Eight straight at home is the next goal

The Sun Devils have won seven straight at home after going undefeated at home last year for just the second time since 1997 (also 6-0 in 2004). As ASU takes on Texas State in a TNT matchup, the team wants to keep its momentum going. The Sun Devils sold out their season opener for the first time since 1998, and broke the student attendance record set 11 seasons ago. ASU topped Texas State last year in an ESPN

Thursday night game that drew almost 1 million viewers. ASU trailed 21-7 with 3:46 in the second quarter before coming back to win 31-28. It was the program's largest comeback on the road since overcoming a 16-point deficit against UTSA in 2016. After allowing 21 points and 249 yards of offense in the first half, ASU gave up only seven points and 141 yards after halftime, and Brian Ward's defense held Texas State to 27 yards and zero points to seal the victory in the fourth quarter.

Eric Allen
for ASU

Eric Allen: NFL 2025 Hall of Fame inductee

ASU Hall of Famer (2008) Eric Allen was named to the NFL's 2025 Hall of Fame Class. Taken as the 30th overall pick in the 1988 NFL Draft, his career spanned 14 seasons and included 217 games, 214 of which he started for the Philadelphia Eagles, New Orleans Saints and Oakland Raiders.

Allen was a six-time Pro Bowler and earned second-team All-Pro honors twice. In nine playoff games, Allen recorded four interceptions – one of them a pick-six – and solidified himself in history as his eight career pick-sixes were tied for third most in history at the time of his retirement.

Coach Dillingham

Arizona State ushered in a new era of Sun Devil Football with alumnus Kenny Dillingham named as the 26th head coach of the program on Nov. 27, 2022.

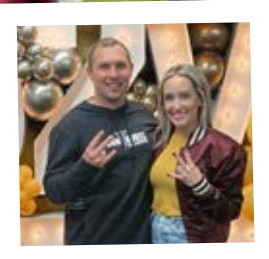

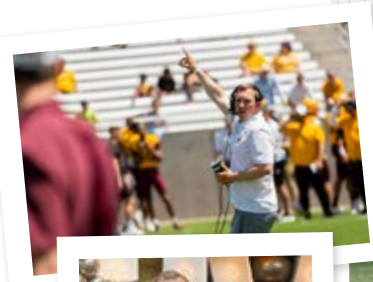

Two seasons after he was hired, Sun Devil Football has become a championship team.

In 2024, the team had an undefeated home season for the first time since 2004, a Big 12 Championship and a bevy of players who took to ASU's coaching and delivered, with several back for the 2025 season.

Kenny and his wife, Bri, also a Sun Devil graduate, have a son, Kent.

“I want to see all of our sports win. I want to see the university succeed. I want to see people excited in the Valley about ASU sports. I’m just one of the pieces of this big puzzle that we’re piecing together.”

—KENNY DILLINGHAM,
HEAD COACH,
ASU FOOTBALL

What a season!

- 2024 Big 12 Coach of the Year
- First ASU outright conference title since 1996
- First undefeated home season (6-0) since 2004
- Overall attendance up 28%, student attendance up 45%
- For the first time in school history, student attendance topped 10,000 in back-to-back games

Clockwise: Kenny Dillingham in action; ASU's Peach Bowl appearance vs. Texas was the first College Football Playoff game in school history; with his wife, Bri.

History and traditions

A rich culture of unique traditions has grown around Sun Devil Athletics since 1899. Here are some of the most popular.

The Territorial Cup

The ASU and U of A rivalry culminates in the Territorial Cup, the oldest rivalry trophy in college football. The cup was first awarded in 1899, 13 years before Arizona became a state. After disappearing for decades, the original trophy was found at the ASU Alumni Association in 1980.

The series now encompasses the 22 Division I sports in which both schools compete; the university with the most points at year's end earns the trophy.

The fight song

“Maroon and Gold” was composed in 1948 by Felix E. McKernan, director of the Sun Devil Marching Band. Here are the lyrics:
 Fight, Devils down the field
 Fight with your might and don't ever yield
 Long may our colors

Arizona State has won six of the past eight Territorial Cup football matchups, including last year's.

outshine all others

Echo from the buttes, give 'em hell Devils!
 Cheer, cheer for A-S-U
 Fight for the old Maroon
 For it's hail, hail, the gang's all here
 And it's onward to victory!

Ring the bell

After every triumph, the Sun Devils ring the victory bell to represent the season's wins. ■

Spirit Squad

ASU has had other mascots, but none of them captured the hearts of ASU fans or amplified their voices like Sparky the Sun Devil, now 79 years old. Along with the Spirit Squad, which is made up of the university's official cheer and dance team and the Sun Devil Marching Band, Sparky cheers on ASU's 26 Division I athletics teams.

Football fashion: 1896 to now

When Coach “Cap” Irish first took the field with the unnamed team he founded at the Arizona Territorial Normal School in 1896, ASU football was born. The next 13 decades brought new team names – Owls, Bulldogs, Sun Devils – and uniforms that evolved from utilitarian to spectacular.

Here’s a look back at designs over the years.

1902 The 1902 team wore pads inside the uniforms, leather helmets, a knit jersey against the skin and a turtleneck sweater with “N” for Normal School.

1930s

1975 Head Coach Frank Kush.

1999 Todd Heap, who set an ASU tight ends’ record with 115 receptions, wears a maroon jersey and gold pants.

2025

All 2025 jerseys feature a Big 12 patch and, on some, a Tillman Leadership Council patch.

Timeline: major milestones in college football fashion

1890s Stretchy materials
 Early teams wore turtlenecks, then changed to jersey fabric, a tightly woven natural material (silk or wool) that stretched, allowing players more movement. Jerseys also fit the body better, leaving less for opponents to grab.

1900s Small pads over
 Pads became essential. “Light padding and padding like a chest plate would be applied on top of the jersey around this time,” said Kevin Jones, curator at ASU FIDM, specializing in sports fashion.

1940s Synthetics
 Synthetic materials developed during World War II could wick away perspiration and stretch in any direction, fitting perfectly over pads “without any extra fabric that could get caught during tackling,” Jones said.

2000s 2000–10 Multiple uniforms
 Teams adopted more than just home and away uniforms, rolling out three or four total themes and even more combinations when paired with various helmet designs.

The future What’s next?
 More technology, such as uniform additions that can keep certain parts of the body cooler.

Commissioner's Cup

In its inaugural year in the Big 12, Arizona State University's athletic department won the Commissioner's Cup, awarded to the conference program that best combines athletic and academic excellence as well as community service efforts.

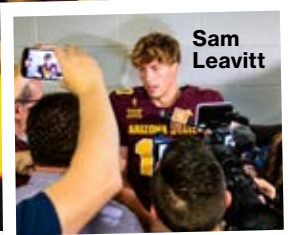

Four Sun Devil teams – football, men's and women's swimming and diving, and volleyball – won conference championships in 2024–25.

On the academic side, the average cumulative GPA for all of ASU's student-athletes in the spring of 2025 was 3.37, and 48% of ASU's student-athletes made the Dean's List. In addition, 82% of student-athletes had a semester or cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher, and 135 student-athletes earned a 4.0 semester or cumulative GPA.

"I'm just incredibly proud of our department," said ASU Athletics Director Graham Rossini. "Most importantly, I think it's a good validation that we're on our way."

About ASU

Michael M. Crow became the 16th president of ASU in July 2002, and has spearheaded ASU's rapid and groundbreaking transformative evolution into one of the world's best public metropolitan research universities. As a model "New American University," ASU simultaneously demonstrates comprehensive excellence, inclusivity representative of the ethnic and socioeconomic diversity of the United States, and consequential societal impact.

Graham Rossini, a two-time Sun Devil alumnus, was named ASU's athletics director in May 2024. In his first year, ASU joined the Big 12, captured the Commissioner's Cup, earned four league championships and advanced 15 teams to NCAA postseason play. A veteran of 20-plus years in sports, including 13 with the Arizona Diamondbacks, Rossini leads with a focus on talent development, fan engagement and community connection.
