ASU LACROSSE GAME NOTES

STICK-Y NOTES (UPDATED 3/12) ..

The Sun Devil Lacrosse program embarks on their second season at the Division I Level. The program put together a historic campaign a season ago, reaching several significant milestones and earning unexpected accomplishments under Head Coach Courtney Martinez Connor.

Arizona State hits the road for the first time this season, matching up with a pair of Pac-12 Conference foes. First up, the Sun Devils head to Eugene to take on the Oregon Ducks on Friday at 5:00 P.M. The Sun Devils will be making their Pac-12 Network debut on Sunday at 12:00 P.M. when they square off with their second Top-25 opponent of the season, No. 23 Colorado. The game will be on the Pac-12 Mountain Network, with the ability to stream live on pac-12.com/live and through the Pac-12 Now App.

Goalkeeper Berkeley Bonneau is top in the Conference with a goals against average of 10.40 goals/game through three games. Bonneau put together her third double digit save performance of the season against No. 22 USC and is the only keeper in the Pac-12 to have played every minute in goal for their respective team (300 minutes through six games).

Arizona State tied a program-best in allowing only three goals in their 11-3 victory over Stetson (2/24), the lowest total a Pac-12 Conference team has allowed this season. The Sun Devils lead the conference with opponents scoring 10.40 goals/game.

In just their second season at the Division I level, the Sun Devils boast a talented and young roster. So far during the 2019 season, 11 members of the freshman class have seen playing time (Buckner, McCaffrey, McGlothlin, Martel, Kroah, Hood, Anotonucci, Brodsky, Odell, Class, Payne). Sophomores Caryn Takeuchi and Mia Harp also made their Sun Devil debuts and have recorded assists this season after missing all of last season with knee injuries.

Freshman midfielder Kaylon Buckner enjoyed quite the collegiate debut. The St. Louis native finished with a team-high six caused turnovers and five draw controls, while contributing four points (two goals & two assists) on the offensive end. For her efforts, she was named the Pac-12 Conference Defensive Player of the Week for the first week of the season. She became the first Sun Devil in program history to receive a weekly conference honor.

SCOUTING THE DUCKS...

Oregon is led by Head Coach Chelsea Gamble, who is in her first season at the helm in Eugene. Gamble is a familiar face to the Sun Devils, as she was an Assistant Coach at Stanford for the past four seasons. The Ducks have won at least nine games in five consecutive seasons and boasted a 5-2 home record last season. So far this season, the Ducks picked up wins against Mercer and Jacksonville while being tested by a challenging schedule. Like the Sun Devils, they also opened Pac-12 play last week, falling to Cal and Stanford during their trip to the Bay Area. Oregon is led by senior attacker Shannon Williams, who currently sits third in the conference with 20 goals. Williams also impacts the game as a distributor, leading the conference with 14 assists.

SCOUTING THE BUFFALOES...

Colorado is led by Head Coach Ann Elliott Whidden, who is in the midst of her sixth season in charge of the Buffaloes Lacrosse program. The defending Pac-12 regular season conference champions are coming off a 14-6 campaign, including a 9-1 conference record. The Buffaloes defeated Jacksonville in the first round of the 2018 NCAA Tournament to earn their first ever NCAA Tournament victory. Colorado currently sits at No. 23 in the latest IWCLA Poll after a 3-3 start to the season. They have already knocked off a pair of Top-15 teams on the road, taking down No. 14 Virginia Tech in mid February before upsetting No. 15 Stanford a week ago. Buffaloes Attacker Miranda Stinson represents one of the most prolific offensive threats in the country, scoring 21 goals in 2019, the second most in the Pac-12. Colorado causes a conference-best 10.67 turnovers/game.

SUN DEVILS ON THE NETWORK...

The Sun Devils make their Pac-12 Network debut on Sunday when they take on No. 23 Colorado. Four contests will air live on Pac-12 Network, including both matchups with the Buffaloes. The season culminates with the 2019 Pac-12 Lacrosse Championship, hosted in Eugene by the University of Oregon. The Championships will be broadcasted live on Pac-12 Network.

LAST TIME OUT...

The Sun Devils dropped a pair of contests last week, falling to undefeated Vanderbilt and No. 22 USC. Arizona State matched their season-high by scoring 14 goals, but a comeback effort by a short-handed unit was enough as the Commodores captured a 15-14 victory. Four Sun Devils scored in double figures (Dougherty, Kroeger, Hunter), led by freshman Paige McGlothlin, who recorded her first-career hat trick. In the Pac-12 opener against No. 22 USC, Berkeley Bonneau posted her third double digit save performance in the loss.

COURTNEY MARTINEZ CONNOR

HEAD COACH

SECOND SEASON

MARYLAND '01

Guiding the Sun Devil Lacrosse program through its inaugural Division I season, Coach Martinez Connor helped the Sun Devils enjoy one of the most successful inaugural seasons in NCAA history. In the season opener, Arizona State picked up the program's first-ever victory, an 18-8 road triumph against Kennesaw State. The Sun Devils started the season 5-1, highlighted by a come-from-behind win over Columbia, a game the Sun Devils trailed 4-0 and 7-1 at one point. The most significant result of the season came when ASU traveled to Berkeley to take on conference foe Cal. Despite trailing 6-2 in the first half, the Sun Devils would not quit, tying the game at 11 before the end of regulation to force overtime. Emily Glagolev would come through with the clutch, game-winning goal in overtime would give that would give the the program its first Pac-12 Conference victory.

Under Coach Martinez Connor's tutelage, several Sun Devil Lacrosse student-athletes enjoyed breakout seasons. Sun Devil Lacrosse co-captain Kerri Clayton nabbed Second Team All-Pac-12 honors after an outstanding first season in Tempe. Clayton finished with 59 points, compiling 44 goals and 15 assists. Her 2.59 goals per game average placed her fourth in the conference while her 3.47 points per game was good enough for fifth. She recorded two game-winning goals, tying for the team-lead with Maddy Hunter. Clayton put her name in the Sun Devil record books the very first weekend of the season, scoring a program record seven goals in the team's first win over Kennesaw State on Feb. 9. The junior added five goals and two assists the very next game against Stetson on Feb. 11 to cement her name at the top. For that weekend's performance Clayton was named Inside Lacrosse's Alpha Lacrosse Player of the Week on Feb. 14 as voted on by lacrosse fans across the country, the first National Player of the Week honor for the program.

The Sun Devils captured five non-conference victories, two of which came by double-digits (Manhattan, Presbyterian). The Arizona State offense clicked in the non-conference, scoring 103 goals in six games (17.2 goals/game). Competing as the six seed at their first-ever Pac-12 Tournament, Arizona State saw freshman midfielder Maria Vallanti be named to the 2018 Pac-12 Women's Lacrosse All-Tournament Team after scoring a pair of goals against USC. In total, 2,530 fans attended Sun Devil Lacrosse home games, for a Pac-12 best average crowd of 361 fans per game. The team got it done off the field as well as on it, as Coach Martinez Connor continues to stress the importance of academics. Arizona State placed a pair of student-athletes (Sydney Bosmans, Rachel Gregory) on the IWLCA All-Academic Team, honoring those with a cumulative GPA of 3.50 or higher. Five different Sun Devils earned Pac-12 All-Academic honors, led by Sydney Bosmans, who received Second Team honors.

Courtney Martinez Connor was named the first head coach for Arizona State's varsity women's lacrosse program, Vice President for University Athletics Ray Anderson announced in Nov. 2015. Martinez Connor, a gifted lacrosse student-athlete and standout collegiate coach, is building the foundation of Sun Devil Athletics' 25th varsity sport.

TIERNEY CONLON ASSISTANT COACH SECOND SEASON MONTCLAIR STATE '15

In charge of the Sun Devils offensive unit during their innagural Division I season, Coach Tierney Conlon developed some of the most productive attackers in the conference. The offense was a big part of Arizona State's 5-1 start in non-conference play, averaging 16.3 goals/game, including a school record 23 goals in the home opener. The Sun Devil offense scored at least 12 goals in eight of their contests. Redshirt sophomore attacker Kerri Clayton enjoyed a breakout season under Conlon's tutelage, scoring 44 goals on her way to receiving Second Team All-Conference honors from the Pac-12. Freshman Emily Glagolev found the back of the net 21 times from the midfield, including the game-winning goal in the Sun Devil's first conferene victory over California. It total, a balanced offensive unit saw eight different Sun Devils reached a double-digit goal output in 2018.

Sun Devil Lacrosse Assistant Coach Tierney Conlon enters her second season on the coaching staff. In charge of the offensive unit, Conlon joined the Sun Devils after acting as an assistant coach at her alma mater, Montclair State. Conlon assisted head coach Nicol Parcelluzzi in all aspects of the sport including practice planning, recruiting, film breakdowns, strength and conditioning programming, and academic monitoring.

CAROLINE FITZGERALD ASSISTANT COACH FIRST SEASON FLORIDA '17

Former Drexel Assistant Coach Caroline Fitzgerald, a three-time All-American defender at the University of Florida, is joining the Arizona State Lacrosse staff as an Assistant Coach, as announced by head coach Courtney Martinez Connor on Friday.

Fitzgerald joins the Sun Devil Lacrosse staff after one season as an Assistant Coach at Drexel, where she worked primarily with the defense. Working under Dragons head coach Hannah Wszalek, Fitzgerald assisted with defensive concepts, helped implement defense schemes, and developed practice/game plans.

A four-year starter at the University of Florida, Fitzgerald made a tremendous impact in her career in Gainesville. Graduating as the program's all-time leader in ground balls (152) and caused turnovers (87), Fitzgerald will go down as one of the Gator's most productive defenders. Fitzgerald compiled several major accolades during her career at Florida. She was a two-time Tewaaraton Award Nominee (2016, 2017), an award which is recognized as the pre-eminent lacrosse award, annually honoring the top male and female college lacrosse player.
Earning IWLCA All-American honors in each of her final three seasons, Fitzgerald became just the fourth Gator to be selected to three All-America teams. The two-time Big East Defender of the Year (2016, 2017) also was named to the All-Big East First Team on three occasions (2015-2017).

"I'm so glad to have Caroline join our staff" Coach Courtney Martinez Connor remarked. "She will be a wonderful addition and influence to our student-athletes and program. I'm so happy that she has joined our family to become a Sun Devil."
