Yearly History

1987-88

Lisa Becka earns medalist honors and is named New South Women's Athletic Conference Player of the Year as UCF finishes runner-up in the NSWAC Tournament. Paige Phillips finishes runner-up and is named to the all-conference team.

1989-90 - NSWAC CHAMPIONS

Liz Earley earns medalist honors and is named player of the year as UCF wins the NSWAC title. Marla Jemsek and Catrina Runyan are named to the all-conference team.

1990-91

Liz Earley is named the Golfweek's national Golfer of the Month for March. Earley represents UCF in the NCAA Women's Golf Championship and finishes 46th.

1991-92 - SUN BELT CHAMPIONS

UCF wins the Sun Belt Conference championship and makes its first appearance in the NCAA Division I Top 20 poll. Liz Earley is the Sun Belt Conference medalist and makes her second trip to the NCAA Championship where she finishes 47th and earns second-team All-America honors. Mike Shumaker is named Sun Belt Coach of the Year.

1992-93

Kristen Putman earns All-Atlantic Sun Conference honors and qualifies for the NCAA East Regional, while Connie Masterson wins the National Public Links Golf Championship. Putman, Masterson and 1992 grad Liz Earley qualify for the U.S. Open.

1993-94

Kristen Putman earns All-A-Sun honors and is one of four players selected to represent the U.S. in the 19th Annual USA vs. Japan Collegiate Golf Tournament in Tokyo.

1994-95 - ATLANTIC SUN CHAMPIONS NCAA EAST REGIONAL

Jenny Hagman earns medalist honors as UCF wins the A-Sun title. Kristen Putman, Tine Faanes and Brooke Grant earn All-A-Sun honors. UCF makes its first team appearance in the NCAA East Regional.

1995-96 - NCAA EAST REGIONAL NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

UCF wins three tournaments on the year. Kristen Putman earns medalist honors at the A-Sun Tournament and is named to the All-A-Sun team along with Michelle Hatfield. UCF advances from the NCAA East Regional in Auburn, Ala., to its first appearance in the NCAA Finals in LaQuinta, Calif., where it finishes 15th. Putman represents the East in the East-West matches in the finals. After the season, she makes a return trip to Japan to compete for the U.S.

1996-97

Emma Soderlindh finishes runner-up in the A-Sun Tournament. Line Berg earns All-A-Sun honors along with Jenny Hagman.

1997-98

UCF wins Stetson's Hatter Spring Fling. Line Berg finishes third at the A-Sun Tournament and Emma Soderlindh finishes eighth. Berg, Soderlindh and Tatiana Londano earn second-team All-A-Sun honors.

1998-99 - ATLANTIC SUN CHAMPIONS NCAA EAST REGIONAL

The Knights bring home the A-Sun Championship by shooting the best team score in school history at 896. Line Berg and Monica Gundersrud earn All-A-Sun First Team honors and Olivia Hartley and Tatiana Londano earn second-team honors. Berg earns an invitation to the NCAA East Regional where she finishes in a tie for 47th.

1999-00 - ATLANTIC SUN CHAMPIONS NCAA EAST REGIONAL

Down by 19 strokes with a day to play, UCF overtakes Campbell University in the greatest comeback in A-Sun Women's Golf Championship history and claims its second consecutive A-Sun Title. Jill Fjelstul is named A-Sun Coach of the Year. Line Berg and Monica Gundersrud earn first-team All-A-Sun honors. Tanja Arnold and Olivia Hartley earn second-team recognition. UCF finished 15th of 24 at the NCAA East Regional in Columbus, Ohio. Gundersrud finishes the year ranked 87th in the MasterCard Collegiate Golf Rankings, while the UCF finishes ranked 38th.

2000-01 - NCAA CENTRAL REGIONAL

Having its best season since the 1995-96 National Championship qualifying team, UCF hit a wall at the frigid NCAA Central Regional in West Lafayette, Ind. UCF gained an at-large bid to the tournament after finishing second in the Atlantic Sun Tournament. The Knights started off the year with a bang, finishing 12th of 21 teams at the NCAA Women's Fall Preview in Howey-in-the-Hills, Fla. Tanja Arnold earned Atlantic Sun Player of the Year honors. Arnold and Olivia Hartley were both named to the Atlantic Sun First Team, while Kim Tudor and Monica Gundersrud made second team all-conference. UCF won two tournaments during the year, the Ole

Miss Lady Rebel Invitational and the third annual UCF Invitational.

2001-02 - NCAA SOUTH REGIONAL

UCF once again made a trip to the NCAA Regionals, as the Knights earned a spot in the South Regional at LSU. UCF placed 15th in the regional after finishing second at the Atlantic Sun Championship. Freshman Federica Piovano was named the Atlantic Sun Freshman of the Year, while also earning first-team all-Atlantic Sun honors. Olivia Hartley and Kim Tudor were named second-team All-Atlantic Sun while Tudor also finished ninth at the NCAA Regional.

2003-04

Senior Sarah Greene was named to the Atlantic Sun all-conference second team while Lauren Motyl was named to the Atlantic Sun all-freshman team.

2004-05

Freshman Ashley Grier posted five top-five finishes, including a third-place finish at the Atlantic Sun Conference Championship, en route to earning second-team All-A-Sun honors. UCF challenges for the A-Sun title but falters late and finishes third.

2005-06

The addition of first-year head coach Emilee Klein in November provided instant benefits as the team finished runner-up at the Stetson Invitational. It was the best team finish in more than three years. The squad picked up another second-place finish at the Waterlefe Invitational and tied for third at the Conference USA Championships. Ashley Grier earned third-team all-conference honors along with Holly Boot and Kristy McLaughlin. Grier also was named to the 2006 National Golf Coaches Association All-American Scholar Team and the Conference USA Golf Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

2006-07

The Knights end the season in a three-way tie for third place at the Conference USA Championship behind a fourth-place finish by Stephanie Connelly, who was named to the all-tournament team as well as being named to the All-C-USA Third Team. Sara Hurwitch was named the C-USA Freshman of the Year and earned second-team All-C-USA honors.

2007-08 - NCAA EAST REGIONAL

UCF made its first trip to the NCAA Regionals since 2002, earning an at-large bid into the NCAA East Regional after placing fourth at the

Conference USA Championship. Junior Mayule Tomimbang was named to the All-C-USA First Team, while fellow junior Stephanie Connelly earned All-C-USA honors for the second-consecutive year after making the third team.

2008-09 - NCAA EAST REGIONAL

UCF made consecutive appearances in the NCAA Regionals as the Knights were selected to play in Gainesville. Stephanie Connelly was the top individual finisher (and second overall) at the regional with an even-par 210 and earned a spot at the NCAA Championships. Connelly had a great run at the NCAAs as she finished in a tie for 11th place overall in the most elite of fields, spending much of the 72-hole event in the Top 10. UCF, meanwhile, headed into the NCAAs with a full head of steam after placing second at the Conference USA Championship, its best-ever showing since joining the league in 2005-06. Connelly was named to the all-conference second team while Katie Detlefsen was named to the C-USA All-Academic Team, carrying a 4.0 cumulative GPA.

2009-10

In their first season of action under new head coach Courtney Trimble, the Knights accomplished a feat that had not been achieved since 2002 in winning an event. UCF took the overall team title at the Hurricane Invitational in February. The team earned UCF GolfWeek's National Team of the Week honor. Three Knights, Katie Detlefsen, Valentina Fontaine and Carolin Pinegger, earned All-Conference USA honors. Detlefsen also earned several academic awards including the LPGA's Dinah Shore Trophy Award and ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America At Large status. Detlefsen and Fontaine were named to the NGCA All-America Scholar team as well.

2010-11

The Knights set a then-school record by shooting a 236 at their home tournament, the UCF Challenge. Golf Digest rated the UCF Challenge amongst the top-15 spring tournaments in the nation. Katie Detlefsen was named to Capital One Academic All-America At-Large First Team. Detlefsen also earned a spot on the Conference USA Women's Golf All-Academic Team for the third-straight year. Carolin Pinegger was named to the All-C-USA third team.

2011-12 - NCAA EAST REGIONAL

The Knights set a school record by shooting a 236 at their home tournament, the UCF Challenge. Golf Digest rated the UCF Challenge amongst the top-15 spring tournaments in the nation. Katie Detlefsen was named to Capital

One Academic All-America At-Large First Team. Detlefsen also earned a spot on the Conference USA Women's Golf All-Academic Team for the third-straight year. Carolin Pinegger was named to the All-C-USA third team.

2012-13 - NCAA EAST REGIONAL

The Knights advanced to an NCAA Regional for the fourth time in six years in head coach Emily Marron's first season at UCF. Monifa Sealy earned Second Team All-C-USA honors, while Carolin Pinegger was named to the league's Third Team. Pinegger was on one of the All-CUSA teams all four years of her Knight career. The Knights turned in eight Top 10 finishes and five Top 5 results throughout the season.

2013-14 - NCAA EAST REGIONAL

The Knights advanced to an NCAA Regional for the fifth time in seven years. UCF won the Florida Shootout and the UCF Challenge to open the spring portion of the season. Fanny Cnops and Ashley Holder each took individual wins through the regular season, as well. The Knights took part in the inaugural season of the American Athletic Conference, falling one stroke short at the newly-formed league's first women's golf championship. Holder was named The American's Freshman and Player of the Year. Holder joined Cnops, Kaitlyn Price and Kristine Odaiyar on the all-conference team.

2014-15 - AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS - NCAA RALEIGH REGIONAL

UCF held off a late charge from SMU and clinched its first conference championship since 2000, when the Knights won the Atlantic Sun. The American Athletic Conference title was doubly sweet when Monifa Sealy brought home the individual championship, winning a one-hole playoff for medalist honors. For the second season in a row, Ashley Holder was named The American's Player of the Year. In her third season, Emily Marron was named AAC Coach of the Year. Laura Sojo was named the league's Freshman of the Year. Holder, Sojo and Sealy were all named to The American's all-conference team. UCF advanced to an NCAA Regional for the fourth straight season and the sixth time in eight years.

2015-16

Ashley Holder advanced to the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional as an individual. She carded her best round of the season in the final round of the regional. Holder took runner-up honors at the American Athletic Conference Championship, as well.

2016-17 - AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS - NCAA ATHENS REGIONAL

For the second time in three years, the Knights won the American Athletic Conference Championship and swept all three of the league's major awards. Ashley Holder was named the AAC Player of the Year for the third time in her career. Maria Balcazar was honored as the Freshman of the Year. Emily Marron brought home her second AAC Coach of the Year award. The Knights won the American Athletic Conference Championship, while Holder brought home the individual crown as well. Balcazar finished fourth at The American Championship. In addition to Holder and Balcazar, Ayaka Nakayama was also named to the all-conference team. In Marron's five years as head coach to this point, the Knights advanced to four NCAA Regionals.

2017-18

The Knights saved their best for last in 2017-18. After a season where the squad's best finish was sixth, UCF took runner-up honors at the American Athletic Conference Championship as the No. 5 seed. Kaeli Jones finished fifth at the AAC Championship and advanced to the NCAA Tallahassee Regional as an individual. Maria Balcazar recovered from injury to return and help her team at the conference championship, finishing eighth.

2018-19

NCAA WEST REGIONAL NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

For just the second time in program history, the Knights punched their ticket to the National Championships. UCF won a pair of tournaments during the season, one at the Princess Anne Invitational and another at the Moon Golf Invitational. UCF had four top-five finishes, including second at The American Championship. Freshman Elizabeth Moon took home two individual titles and finished second in two other tournaments including the conference championships. Moon was named Freshman of the Year and Maria Balcazar was also named to the All-Conference Team. Moon set the new single-season record for average and the best 54-hole score. The Knights were ranked No. 51 at the end of the regular season and earned a berth to the NCAA West Regional in Cle Elum, Wash. UCF shot eight-under on the final nine holes on the last day to head to the National Championship in Fayetteville, Ark. The Knights finished 22nd.

(season shortend due to COVID-19)

The Knights 2019-2020 campaign was cut two tournaments before the end of the regular season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. At the time of the cancellation, the Knights' top finish came at the Princess Anne Invitational in October, and the Lady Gator Invitational in March, where UCF placed T4 in each tournament. Tunrada Pidton picked up a pair of tournament victories, also at the Princess Anne Invitational and Lady Gator Invitational.

2020-21

NCAA LOUISVILLE REGIONAL

For the third time in five seasons, the Knights earned an NCAA Regional bid, after finishing fourth in the American Athletic Conference Championship. The Knights top finish of the spring came in the final tournament of the season, winning the Brickyard Invitational. UCF women's golf earned a pair of conference honors as Tunrada Pidton and Ana Laura Colorado were named to the American Athletic Conference All-Conference, each for the first time. UCF entered the NCAA Louisville Regional ranked No. 34, where the Knights shot a +17 across the three-round tournament, finishing tied for eighth. The Black and Gold were two strokes shy of advancing to the National Championship.

NCAA ANN ARBOR REGIONAL

The Knights earned an NCAA Regional bid for the fourth time in six seasons, after finishing third in the American Athletic Conference Championship. The Knights posted two first-place finishes at the Evie Odom Invitational and the Brickyard Invitational. A trio of Knights earned AAC honors as Zoe Allaux, Camille Banzet and Tunrada Pidton were named to the AAC All-Conference team. In addition, Pidton earned AAC Player of the Year and Allaux was tabbed AAC Freshman of the Year. UCF entered the NCAA Ann Arbor Regional as the No. 5 seed, where they shot 909 across the three-round tournament, finishing in 11th place.
