The image features a complex abstract composition. A central circular form is defined by multiple overlapping lines in black, grey, and yellow. A vertical red line bisects the circle. The background is a light cream color, overlaid with various horizontal and vertical black and yellow bars. Four registration marks (crosshairs) are positioned at the corners of the page. The word "sources" is printed in a simple, lowercase, sans-serif font on the left side. Three blocks of text are arranged vertically in the center, each appearing to be a list of words or a short paragraph of text.
