Season in Review

After winning three consecutive Atlantic Sun regular season titles, the Golden Knights began a new era with the move to Conference USA. Of the 23 opponents on the 2005-06 schedule, UCF met 11 of them for the first time in program history.

The Golden Knights finished the season with a 7-21 overall record and went 5-11 in league play. They entered the 2006 C-USA Championship as the No. 11 seed and fell to No. 6 seed Tulane in the opening round.

CROWDED HOUSE... A record number of fans packed the house when the Golden Knights defeated UTEP, 51-46, in the program's first nationally televised game on Jan. 15 at UCF Arena. The crowd of 1,182 was the largest ever for a women's basketball game at UCF.

The previous record of 857 was set on Feb. 2, 2002 in a game against former Atlantic Sun rival Campbell.

ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL... UCF was named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Academic Top 25 Team Honor Roll for NCAA Division I. The Golden Knights posted a team grade-point-average (GPA) of 3.335 during the 2005-06 academic year, which ranked them 16th in the nation. They were the only Conference USA team to make the WBCA's list.

"This is a great honor," said Striegler at the time the award was given. "It is a testament to how hard our players worked in classroom this past season. As a team, we really put an emphasis on academics and we have an amazing support system with our administration and Academic Services for Student-Athletes that helped us toward this achievement."

Women's basketball was also the most improved team on campus, going up well over half a point from its previous GPA in 2004-05, while 10 individuals earned C-USA academic honors with GPA's of 3.0 or better.

JOINING AN ELITE CLUB... Shelby Weber became a member of an elite club when she grabbed her 500th career rebound against Tulane on Jan. 13. She started the season with 390 career rebounds and after adding 191 boards, she finished her career with 581 and jumped to sixth all-time at UCF. She needs 30 more to move into fifth place with Takira Allen (2001-05).

Weber became the third athlete in two years to eclipse the 500-rebound mark as both Ali Roberts and Allen reached the milestone during the 2004-05 season. Of the 15 athletes that have accomplished the feat, six have done so during coach Gail Striegler's tenure.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE VISION... Four Golden Knights posted double-doubles during the 2005-06 season. Leading the pack was Shelby Weber, who added five double-doubles to her two from last year for a career total of seven. Her first double-double of the season came against Butler in the Hilton Concord Thanksgiving Classic on Nov. 25 when she scored 14 points and pulled down a team-high 11 rebounds. Weber added two consecutive double-doubles against Miami (15 points, 11 rebounds) and Quinnipiac (17 points, 10 rebounds) in December. She also posted double-doubles against C-USA foes Rice on Jan. 8 (15 points, 13 rebounds) and SMU on Feb. 10 (15 points, 12 rebounds).

Meanwhile, three Golden Knights earned the first double-doubles of their careers. During the Houston contest on Jan. 6, LaShay King recorded a season-high 15 points and a career-high 12 rebounds. Junior forward Juliana Gomes accomplished the feat against Santa Clara on Nov. 28 when she had a career night with 11 points and 10 rebounds. Amber Long added her name to the list when she scored a career-high 19 points and grabbed 11 rebounds against UAB on Feb. 17 to post the first double-double of her career.

LENDING A HAND... Shayla Smith and LaShay King each left their mark on the UCF record books at the end of the season. Both were ranked on the school's list for most assists in a career. Adding a team-high 128 helpers to her 194 from the previous three years, King landed in fifth with 322.

Prior to the start of the season, Smith appeared on the list in ninth with 219 assists. With 85 assists during the 2005-06 season, she finished her career with 304 and moved to sixth place all-time at UCF.

GOING THE EXTRA MILES... Junior forward Keunta Miles finished on a hot streak during the team's last four regular season games. She started against UAB on Feb. 17 when she went 5-for-6 from the floor, scored 12 points and grabbed six boards. In the following contest against Memphis, she recorded eight points and eight rebounds.

The final weekend of the season, Miles went 8-for-11 (.727) from the field and recorded career-highs in both points (18) and rebounds (9) at Marshall on Feb. 24. In the finale against East Carolina two days later, she made all five attempts from the floor and sank 4-of-5 from the foul line as she scored 14 points and pulled down six boards.

Miles averaged 13 points and 7.3 rebounds and hit 67.7% (21-for-31) from the field in those four games.

CHASING PERFECTION... Several Golden Knights proved to be sharpshooters from the floor, missing fewer than two of their six or more attempts. Shelby Weber posted four games of near-perfect basketball, including the game against Memphis on Feb. 19 when she hit 11-of-12 (91.7%). She also went 8-for-9 (88.9%) at UAB on Jan. 29.

Among the others joining Weber were senior guard Shayla Smith (two games), junior forward Juliana Gomes (two), senior guard LaShay King (one) and junior forward Keunta Miles (one).

LaShay King

Only one player, Amber Long, was perfect. She made all seven attempts from the field against East Carolina on Jan. 22.

LONGONEFFORT... Amber Long made an impression on C-USA opponents. After pouring in a game-high 16 points against Southern Miss on New Year's Eve, she scored 18 points against Tulane on Jan. 13. After going a perfect 7-for-7 from the field with a team-high 15 points against East Carolina on Jan. 22, she earned her first career double-double by recording a career-best 19 points and 11 rebounds against UAB one month later.

Her efforts earned her a starting role in 14 of the 16 league games.

RETURN OF THE KING... Not to be outdone by Amber Long, LaShay King also stepped up her game against league foes. The senior guard hit a three-pointer with 16 seconds remaining in regulation to give UCF the final advantage in a hard-fought 51-46 win over UTEP on Jan. 15.

Another highlight came against Houston on Jan. 6, when she recorded her first career double-double with a career-best 15 points and 12 boards. She finished the season with a team-high 128 assists, an effort that ranks ninth for most assists in a season.

HOUSTON ROCKET... Francine Houston stepped up to lead the UCF offense early in the season and stayed atop the stat sheet with 13.0 points per game. She finished 13th in the conference in scoring, while she led all players in three-point field goals made (78) and was in three-point field goal percentage (36.1%).

Twice during the year, Houston tied the school record for most three-pointers in a game. She first met the mark going 7-for-10 on Nov. 26 against Princeton then went 7-for-16 from behind the arc against Marshall on Jan. 20.

Houston was recognized for her performance on the court. She was a member of the Hilton Concord Thanksgiving Classic All-Tournament Team after averaging 23 points in the two games against Butler and Princeton.

In December, Houston was also named to the UCF Holiday Classic All-Tournament Team. She recorded 14.5 points per game and went 10-for-10 from the foul line in contests against Central Michigan and UT-Arlington.

FOREIGN POLICY... Juliana Gomes, a native of Sao Paulo, Brazil, became the first foreign-born player to don a Black & Gold jersey during head coach Gail Striegler's tenure. The last international members of the UCF women's basketball team were Scandinavians Anu Mahlamaeki, Vukko Timola and Frida Stromquist, who played during the 1997-98 season.
