Peak Vista’s Pediatric Health Center at Academy Hosts Open House to Honor Long-Time Pediatricians

Colorado Springs, Colo. – Peak Vista Community Health Center’s (Peak Vista) will be hosting an open house inviting the community to celebrate Dr. David Baswell and Dr. Patrick McCaffery on their retirement.

“After serving our community for so many years, these two physicians have defined what local Pediatric health care means. We are honored and privileged to have worked with them in their efforts to improve health in the lives of many patients,” shared President and CEO, Pam McManus.

The public is invited to a community celebration to honor and recognize these individuals on Wednesday, May 30, 2018 from 5:00 – 7:00PM at Peak Vista’s Pediatric Health Center at Academy, 3205 N. Academy Blvd, Suite 100, Colorado Springs, 80917.

“Peak Vista is pleased we had the opportunity to directly work with Drs. David Baswell and Patrick McCaffery prior to their retirement from a long and successful pediatric practice in our community. We wish them fair winds and following seas as they sail through their retirement years,” commented Michael Welch, DO, Chief Medical and Dental Officer.

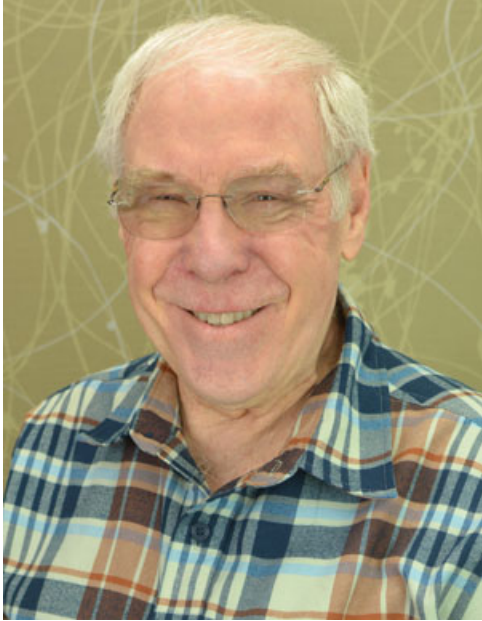

David Baswell, MD

Dr. Baswell studied medicine at Albany Medical College in New York. He completed his internship at Hartford Hospital and his residency at Albany Medical Center. He has been practicing medicine since 1972 and has been affiliated with Pediatric Associates (PAPC) since 1990.
