

Julia D'Alo, MD, PALS, ACLS, ATLS, BDLS, ADLS

Chief Medical Officer, Gateway Rehab & NKRC

Dr. D'Alo serves at Gateway, dedicating herself to working with the often-marginalized population of people suffering with substance use disorders. Dr. D'Alo has extensive knowledge in the field of addiction medicine, and prioritizes compassion alongside quality care for our patients.

She began her work at Gateway in 2019 working with families and individuals struggling with the disease of addiction. She was named Medical Director in 2020, and in 2022, Chief Medical Officer of both Gateway Rehab and Neil Kennedy Recovery Centers. Currently, she also serves as an emergency medicine physician at St. Clair Health and the Pittsburgh VA Medical Center.

Her goal as the Chief Medical Officer is to uphold the legacy of Gateway Rehab's late Medical Director, Dr. Neil Capretto, to value each individual patient that comes through our doors and treat them in the best way possible.

Dr. D'Alo earned her Bachelor of Science from the University of Wisconsin and her M.D. from Ross University School of Medicine. She completed her residency at the University of Connecticut in Emergency Medicine. She is boarded in Addiction Medicine and Emergency Medicine. She is passionate about providing the best, evidence-based care to all her patients.
