To all agents in Sapporo:

I received cryptic correspondence from Dr. Campbell late last week. The pages she sent were written in her unmistakable hand, describing visions and dreams she's had of a coming catastrophe - a self-destruct signal streaming through five specific XM portals. Each puzzling missive could be distilled down to three key words. These triplets comprised co-ordinates for the portals Dr. Campbell envisioned:

I have made every effort to formalize Dr. Campbell's chaotic messages in a more readable form. Her final instruction to me reaffirmed her agnosticism: whichever faction - the Enlightened or the Resistance - succeeds in repelling this dangerous self-destruct signal will receive from me the remainder of Dr. Campbell's confounding notes. To that end, I have omitted the three words that lead to each of the five key portals in this city, to help determine which faction is most worthy of Dr. Campbell's further revelation.
