Winter ZANSKAR (7N/8D)

Introduction

Overview

Experience the untouched beauty of the Zaskar Valley in winter, a remote and serene region tucked away in the Himalayas. Winter Zaskar with TrekOtrip offers an extraordinary adventure, taking you through snow-covered landscapes, frozen rivers, and pristine mountain peaks. This journey will start in Leh, where you'll acclimatize and explore local landmarks, followed by a scenic drive to Kargil via Sham Valley, visiting historical sites like the Lamayuru Monastery and Gurudwara Pathar Sahib. Further, explore the Suru Valley, known for its majestic Nun Kun Peaks and glistening glaciers. The adventure intensifies as you reach Padum, the heart of Zaskar, to witness frozen waterfalls, centuries-old monasteries, and the tranquil beauty of Sani Lake. Each stop on this journey offers not only incredible scenery but also a deep connection with the rich culture and history of Ladakh. With well-curated homestays, delicious vegetarian meals, and the company of fellow travelers, this trip is designed for those seeking a real offbeat experience. However, the cold and remote conditions require careful preparation, making this trip suitable only for the adventurous at heart. Join TrekOtrip and embrace the magic of winter in Zaskar!.
