

Our Modern Slavery Statement

Our organisation and business

snnug Insurance is provided by snnug Insurance Services which is a trading name of KGMUS who is an Insurance Intermediary. KGMUS head office is in Romford and has approximately 81 employees, all of whom are based in the UK. We are committed to providing our clients excellent service and insurance products that offer value for money and meet their needs

Our commitment

We are committed to ensuring that there is no slavery, servitude, forced or compulsory labour, abuse of power over vulnerable individuals, human trafficking or any other form of exploitation as contemplated by the Modern Slavery Act 2015. We see our business as a place where people can flourish in a supportive environment.

Our supply chains

Our supply chain includes recognised UK insurers all of which are authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority. We also use IT and telephony companies. We do not act as a producer or manufacturer or retailer of physical goods and therefore have no supply chain in relation to these needs.

Our policies on slavery and human trafficking

We have a zero tolerance approach to modern slavery which reflects our approach to acting ethically and with integrity in our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems that ensure that we do not undertake business activities with any organisation that may be exposed to slavery and human trafficking needs.

Assessment of modern slavery risk within our supply chain and due diligence.

We have increased our focus on modern slavery and have undertaken a risk assessment to determine where the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking could arise. All employees in the company work at an office owned or leased by the company or from Home. We have clear policies for engagement and contracting individuals.

We understand that the greatest risk of modern slavery and human trafficking is in emerging markets. We do not trade outside of the EU however we have conducted due diligence of those suppliers that we believe may be exposed to such a risk.

Further Steps

We continue to undertake training of employees to ensure that they understand the risks and comply with our required standards.

Matt Puttick
Director
snnug Insurance