UP NEXT

The Sun Devil soccer team (8-7-2, 0-6-2 Pac-12) plays its last two home games of the 2021 season this week when it hosts Colorado (7-6-3, 2-3-3) on Thursday (5 p.m. MST) and Utah (6-8-3, 1-5-2) on Sunday at 1 p.m. A win over Colorado (No. 37) would provide the Sun Devils with a Top 50 RPI win. Sunday's contest will be Senior Day. The program will honor senior student-athletes Lara Barbieri, Isabel Dehakiz, Jessica Hale, Jayda Hylton-Pelaia, Vildan Kardesler, Julia Koharko, Olivia Kears-Thomas, Hikaru Minami, Nicole Soto, Cori Sullivan and Anna White following Sunday's game.

STATE OF PLAY

Quality depth, resilience and a team-first mentality of playing for each other are among the reasons ASU did not fold when injuries started to pile up. It did just the opposite as it put together its best nine-game record in program history (8-1). Included in ASU's non-conference wins was a 3-2 win over then-No. 21 and previously unbeaten Texas Tech on Sept. 12 in Tucson.

Although its hard work has yet to produce a win in league play, it has not deterred its spirit given what it almost accomplished the second week of Pac-12 play it had leads against current No. 10 USC and current No. 5 UCLA, only to lose both games by a one goal – 2-1 vs. USC/4-3-OT vs. UCLA.

Outside of its ties at Washington (2-2 on Sept. 24) and vs. Washington State (2-2 on Oct. 15), all of ASU's Pac-12 contests had been decided by one goal coming into last week's Bay Area road trip. Its 2-0 loss at Stanford was the first time in league play in which ASU was involved in a contest decided by more than one goal. That setback was followed by another one-goal game, a 1-0 loss at Cal played amid heavy rains and 30 mph winds. ASU was without two key players for both of its contests last week – senior midfielder and team captain Alexia Delgado (Mexican National Team) and sophomore defender Tahlia Herman-Watt (New Zealand National Team) – due to national team call-ups.

ASU has faced adversity all season – 22 different players have been in the starting lineup – and has still managed to play at a high level that enabled it to jump out to leads of 2-0 (at Washington), 1-0 (vs. USC) and 3-1 (vs. UCLA). ASU's outstanding abilities on the attacking end also played a major role in the Sun Devils' 2-2 tie vs. Washington State on Oct. 15. Down 2-0 after 30 minutes of game time ASU was faced with this task: To get any kind of result it would have to score two goals against the nation's top team & top goalkeeper in goals-against average. It meant scoring one more goal than WSU had given up in its eight previous contests coming into the game. Given the circumstances, one could argue ASU responded to the challenge with one of its best performances of the season as Olivia Kears-Thomas and Nicole Douglas both scored in a game that ended in a 2-2 draw.

After winning all five of its one-goal games in non-conference play, ASU has been unlucky in the same situation in Pac-12 play with five of its six league losses coming by one goal. Prior to last week's games, the only other time this season ASU did not score was in a 1-0 loss at Oregon (Oct. 10) despite an 8-1 advantage in shots on goal.

DOUGLAS DELIVERS

Senior forward Nicole Douglas has been nothing short of sensational this season. Tied for the national lead in total goals (15) and third in total points (35) – is also No. 4 in the nation in goals per game (0.88) and No. 8 in points per game (2.06) – Douglas has either scored or assisted on a goal in all but five games this season. ASU's contest at Oregon snapped a streak of seven consecutive games in which she scored at least one goal.

TOP OFFENSIVE CONTRIBUTORS

Douglas (15 goals/5 assists/35 points), van Deursen (3 goals/7 assists/13 points) & fellow seniors Olivia Nguyen (5 goals/2 assists/12 points) and Olivia Kears-Thomas (3 goals/2 assist/8 points) have combined for 26 of ASU's 34 goals this season. Sophomore Jazmine Wilkinson (two goals) has also scored multiple goals this season while senior Cori Sullivan is tied with Douglas for second on the team in assists (5).

ASU HEAD COACH GRAHAM WINKWORTH

- ASU Vice President for University Athletics and Athletics Director Ray Anderson announced Graham Winkworth as the new head coach of Sun Devil Women's Soccer in November of 2016.
- The Sun Devils had their best season under head coach Graham Winkworth in 2021 (2020 season), finishing the regular season with an 8-5-2 record and making a postseason run for the first time since 2014 and eighth in school history. ASU made it to the second round of the tournament to become the fifth ASU soccer team to advance to that stage in the NCAA Tournament.
- Winkworth and company boasted an undefeated non-conference slate last season, including an overtime comeback thriller at Grand Canyon to protect the streak. ASU continued its unbeaten streak through eight games and notched wins against UCLA, Stanford, and USC to become only the fourth team in history to beat all three programs in a single season. With a 4-4-2 record in Pac-12 Conference play, the Sun Devils finished in the middle of the table after being picked to finish last in the preseason poll.
- The Sun Devils scored 28 goals in 17 games, second-most in the Pac-12 Conference. ASU boasted one of the strongest defensive lines in the Pac-12, conceding only 16 goals and forcing ASU's keepers to make only 57 saves - fifth-fewest amongst Conference competitors.
- In 2019, Winkworth led his team to a dominant start to the season, securing five-straight wins for just the second time in program history, and carded their best start to a season since winning nine straight to start the 2000 season. The five-game win streak was the longest for the Sun Devils since 2014. ASU's strong non-conference performance helped the Pac-12 record the best-ever win percentage in conference play. Together, the league's 77-14-9 record for a .815 win percentage, the highest of any conference in the nation, and the highest non-conference win percentage by the league in Pac-12 history.
- Winkworth's 2019 squad combined to score 33 goals on the year, marking the best offensive output for the Sun Devils since scoring 34 goals in 2015. Sun Devil Women's Soccer capped the season with a 6-11-3 record to push Winkworth's overall ASU record to 21-29-7.
- In his second season at the helm, Winkworth achieved his best record at ASU, finishing with a 10-7-1 record. During the conference schedule, ASU swept all of the Pacific Northwest Pac-12 schools (Washington, Washington State, Oregon, Oregon State) in four consecutive games (two home and two away).
- Prior to his time with the Sun Devils, Winkworth spent four seasons transforming South Alabama women's soccer program into one of the top mid-major programs in the country and an emerging national power. Under Winkworth's direction, South Alabama set school records and program bests including qualifying for four-straight NCAA appearances, winning four straight Sun Belt Conference Championships, and earning the program's first top-25 national year-end ranking. A two-time Sun Belt Coach of the Year ('14, '15), Winkworth's student-athletes had a monopoly on the conference's top honors including four straight Sun Belt Freshmen of the Year, three Sun Belt Players of the Year, and three Sun Belt Defensive Players of the Year.
- In his first season as head coach of the Jaguars, Winkworth guided South Alabama to its most wins (14) since 1997 and the second-most wins in school history only to set the new program record for most wins (19) in 2014. The 2014 team also set school records for best winning percentage (.848), longest unbeaten streak (18), consecutive games scored (22) and shutouts (12). As evidence of South Alabama's transformation, in the five years prior to Winkworth's arrival, South Alabama had only one season with a finish above .500.
- Winkworth spent 10 seasons with North Alabama University, leading the Lions to a total of 111 wins, the most for a coach in school history. He also coached the program's first two All-Americans and led the program to its first NCAA post-season appearance.
- Winkworth began his coaching career in England with the Preston North End Football Club as an assistant with the Center of Excellence. He also served as an assistant coach at Cumberland (Tenn.) and Central Arkansas before North Alabama.
- Winkworth and his wife Jonna are parents to children Lucas, Caden, and Darbi.

Record at ASU: 38-41-11 (5th season)

Career Record: 215-140-26 (19th season)

IN THE RANKINGS

After its 8-1 record in non-conference play, ASU earned a No. 15 ranking in the United Soccer Coaches Top 25, its highest in program history.

SERIES NOTES VS COLORADO – SERIES TIED 5-5-2

Both teams have enjoyed a stint in the series in which they went 4-0-1 against the opposition in a five-year stretch. The Sun Devils are looking for their first win in the series since 2015.

SEASON SUMMARY

- This was the second straight season ASU started 5-0. On Sept. 5, ASU was looking for its first 6-0 start since 2000 before being defeated by then-No. 17 LSU, 5-2. Last season ASU started 6-0-2 before its first loss in the season's ninth game.
- Douglas followed up the eighth multi-goal game of her career (scored two in ASU's 2-2 tie at Washington on Sept. 24) by scoring for a pair of goals and one assist in ASU's near upsets of then-No. 21 USC and then-No. 3 UCLA. Douglas, who scored at least one goal in seven straight games prior to ASU's loss at Oregon (Oct. 10), is currently in third place on ASU's all-time list in both career goals (42) & career points (99), is tied for second place in career GW goals (13) and tied for 10th in career assists (15). Douglas has the second-highest, single-season total in goals (15) and points (35) in program history. ASU Hall of Famer Stacey Tullock holds the program's single-season standards in both categories (17 goals/41 points in 1999).
- Douglas (15 goals) & Olivia Nguyen (5 goals) have combined for 20 of ASU's 34 goals. Although Douglas and Nguyen have accounted for the majority of the goals, ASU has had 10 different players find the back of the net this season. Kears-Thomas (3), van Deursen (3), and Wilkinson (2) and have also scored multiple goals this season.
- van Deursen missed ASU's games vs. then-No. 21 Texas Tech and at Colorado College due to national team call up. On Sept. 19, van Deursen helped the Dutch U23 National Team claim a 3-0 win over Sweden. Currently tied for No. 6 in program history with 17 career assists (seven of them coming this season), the next time she helps one of her teammates find the back of the net, van Deursen (currently 36th in the nation in assists per game - 0.50) will move into a tie for fourth place in career assists and a tie for second place for most assists in a single season.
- ASU started the season with a pair of true freshman goalkeepers – Julia Ortega & Birta Gudlaugs each played a half in ASU's first two games – as the team was forced to go without two-year starter Giulia Cascaperan due to injury. Gudlaugs has played every minute 12 times this season and is the owner of three shutouts: at Mississippi State (Aug. 26), vs. Nebraska in Tucson (Sept. 9) and at Colorado College (Sept. 17). Ortega started ASU's contests at OSU (Oct. 7) and at Cal (Oct. 24). She made a season-high six saves at Cal.
- ASU has scored at least one goal in all but three games (at Oregon - Oct. 10, at Stanford - Oct. 21 and at Cal - Oct. 24) and has scored multiple goals nine times this season. Against No. 3 UCLA (Oct. 3), the Sun Devils scored more goals in the first half (three) than the Bruins had given up in all 10 of their games combined (two) coming into the game. The three goals were the most scored against the Bruins since the 2019 NCAA Tournament – a span of 27 games.
- ASU has had 22 different players in the starting lineup this season. Nicole Douglas and Callie Darst are the only players who have started every game this season.
- Douglas (Offensive POW/Week One), Lieske Carleer (Defensive POW/Week Two) and Birta Gudlaugs (goalkeeper of the week/Week Two) have combined for three Pac-12 Player of the Week honors this season.

RECAPING LAST SEASON

ASU is coming off its best season under head coach Graham Winkworth, finishing the regular season with an 9-6-2 record and making the postseason for the first time since 2014 and the eighth time in school history. ASU made it to the second round of the tournament to become the fifth ASU soccer team to advance that far.

Winkworth and company boasted an undefeated non-conference slate, including an overtime comeback thriller at Grand Canyon to protect the win-streak. ASU continued its unbeaten streak through eight games and notched wins against UCLA, Stanford, and USC to become only the fourth team in history to beat all three programs in a single season. With a 4-4-2 record in Pac-12 Conference play, the Sun Devils finished in the middle of the table after being picked to finish last in the preseason poll.

The Sun Devils scored 28 goals in 17 games, second-most in the Pac-12 Conference. ASU boasted one of the strongest defensive lines in the Pac-12, conceding only 16 goals and forcing ASU's keepers to make only 57 saves - fifth-fewest amongst Conference competitors.
