Gulabi Kantha Trek - 4N-5D

Introduction

Overview

Gulabi Kantha Trek is one of the most beautiful and offbeat Himalayan treks located in the Uttarkashi District of Uttarakhand. Sitting at an altitude of around 12,400 feet, this trek is known for its stunning natural beauty, the pink Rhododendron (Buransh) forests, and vast green meadows (bugyal) stretching as far as the eyes can see. The trek starts from Nainbagh village, located about 176 km from Dehradun, which is well connected by a motorable road. From Hanuman Chatti, the trail becomes a bit rough but extremely scenic, passing through dense forests, small waterfalls, and open valleys. As you trek higher, the cool shade of oak, deodar, and rhododendron trees gives you a peaceful and refreshing experience.
