Yulla Kanda Trek - 2N-3D

Introduction

Overview

The Yulla Kanda trek is a captivating journey set in the picturesque Kinnaur region of Himachal Pradesh. This adventure begins with an overnight journey from Delhi to Tapri, where trekkers can acclimatize and prepare for the ascent. From Tapri, a short drive leads to Yulla Village, the starting point of the trek.

The trek covers approximately 10 kilometers through varied terrains, taking about 4-6 hours to reach the Yulla Kanda Base Camp. This path offers stunning views of the lush landscapes and rugged mountains. Trekkers will camp under the stars at the base camp, providing an unforgettable experience of the great outdoors.

The highlight of the trip is the trek to Yulla Kanda, where the world's highest Krishna temple is situated. This sacred site not only offers spiritual solace but also boasts panoramic vistas of the surrounding peaks. After spending time exploring the temple and its serene environment, trekkers will return to Yulla Village and subsequently to Tapri, before heading back to Delhi.

This trip is not just a trek but a holistic journey combining adventure, spirituality, and breathtaking natural beauty, making it a must-try for both trek enthusiasts and those seeking a unique travel experience.
