2005 Review

2005 Review

The UCF women's soccer team finished the 2005 season with a 12-10 overall record and an 8-1 mark in Conference USA. The Golden Knights were regular season co-champions with SMU and were the No. 1 seed at the 2005 Conference USA Women's Soccer Championship. UCF defeated Houston, 3-2, in the opening round of the tournament before being defeated by UTEP in the semifinal round. Roberta Pelarigo and Kelsey Kravec were both named the C-USA All-Tournament Team.

The Golden Knights finished the season ranked at No. 14 in the SoccerBuzz.com Southeast Region poll.

Courtney Baines made her mark during the Golden Knights inaugural campaign in C-USA as she was named the league's defensive player of the year, making it the second consecutive season that the defender claimed the award. In 2004, she received similar recognition from the Atlantic Sun.

Baines, who also added first-team all-conference honors to her resume, played in all 22 matches for the Golden Knights and recorded five assists.

Joining Baines on the All-C-USA First Team was forward Roberta Pelarigo. Among league players, she was ranked fifth in goals (14) and ninth in points (32).

Forward Jennifer Montgomery, who was ranked sixth in the conference with seven assists, found a spot on the All-C-USA Second Team.

TRIO EARNS C-USA WEEKLY HONORS

Three Golden Knights were also recognized by C-USA with weekly honors. Forward Kristin Bilby garnered conference offensive player of the week honors on Oct. 17 after scoring the game-winning goals against East Carolina and Marshall.

On Nov. 1, after wins against Rice and Houston, forward Jennifer Montgomery and midfielder Erin Hopkins both claimed awards. Montgomery was co-offensive player of the week after recording five points on one goal and three assists, while Hopkins recorded her first two goals of the season to walk away with the defensive player of the week award.

CROMWELL HITS CENTURY MARK IN WINS

Amanda Cromwell became the first coach in UCF women's soccer history to win 100 matches when she guided the Golden Knights to a 2-1 win over Houston on Oct. 30.

In her seven years at the helm of the Black and Gold, Cromwell has amassed a record of 101-47-5 as she has led the Golden Knights to five NCAA Tournament appearances. She became the winningest coach in program history during the 2004 season when the Golden Knights defeated Florida International, 2-1.

AGAINST CONFERENCE USA TEAMS

With an 8-1 record against C-USA opponents, it should be no surprise that the Golden Knights dominated the league's statistical rankings. UCF led all teams in shots (187) and were also tied for the top spot in goals (21) and points (64) in conference matches. The squad was also second in goals-against-average at 0.66.

Individually, the Golden Knights led several categories. Forward Roberta Pelarigo topped all other conference players in shots (56), while goalkeeper Julie Snaman was first in both GAA (0.61) and save percentage (.857).

Pelargio was also fourth in points (17) and third in goals (7) and forward Jennifer Montgomery tied for second in assists (6).

OUT OF THE GATE

UCF's first seven goals of the 2005 season were scored by newcomers. Transfer Roberta Pelarigo started the trend when she netted her first goal against Pepperdine on Aug. 26 before another transfer, Michelle DeCespedes, bettered that by scoring two goals against UC-Santa Barbara two days later. In that same match, sophomore transfer Jessica Newport and freshman Lydia Jones knocked in their first goals of the season to round out opening weekend.

Newcomers continued to make their mark throughout the season as they scored 23 of UCF's 37 goals.

BREAKING RECORDS

After a stellar four-year career as a Golden Knight, Jennifer Montgomery found a place in the UCF record books. She finished in UCF's career top 10 for shots (189), goals (38), total points (103) and game-winning goals (8). Montgomery was also listed in several season record categories, leading the way in total points (46), while she is second in goals (17), fourth in assists (12) and eighth in game-winning goals (4).

Other Golden Knights also found their way into the record books. Midfielder Courtney Baines capped off her career ranked fourth in assists with 29. Goalkeeper Julie Snaman ended her four years at UCF at fifth in saves (138), fourth in goals against average (0.86) and sixth in shutouts (19.0), while her counterpart Beth Harless was third in goals against average (0.79). Entering the record books with only one season to her credit was forward Roberta Pelarigo. She is ranked second in shots per season with 106.

THE TOAST OF ACADEMIA...

Midfielder Courtney Baines was recognized on several occasions for her academic excellence. In addition to the C-USA Women's Soccer Scholar-Athlete award, Baines earned a spot on the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-District III First Team for the second consecutive season and went on to earn ESPN the Magazine Academic All-America First-Team honors. She also claimed National Soccer Coaches of America Association (NSCAA)/adidas College Scholar All-America First Team recognition.

In the spring, Baines was selected as UCF's Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

GAME 22 Nov. 4 - at Houston,Texas Conference USA Championship Semifinals

1 2 Tot UTEP 1 4 5 UCF 0 1 1

Jami Tullius recorded two goals and two assists as the Miners defeated UCF, 5-1, in the semifinal round of the 2005 Conference USA Women's Soccer Championship. Brandi Aston opened the scoring in the waning minutes of the first half when she dribbled in and sent a shot past a diving Julie Snaman. Less than 10 minutes into the second half, the Miners extended their lead to 2-0 on a tally from Cara Nordin, who scored from 15 yards out. UCF got on the board in the 65th minute as Roberta Pelarigo capitalized on a header off a corner kick from Jessalyn Withers. Despite the Golden Knights' offensive spark, the Miners took a 3-1 lead when Tullius passed the ball to Kia Sams for the score. Tullius finished off the win by netting goals in the 75th and 77th minutes.
