DEVILS FACE ROAD TEST IN THE CITY OF ANGELS

TEMPE – As the Pac-12 season winds down for the Sun Devils, ASU makes its penultimate road trip to challenge the No. 41 Trojans and 15th-ranked Bruins.

"It's another weekend with two good teams, and they're both at home, so that makes it tougher," coach Sheila McInerney said. "Certainly after this weekend though, beating the two Washington schools who are good, we've got some confidence going into the matches."

The Sun Devils' first opponent will be the UCLA Bruins, who just completed a trip into the mountains with two wins over Utah in a tight 4-3 affair and a sweep of the Buffaloes. USC did the same, taking down CU 6-1 and outclassing the Utes in Salt Lake City 4-1.

Arizona State comes into the weekend on a three-match win-streak that includes wins over three opponents ranked in the top-50 in Washington, Washington State and California.

The three-straight wins came at home where the Devils finished the season with a 10-1 record, but this weekend's matchup sends them on the road where they have gone 2-4 and played indoors on every occasion.

The Bruins are stacked in singles play to say the least. With five women ranked in the Oracle/ITA top 125, UCLA leads the conference in the category, and their No. 1 singles player sits at 16th, making her the second-highest ranked singles player in the Pac-12 behind Stanford's No. 1 who checks in at 15. As for the women of Troy, USC brings two ranked women to the courts Friday.

"We've got UCLA first and they're good top to bottom," McInerney said. "They had a couple of injuries early on, but they've got a full lineup and they're playing well. SC is the same way. They're much better than their ranking suggests."

Lauryn John-Baptiste and Ilze Hattingh are still the highest-ranked doubles tandem from Tempe, as they checked in at No. 21 after another perfect week of results. The duo is 14-0, and once again will face two more ranked pairings in Los Angeles.

One half of that duo, Hattingh had one of her best outings of the season against the Cougars and Huskies as she toppled No. 63 Vanessa Wong and Guzal Yusupova in singles play to add to her perfect weekend on doubles court one.

Historically, ASU has had a tough time in L.A., taking only three wins against the Trojans at home since 2000. The story is the same in Westwood as the Devils have won only two since the new millennium. ASU recently ended a drought against the Bruins last season and last beat USC in 2011.

This situation is a familiar one for the Devils, though. They recently defeated Cal for the first time in seven years in dominating fashion two weekends ago in Tempe.

The matchup in Westwood gets started at 1:30 p.m. PT Friday and the Devils play in Downtown L.A. Saturday at noon.

TEAM NOTES

RANKINGS UPDATE

A weekend sweep of Washington State and Washington shot the Sun Devils up six places in the latest Oracle/ITA Rankings to No. 33.

The ranking matches the Devils' place in the conference as ASU is the fourth-highest ranked Pac-12 program behind this weekend's opponent No. 15 UCLA, conference leader No. 21 Stanford and 30th-ranked Oregon. Behind the Devils are No. 37 Washington State, 41 Southern California, and No. 45 California.

Fourteen wins and no losses has helped Lauryn John-Baptiste and Ilze Hattingh's partnership secure a spot in the top-25 for the first time this season at No. 21.

Kolarova/Slaysman also stayed in the top-50, falling to 49 with their weekend split.

In the singles rankings, John-Baptiste was ASU's sole representative at No. 53.

IT TAKES TWO

Lauryn John-Baptiste didn't start the season as doubles partners, but it didn't take long for the two to turn into something special in their first season as Sun Devils.

The duo won their first outing as a tandem then seven-straight before their first unfinished match.

Since the beginning of the dual-match season, Hattingh and John-Baptiste have won 14 matches and lost none. Their impressive unbeaten streak has put them at No. 21 in the nation, and as the fourth-highest ranked duo in the Pac-12.

Individually, John-Baptiste is 53rd in the country with an 9-4 record while Hattingh has a 7-6 record on court two.

GET TO KNOW THE TROJANS

A perennial Pac-12 powerhouse, the Trojans haven't quite been the dominating side they are used to being in the past two seasons despite advancing to the NCAA Championships last season and owning an 11-7 record under first-year coach Alison Swain.

SC has made four straight Sweet 16 appearances and two Final Four runs between 2012 and 2015, but haven't advanced past the round of 32 since.

This season, Southern Cal is led by No. 48 Gabby Smith and 98th-ranked Rianna Valdes on courts one and two. Angela Kulikov and the aforementioned Valdes combine to make the No. 46 doubles duo in the nation as well.

Against like opponents, the Trojans are 8-4 with a split with Cal, a win over Oregon and losses to Washington State and UC Santa Barbara while the Devils lost to UO but defeated both WSU and UCSB. ASU is 9-2 against the same schedule.

GET TO KNOW THE BRUINS

Arguably the deepest program in the Pac-12, Stella Sampras Webster's 23rd iteration of the Bruins has five ranked women in the Oracle/ITA ranking, and is on the brink of an 18th top-10 finish in the past two decades.

The 15th-ranked women from Westwood are 14-4 this season and their only losses have been to teams in the top-25 in No. 6 Mississippi, No. 11 Oklahoma State, 13th-ranked Texas Tech and No. 22 Stanford.

Three of their last four wins have been sweeps with a 4-3 win over Utah being the only match in which they surrendered points.

While UCLA has been the better of the two sides in matchups with ASU since their first meeting, the Devils won last year's matchup in a thrilling 4-3 home victory at Whiteman Tennis Center.

In the past 33 years, Sheila McInerney has seen a vast amount of change at Arizona State, from new athletic directors, new head coaches, schools added to the conference, and numerous renovations to athletic facilities. Through the countless changes across Arizona State, McInerney has continued to lead the women's tennis program in a successful direction heading into her 33rd season.

In Arizona State's history, no coach has the number of accolades that Sheila McInerney has accumulated during her 33-year tenure as a Sun Devil. Since her first season as head coach in 1985, Sun Devil women's tennis has won 495 matches, advanced to 31 of 32 NCAA Tournaments, including 29 straight, and has finished each season in the top 38 nationally. That's the second most wins by any Arizona State coach in school history. In the 2016 season, McInerney was named the Southwest Region Coach of the Year by the ITA, as well as the Pac-12 Coach of the Year. She also was awarded the 2016 ITA Meritorious Service Award, which is given to an ITA coach who has gone "above and beyond" in their commitment and contributions to the ITA and college tennis in general.

In recent years, Arizona State's tennis program has continued to thrive on and off the court. On the court, the Sun Devils have 86 wins against ranked opponents since 2008. Leading the way for the tennis program have been 45 All-Americans and 41 All-Pac-12 student-athletes. Of these integral players in Arizona State's history, there have been 40 players ranked in the Top 50 of the singles season-end ranking and 21 in the Top 25 of the doubles season-end ranking.

In the classroom, McInerney has recruited bright student-athletes. She has had four Academic All-Americans, 45 ITA Scholar-Athletes (since 2002), and 80 Academic All-Pac 12 student-athletes (since 1991). Of those 45 ITA Scholar-Athletes, four were named in 2015 – Alexandra Osborne, Aubria Solares, Gussie O'Sullivan and Kassidy Jump. Her players have had majors such as Bioscience, Business Management, Criminal Justice and Criminology, English, Journalism, Kinesiology, Marketing, Political Science, and Sociology.

McInerney has also been fundamental in helping players' development to reach high achievements in the NCAA. Among the achievements include Jacqueline Cako named Arizona State Female Athlete of the Year (2013), Michelle Brycki awarded Cissie Leary ITA National Sportsmanship Award (2012), Kelcy McKenna selected as the Pac-12 Post-Graduate Scholar (2011), four singles and four doubles All-Americans since 2009, 14 players ranked in the singles season-end ranking and seven doubles teams ranked in the doubles season-end ranking since 2009.

Prior to coming to Arizona State, McInerney served as assistant women's tennis coach at the University of Southern California during the 1983-84 season, in which the Trojans were NCAA finalists. In addition to her success as a collegiate coach, McInerney has traveled with various USTA junior and national teams. At the 1986 Goodwill Games, McInerney coached the team to gold and silver medals. In 1987, she led the U.S. Pan American Games doubles squad to a gold medal.

McInerney attended USC, where she captained the Trojans during her senior season. The four-time All-American also was a four-time Trojan Spirit Award winner, as voted by her teammates. The Trojans won three national championships during McInerney's collegiate career, and she was the national collegiate doubles runner-up three times and a singles semifinalist in 1977. McInerney collected a half-dozen USTA national titles and was a member of the 1977-80 USTA Junior Federation Cup team. As a professional, she played on the major international tour, earning a world ranking in the top 75. McInerney competed at three grand slam venues -- Wimbledon, French Open and the U.S. Open where she reached the round of 32. She also served a short term as assistant pro at the highly acclaimed L.A. Tennis Club.

McInerney earned a bachelor's degree in public relations from the University of Southern California in 1980. A member of the Dean's List at USC, she won the USC Postgraduate Scholarship Award, the USC Junior Student-Athlete and Senior Student-Athlete awards.

STAFF

Matt Langley

Head coach Sheila McInerney announced in 2015 that Matt Langley would join the program as an assistant coach and in 2017, Langley was named associate head coach.

Langley joined the Sun Devils from Middle Tennessee State University, his alma mater, where he most recently served as assistant coach for its women's tennis program. At MTSU, Langley helped coach the Blue Raiders to one of their best seasons in program history, recording a 19-5 overall record, 7-1 in Conference USA competition.

A member of the MTSU men's tennis team from 2009-12, Langley was a two-year co-captain and three-time Sun Belt Conference Champion, earning two Most Outstanding Player honors at the Sun Belt Conference Championships. Langley also recorded three career appearances at the NCAA Championships.

Langley graduated from MTSU with a degree in exercise science, and was a two-time Academic All-American and ITA Scholar-Athlete.

Ebony Panoho is a graduate student assistant for the Sun Devil women's tennis program and former Sun Devil tennis standout. The Brisbane, Australia native won the Pac-12 doubles championship in her senior season with teammate Alexandra Osborne to give ASU its first conference doubles title. She once partnered with 2003 U.S. Open champion Andy Roddick for a mixed doubles exhibition match.

Alexandra Osborne recently graduated from Arizona State after an illustrious career on the court for the Sun Devils. Along with claiming ASU's first ever conference doubles title, Osborne earned the Bill Kajikawa Female Athlete of the Year Award during her senior season, and earned the honor of ITA scholar athlete in 2016 as a junior. She is a native of Sydney, Australia.

Lindy Kyger is the Sun Devils' athletic trainer. She joined ASU this past fall after graduating from the University of South Carolina with a degree in athletic training in 2017. Kryger was born in Pennsylvania, grew up in Massachusetts. She will graduate in 2019 with a master's in higher and post secondary education.
