Most Decorated U.S. Winter Paralympian, Oksana Masters, to Headline Peak Vista's Breakfast of Champions®

Annual fundraiser helps cover care for uninsured patients in Colorado Springs and El Paso County

Colorado Springs, Colo. – Paralympian Oksana Masters will be the keynote speaker at Peak Vista Community Health Centers' (Peak Vista) Breakfast of Champions®, from 7 to 9 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 15, at Broadmoor Hall.

Peak Vista's signature fundraising event raises awareness of local access-to-care challenges. Funds raised also help cover the cost of care for patients who face financial and insurance barriers.

Special Guest

Oksana Masters is the most decorated U.S. Winter Paralympian, with 24 Paralympic medals from the Summer and Winter Games. Five of them came at the Milano Cortina 2026 Paralympic Winter Games.

Masters was born in Ukraine and adopted by an American mother at age 7. She has built a career defined by resilience, determination and excellence. Since her Paralympic debut in 2012, she has competed in rowing, Nordic skiing, biathlon and cycling. As this year's featured speaker, she will share her perspective on overcoming barriers and achieving excellence.

Meeting the Need

Affordable primary care helps patients get preventive services, manage chronic conditions and catch health concerns before they become emergencies. Breakfast of Champions® helps lower the cost of medical, dental and behavioral health for uninsured patients.

Through the Peak Vista Cares Discount Program, a patient whose family income is at or below the federal poverty level is asked to pay $15 for a medical visit that would otherwise cost hundreds of dollars. Patients who can't pay at the time of their visit still receive care.

"In 2025, Peak Vista provided more than $11 million in discounted services to uninsured and underinsured patients," said Jaeson Fournier, DC, MPH, president and CEO of Peak Vista. "Expanding access to affordable care takes a community working together. Through
