The highest field goal percentage for a UCF team was set during the 1985-86 season. The Golden Knights shot 941-1826 for a .515 field goal percentage.

The 1997-98 Golden Knights twice landed 13 three pointers in one game, against Stetson and Troy. UCF finished the 1997-98 season ranked 22nd in the nation with 5.8 threes per game.

UCF seniors on the 1983-84 team gave up 19 points to Palm Beach Atlantic, winning that game by the largest margin in school history, 101-19 (82 points). The 1984-85 UCF seniors guided the Golden Knights to a 20-10 overall record in the first season of NCAA Division I play.

The 1981-82 Golden Knights advanced to the AIAW quarterfinals and finished the season with a 24-15 overall record.

The 1982-83 Golden Knights were responsible for the most wins in a season, the largest average winning margin, the best winning percentage and the most free throws made and attempted.

During the 1978-79 season UCF and Northeast Missouri State combined for only 81 points, the fewest points combined by both teams.

Heavily favored UCF won the 1998-99 Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

The 1995-96 Golden Knights, a sixth seed following regular season play, won the Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

The men's basketball game against the Long Island Blackbirds marked the official dedication of the UCF Arena. The game was played on December 2, 1991 and UCF won, 113-84. The multi-purpose facility, which has five basketball courts and 88,000 square feet of space, came with 5,100 seats and a $12.2 million price tag. The UCF Arena replaced the 2,456-seat UCF Gym, housed in the Education Building on campus, which was utilized by the basketball programs from 1976-1991.

Established in 1998, the UCF Athletics Hall of Fame exists to honor those individuals who, through their demonstrated athletic achievements or service, have distinguished themselves and the University of Central Florida.

Currently, 36 former UCF coaches and athletes have been inducted into the Hall of Fame, including three former basketball players.

Tamika Coley
Women's Basketball,
1991-92, '93-96
Class of 2001

Tamika Coley finished her career in 1996 in fitting fashion by leading the team to a conference title and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament. She led the team in both points and rebounds each season she played and finished as the school's all-time leader in both categories. Coley earned first-team All-Trans America Athletic Conference (now Atlantic Sun) honors three consecutive years and was named TAAC Tournament MVP as a senior. She scored 2,006 points, pulled down 1,211 rebounds and set the career record for field goals and free throws made.

Susan Patz (Pringle)
Women's Basketball,
1982-86
Class of 2000

Susan Patz played from 1982-86 and was instrumental in the UCF women's basketball team's transition from Division II to Division I. She finished her career as UCF's second leading scorer with 1,587 points. She tallied 85 blocked shots during here career and grabbed 563 rebounds, She was the first woman in school history to score more than 1,500 points and pull down more than 500 rebounds in a career.

Tari Phillips
Women's Basketball
1990-91
Class of 2003

Despite the fact she only played one season at UCF (1990-91), Phillips made a significant impact on the women's basketball program. A dominant scorer and rebounder, Phillips still holds the school record for scoring and rebounding average in a season and has the top three spots on the single-game scoring list. She went on to stardom in professional basketball, first in the ABL and now in the WNBA. The Orlando Miracle chose the former ABL All-Star Game MVP in the first round of the WNBA draft in 2000. Currently a member of the Houston Comets, she has appeared in three WNBA All-Star games. She also won a gold medal with Team USA at the World Championships.

Spotlight on Tari Phillips

Tari Phillips (1990-91) played only one season at UCF after transferring from Georgia, but left a lasting impression on the program. She finished her career as the leader in several individual season and game records, including one for most points in a game. After sitting out the fall semester due to NCAA transfer rules, she scored a school record 45 points in the game against Lamar, her seventh game back on the court.

After her career ended at UCF, she played professional basketball overseas with teams in Spain, France, Turkey and Sicily.

She then began her career in the newly formed American Basketball League for women. In the inaugural season of play, Phillips was named the Most Valuable Player of the 1997 ABL All-Star Game.

In 1999, the Orlando Miracle selected Phillips in the first round (eighth overall) of the WNBA Draft. She finished the season averaging 4.1 points and 2.1 rebounds a contest. In the off-season, she was traded to the Portland Fire then acquired by the New York Liberty.

After a solid first season with the Liberty, during which she averaged 13.8 points and eight rebounds, she became the first recipient of the WNBA's newly created Most Improved Player Award. She also earned her first trip to the WNBA All-Star game in 2000 and has played four all-star games during her career.

Phillips currently plays for the Houston Comets. In her seven-year WNBA career, she has played in 205 games (starting 139) and averaged 10.1 points and 6.0 rebounds a game.

During the fall of 2002, Phillips joined Lisa Leslie, Dawn Staley and Sheryl Swoopes on the U.S. National Team that competed at the World Basketball Championships in Nanjing, China. Team USA went 9-0 in the tournament, taking the gold medal with a 79-72 victory over Russia in the finals. Phillips averaged 12.8 minutes in nine games.

Thanks to her success with the Golden Knights basketball program and the excellence she continues to achieve on the professional level, Phillips earned a place in the UCF Hall of Fame in 2003.
