

Kenko Precision Set

Product Description

Total Mind & Body Balance

This unique magnetic grounding and massage set is composed of a Precision Sphere and a Precision Wand. Used separately or jointly, they help provide a feeling of overall wellness and relaxation.

Based on the discovery that grounding can lead to Active Wellness, the Kenko Precision Set allows us to reach virtually every part of the outer body.

Technologies

Precision grounding: beneficial reconnection with Earth for balanced energy.

Magnetic flux energy with neodymium magnets: 2,500+ gauss for depth of penetration.

Ceramic Reflective Silicone: infused with ceramic reflective material to allow ambient energy to reflect back and create a warming effect that helps soothe and relax muscles.

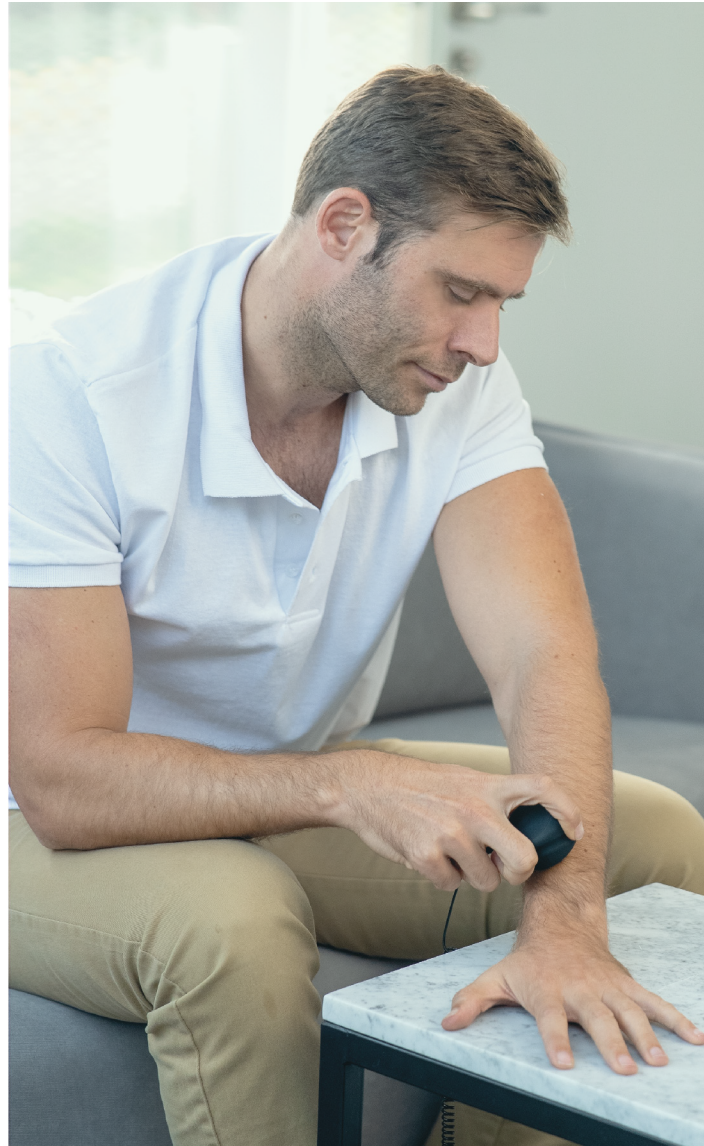

Ceramic Reflective Tourmaline Resin: present in the Precision Sphere, tourmaline gives off electrons when exposed to heat or motion, creating a calming effect similar to those found in natural environments.

Benefits

Grounding and magnetic massage are effective and natural ways to help counteract stress and help maintain overall wellness.
