Off the beaten track

That ends-of-the-earth feeling... here are a few Honeymoon destinations that still feel remarkably untouched by tourism in parts. Skip the crowds: harbor spectacular biodiversity among Borneo's fecund jungles. And yet, what could be more romantic than a candlelit vigil at Petra's Treasury or a walk through the dunes of Wadi Rum? Cape Verde islands' honeymoon appeal may be little known, but well worth the visit for couples more keen on seductive, volcanic landscapes and the sounds of Cesaria Evora.
