

The Nominees

Omri Boehm
Radical Universalism
Propyläen, September 2022

Jury: "An invitation to rethink basic universalist concepts."

ISBN 978-3-549-10041-7

Teresa Bücker
All_Time
Ullstein, October 2022

Jury: "Bücker develops a comprehensible model for a new time culture and time policy."

ISBN 978-3-550-20172-1

Ewald Frie
A Farm and Eleven Children
C.H.Beck, February 2023

Jury: "The fact that Frie does not always have simple answers to simple questions is one of the strengths of this book, which is as entertaining as it is insightful."

ISBN 978-3-406-79717-0

Judith Kohlenberger
The Paradox of Fleeing
Kremayr & Scheriau, August 2022

Jury: "Judith Kohlenberger provides intelligent and convincing answers on how Europe can live up to its responsibility in this regard."

ISBN 978-3-218-01345-1

Meron Mendel
Talking About Israel
Kiepenheuer & Witsch, March 2023

Jury: "A level-headed book that strives for balance in heated debates."

ISBN 978-3-462-00351-2

Hanno Sauer
Morality
Piper, March 2023

Jury: "Intelligently written and entertaining, it invites us to question our own convictions."

ISBN 978-3-492-07140-6

Martin Schulze Wessel
The Curse of the Empire
C.H.Beck, March 2023

Jury: "An oppressive history lesson, his book opens our eyes to the mindset of Putin and his regime."

ISBN 978-3-406-80049-8

Elisabeth Wellershaus
Where Foreignness Begins
C.H.Beck, January 2023

Jury: "On a future that cannot have fixed identity attributions if it is to be productive."

ISBN 978-3-406-79932-7

Founder:

Main supporter:

Partner: