UCF, Not Central Florida

Please refer to the University of Central Florida as UCF, not Central Florida, on all references. Also, UCF is no longer "Golden" and instead simply known as the "Knights."

No Hyphens, Please

UCF head coach Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak's last name is not hyphenated. Please refer to her as Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak.

GAME 17 | UCF (9-6-1, 6-3 The American) vs. Temple (7-10-1, 3-5-1 The American)

Wednesday, Oct. 31, 2018 | 4:30 p.m. ET

Corbett Stadium | Tampa, Fla.

Series History: UCF leads 8-0-0

Last Meeting: UCF won, 2-1 (9/27/18)

Broadcast: American Digital Network

KNIGHT NOTES

GAMEDAY NOTABLES

- UCF earned the third seed in The American Championship.
- In their six years as members of the league, UCF has been a top 3 seed five times - the only member of the conference to accomplish this feat.
- UCF opened its 2018 American Athletic Conference slate on the road at Temple, remaining unbeaten in league openers with a 2-1 victory.
- The Knights are 8-0 all-time against the Owls.

REPEAT FOR VARIS

- For the second straight year, the preseason prediction became the postseason presentation for Vera Varis.
- On Oct. 30, Varis was named the American Athletic Conference Goalkeeper of the Year for the second consecutive season.
- The Vantaa, Finland native posted a 1.10 goals-against average with 25 saves in league play.
- She became the first Knight to earn back-to-back Goalkeeper of the Year honors and extends UCF's streak to seven consecutive seasons with at least one major award.

HATS OFF

- Stefanie Sanders is one of just seven NCAA Division I women's soccer player to record a pair of hat tricks this season after scoring three goals in UCF's 5-3 win at UConn on Sept. 30.
- Sanders joins Christina Cutura (Southeastern La.), Laadi Issaka (Mississippi Valley), Katie Moller (North Dakota), Kailey Pena (Grambling), Taryn Ries (Portland), Raimee Sherle (Boise State) and April Trowbridge (Northwestern State).
- The Hamburg, Germany native is the sixth Knight to record multiple hat tricks in a season but is the first since 1991 (Kelly Kochevar) to do so in a three-game span.
- UCF is the only Division I team in the country with a male and female soccer player with multiple hat tricks this season. Cal Jennings from UCF Men's Soccer also has two hat tricks in 2018.

PART OF THE CLASS

- Senior goalkeeper Vera Varis was selected as one of the 30 candidates for the Senior CLASS Award for women's soccer.
- The Vantaa, Finland native has already completed her undergraduate degree and is currently pursuing a master's degree in interdisciplinary studies with concentrations in biomedicine and chemistry. She carries a 4.0 GPA in grad school and earned President's Honor Roll accolades in the spring.
- Varis ranks among the top 10 in career saves at UCF. In 2017, she was named the American Athletic Conference Goalkeeper of the Year after allowing just one goal in league play and four goals all season.

KNIGHT NOTES

- The 2018 American Athletic Conference Preseason Goalkeeper of the Year, Varis was named to the MAC Hermann Trophy Watch List for the most prestigious individual award in college soccer in August.
- Former All-American forward Tishia Jewell won the Senior CLASS Award in 2012, and former All-American goalkeeper Aline Reis was named to the Senior CLASS First Team in 2011.

AMERICAN ACCOLADES

- Five Knights have been recognized by the American Athletic Conference this season.
- Following a shutout victory of Miami, Vera Varis and Emily Tipton were recognized by The American for their defensive efforts in the match.
- Varis was named The American Goalkeeper of the Week after making four saves while disrupting the Hurricane offense for the entire 90 minutes.
- Tipton played a key role on the back line in UCF's victory.
- Varis collected her second goalkeeper of the week accolade, while Tipton earned her first collegiate accolade.
- Kristen Scott picked up the first weekly award of her collegiate career following the final week of non-conference action.
- The Orlando native tallied the equalizer on a header for UCF's lone goal against George Mason. She recorded UCF's fourth marker against the Hatters to close out non-conference action.
- Stefanie Sanders earned her first weekly award from the league on Oct. 1 after her seven-point performance over the Knights' first weekend of conference play. She added a second accolade on Oct. 15 after tallying five points in UCF's road sweep of No. 15/18 Memphis and Tulsa.
- Piper Dotsikas became the second UCF rookie to earn the accolade this season after netting her first collegiate goal at Tulsa.

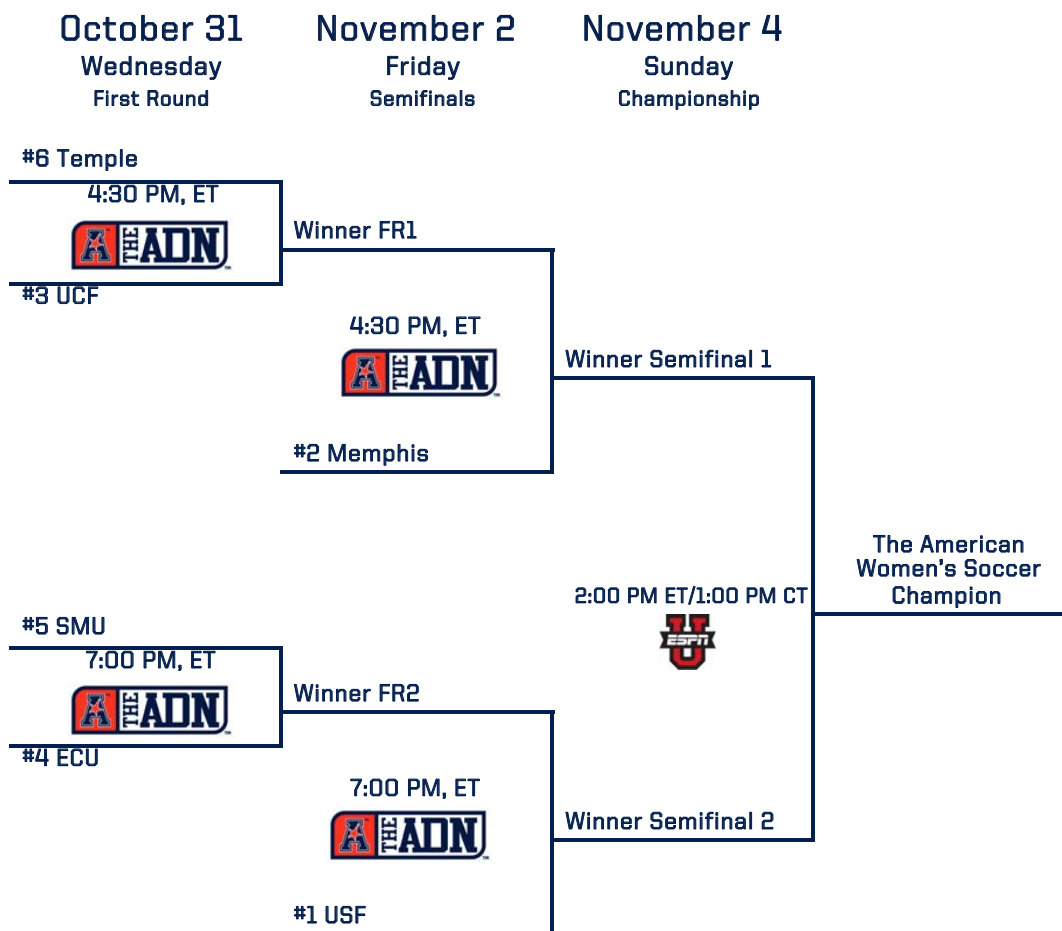

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

- UCF has a trio of members on its current roster with international experience this fall.
- Dina Orschmann and Stefanie Sanders were both selected to play for Germany at the U20 Women's World Cup in France.
- Sanders scored Germany's lone goal in its opening match and added an assist while earning a starting in two matches. She saw time in all four of Germany's matches.
- Orschmann earned a starting spot in Germany's third contest in group play, taking a pair of shots that just missed becoming goals.
- Konya Plummer, who joined UCF this spring after two seasons at Southeastern University, returned from playing with the Jamaican National Team for the Final Qualifiers prior to the Maryland match.
- Plummer played against for the Jamaican team for the CONCACAF Women's Championship, helping her country qualify for its first-ever FIFA Women's World Cup.

STORIED TRADITION

- Since 1981, UCF has accumulated 22 conference championships and 21 NCAA Tournament berths, which include appearances in the 1982 NCAA title game, 1987 Final Four, 2011 Elite Eight and 2014 Sweet 16.
- Vera Varis became the 17th Knight to earn United Soccer Coaches (formerly NSCAA) All-America honors. Former USWNT goalkeepers Amy (Allmann) Griffin and Kim Wyant (current NYU men's soccer head coach) and National Soccer Hall of Famer Michelle Akers all contributed to UCF's 21 All-America accolades.

HEAD COACH TIFFANY ROBERTS SAHAYDAK

An Olympic gold medalist, World Cup champion and two-time NCAA champion, Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak was named head women's soccer coach at UCF in May 2013.

A three-time American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Roberts Sahaydak has wasted no time in putting her stamp on UCF's successful program. Under her guidance, the Knights have earned four NCAA Tournament bids and four American Athletic Conference championships while boasting 11 conference Player of the Year awards and 38 all-league and tournament selections.

In 2017, Roberts Sahaydak coached the Knights to a 13-2-3 record, the most wins since the 2014 campaign. UCF climbed as high as No. 6 and finished the regular season ranked eighth. The Knights posted a 16-match unbeaten streak, the longest since the 2013 campaign, captured the American Athletic Conference regular season championship and made their 21st NCAA Tournament appearance.

Under Roberts Sahaydak's tutelage, five members of the team received All-Southeast Region recognition and goalkeeper Vera Varis was named to the United Soccer Coaches Association All-American Third Team. In addition, five of her starters were recognized as American Athletic Conference Players of the Year, including Morgan Ferrara (Offensive), Kathellen Sousa (Co-Defensive), Vera Varis (Goalkeeper), Kayla Adamek (Midfielder), and Dina Orschmann (Rookie). A total of seven Knights were placed on the All-American Athletic Conference Teams, and three were recognized on the all-tournament team.

In 2016, four student-athletes were named to the All-American Athletic Conference Teams. Saga Fredriksson was named to the All-Northeast Region Team and recognized as the American Athletic Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year. Off the field, the Knights earned recognition for their academic success as they received the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Team Academic Award.

Roberts Sahaydak tackled the 2015 season with team that featured more newcomers (14) than returners (12) and lost three key members due to injury for the year before the season-opening weekend was in the books. Eight of their starters, including their American Athletic Conference Offensive Player, Defensive Player and Goalkeeper of the Year, had moved on from the year before. But the Knights earned a berth to their ninth-straight NCAA Tournament (20th overall) and nabbed a hosting gig for the first round for the fifth straight season. In addition, Carol Rodrigues was named the American's Co-Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2014, she guided the Knights to their second NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in four years and the American regular season title. Under her direction, three Knights were recognized as conference Players of the Year: Tatiana Coleman (Co-Offensive); Carleigh Williams (Defensive); and Connie Organ (Goalkeeper). UCF posted its first undefeated home slate (11-0) since 1999, matched the school record for wins in a season (18) and was nationally ranked through much of the year.

In her first season (2013), she led UCF to a school-record unbeaten streak (18 matches), an NSCAA national standing through much of the year and the program's first undefeated conference season since 1999. In addition, UCF made history as the first program to win an American Athletic Conference Championship. Roberts Sahaydak came to Orlando after serving six seasons at VCU alongside her co-head coach, husband and current UCF associate head coach Tim Sahaydak. Roberts Sahaydak spent a decade with the U.S. National Team from 1994-2004, earning 110 caps (with 60 starts). Her career was highlighted by three women's World Cups - among them, the unforgettable 1999 championship - and a gold medal with the 1996 Olympic team.

After retiring from the USWNT, she has served as an ambassador for U.S. Soccer with the U.S. Department of State Sports Envoy Program since 2007, promoting the power and benefit of sport internationally. With the program, she has visited Indonesia, Uganda, the Philippines, Thailand, Namibia, Brazil and France. In 2014, she was appointed to President Barack Obama's Presidential Delegation to the Federative Republic of Brazil at the opening of the FIFA World Cup in Brazil. She is a native of San Ramon, Calif., and was selected as the 1994 California High School Player of the Year. She was a three-time Parade High School All-American, a three-time NSCAA All-American and was the two-time National Girl's High School Player of the Year.

She debuted for the Stars and Stripes in 1994 when she was only 16 as one of the youngest players ever to suit up for the National Team. She played in her first FIFA Women's World Cup a month after her 18th birthday and won Olympic gold before she was out of her teens (USSoccer.com).

As a collegian, Roberts Sahaydak was a standout midfielder for North Carolina (1995-98) as a three-time All-ACC First Team selection. She led the Tar Heels to two NCAA titles (1996, 1997) during her tenure, was voted the 1998 ACC Tournament MVP and finished third in voting for collegiate soccer's highest honor, the Hermann Trophy. She still ranks among the top five for career starts in UNC's record book.

She was a two-time captain for the Carolina Courage in the first fully professional U.S. women's league (Women's United Soccer Association). She helped the Courage win the 2002 title after finishing last in the team's inaugural campaign one year prior.

Roberts Sahaydak took over VCU's program in 2007 and led the Rams to three conference championship game appearances. She was voted as the 2011 Colonial Athletic Association Co-Head Coach of the Year, along with her husband Tim. The duo mentored two CAA Defenders of the Year, one CAA Rookie of the Year and 20 all-conference players, including six first-team honorees.

The Sahaydaks reside in Orlando with their two daughters, Layla and Evie.
