

- Nasopharyngeal or anterior nares swab with proper technique acceptable for both rapid antigen and PCR.
- Rapid antigen is NOT valid for asymptomatic screening (whether due to exposure or clearance for sports/ school/ travel). Only send out PCR is valid for asymptomatic screening.
- Rapid antigen is ONLY valid for days 1-5 of symptoms.
- We are confirming our rapid antigens with PCRs to show reliability of our tests and technique.