Peak Vista Community Health Centers Welcomes New Chief Operating Officer

Colorado Springs, Colo. – Peak Vista Community Health Centers (Peak Vista) welcomes Robert E. Nartker, as Chief Operating Officer (COO). Mr. Nartker will oversee day-to-day clinical operations while ensuring compliance and effectiveness of Peak Vista’s 26 health centers across the Pikes Peak and East Central regions.

“Rob has shown that he is an impactful leader who effectively led many departments and initiatives in previous positions,” comments Pam McManus, President and CEO. “We are grateful for his expertise in business development, ambulatory operations and employee and physician engagement, to help us provide exceptional health care for our patients.”

Rob has 26 years of healthcare experience that includes executive management of a myriad of specialty and primary care practices, urgent care locations, and oversight of a residency program. He holds a Master's in Business Administration in Healthcare Management, is a member of the American College of Health Care Executives, and is also a licensed PTA. He sits on several area boards including the American Red Cross.

“I am extremely excited to join the Peak Vista team,” comments Rob. “It’s very apparent to me that we have a group of talented leaders, physicians, providers and associates who are committed to serving our communities. I hope to leverage my operational experience and strategic partnerships to benefit the Peak Vista leadership team and ultimately the communities we serve.”

When not working, Rob enjoys spending time with his wife and three sons.
