team to gold and silver medals. In 1987, she led the U.S. Pan American Games doubles squad to a gold medal.

McInerney attended USC, where she captained the Trojans during her senior season. The four-time All-American also was a four-time Trojan Spirit Award winner, as voted by her teammates. The Trojans won three national championships during McInerney's collegiate career, and she was the national collegiate doubles runner-up three times and a singles semifinalist in 1977. McInerney collected a half-dozen USTA national titles and was a member of the 1977-80 USTA Junior Federation Cup team. As a professional, she played on the major international tour, earning a world ranking in the top 75. McInerney competed at three grand slam venues -- Wimbledon, French Open and the U.S. Open where she reached the round of 32. She also served a short term as assistant pro at the highly acclaimed L.A. Tennis Club.

McInerney earned a bachelor's degree in public relations from the University of Southern California in 1980. A member of the Dean's List at USC, she won the USC Postgraduate Scholarship Award, the USC Junior Student-Athlete and Senior Student-Athlete awards.
