Arizona State Sun Devils
5-5-0 Overall (1-3-0 NCHC)

#5 Minnesota Duluth Bulldogs
9-3-2 Overall (4-2-0 NCHC)

Hockey Returns to NCHC Action at No. 5 Minnesota Duluth

DULUTH, Minn. – Sun Devil Hockey (5-5-0, 1-3-0 NCHC) returns from its bye week to face its second consecutive top-five opponent as Arizona State travels to No. 5 Minnesota Duluth (9-3-2, 4-2-0 NCHC) for a two-game series on Nov. 20-21 at AMSOIL Arena.

The Sun Devils look to bounce back following a pair of losses to No. 4 Denver, including a 1-0 overtime defeat in the series finale. Sophomore goaltender Samuel Urban combined for 85 saves against the Pioneers, highlighted by a career-high 45 stops in the series opener. Sophomore forward Daniel Shlaine returns to Duluth after spending his freshman season with the Bulldogs, where he recorded 10 points (5G, 5A) in 2025-26.

SCHEDULE
Friday, Nov. 20: 6:07 p.m. MST
Saturday, Nov. 21: 4:07 p.m. MST

WHERE TO WATCH
Both games will be available on FOX 10+ and NCHC.tv. Fans can also listen on FOX Sports 910 AM with Tyler Paley and Alex Coil on the call.

OPPONENT OUTLOOK
No. 5 Minnesota Duluth enters the weekend on a three-game winning streak, including consecutive 4-0 shutouts over St. Cloud State. Defenseman Ty Hanson leads the Bulldogs with 19 points (10G, 9A), while goaltender Carl Axelsson leads the nation with five shutouts, a 1.07 goals-against average and a .951 save percentage.

HISTORY
Arizona State holds a 5-4-1 advantage in the all-time series, winning five of the last eight meetings. The Sun Devils swept the Bulldogs in the 2025 NCHC Tournament quarterfinals, highlighted by a 6-5 overtime victory after overcoming a three-goal deficit to clinch their first NCHC playoff series win.

ASU split last season's series in Duluth, earning a 6-3 victory over the then-No. 5 Bulldogs on Dec. 13, 2025. Bennett Schimek recorded five points (3G, 2A), while Samuel Urban made 37 saves.

QUICK HITS
- Daniel Shlaine returns to Duluth after scoring twice against Arizona State in last season's series. He has seven points (4G, 3A) through 10 games as a Sun Devil.

-Freshman defenseman Jonas Woo is tied for the team lead with nine points (1G, 8A), with his eight assists ranking fourth among NCAA freshmen.

-Four of Arizona State's five victories this season have come on the road, where the Sun Devils hold a 4-2-0 record.

-ASU ranks fourth nationally in penalty-kill percentage (91.2%), while Minnesota Duluth leads the nation at 94.4%. The Sun Devils are also 5-0-0 when scoring a power-play goal.

-Nathan Behm leads the Sun Devils with five goals, ranking seventh nationally among NCAA freshmen.

-Senior forward Sean McGurn ranks fifth nationally in faceoff percentage, winning 65.4% of his draws this season.

- Head coach Dave Hakstol joined North Dakota's coaching staff in 2000, succeeding Scott Sandelin as an assistant coach after Sandelin departed to become Minnesota Duluth's head coach. The two later coached against each other for 11 seasons (2004-15), with Hakstol compiling a 23-9-3 record against the Bulldogs.

SUN DEVIL NOTES

DOOR TO DOOR SUN DEVIL

One of just two four-year Sun Devils on the 2026-27 roster, senior captain Kyle Smolen continues to climb Arizona State's all-time leaderboards, recording 71 career points (30G, 41A) through 114 games. The Crystal Lake, Illinois, native has spent his entire collegiate career in Tempe, becoming just the fourth Sun Devil in program history to reach 30 career goals, joining Johnny Walker (70), Matthew Kopperud (64) and Brinson Pasichnuk (39), while becoming the 10th player to surpass 70 career points.

Smolen reached the 30-goal milestone with a power-play tally at St. Cloud State on Oct. 30, his fourth goal of the 2026-27 campaign. Earlier this season, his 29th career goal against Holy Cross on Oct. 10 moved him into sole possession of fourth in program history, surpassing Bennett Schimek, Lukas Sillinger and Josh Doan, who each finished with 28.

The senior's nine career power-play goals rank fifth all-time at ASU, leaving him one shy of tying Josh Doan (10) for fourth. Smolen entered his senior campaign with 521 career faceoff victories, the fourth-most in program history, while his career-best 30-point season (12G, 18A) in 2024-25 included a +12 rating, tied for the sixth-best single-season mark in Sun Devil history.

TWO CLAPS AND A WOO

Ten games into his collegiate career, freshman defenseman Jonas Woo has burst onto the national scene, recording nine points (1G, 8A) while averaging 0.90 points per game. His eight assists lead Arizona State, while his nine points are tied for the team lead with Jack Beck.

The Winnipeg, Manitoba, native has registered three multi-assist performances through 10 games, including two assists against Holy Cross on Oct. 10 and another pair in ASU's 3-2 victory at St. Cloud State on Oct. 30. Woo assisted on both first-period power-play goals against the Huskies, including senior captain Kyle Smolen's opening tally and Ben Muthersbaugh's game-tying goal. He added another helper on Richard Baran's goal the following night.

Selected by the Columbus Blue Jackets in the sixth round (No. 185 overall) of the 2026 NHL Draft, Woo joined the Sun Devils following a record-setting season with the WHL's Medicine Hat Tigers. His 86 points (29G, 57A) in 56 games set the franchise's single-season scoring record for a defenseman, earning Eastern Conference Second All-Star Team honors.

SIX DEGREES OF SHLAINE

Sophomore forward Daniel Shlaine began the 2026-27 season with a career-best six-game point streak (4G, 2A), recording at least one point in each of Arizona State's first six contests. The streak matched a season-opening achievement by former Sun Devil captain Colin Theisen, who recorded points in six consecutive games from Oct. 8-23, 2021.

After totaling 10 points (5G, 5A) in 37 games during his freshman campaign at Minnesota Duluth in 2025-26, Shlaine has already registered seven points (4G, 3A) through 10 games with ASU. His four goals are just one shy of matching his entire goal total from last season, while his seven points represent 70% of his previous season's production.

Shlaine follows in the footsteps of his older brother, Artem, who recorded 38 points (17G, 21A) in 31 games during the 2024-25 season at ASU, earning AHCA All-America and First-Team All-NCHC honors before beginning his professional career. Artem signed a one-year, two-way NHL contract with the Dallas Stars in July 2026 and currently plays for their AHL affiliate, the Texas Stars.

The brothers shared a memorable moment on Oct. 16, 2026, when both found the back of the net on the same night. Daniel opened the scoring just 2:29 into ASU's 5-4 victory at UMass Lowell, while Artem scored the opening goal for the Texas Stars just 3:27 into their matchup against the Manitoba Moose. Artem also added an assist that evening, giving him a two-point performance.

URBAN LEGEND

Sophomore goaltender Samuel Urban has provided a steady presence between the pipes for Arizona State, posting a 4-4-0 record with a .922 save percentage and 2.88 goals-against average through eight starts this season.

The Dolne Kockovce, Slovakia, native has turned aside 271 shots while recording one shutout. Urban opened the 2026-27 campaign by stopping all 37 shots he faced in ASU's 5-0 victory at Lindenwood on Oct. 2, securing his second career collegiate shutout. His first came against Miami during the 2025-26 season.

The sophomore delivered another standout performance against No. 4 Denver on Nov. 6, turning aside a career-high 45 shots in a 6-3 defeat. Urban combined for 85 saves across the two-game series against the Pioneers, including 40 stops in the 1-0 overtime loss on Nov. 8.

Urban's freshman campaign also featured a place in the program record book, as his 461 saves ranked ninth on ASU's single-season list. He added two assists, tying Joey Daccord's program record for assists by a goaltender in a single season.

Before beginning his collegiate career, Samuel Urban represented Slovakia at back-to-back IIHF World Junior Championships in 2024 and 2025. After serving primarily as a backup in 2024, Urban took on a larger role in 2025, appearing in four games and posting a 2-2-0 record with a 3.16 goals-against average and .871 save percentage.

Slovakia reached the quarterfinals in both tournaments, finishing sixth each year. Urban also represented his home country at the 2023 IIHF U18 World Championship, helping Slovakia reach the semifinals for the first time since 2003, highlighted by a 54-save performance in a quarterfinal victory over Finland.

BECK TO BUSINESS

When Arizona State has needed a decisive goal, sophomore forward Jack Beck has delivered. The Richmond Hill, Ontario, native has scored two game-winning goals through eight contests, accounting for two of ASU's five victories while sharing the team lead with nine points (3G, 6A). His two game-winners rank tied for second nationally.

Beck delivered his first collegiate overtime winner just 46 seconds into the extra period against Holy Cross on Oct. 10, lifting the Sun Devils to a 5-4 victory after overcoming a two-goal third-period deficit. He struck again at St. Cloud State on Oct. 30, breaking a 2-2 tie at 3:45 of the third period to secure ASU's first NCHC victory of the season. The sophomore finished the contest with two points (1G, 1A).

Named an alternate captain ahead of the 2026-27 campaign, Beck has already surpassed the eight points (5G, 3A) he recorded during an injury-shortened freshman season in 2025-26. His nine points through eight games put him just one shy of reaching

Beck has already surpassed the eight points (5G, 3A) he recorded during an injury-shortened freshman season in 2025-26. His nine points through eight games put him just one shy of reaching double digits for the first time in his collegiate career.

Beck is the younger brother of former Sun Devil defenseman Noah Beck, who recorded 33 points (5G, 28A) during the 2024-25 season, the third-most in a single season by a defenseman in program history. Noah earned Second-Team All-NCHC honors before signing an NHL entry-level contract with the San Jose Sharks in March 2025.

MAMA, THERE GOES THAT MAN

Junior forward Ben Muthersbaugh has supplied Arizona State with one of the nation's most productive power-play threats, scoring four goals and adding three assists for seven points through eight games. Three of his four goals have come with the man advantage, tying him for the national lead in power-play goals. Muthersbaugh also ranks among the nation's leaders with 39 shots on goal, averaging 4.88 per game.

Before joining ASU, Muthersbaugh recorded 64 points (32G, 32A) in 72 career games at Union, highlighted by a 36-point sophomore campaign (19G, 17A) in 2025-26. His 19 goals tied for fifth among ECAC Hockey skaters, while his 36 points tied for sixth. The Gilford, New Hampshire, native led Union with 150 shots on goal, averaging 4.17 per game, and registered at least one point in 22 of 36 appearances. He never went more than two consecutive games without a point.

Muthersbaugh's collegiate career began with a 28-point freshman season (13G, 15A) that earned him ECAC Hockey All-Rookie Team honors. On Oct. 18, 2024, he recorded his first collegiate hat trick as part of a five-point performance (3G, 2A) against Mercyhurst, becoming Union's first freshman to score a hat trick since 2010 and the program's first player to record five points in a game since 2016.

Through 80 career NCAA appearances, Muthersbaugh has accumulated 71 points (36G, 35A), including 13 power-play goals and six game-winning tallies.

HAFELE'S FLYING START

Freshman forward Landon Hafele wasted little time finding his place in Arizona State's offense, recording five points (1G, 4A) through his first five collegiate Can you games. The Fairbanks, Alaska, native entered the scoresheet in each of his first two appearances, including a two-assist performance at Lindenwood on Oct. 3 that gave him three points during his debut weekend.

Hafele collected his fourth assist of the season on Kyle Smolen's game-tying goal against Holy Cross on Oct. 10 before scoring his first NCAA goal in ASU's 5-4 victory at UMass Lowell on Oct. 16. His five points through five games were tied for third among NCAA Division I freshmen at the time. Through eight appearances, Hafele has totaled five points (1G, 4A), ranking among the Sun Devils' leading freshman scorers.

Selected by the Winnipeg Jets in the sixth round (No. 167 overall) of the 2026 NHL Draft, Hafele spent his final junior season with the USHL's Green Bay Gamblers, recording 42 points (15G, 27A). A product of the USA Hockey National Team Development Program, Hafele represented the United States at four international tournaments, earning gold medals at the 2024 U17 Five Nations Tournament and 2025 World Junior A Challenge. He was also selected to participate in the 2026 Chipotle All-American Game.

THE BEHMSHOW

Freshman forward Nathan Behm has emerged as ASU's leading goal scorers, finding the back of the net five times through his first ten collegiate games. The Calgary, Alberta, native is tied for the team lead in goals, with two coming on the power play.

Behm announced his arrival with a two-goal performance at Lindenwood on Oct. 3, scoring the first two goals of his NCAA career in ASU's 9-6 defeat. He added a power-play tally against Holy Cross on Oct. 10 to help spark the Sun Devils' comeback victory before scoring his fourth goal of the season at UMass Lowell on Oct. 17. At the conclusion of that series, Behm's four goals led all NCAA Division I freshmen through six games.

Selected by the Chicago Blackhawks in the third round (No. 66 overall) of the 2025 NHL Draft, Behm joined ASU following a productive WHL career with the Kamloops Blazers. He recorded 86 points during his final junior season and surpassed 30 goals in each of his final two campaigns. Behm finished his Kamloops career with more than 180 points, including 81 goals.

FROM THE COAST TO THE VALLEY

Jack O'Brien makes his way to the collegiate ranks following two seasons of professional hockey in the ECHL. O'Brien's arrival was made possible by an NCAA rule change effective Aug. 1, 2025, allowing men's hockey players with prior major junior or professional experience to retain collegiate eligibility, provided they did not receive compensation exceeding actual and necessary expenses before enrolling. The forward was granted two seasons of NCAA eligibility after previously competing in the WHL and ECHL.

O'Brien recorded 51 points (28G, 23A) in 62 games between the Iowa Heartlanders and Atlanta Gladiators during the 2025-26 campaign, setting a professional career high in goals. His scoring résumé includes a four-goal, five-point performance against Cincinnati on Nov. 8, 2025, along with six points (3G, 3A) in six Kelly Cup Playoff appearances with Atlanta. Before his professional career, he accumulated 194 points (63G, 131A) in 255 regular-season games with the WHL's Portland Winterhawks.

The forward reached his first NCAA milestone on Oct. 16, scoring his first collegiate goal during ASU's 5-4 victory at UMass Lowell. Through ten games, O'Brien has contributed four points (1G, 3A).

HOUDINI

Sophomore forward Olivier Houde arrives in Tempe following a standout freshman season at Lindenwood, finishing second on the team with 28 points (13G, 15A) in 30 games while posting a team-best +14 rating. Houde recorded eight multi-point performances and was named Division I Independent Player of the Month after tallying 11 points (5G, 6A) in January. His first collegiate goal came in a 4-3 victory over No. 5 Denver.

Prior to his NCAA career, Houde established himself as a consistent offensive threat in the QMJHL. He capped his major junior career with Victoriaville in 2024-25, producing 56 points (28G, 28A) in 58 games and averaging 0.97 points per game after previously developing into a 60-point scorer with Cape Breton.

Houde's production carried almost seamlessly into college hockey, going from 0.97 points per game in his final QMJHL season to 0.93 as a freshman at Lindenwood. Across his last two seasons between Victoriaville and Lindenwood, Houde has combined for 84 points (41G, 43A) in 88 games, including 41 goals.

NHL DEVILS

DEVILS AT THE NHL DRAFT

Sun Devil Hockey saw three skaters selected in the National Hockey League Entry Draft on Saturday at KeyBank Center, marking the second consecutive year the program has had at least three players drafted by NHL organizations.

Sophomore defenseman Lincoln Kuehne was the first Sun Devil to hear his name called, going to the New York Islanders in the fourth round with the 109th overall pick.

The incoming freshmen duo of forward Landon Hafele and defenseman Jonas Woo were both selected in the sixth round to round out ASU's three draft picks. Hafele was taken by the Winnipeg Jets with the 167th overall pick, while Woo went to the Columbus Blue Jackets with the 185th overall selection.

SUN DEVIL NOTES

HOMEGROWN DEVILS
For Mesa native Logan Morrell and Scottsdale native Teddy Merrill, playing for Arizona State represents a return to the program they grew up watching. Both families held Sun Devil Hockey season tickets during the program's days at Oceanside Ice Arena, giving the two Valley products an early connection to ASU long before either put on a Sun Devil sweater.

Morrell grew up attending games at Oceanside before developing with the Phoenix Jr. Coyotes and eventually beginning his collegiate career at Michigan Tech.

Merrill's connection to Arizona State extends beyond the rink. His late father, Scott Merrill, played baseball for the Sun Devils and was a member of ASU's 1977 College World Series championship team before being drafted by the Cincinnati Reds. Teddy's jersey No. 17 is in honor of Scott's old baseball jersey number. Teddy grew up attending Sun Devil Hockey games with his family at Oceanside and developed locally with the Phoenix Jr. Coyotes before eventually spending three seasons with the USHL's Dubuque Fighting Saints. He captained Dubuque in 2025-26 while producing 60 points (30G, 30A) in 60 games.

Merrill concluded his three-year USHL career with 99 points (43G, 56A) and earned the league's Curt Hammer Award following his final season, recognizing outstanding performance, pride and determination on and off the ice. Now, Merrill and Morrell return to the Valley to represent the same Sun Devil Hockey program their families once watched together at Oceanside.

USHL STANDOUTS
In addition to Landon Hafele, Arizona State welcomed three freshmen from the USHL in Michael Barron, Teddy Merrill and Jack Willson, who combined for 175 points in 179 games during the 2025-26 regular season. Barron led the trio with 68 points (18G, 50A) in 62 games, followed by Merrill's 60 points (30G, 30A) and Willson's 47 points (12G, 35A).

Barron and Merrill formed a productive combination with Dubuque, finishing first and second on the Fighting Saints in scoring while combining for 128 points. Merrill served as team captain, while Barron wore an alternate captain's letter under former Sun Devil defenseman and Dubuque assistant coach Jacob Semik.

Willson earned USHL Defenseman of the Year honors after finishing second among league defensemen with 47 points. His 27 power-play points highlighted his offensive contributions from the blue line, while his 47 total points surpassed his production from his previous three USHL seasons combined.

Barron recorded his first NCAA point with an assist on Richard Baran's goal against St. Cloud State on Oct. 31, while Merrill and Willson have also made their collegiate debuts.

HOUDINI
Sophomore forward Olivier Houde brought his scoring touch to Arizona State after a standout freshman season at Lindenwood, where he recorded 28 points (13G, 15A) in 30 games while posting a team-best +14 rating.

Houde wasted little time finding the scoresheet in maroon and gold, scoring his first goal as a Sun Devil in ASU's 5-0 season-opening victory at Lindenwood on Oct. 2. He struck again against Holy Cross on Oct. 10, opening the scoring in the Sun Devils' eventual 5-4 overtime victory. Through six appearances this season, Houde has registered three points (2G, 1A).

The Quebec native recorded eight multi-point performances during his freshman campaign at Lindenwood, including an 11-point January that earned him Division I Independent Player of the Month honors. His first career NCAA goal came against No. 5 Denver in a 4-3 victory.

Houde's collegiate production followed an impressive final QMJHL season with Victoriaville, where he totaled 56 points (28G, 28A) in 58 games. Across his final junior campaign and first NCAA season, Houde combined for 84 points (41G, 43A) in 88 contests.

KEEP YOUR CHYN TUCKED
Freshman forward Lukas Sawchyn wasted little time delivering a memorable collegiate milestone, scoring his first NCAA goal with 2:23 remaining in regulation to lift Arizona State past UMass Lowell, 5-4, on Oct. 16. The game-winning tally secured Dave Hakstol's first victory behind the Sun Devil bench and his first collegiate coaching win since March 2015 at North Dakota.

Sawchyn also collected an assist on Daniel Shlaine's opening goal against the River Hawks, recording his first collegiate multi-point performance in the same contest.

Before arriving in Tempe, Sawchyn paced the WHL's Edmonton Oil Kings with 88 points (27G, 61A) in 68 games during the 2025-26 season. His 61 assists marked a 21-assist improvement from the previous campaign, while his 88 points ranked tied for seventh in the league.

Sawchyn is also the younger brother of Gracyn Sawchyn, a second-round selection (No. 63 overall) by the Florida Panthers in the 2023 NHL Draft. The brothers previously shared the ice with Edmonton before Gracyn began his professional career in the Panthers organization.

LEADING THE WAY
Arizona State named its 2026-27 leadership group, as Kyle Smolen is set to serve as the Sun Devils' captain for the second consecutive season. He joins Dylan Hollman (2016-17, 2017-18), Tyler Busch (2018-19, 2019-20), Brinson Pasichnuk (2018-19, 2019-20) and Jacob Wilson (2020-21, 2021-22) as Sun Devils to serve as a captain in multiple seasons.

The alternate captain group features three returning Sun Devils in Sean McGurn, Jack Beck and Logan Morrell, while Ben Muthersbaugh earns a letter ahead of his first season in Tempe. McGurn will wear an "A" for the second consecutive season after serving as an alternate captain in 2025-26, when he recorded 13 points (4G, 9A) in 32 games. Morrell earns a letter for the first time after tallying 16 points (7G, 9A) in 36 games last season and becomes the fourth Arizona-born player to wear a letter for the Sun Devils, joining Josh Doan, Demetrios Koumontzis and Johnny Walker.

Beck also earns a letter for the first time after posting eight points (5G, 3A) in just 10 games during an injury-shortened freshman campaign, with three of his five goals coming on the power play. Muthersbaugh rounds out the leadership group ahead of his first season at Arizona State after totaling 64 points (32G, 32A) in 72 games across two seasons at Union, including a team-leading 19 goals and 36 points in 2025-26.

IN THE RAFTERS:
On Oct. 3, 2025 Sun Devil Hockey offically retired Joey Daccord's No. 35 jersey in its home opener against No. 6 Penn State. Honoring the first Sun Devil to sign an NHL contact with the Ottawa Sentors and plays for the Seattle Kraken.
In three seasons from 2016-2019, Daccord played in 82 games and finished his final season as a Sun Devil with a 21-13-1 record, .926 save percentage and 2.35 goals against average. Daccord helped backstop the Sun Devils to their first NCAA Tournament Appearance and owns multiple program records for goalie appearances, starts, saves and shutouts. Daccord graduated from ASU in 2020 with a B.S in Business Administration.
He was 199th overall in the 2015 NHL Draft by the Ottawa Senators, Daccord became the first ASU player to sign an NHL entry-level contract and the first to play in an NHL game in program history.

Entering his seventh season in the NHL and fifth year as a member of the Seattle Kraken, Daccord has a career save percentage of .906 and a 2.76 goals against average in The Show.

MULLETT ARENA
This state-of-the-art multipurpose building on the ASU campus opened in 2022 and offers fans the best college hockey experience in the country.

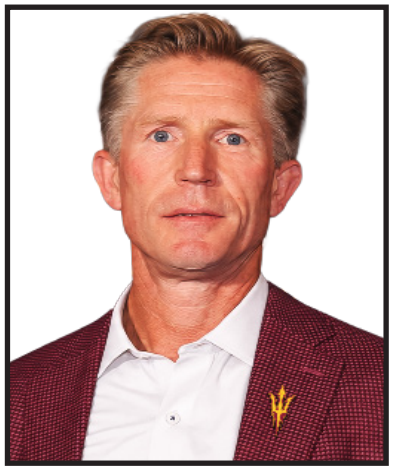

Mullett Arena also hosts other athletic events and competitions, including Sun Devil Wrestling, Volleyball and the Valley Suns, the NBA G League affiliate of the Phoenix Suns. Additionally, Mullett serves as a public venue for the university and community to host concerts, comedy shows, conferences, youth competitions and more.

The 5,000-seat, state-of-the-art venue includes two NHL regulation-size ice sheets, 20 luxury suites, a large club lounge and event-level premium club seats. The arena is the new home for Sun Devil Hockey, with more than 8,000 square feet set aside for ASU's locker room, weight room, lounge and coaches offices.

Adjacent to Mullett Arena is the Mountain America Community Iceplex, often called MACI, a community ice rink that serves as a practice ice sheet for the Sun Devil Hockey and the university's four club hockey teams. The MACI sheet is accessible to students, the community, youth and adult ice hockey programs at every level, providing an additional public sheet for youth hockey participation in one of the fastest-growing states in the country.

Contrary to popular belief, the arena honors Donald and Barbara Mullett — two benefactors of ASU — not the hairstyle often associated with hockey players.
Home Record since 2022: 53-33-6

HEAD COACH DAVE HAKSTOL – 1st Season

Sun Devil Hockey has named Dave Hakstol its head coach, bringing one of college hockey's most accomplished coaches back to the NCAA ranks. Hakstol comes to ASU following an extensive tenure behind the bench in the National Hockey League, Sun Devil Athletics Director Graham Rossini announced on October 15.

"We welcome Dave Hakstol and his family to Arizona State University. His success building championship-caliber programs, developing players for the highest level of the sport, and leading organizations in the NHL speaks to his knowledge of the game and his ability to develop talent," said Rossini. "We appreciate Dave's belief in ASU and look forward to supporting him as we continue to build Sun Devil Hockey into one of the nation's premier programs."

Hakstol, 58, brings more than three decades of coaching experience across the collegiate, professional, and junior hockey levels, including 11 seasons as head coach at the University of North Dakota and seven seasons as head coach of the NHL's Philadelphia Flyers and Seattle Kraken. During his tenure at North Dakota, Hakstol guided the program to 289 victories, seven NCAA Frozen Four appearances, and 11 consecutive NCAA Tournament berths, making the tournament every year of his tenure.

"This is a special opportunity and I couldn't be more excited to return to college hockey and bring a winning culture to Arizona State Sun Devil Hockey. Our goal is to grow a championship caliber program and we will," said Hakstol. Most recently an assistant coach with the Colorado Avalanche, Hakstol returns to the National Collegiate Hockey Conference (NCHC), where he previously led North Dakota to the 2014-15 regular-season championship and earned NCHC Herb Brooks Coach of the Year honors in his final as head coach at North Dakota.

Hakstol established himself as one of the nation's most successful collegiate coaches during his 11 seasons at North Dakota from 2004-15, compiling a 289-143-43 record and a .654 winning percentage in 475 games. Under his leadership, North Dakota reached the NCAA Tournament in each of his 11 seasons, advancing to the Frozen Four seven times, the most of any program nationally during that span. His teams made four consecutive Frozen Four appearances from 2005-08, including a trip to the national championship game in his first season as head coach in 2004-05.

Hakstol guided North Dakota to seven conference championships, capturing three regular-season titles and four WCHA tournament championships. He won regular-season titles in 2008-09 and 2010-11 as a member of the WCHA, followed by the 2014-15 NCHC championship. North Dakota also claimed four WCHA tournament titles in 2005-06, 2009-10, 2010-11 and 2011-12.

His success earned him eight finalist selections for the Spencer Penrose Award, presented annually to the nation's top collegiate coach. He was named WCHA Coach of the Year in 2008-09 and NCHC Herb Brooks Coach of the Year in 2014-15.

Beyond his teams' success on the ice, Hakstol established a reputation for developing student-athletes for professional hockey. During his tenure, North Dakota produced 42 NHL Draft selections, including eight first-round picks, and 20 of his former players had reached the NHL by the time he departed in 2015.

Among the notable NHL players Hakstol coached at North Dakota were three-time Stanley Cup champion Jonathan Toews, 2018 Stanley Cup champion T.J. Oshie, Team USA Olympic Gold Medalist Brock Nelson, longtime NHL forwards Travis Zajac and Drew Stafford, first-round NHL Draft selection Nick Schmaltz and two-time Stanley Cup champion Matt Greene.

Hakstol also coached Ryan Duncan, who captured the 2007 Hobey Baker Award as college hockey's top player. During the 2014-15 season, 46 of Hakstol's former North Dakota student-athletes competed professionally, further demonstrating the program's ability to develop talent for the next level.

His teams also achieved success in the classroom, with 117 student-athletes earning Academic All-Conference honors during his 11 seasons as head coach.

Following his success at North Dakota, Hakstol made the transition to the NHL in May 2015 when he was named head coach of the Philadelphia Flyers, becoming the first coach in more than three decades to move directly from an NCAA head-coaching position to an NHL head-coaching role.

Hakstol led Philadelphia from 2015-18, guiding the Flyers to Stanley Cup Playoff appearances in two of his three full seasons behind the bench. He compiled a 134-101-42 record during his tenure, including a postseason appearance in his inaugural NHL campaign.

After departing Philadelphia, Hakstol joined the Toronto Maple Leafs as an assistant coach in 2019, spending two seasons with the organization and working primarily with the team's defensemen.

In June 2021, Hakstol was selected as the first head coach in Seattle Kraken franchise history, tasked with leading the NHL expansion club into its inaugural season.

During the 2022-23 campaign, Hakstol guided Seattle to a 46-28-8 record and 100 points, securing the franchise's first Stanley Cup Playoff berth in just its second season. The Kraken went on to defeat the defending Stanley Cup champion Colorado Avalanche in seven games in the opening round, earning their first postseason series victory.

His leadership during Seattle's breakthrough season earned him a finalist nomination for the 2023 Jack Adams Award, presented annually to the NHL's top head coach.

Over his seven seasons as an NHL head coach with Philadelphia and Seattle, Hakstol compiled a 241-213-69 regular-season record and earned three Stanley Cup Playoff appearances. Hakstol later joined the Colorado Avalanche as an assistant coach in 2025, serving on Jared Bednar's staff before his return to collegiate hockey at ASU.

Before taking over at North Dakota, Hakstol spent four seasons as an assistant coach with the program from 2000-04, helping the team win WCHA regular-season championships in 2000-01 and 2003-04.

Before returning to his alma mater, Hakstol served as head coach and general manager of the Sioux City Musketeers of the United States Hockey League (USHL) from 1996 to 2000. He earned USHL Coach of the Year honors following the 1997-98 season. Hakstol has also gained international coaching experience with Team Canada, earning silver medals at the 2017 and 2019 IIHF World Championships as a member of the coaching staff.

A native of Warburg, Alberta, Canada, Hakstol played three seasons as a defenseman at North Dakota from 1989-92, serving as team captain during his final two collegiate campaigns. After college, Hakstol spent parts of five seasons playing professionally in the International Hockey League (IHL) with Indianapolis and Minnesota before transitioning to coaching.

ASSISTANT COACH MATT GREENE – 1st Season

Two-time Stanley Cup champion and former NHL defenseman Matt Greene has been named an assistant coach for Sun Devil Hockey, bringing more than a decade of NHL playing experience and an extensive background in professional player development to Arizona State's coaching staff.

Greene, 43, joins the Sun Devils after spending nearly two decades with the Los Angeles Kings organization as a player, scout, development coach and assistant coach. A veteran of 615 NHL games, Greene helped Los Angeles capture Stanley Cup championships in 2012 and 2014 while serving as an alternate captain during both championship runs.

The addition also reunites Greene with Sun Devil Hockey head coach Dave Hakstol, who coached the former defenseman at the University of North Dakota. Greene captained North Dakota to the 2005 NCAA national championship game during Hakstol's first season at the helm, helping the program reach the Frozen Four before beginning his professional career.

Greene most recently served as an assistant coach with the Kings during the final portion of the 2025-26 NHL season. His transition behind the bench followed several seasons working with the Kings' prospects as a player development coach, helping develop young talent throughout the organization's professional and junior hockey pipelines.

Among the players Greene worked closely with was Kings defenseman Brandt Clarke, a first-round selection in the 2021 NHL Draft. Greene played an instrumental role in Clarke's development throughout his progression from junior hockey to the American Hockey League and NHL.

Following his retirement in 2017, Greene transitioned into hockey operations with Los Angeles, initially serving as a professional scout before moving into player development. His work with the Kings allowed him to mentor emerging professional players while drawing upon his experience as a two-time Stanley Cup champion and longtime NHL alternate captain.

Originally selected by the Edmonton Oilers in the second round (44th overall) of the 2002 NHL Draft, Greene made his NHL debut during the 2005-06 season and helped Edmonton advance to the Stanley Cup Final in his rookie campaign. After three seasons with the Oilers, Greene was traded to Los Angeles in June 2008, where he became a cornerstone of the Kings' defensive corps and leadership group.

Greene played nine seasons with Los Angeles, appearing in 464 regular-season games and 61 postseason games with the franchise. Known for his physical presence, defensive reliability and leadership, he helped guide the Kings to their first Stanley Cup championship in franchise history in 2012 before securing a second title in 2014.

During Los Angeles' historic 2012 championship run, Greene led all NHL defensemen with 77 hits entering Game 6 of the Stanley Cup Final and scored the Kings' final goal in their 6-1 championship-clinching victory over the New Jersey Devils. He finished the 2012 postseason with six points in 20 games while also playing a significant role on the penalty kill.

Greene's contributions extended beyond the ice, as he earned the Kings' Ace Bailey Memorial Award, recognizing the team's most inspirational player, six times during his tenure. He also received the organization's Unsung Hero Award for the 2010-11 season, further highlighting his impact within the locker room.

Before beginning his NHL career, Greene spent three seasons at North Dakota from 2002-05, establishing himself as a physical defenseman and respected leader. He appeared in 122 collegiate games, recording 31 points while helping North Dakota reach the national championship game in his final season before turning pro.

As team captain during the 2004-05 campaign, Greene helped lead the team through Hakstol's inaugural season as head coach, culminating in a Frozen Four appearance and a national runner-up finish. The two now reunite in Tempe more than two decades after their first season together in Grand Forks.

A native of Grand Ledge, Michigan, Greene also represented the United States internationally, competing at the IIHF World Championships, World Junior Championships and Under-18 World Championships.

ASSISTANT COACH JIMMY MULLIN – 1st Season

Mullin, 34, comes to Tempe with multiple years of coaching experience, including two seasons as an assistant for the U.S. National Development Team, where he helped Team USA win a silver medal at the 2022 Under-18 World Championships while coaching Sun Devil Hockey alumnus Cruz Lucius (2024-26) during his time with the USNDTP.

Mullin's oversight of the U18 USNDTP roster included the development of NHL stars such as Logan Cooley, Cutter Gauthier, Lane Hutson, Ryan Leonard, Frank Nazar, Will Smith and Jimmy Snuggerud among a plethora of fellow NHL draft picks and NCAA standouts.

The Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, native also guided USA Hockey's 2022 Under-17 NTDP to a World U17 Challenge gold medal in addition to later bringing them to the 2023 Clark Cup playoffs.

Mullin continued to play a vital role in the development of elite skaters across the board, including the likes of James Hagens, Cole Eiserman, Teddy Stiga, Cole Hutson, EJ Emery and the 2025-26 Hobey Baker winner, Max Plante.

Mullin later went on to spend two seasons gaining NCAA experience as the assistant men's ice hockey coach at Merrimack College from 2023-25. He most recently served as an associate head coach for the 2025-26 season with the USHL's Fargo Force, where the team went 38-19, falling short in game seven of the Clark Cup conference finals to the Sioux Falls Stampede.

Mullin also had stints as the Ohio AAA Blue Jackets director of player development and advancement and as director of scouting for the NAHL's Chippewa Steel.

Mullin, a 2010 fourth round NHL draft pick of the Tampa Bay Lightning, played five seasons of college hockey, including four (2011-15) at Miami University, where he was a key member of the school's CCHA regular season championship in 2013 and first NCHC tournament championship in 2015.

He went on to finish his collegiate career at Minnesota State University Mankato, where the team won a WCHA championship in 2016 before going on to play three years (2016-19) professionally with the ECHL's Kalamazoo Wings.

Mullin also played for Team USA at the 2010 World Jr. A Challenge, where he led the tournament in goals, including the game-winner in the championship game.
