Things to Carry

Hello Travelers,

As we prepare for our upcoming adventure to Bhutan from let's make sure we're fully equipped for the diverse weather conditions. Here's a brief checklist to ensure a smooth journey:

- Winter Cloths: Bring a mix of lightweight and warmer layers. A warm jacket or insulated vest for higher altitudes or chilly evenings. And don't forget to bring an Umbrella/ Poncho/ Raincoat.
- Comfortable Walking Shoes: Expect to explore, so bring along comfortable walking shoes or hiking boots if possible.
- Medications: If you're prone to motion sickness, remember to bring your necessary medications. Include any other personal medications you may need.
- Travel Documents: Essential items include your passport (with at least six months validity) or your voter ID card.
- Travel Pillow and Eye Mask: These can greatly enhance your comfort during journeys and ensure a good night's sleep.
- Sunscreen and Sunglasses: Shield yourself from the sun's rays, which can still be strong even in April.
- Daypack: Carry a small backpack for daily excursions to keep your essentials close at hand.
- Respectful Clothing: In Bhutan, it's important to dress modestly. For April, bring both long and short options, ensuring your shoulders are covered. Remember to pack light winter clothes as it can get chilly in the higher altitudes.
- Snacks: While Bhutanese cuisine is delightful, having snacks on hand is convenient for journeys or hikes.
- Power Bank: Keep your devices charged, especially if you rely on them for navigation or communication.
- Reusable Water Bottle: Help reduce plastic waste by carrying a reusable water bottle. Safe drinking water is readily available in most places.
- Cash: It's advisable to carry some cash for your expenses, as Indian currency is widely accepted in Bhutan (100 to 500 Rs notes).
- Respectful Attitude: Embrace an open mind and a respectful attitude toward Bhutanese culture. Bhutan is renowned for its hospitality, and being a considerate traveler enhances the experience.
- Let's make this trip to Bhutan truly unforgettable and cherish every moment of our Bhutanese adventure! If you have any questions or suggestions, feel free to share. Safe travels, and I look forward to seeing you all in Bhutan.

A Word Of Caution

- Tourists are expected to dress respectably and modestly while visiting temples and other religious institutions.
- Shoulders must also be covered inside religious establishments.
- Since shoes are to be removed before entering a religious building, it is advisable to wear socks.
- Photography may also not be allowed at all places. It is advisable to ask the authorities beforehand.

FAQ

1. We're a couple, do we need to share a room?

No, you do not need to share a room. Couples can opt for double sharing, which provides a private room exclusively for the two of you without sharing with other travelers.

2. I'm traveling Solo, how will I be accommodated?

For solo travelers, accommodation will be arranged on a double-sharing basis with another same-gender solo traveler. This allows you to share a room with another solo traveler of the same gender.

3. What currency is used in Bhutan?

Bhutan's national currency is the Ngultrum (BTN). However, Indian Rupees (INR) are widely accepted in Bhutan, so there's no need to exchange INR for Bhutanese Ngultrum.

4. Are ATMs available in Bhutan?

While there are ATMs in Bhutan, we recommend not relying solely on them, especially in Phuentsholing. It's advisable to carry sufficient cash to ensure smooth transactions during your trip.

5. Is Bhutan safe for solo traveling?

Yes, Bhutan is considered one of the safest destinations for solo travelers. It offers a welcoming and secure environment. However, traveling solo in Bhutan may involve higher costs due to limited sharing options for transportation and accommodation. Joining a group can help reduce these costs.
