TOKEN2049

- ▶ TOKEN2049 Singapore is the flagship event of Asia Crypto Week, which features a week of various independently organized side events.
- ▶ Asia Crypto Week runs from 26 September 2022 to 2 October 2022.
- ▶ TOKEN2049 runs from 28 September 2022 to 29 September 2022 at Marina Bay Sands (MBS).
- ▶ Expect a range of meetups, workshops, networking drinks, and parties.
- ▶ Get tickets here: <https://www.asia.token2049.com/tickets> or attend the side events featured here: <https://www.asiacryptoweek.com>

Side Events

Some of the best networking opportunities happen at the side events and afterparties. A lot is happening so luckily, there are some well-researched spreadsheets to keep you in the know. Here are a couple of the most comprehensive lists curated by:

- ▶ Coinhako
- ▶ Blockbae
- ▶ Asian Blockchain Gaming Alliance \(ABGA\)
- ▶ Moongate
- ▶ Hash Protocol

Treehouse is also hosting a series of 3 parties #Tr3ePartySeries! Join us:

Accommodation

- ▶ TOKEN2049 takes place at MBS, and most peripheral events will be nearby and around the Central Business District (CBD) area.
- ▶ TOKEN2049 has some hotel partners offering discounts, so do look at their website for those.
- ▶ Staying in MBS and the surrounding bay or within the CBD might be quite expensive, but...

Transport

- ▶ The nearest Mass Rapid Transit (MRT) station is Bayfront, which is serviced by the Downtown Line and Circle Line, so staying anywhere along these lines is a good idea. MRT is affordable and reliable.
- ▶ Taxis are also cheaper compared to other financial hubs, so being a bit further away is not a big problem. Download Grab / Gojek for convenience.

Where to Eat / Drink

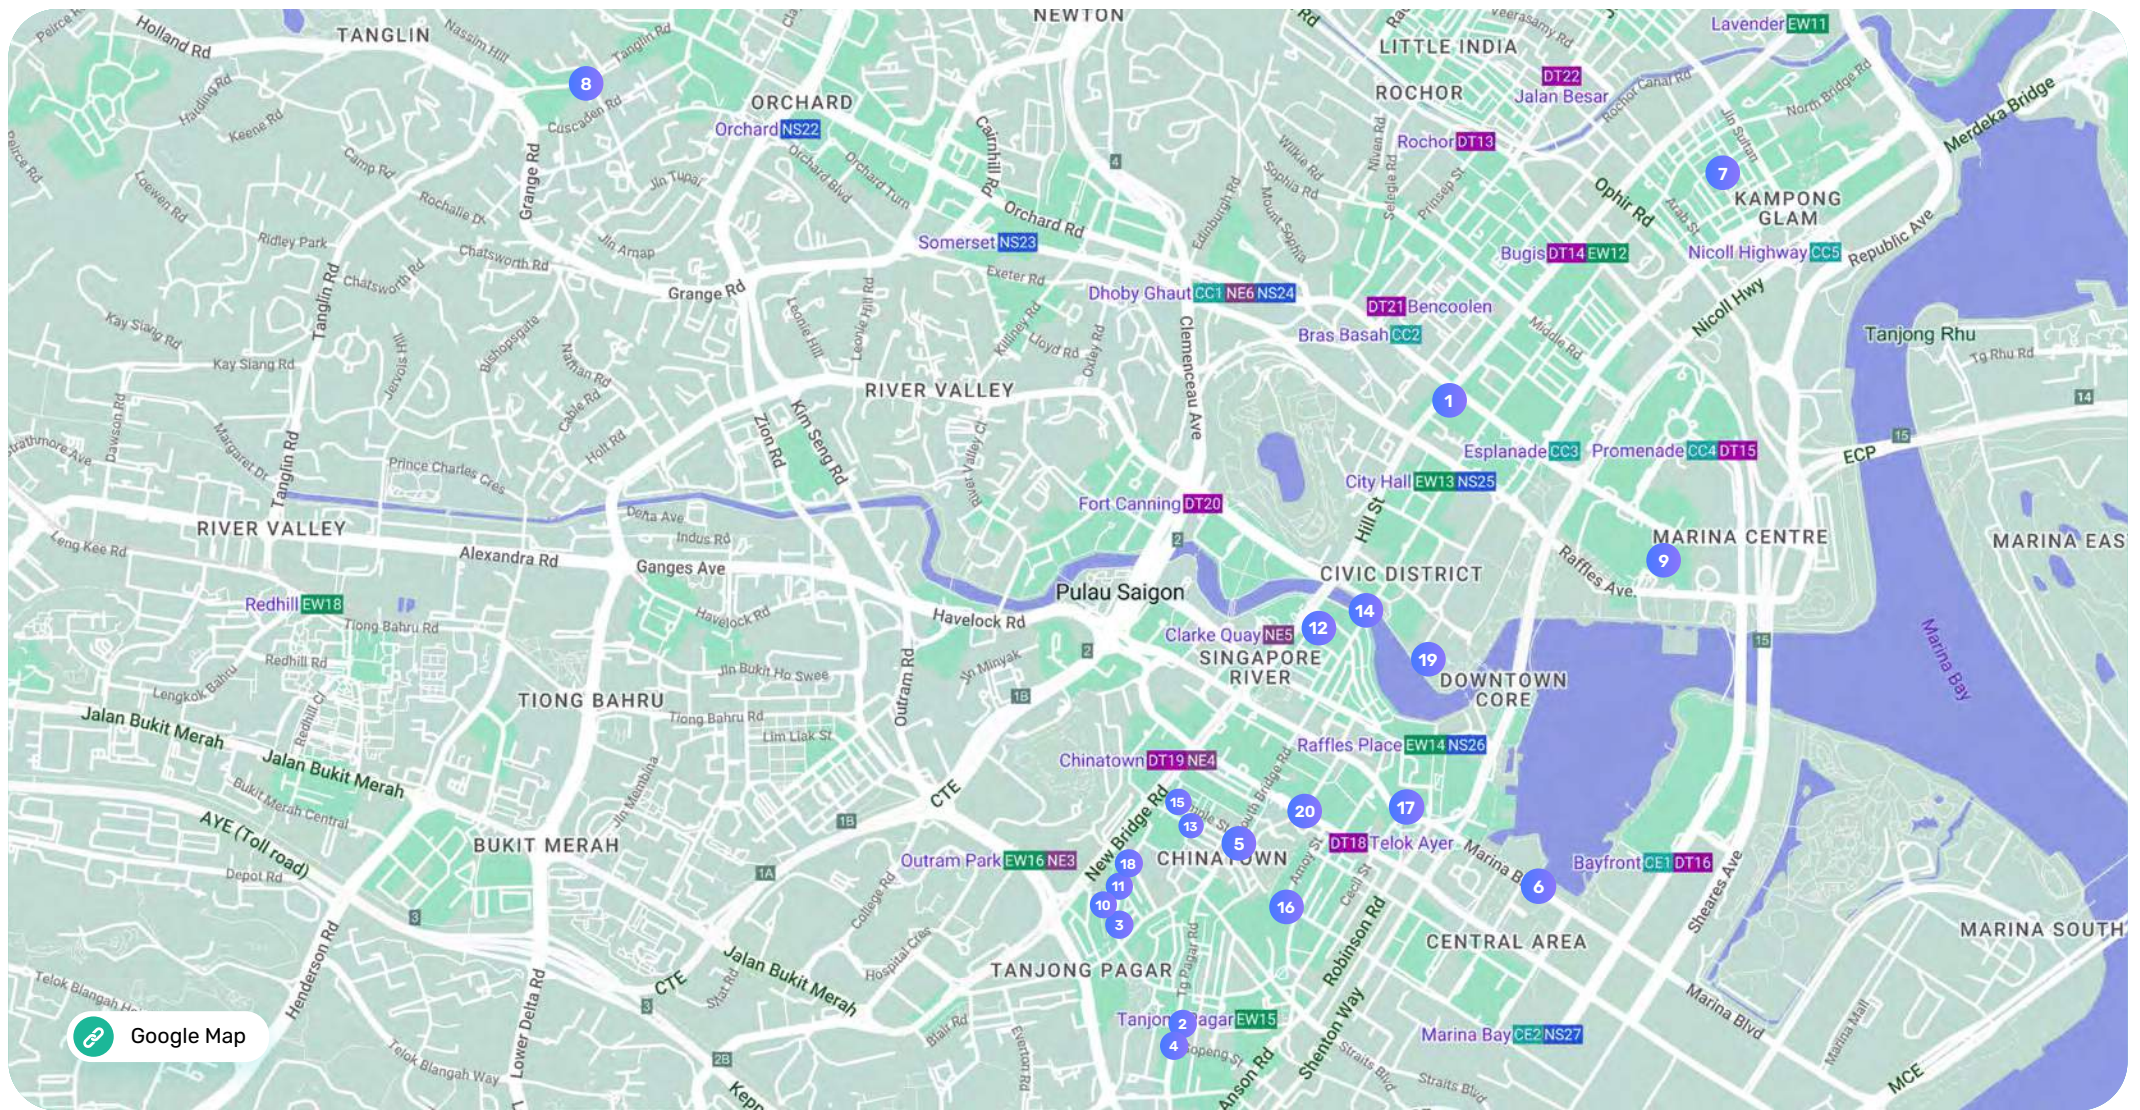

- ▶ When you are at MBS, your closest places to eat will be in The Shoppes at MBS, where there are a couple of restaurants, a food court in the basement, and a small grocery store (Jasons Deli).
- ▶ Generally, the cheapest places to eat are hawker centers, open-air complexes with many stalls selling a wide variety of affordable cuisines. You can easily get a meal below $10.
- ▶ Some hawker centers in the CBD to try some Singaporean food include Lau Pa Sat (famous for its late-night Satay joints), Chinatown Complex Food Centre (big and authentic), and Amoy Street Food Centre (great at lunchtime).
- ▶ Suggestions of Singaporean food worth trying include Hainanese Chicken Rice, Laksa, Prawn Noodles, Chili Crab, Kaya Toast, Bak Chor Mee, Bak Kut Teh, etc.
- ▶ For where to get a cheeky tipple, check out our recommended spots in the rest of this guide.

Things to Do

- ▶ At the top of MBS is a selection of bars and restaurants, an infinity pool, and the SkyPark Observation Deck. If you are lucky enough to get invited, you may find yourself up there for one of the TOKEN2049 afterparties. Otherwise, you can visit the SkyPark Observation Deck from 11am to 9pm daily or take a yoga class at sunrise from Thursday to Sunday at 7am.
- ▶ Singapore loves a light show. Two free ones close to the conference are Garden Rhapsody in Gardens by the Bay and Spectra at the Marina Bay Sands Event Plaza.
- ▶ Take a walk around the bay to have a look at the Marina Bay Street Circuit.
- ▶ Visit the Flower Dome and / or Cloud Forest at Gardens by the Bay. Alternatively, if you are a developer wanting to learn more about Algorand, attend their event at the Flower Field Hall.
- ▶ Have a wander around the ArtScience Museum.

Things to Note

- ▶ You only need to wear masks on public transport and in healthcare facilities. Everywhere else is your choice (but you will find that many Singaporeans still do so).
- ▶ The no chewing gum and no littering rules you heard about are not myths.
- ▶ If you are a smoker, you can only smoke in designated areas, or you may be fined. Also, no vapes are allowed.
- ▶ Singapore is primarily cashless, except for some hawker stalls that only accept PayNow or NETS (Singapore-based payment methods), so we highly recommend having a little cash.
