Women's Tennis heads to College Station for ITA Kickoff Weekend

TEMPE – Sun Devil Women's Tennis heads on the road to compete in two matches at Mitchell Tennis Center in College Station, Texas, as part of ITA Kickoff Weekend. The team will open against TCU on Saturday, Jan. 24 at 12 p.m. MST, before facing either Michigan State or No. 2 Texas A&M on Sunday, Jan. 25 at 12 p.m. MST.

The matches will not be streamed, however, live stats can be tracked on IonCourt and StatBroadcast for both matches. ITA Kickoff Weekend is part of the ITA National Team Indoor Championships where 16 teams qualify to compete for the national indoor championship.

Junior Emilija Tverijonaite is 4-0 overall and 1-0 in dual matches to start the spring, while Freshman Zlata Bartanusz is 4-2 overall and 2-1 in dual matches, Junior Karsyn Evans is 3-2 overall and 2-0 in dual matches and Graduate Vivian Ovrootsky is 2-0 in dual matches. In doubles, Tverijonaite and Ovrootsky are 3-0 in dual matches this spring.

ASU will face TCU in a non-conference matchup before facing the Horned Frogs again on February 27 in Fort Worth, Texas, in their conference opener.

Extravagant Emilija

Junior Emilija Tverijonaite had another successful fall season, going 13-5 and a third place finish at ITA SW Regionals for the second year in a row. Tverijonaite opened the spring with three straight wins and defeated No. 17 Valerie Ray of Vanderbilt in straight sets for the highest ranked win of her career.

Following the team's opening weekend, Tverijonaite defeated #16 Hossam Salah of USC, 6-1, 6-1 for her second straight top-20 victory, earning her Big 12 Player of the Week honors.

With three wins last weekend in Tennessee, she reached 60 career wins, becoming the 39th Sun Devil to reach the mark. Tverijonaite has won 72.2 percent of singles matches and was named onto the All-Big 12 first team last season.

Texas to Tempe:

Graduate Vivian Ovrootsky comes from a four-year tenure in Texas winning a Big 12 individual title in 2024 at the No. 5 spot in singles and was part of Texas' 2022 National Championship team with current assistant coach Charlotte Chavatipon. Following the fall season, Ovrootsky is ranked No. 76 in singles by the ITA and had a 12-3 singles record, surpassing 80 career wins. She won the Battle of the Bay consolation draw, racking up four straight wins.

In the Rankings:

In the end of fall rankings, Tverijonaite is ranked No. 42 in singles and Ovrootsky is No. 76 following a 12-3 record in the fall.

About Last Season...

In Jamea Jackson's first season, she took the Sun Devils to the quarterfinals of the Big 12 Tournament as the team qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the 37th straight time. The team defeated Ole Miss in the first round to make their second straight round of 32 appearance.

Tverijonaite, junior Sara Svetac were named to the All-Big 12 first team for singles. Lily Taylor and Patricija Spaka made the All-Big 12 second team for doubles. Taylor also was named to the freshman team for going 11-8 in duals and 12-6 in doubles play.

Freshman Debuts:

Freshman Zlata Bartanusz joined the team in the fall went 5-8 in singles. She got two wins last weekend in Knoxville and is expected to make her debut this weekend. Freshman Sarang Im played last weekend at the Tennessee Invite and won her first singles match, coming from a set down to defeat Rahumkhani (Baylor) 3-6, 6-4, 6-4 for her first collegiate win. Bartanusz and Lim helped clinch the doubles point against UC Davis as Lim won her first dual match, 6-1, 6-1 over Vivian Gallaway of UC Davis.

JAMEA JACKSON

Head Coach

Record at ASU.....17-11
Career Coaching Record.....50-25
Hometown Atlanta, G.A.
Education..... Oklahoma State
Bachelor's..... University Studies

Jamea Jackson joined the Sun Devils as Women's Tennis Head Coach, announced on June 4, 2024.

In her first season at the helm of Sun Devil Women's Tennis, she led a young squad with three freshman, three sophomores and a senior to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and the quarterfinal appearance in the Big 12 Tournament. At times playing three freshman in the lineup, coach Jackson led the squad to ranked wins over No. 37 TCU, No. 29 San Diego and No. 15 Pepperdine and went 8-1 at Whiteman Tennis Center.

Jackson also helped sophomore Emilija Tverijonaite qualify for the NCAA Singles Championship and became the first Sun Devil to qualify for the tournament since 2021. She garnered four All-Big 12 selections, including two first-team singles players (Sara Svetac and Tverijonaite) and helped Lily Taylor earn All-Big 12 freshman team honors.

Jackson is the third head coach in program history since 1954, taking over after legendary head coach Sheila McInerney announced her retirement in May. She comes to Tempe after being the head coach of the Princeton Tigers for two seasons, leading them to back-to-back trips to the Round of 32 (2023,2024) in the NCAA Tournament, along with two Ivy League titles (2023, 2024).

The Georgia native was awarded 2024 Ivy League Coach of the Year, where the Tigers reached as high as No. 30 in the ITA Rankings this past season. Jackson went 33-14 overall in her two seasons and led the Tigers to a 13-1 conference record.

In her time at Princeton, she coached five All-Ivy selections, including Daria Freyman, who reached No. 2 in the ITA Singles rankings and earned Ivy League Player of the Year, All-American Honors and ITA Northeast Region Player of the Year in 2023.

Jackson is a former professional and brings talent from the national and collegiate levels. Before going to Princeton, Jackson served as a national coach for nine years (2013-2022) with the United States Tennis Association (USTA) to recruit top American talent for developing the nation's best junior and pro tennis players. She trained 2022 ITA Rookie of the Year Connie Ma and captained the U16 team to the Jr. Billie Jean King Cup Team Championship in 2019.

Jackson served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State from 2009 to 2013 at Oklahoma State University. In her four years, she helped the Cowgirls go from unranked to a top-25 program and managed to recruit the No. 4 recruiting class in 2011, which led to the Cowgirls playing in their first Big 12 Championship in more than a decade in 2013.

Jackson played professionally on the Women's Tennis Association (WTA) Tour from March 2003 to August 2009 and achieved a career-high ranking of No. 43 in 2006. She competed in all four Grand Slams and represented the red, white and blue in the Fed Cup competition in 2006. During her professional career, she notched top-20 wins over grand slam winner Maria Sharapova, Marion Bartoli, Amy Frazier, Maria Kirilenko and Jelena Jankovic.

Coach Jackson's career dual record: All-Big 12 Selections under Coach Jackson

2026 – 2-1 (ASU)

Charlotte Chavatipon

Assistant Coach

Education.....Texas '23
HometownFullerton, Calif.
Bachelors:.....Applied Movement Science

Sun Devil Women's Tennis and head coach Jamea Jackson announced the addition of Charlotte Chavatipon in February of 2025. Following the conclusion of the 2025 season, she was promoted to assistant coach by head coach Jamea Jackson ahead of the 2025-26 campaign.

Before joining the coaching staff in Tempe, Chavatipon spent four years playing at Texas, where she helped the Longhorns win two national championships in 2021 and 2022.

In her career, she went 90-34 in singles play and 79-29 in doubles during her tenure in Austin, including making the NCAA All-Tournament Teams in both singles and doubles in 2021 and 2022.

In her senior season, she went a perfect 10-0 in conference play and had an impressive 17-5 dual match record from the No. 3 spot. She played primarily alongside Vivian Ovrootsky in doubles, where they both compiled an 18-4 record. Chavatipon earned a spot on the All-Big 12 second team in singles and earned an individual Big 12 crown in the conference with seven wins in the No. 3 spot.

In 2023, she posted a 16-8 dual match record in singles, where she primarily played from the No. 2 spot, and an 18-10 mark in doubles. She was named to the All-Big 12 team in doubles and singles, including being named an ITA Scholar-Athlete. The California native would finish the season ranked No. 33 in the year-end ITA rankings in doubles.

In her first two seasons, she helped Texas win national championships, where as a sophomore she recorded three top-75 victories in doubles and went 22-4 during the spring. In the NCAA Tournament, she recorded three straight wins to cap the season and help clinch the doubles point against No. 2 Oklahoma in the national title match.

As a freshman, she went 25-1 in singles play and finished her first season in Austin on an 18-match winning streak. In the NCAA Championship, she clinched the doubles point and was the first player off the court in singles, helping Texas win the national title.

A top-ranked recruit from California, she competed at the 2019 French Open and U.S Open as a junior

Diego Nava

Assistant Coach

Education.....LMU '21
Hometown.....Woodland Hills, Calif.
Bachelors.....Psychology

Diego Nava was hired as Assistant Coach on July 22, 2025 announced by Sun Devil Women's Tennis and head coach Jamea Jackson.

Coming from the University of Louisville, where he spent two seasons, he helped mentor three players in the ITA top 100 rankings this past 2024-25 season.

In 2024, he assisted the development of the All-American duo of Natan Rodrigues and Etienne Donnet, who made the semifinals at the NCAA Doubles Championships and finished with a program-best No. 4 in the year-end ITA Doubles Rankings this past May.

"I'm so excited to welcome Diego as our new assistant coach for the women's tennis program," said head coach Jamea Jackson. "He brings an exceptional level of experience and insight to our team and I'm confident our student-athletes will thrive under his guidance."

Before joining Louisville, Nava spent 18 months at the United States Tennis Association (USTA), working as an independent contractor with the top junior and professional American players and helping them train at the USTA Player Development campus in Orlando.

Nava played collegiate tennis for five seasons (2017-22), spending four seasons at Loyola Marymount and being ranked as high as No. 32 nationally in doubles play as a sophomore. The California native transferred to Xavier for one season, during which he reached a career-best ITA ranking in singles, ranking No. 51 in the country.

Nava earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from LMU, then earned a master's degree at Xavier in sports administration before entering the coaching profession in tennis. Nava's hometown is Woodland Hills, California.
