U.S. Bank Good Truck Visits Peak Vista Community Health Centers to Brighten Day of Health Care Heroes

What:

The U.S Bank Good Truck plans to make a stop at Peak Vista Community Health Centers (Peak Vista) on Wednesday, November 4, 2020. The Good Truck will provide breakfast from Black Bear Diner to over 250 employees at Peak Vista's Academy Campus.

Why:

The goal of U.S. Bank's Good Truck is to brighten the day of local, modern-day superheroes, such as the ones at Peak Vista. Throughout the pandemic, Peak Vista continued to provide care to its community, offering COVID-19 testing as well as opening a new behavioral health care center. Call (719) 632-5700 to speak with a customer service agent. This event will raise the morale of employees and allow them to continue to provide exceptional health care.

When:

Wednesday, November 4, 2020

The Good Truck sets up at 7 a.m.

Breakfast is served to the employees from 8 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Where:

Peak Vista Community Health Centers' Academy Campus

Next to Peak Vista Convenient Care Clinic

3205 N. Academy Blvd., Colorado Springs, CO 80917
