INTERVIEW POLICIES

Interviews with UCF student-athletes and coaches must be arranged through Jenna VanHoose in the UCF Strategic Communications office.

Please do not attempt to contact players, coaches or other team personnel directly by any means of communication, including personal phone numbers, email addresses and social media accounts.

PRACTICES

UCF women's basketball practices during the regular season are closed.

WEEKLY AVAILABILITY

UCF head coach Sytia Messer and select student-athletes will be available upon request after practice during the week.

POSTGAME AVAILABILITY

Postgame press conferences with UCF head coach Sytia Messer and selected student-athletes will take place in the postgame interview room following each game.

UCF's locker room is closed to the media.

CREDENTIAL POLICY

All basketball credentials are revocable licenses for admission. UCF Athletics reserves the right to refuse, revoke or terminate this license at any time.

UCF Athletics specifically reserves the right to alter, amend, revise or in any way change the terms of the license without advance notice to the holder, and such changes may not be reflected on the credential.

GAME CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credentials and access at all UCF home basketball games during the 2022-23 season will be granted on a game-by-game basis and will need to be requested 48 hour prior to each game. All requests for women's basketball games can be made by emailing Jenna VanHoose (jvanhoose@athletics.ucf.edu).

Credentials can be revoked at any time if there is evidence of noncompliance before, during or after each game.

GAMEDAY PARKING

Media members covering UCF basketball park in Garage F, located directly north of Addition Financial Arena, between the arena and John Euliano Park. Upon approval of credential requests, a parking pass will be emailed.

UCF, Not Central Florida

Please refer to the University of Central Florida as UCF in all references. Derivatives such as Central Florida, C. Florida, Cent. Florida and C. Fla., should not be used.

Also, please note that UCF's teams stopped being referred to as the Golden Knights in 2007. Instead, they are simply called the Knights.

GAMEDAY LIVE STATS

Live in-game statistics will be provided for the media at ucf.statbroadcast.com.

TICKET INFORMATION

Tickets for all UCF home games may be purchased through the UCF ticket sales office by calling (407) UCF-1000.

UCF ON THE AIR

Each of the UCF women's basketball home games will air on the ESPN family of networks. All of UCF's non-conference home games, and a majority of the Knights' conference matchups will stream on ESPN+.

UCF's ESPN+ broadcast will feature a familiar voice for Knights fans. Now entering his 16th season, Scott Adams has been a part of the UCF Athletics broadcast family since 2002. Having served as both studio and scoreboard host for UCF football, Adams has also been behind the mic and camera for UCF men's basketball, UCF men's and women's soccer, as well as Knights baseball and softball.

Aside from his UCF broadcasting duties, Adams is also a freelance commercial actor, host, spokesperson and model in the Central Florida Area. A longtime Orlando resident and proud UCF alum, Adams is a regular contributor for "The Beat of Sports" radio show on the flagship station of the Knights FM 96.9 "The Game."

CREDITS

The 2022-23 UCF Women's Basketball Media Guide was designed and edited by UCF Athletics. Editorial assistance was provided by Jenna VanHoose and Justin Wilson. All images included in the media guide were provided by Ben Solomon, American Athletic Conference, Brendan Maloney, Brad Helton, Kevin Macia, Conor Kvatek and UCF Athletics.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

• The University of Central Florida accepted an invitation to join the Big 12 Conference, as announced by Big 12 commissioner Bob Bowlsby, UCF director of athletics Terry Mohajir, and UCF President Alex Cartwright on Friday, Sept. 10, 2021.

• The Knights athletics program has now moved from Division III, Division II, the FCS level, the FBS level that included time in the Mid Atlantic Conference, Conference USA, the American Athletic Conference, and now to the Big 12 Conference.

• Mohajir: "This is a landmark day for anyone ever associated with UCF or UCF Athletics. As we anticipate a future move to the Big 12 Conference, we first owe a vote of thanks to all those at UCF who have gone before us. There's a long list of student-athletes, coaches, athletics directors, university presidents and support staff, fans and donors and, of course, our student body, plus so many others whose hard work and successes have helped pave the way for today's announcement. The bases were already loaded, and I feel very blessed and honored to get to step up to the plate on behalf of UCF."

SYTIA MESSER

First Season at UCF

Sytia (sit-TEE-uh) Messer, a 22-year coaching veteran who won a national title and made five other NCAA Elite Eight and 11 overall NCAA Championship appearances as an assistant coach, was named the 13th head women's basketball coach in UCF history on April 3, 2022.

Messer came to UCF after serving as associate head coach at LSU for the 2021-22 season under 2022 Associated Press National Coach of the Year and Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer Kim Mulkey.

As an assistant coach on Mulkey's staff at Baylor from 2013-14 through 2020-21, Messer helped lead the Bears to a combined record of 260-23 (.918) in eight seasons, winning eight Big 12 Conference regular-season championships, six conference tournament titles, an NCAA title in 2019 and making six NCAA Elite Eight appearances.

With Messer's help, Baylor won 32 or more games in each of her first six seasons with the Bears—the last of those a 37-1 record in the 2019 NCAA title campaign. In those six years Baylor finished sixth or higher in the final AP poll every season—including first in 2019 and second in 2018. Messer's eight seasons at Baylor included 23 NCAA Championship victories and at least a tie for the Big 12 regular-season title every year.

During her time at Baylor, Messer oversaw scouting and recruiting, helping the Lady Bears sign the nation's top recruiting class in both 2016 and 2018 as well as the second-ranked class in 2015. She helped recruit 15 top 50 players and 14 McDonald's All-Americans. The Lady Bears had nine players selected in the WNBA Draft during that span, including Odyssey Sims, the second overall pick in 2014, and Alexis Jones, the 12th overall selection in 2017.

In addition, Messer recruited Kalani Brown, a first-round (seventh overall) draft pick of the Los Angeles Sparks in 2019, and Lauren Cox, the nation's top-rated recruit out of Flower Mound High School in Texas and the third overall draft pick by the Indiana Fever in the 2020 WNBA Draft. She also helped develop Didi Richards, the 2020 Naismith Defensive Player of the Year at Baylor, as well as 2022 first-team All-SEC honoree Khayla Pointer at LSU.

In eight years at Baylor, Messer coached Sims (the 2014 Big 12 Player of the Year) and had seven guards named first-team All-Big 12 Conference. She also recruited and signed 2021 Wade Trophy winner and Big 12 Player of the Year NaLyssa Smith. Baylor in Messer's tenure there produced eight selections on one of the three Associated Press All-America teams—including first-team picks Sims (2014), Nina Davis (2014), Cox (2020) and Smith (2021). Smith claimed first-team honors again in 2022.

After joining the Baylor staff in 2013, Messer's teams over the next nine years produced 73 All-Big 12 selections, 20 All-America honorees, five Big 12 Players of the Year, 26 Academic All-Big 12 selections and two All-SEC performers.

A head coach for three seasons at Tennessee Tech from 2009-10 to 2011-12, Messer led the Golden Eagles to the 2011 Ohio Valley Conference regular-season championship, two postseason appearances (WNIT in 2011, WBI in 2012), back-to-back appearances in the OVC tournament title game—and she was named the 2011 OVC Coach of the Year. Her three-year mark of 54-41 (.568) featured a 23-8 record in 2010-11, a three-year 34-18 OVC mark and 30-12 home record.

Messer got her start in coaching as an assistant coach for two years at Arkansas State in 2000-01 and 2001-02. Other coaching stops for Messer include assistant coaching positions at Memphis (2002-03 and 2003-04) and Georgia Tech twice (2004-05 through 2008-09; 2012-13).

In her second season at Memphis, Messer helped the Tigers to a 21-10 mark and a second-round WNIT appearance. She played a key role on Georgia Tech teams that three straight years won at least 21 games and advanced to NCAA Championships in 2007-08-09.

The Waldo, Arkansas, native was a standout women's basketball student-athlete at Arkansas, where she helped the Razorbacks reach the NCAA Final Four for the first time in school history in 1998.

Messer finished her 1995-99 career with the Razorbacks ranked in the school's top 10 for points (1,379) and rebounds (603). She was a two-time captain for Arkansas as a junior and senior and was named to the SEC All-Freshman team in 1996. Messer's top individual season came when she averaged 12.6 points per game in 1997-98.

She was named the 1998 NCAA Championship West Regional MVP after helping Arkansas to a berth in the Final Four—thanks to regional wins over Kansas (led by Messer's 24 points) and Duke. Arkansas, seeded ninth in the NCAA bracket that year, became the first unranked team in the modern era to advance to the Final Four.

Messer also helped Arkansas to the 1999 WNIT championship. She's a member of the Razorbacks Hall of Honor (inducted in 2018) and was part of the 2012 Class of SEC greats.

Messer played in the summer prior to graduation for the collegiate squad of Athletes in Action. She also played for the post-collegian Athletes in Action touring team.

She is a 2000 graduate of Arkansas, with a Bachelor of Science degree in kinesiology.

She has been an honorary chair of Habitat for Humanity—and she also was a 2012 graduate of the Center for Coaching Excellence.

TENNILLE ADAMS

Tennille Adams was announced as associate head coach of the UCF women's basketball team on May 11, 2022.

Adams came to Orlando after one season as the associate head coach at Memphis. In 2021-22, the Tigers quadrupled their win total from the 2020-21 campaign and recorded the program's best start through seven games.

Prior to Memphis, she served as associate head coach for three seasons at Wright State, helping the Raiders go 65-27 with two NCAA Tournament trips and two Horizon League championships in three seasons.

At Wright State, Adams' primary responsibility was the post players. She mentored Horizon League all-defensive honoree Tyler Frierson and Freshman of the Year Shamarre Hale and served as the strength and conditioning liaison.

Adams also spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Ball State, with her teams making three straight WNIT appearances.

Prior to Ball State, Adams spent two seasons as the head coach at Howard University after stops at Northwestern and American. At American she developed two post players into All-Patriot League honorees. During her time at Northwestern, she was named the defensive coordinator in 2011, then offensive coordinator in 2012. She was critical in recruiting the 20th- and 14th-ranked recruiting class in 2009 and 2011. Adams's post development expertise continued as she mentored three All-Big Ten post players. The Wildcats also made two consecutive postseason appearances.

Adams began her coaching career in 2004 as an assistant at Lon Morris Junior College in Jacksonville, Texas, before taking a similar position at North Carolina A&T State for two years.

As a student-athlete at Arkansas, Adams was a teammate of Sytia Messer and member of the 1998 NCAA Final Four and 1999 WNIT Championship teams. She recorded the historic rebound put-back that advanced the Razorbacks to the Final Four. She graduated from Arkansas with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and was also a member of Zeta Phi Beta sorority.

A native of the talent hotbed of East Chicago, Indiana, where she attended Central High School, Adams was ranked as one of the top five post players in the country by BlueStar and was a member of the 1995 Indiana All-Star team.

GREG BROWN

Greg Brown, a 16-year Division I coaching veteran, is back for his second stint with the UCF women's basketball program. He was named associate head coach on May 11, 2022.

Brown is back in Orlando after spending the 2021-22 campaign as an assistant coach at Texas A&M.

Prior to his time in College Station, Brown was the head coach of his alma mater, Lipscomb, from 2012-2019, and spent two seasons as an assistant coach for the legendary Hall of Famer Pat Summitt at Tennessee.

During his stint as head coach at Lipscomb, Brown's players earned the program's first Atlantic Sun Player of the Year honor, three ASUN All-Conference nods, five ASUN All-Freshman honors, eight ASUN Academic All-Conference selections, nine ASUN Players of the Week, one ASUN Scholar-Athlete of the Year and an ASUN Newcomer of the Year award.

Throughout his tenure at Lipscomb, Brown's teams ranked at or near the top of the ASUN in several scoring and shooting categories. In 2014-15, the Lady Bisons led the ASUN and ranked 32nd nationally in three-point field-goal percentage, shooting at a 35.8 clip from beyond the arc. The team's 8.1 three-point field goals per game placed them second in the conference and 15th in the nation.

Prior to being tabbed head coach at Lipscomb, Brown was the associate head for the Knights under Joi Williams. He spent five seasons at UCF, helping lead the Black and Gold to two Conference USA championships in 2009 and 2011 along with two bids into the NCAA Tournament. He joined UCF in April 2007 as an assistant coach and was elevated to associate head coach in June 2009.

Before his first stint at UCF, Brown worked with Summitt for two seasons at Tennessee, first serving as a graduate assistant before being promoted to assistant coach in 2003-04. During that time, the Lady Volunteers compiled a record of 64-9, earned two Southeastern Conference Championships and were twice the runners-up in the NCAA Championship Game. His responsibilities at Tennessee included coaching post players, highlighted by several current WNBA players such as 2004 Kodak All-America selection Shyra Ely.

A 1993 Lipscomb University graduate with a degree in political science, Brown began his coaching career as a student assistant under former Bisons men's basketball head coach Don Meyer.

Prior to UCF, Brown served as head girls' basketball coach at Goodpasture Christian School in Nashville from 2005-2006. He also led Friendship Christian School girls' basketball team to three district championships, a regional championship and a sub-state title from 2019-21. He earned two District 8A Coach of the Year awards.

In 2015, Brown released the book "Best Things I've Seen in Coaching" chronicling the time he spent with Summitt and Meyer and the coaching thoughts, quotes, and ideas he gained from the two legendary figures along the way.

Brown and his wife, Teresa, have two sons, Cole and Carter.

MICHELLE EDWARDS

Michelle Edwards joined the UCF women's basketball coaching staff as an assistant coach in July 2022. Edwards is a former collegiate national player of the year, international all-star, WNBA franchise player and 2014 inductee into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame.

Edwards joins the Knights after 19 seasons on the Rutgers women's basketball staff, including four as an assistant coach.

A native of Boston, Massachusetts, Edwards played for Hall of Fame head coach C. Vivian Stringer at the University of Iowa from 1984-88. After helping lead the Hawkeyes to a 20-8 record as a freshman, Edwards piloted Iowa to back-to-back NCAA Tournament regional final appearances (1987, 1988) and a No. 1 national ranking.

As a senior, Edwards was selected the Big Ten Player of the Year, a Kodak, Naismith and USBWA All-American and the Champion National Player of the Year.

A 2000 Iowa Hall of Fame inductee, she is one of just two female Hawkeyes to have her jersey retired. Her career totals in points (1,821), assists (431) and steals (235) still rank in the top 10 more than 20 years later. Edwards was selected as one of Iowa's "Top 50 Athletes of the Century" as well as the Big Ten Conference Athlete of the Decade in 1989.

Edwards, who won a bronze medal at the 1991 Pan-American Games under Stringer's tutelage, played professionally in Italy from 1988-97. She earned three Italian League All-Star Game MVP awards during her stay. Edwards returned to the United States when the WNBA was formed and was the second allocation from the original group of 16 "franchise" players. Edwards played a total of five seasons (1997-2001) for the Cleveland Rockers and Seattle Storm, averaging 7.6 points and 2.8 assists per game. While a member of the WNBA, she was very active in the community. She worked with several Cleveland charities as well as the NBA's "Read to Achieve" program.

Following the end of her professional playing career, Edwards served as a youth basketball advisor/community relations representative for the YMCA in New York City. She also added to her resume a career in broadcasting, serving as the Fox Sports Net color analyst for Cleveland games and the color analyst for the Rutgers Radio Network.

Edwards graduated from Iowa with a bachelor's degree in liberal arts in 1989 and earned her master's degree in labor studies from Rutgers in 2016.

In the summer of 2010, Edwards graduated from the NCAA Leadership Institute, delivering the commencement address. She was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in Knoxville, Tenn. in the summer of 2014.

JOSH SHEN

Josh Shen came to UCF after finishing a summer with Northwest Florida State women's basketball. Before making his way to Florida, Shen spent one year as the assistant coach at the reigning Division III American Southwest Conference regular season champion Mary Hardin-Baylor (UMHB) in Belton, Texas. In his lone year, the Crusaders improved their victory column by 11 wins, going from 13-8 the previous year to 24-5 and 18-1 in conference play. Along with that, the Crusaders went on a school record 20-game win streak, making it to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the third straight year. During his time there, Shen was involved mainly in video breakdown, scouting, recruiting and post player development.

Before arriving at UMHB, Shen started his coaching career as the assistant coach at Panola College, a NJCAA D1 program in Carthage, Texas. During the COVID-19 year, the Fillies finished 13-8, beating the NJCAA runner-up Trinity Valley and top-10 foe Tyler Junior College. In his time at Panola, Shen played a part in recruiting seven Division I transfers in his first year and five the following year before heading to UMHB. Shen was instrumental in developing NJCAA All-American Odeth Betancourt who signed with South Florida, as she finished eighth nationally in rebounds and 14th in blocks. In addition, he developed Region XIV all-conference and region players Alana Swift and Ginger Reece. After his first year, he helped send four players to DI programs and one other to DII. Shen was involved in many roles, such as, player development, strength and conditioning, scouting, film, basketball/equipment operations, social media, statistics and recruiting.

Shen spent four years as an undergraduate student team manager with the Baylor women's basketball program from 2016-2020. In his four years, the Baylor Lady Bears had incredible feats:

- 2019 National Champion, 1 Final Four, 3 Elite Eights, 4 Sweet 16s
- 4x Big 12 Regular Season Champion, 2x Big 12 Conference Tournament Champion

As a manager, his duties included basketball/equipment operations, bookkeeping in-game stats, video breakdown, assisting in scouting reports and player development.

After the 2019 season, Shen was a basketball operations Intern with the Atlanta Dream under current Baylor head coach Nicki Collen. He helped coordinate in-game and practice operations. Additionally, Shen was an operations intern and practice player for the Los Angeles Sparks for the 2018 season.

Prior to his stints with the Dream and Sparks, Shen interned as a GYM and womens' sports and olympics Intern with Wasserman Media Group from 2017-2018. He worked alongside sports agents Lindsey Kagawa-Colas, George David, Joe Smith, Darren Matsubara and others. Shen has also assisted Noah LaRoche, founder of Integrity Hoops, and NBA personal trainer Olin Simplis. He has worked with athletes such as Russell Westbrook, A'ja Wilson, Spencer Dinwiddie, Delon Wright, Norman Powell and others.

Shen has experience working various summer basketball camps for UC Santa Barbara, Louisville, Georgia Tech, Georgia and College Coaches Skills Camp. He is an alumnus of Uncommon Sports Group, formerly known as Managers on a Mission, after finishing a 2019 mission trip in Minnesota.

Shen, a 2016 Walnut High School graduate in Walnut, California, earned his bachelor's degree in sports sponsorship and sales and in management from Baylor University in 2020.

ADDITION FINANCIAL ARENA

Thanks to Addition Financial Arena, the Knights play in one of the finest facilities in the nation. The 10,000-seat venue opened in the fall of 2007 and is located on the north side of campus. The facility has dozens of top amenities, including a state-of-the-art video board, luxury suites and wide concourses. The arena was given an updated look in the fall of 2017 with its new Orlando's Hometown Team design, and was rebranded to Addition Financial Arena prior to the fall of 2019.

Step inside Addition Financial Arena and enjoy the best of both worlds - a first-class facility which also highlights the essence of college basketball. The building is one of only a few in the nation that offers unparalleled luxury to student-athletes and fans, and also has a great gameday atmosphere. Similar to National Basketball Association venues, the arena features 16 spacious luxury suites and two party suites. The suites include kitchenettes and bar-style seating and can accommodate up to 20 guests. Additionally, the facility has two loges and the unique Black and Gold Club, which provides exclusive access to the club seating area. The arena helps provide UCF fans with a great entertainment experience during games. The Daktronics scoreboard above center court has four video screens that show replays and provide player information.

BASKETBALL FACILITIES

Not only do the Knights utilize one of the nation's finest home venues in Addition Financial Arena, members of the team also have access to the UCF basketball practice facility. The venue opened in spring 2008 and includes a practice court for the Knights.

UCF student-athletes have access to the facility 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Connecting to Addition Arena, the practice court contains six baskets, two shot clocks and a scoreboard. The Knights use the court for individual development.

The facility is equipped with a video system that allows the UCF coaching staff to tape every practice and workout. The coaches then visit with each student-athlete to analyze their performance. Offices and conference rooms for the UCF coaching staff are located on the second floor of the practice facility. A film room is adjacent to the offices. The practice facility was constructed during the 2007-08 campaign inside the former home of the Knights - the old UCF Arena. UCF played at the facility from 1991-07.

A 2,000-square foot weight room is located on the first floor of the facility. The weight room provides the Knights with access to free weight and machine equipment, cardio and treadmills. The Knights utilize a large sports medicine center located inside the practice facility. The sports medicine center connects to the team's locker room. Additionally, the center is adjacent to Addition Financial Arena for the Knights to use before and after games.

Inside the UCF practice facility, the Knights utilize a new locker room, which also connects to Addition Financial Arena, and a spacious player lounge. Both rooms are used exclusively by the women's basketball program. The room features tables and chairs, televisions and couches for the players.

UCF ATHLETICS FACILITIES

Wayne Densch Center for Student Athlete Leadership

The Wayne Densch Center for Student Athlete Leadership opened in March 2016 and is the on-campus home to the personal, professional and academic development of Knight student-athletes. The building houses the Academic Services for Student-Athletes, Student-Athlete Welfare and Development and Athletics Compliance units. The three-story, 22,000-square-foot structure also features computer labs, tutoring and mentoring rooms, numerous study spaces and conference rooms.

Garvy Center for Student-Athlete Nutrition

The Garvy Center for Student-Athlete Nutrition opened in the fall of 2018. Located on the south side of the FBC Mortgage Stadium, UCF transformed a former recruiting lounge into its Athletics training table. UCF student-athletes are provided healthy meals to help improve their athletic and academic performance.

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

The University of Central Florida is a metropolitan research university located in metropolitan Orlando. Founded in 1963, UCF enrolls about 70,000 students and offers more than 220 degrees through its main campus, 11 regional connect centers, a downtown campus, a health sciences campus at Lake Nona, the Rosen College of Hospitality Management in the heart of Orlando's tourism corridor, and online.

Ensuring Access and Affordability

- The fall 2020 freshman class set a school record with an average high school GPA of 4.18.
- One in five students is the first in his or her family to attend college, and students of color make up 48 percent of the student body.
- Tuition and fees at UCF are among the nation's lowest, and UCF is ranked among the nation's best values by Kiplinger.
- This fall, UCF launched more than two dozen new graduate programs, many offering candidates helpful tools related to COVID-19 challenges. Certificates, tracks and new degree programs cover a variety of fields from business and engineering to optics and health.

Producing Top Talent

- With more than 17,000 degrees conferred each year, UCF serves as a vital pipeline to companies throughout the region, state and nation.
- For the last six years, UCF has been the No. 1 supplier of graduates to U.S. aerospace and defense industries, according to Aviation Week. UCF ranks second in the nation (only to Georgia Tech) for teaching the critical skills needed by employers.
- UCF student teams finished second in the National Cyber Defense Competition and earned bronze in the North American finals of the International Collegiate Programming Contest.

Serving Our Community

- UCF RESTORES utilizes technology – including virtual reality – to deliver PTSD treatment for veterans, active-duty military, first responders, mass shooting survivors, and other trauma victims.
- Limbitless Solutions is a non-profit organization at UCF that empowers individuals with accessibility limitations through technology, including 3-D printed prosthetic arms for kids and wheelchair controls that respond to facial muscles.

Pursuing Excellence

- UCF ranks among the nation's 20 most innovative universities and is one of the nation's top promoters of social mobility, according to U.S. News & World Report.
- U.S. News & World Report ranks UCF No. 16 in the nation for online undergraduate programs.
- The Rosen College of Hospitality Management is the No. 4 hospitality school in the world, according to CEOWORLD Magazine.
- The Florida Interactive Entertainment Academy, UCF's graduate video gaming school, is ranked No. 1 in North America by the Princeton Review and PC Gamer.

ALEXANDER N. CARTWRIGHT

UCF President
Alexander N. Cartwright

Alexander N. Cartwright was selected as UCF's sixth president by the UCF Board of Trustees on March 20, 2020, following a nationwide search. He was confirmed by the Florida Board of Governors the following week.

Prior to joining UCF, Cartwright served as the chancellor of the University of Missouri (MU) with an appointment as a professor in the Electrical Engineering and Computer Science Department at the MU College of Engineering.

As a first-generation college student whose journey to higher education was not traditional, Cartwright understands and prioritizes the need to build successful outcomes for students from all backgrounds, and is dedicated to diversity, inclusion and equity on campus.

An internationally recognized researcher and scholar in the area of optical sensors, he is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, SPIE and the National Academy of Inventors. Cartwright is a prior winner of both the National Science Foundation CAREER Award and the Office of Naval Research Young Investigator Award. In addition, he earned the 2002 SUNY Chancellor's award for excellence in teaching.

A native of the Bahamas, Cartwright holds a doctorate in electrical and computer engineering from the University of Iowa. He and his wife Melinda have two children, Alyssa and Andrew.

TERRY MOHAJIR

Terry Mohajir, UCF's vice president and director of athletics, has excelled at hiring coaches who win championships, raising money for first-class athletics facilities and support resources necessary to be nationally competitive--and fulfilling a unique promise to guarantee a job or graduate school admission for every student-athlete who graduates.

His first full year with the Knights in 2021 featured all of that and more—from the February hiring of Gus Malzahn as the new UCF head football coach, to the September announcement that UCF will join the Big 12 Conference, to the Knights' acceptance of an invitation to the Gasparilla Bowl after Malzahn's first UCF team won five of its last six games to finish the regular season at 8-4.

Mohajir (pronounced mo-HAH-zhure) joined the UCF Athletics staff in February 2021 following eight years as Arkansas State University's vice chancellor for intercollegiate athletics.

"Terry is a high-energy leader who has demonstrated success in raising a school's national profile by hiring high-quality coaches and developing outstanding facilities that enhance the experiences of student-athletes, fans and donors," says UCF president Alexander N. Cartwright. "Most importantly, he cares deeply about student-athletes' success in competition, in the classroom and after they graduate."

"I'm excited for the opportunity to build on the tremendous momentum UCF's talented student-athletes, coaches and staff have established with the enthusiastic support of Knight Nation and so many generous donors," Mohajir said when he was hired. "There's no doubt in my mind that together we will continue to construct the best athletics program in the country by providing exceptional resources and services to our students."

Mohajir wasted no time making an impact at UCF. Just five days after taking over the Knights' program he hired former Auburn coach Malzahn as the new UCF football coach. Malzahn was the head coach at Arkansas State in 2012 when Mohajir was hired there as director of athletics--with the Red Wolves winning the Sun Belt Conference title that year in Malzahn's single season with Arkansas State. Malzahn led Auburn to the Bowl Championship Series title game after the 2013 campaign, one Southeastern Conference Championship and two SEC West Division titles. In his 10 years as a head coach (including 2021 at UCF) every one of Malzahn's teams qualified for a bowl game--six of those New Year's Day contests.

After Mohajir came on board at UCF, Knight teams produced these on-field achievements in 2021:

- AAC titles in volleyball (back-to-back championships in spring 2021 and fall 2021), men's soccer, men's tennis and women's tennis
- NCAA Championship appearances by those five teams, plus women's basketball, women's golf and softball, with individuals qualifying in men's golf and women's track and field
- NCAA Sweet 16 qualifications in men's soccer and women's tennis, plus an NCAA regional runner-up slot in softball

Just days after the start of the 2021 football season came an announcement that merited national headlines: UCF will be joining the Big 12 Conference.

"I speak for all of us at UCF in expressing our excitement for the opportunities that lie ahead," said Mohajir. "I'm confident our Knight teams will rise to the challenges to come. Here at UCF we are in the business of providing the best possible opportunities for our student-athletes to thrive while they are here and to have post-collegiate career success. We are convinced that competing as a member of the Big 12 Conference absolutely will help us accomplish those goals."

Mohajir's August 2021 presentation to the UCF Board of Trustees of a vision and action plan for the future of the Knights' football campus proved to be a noteworthy precursor to the Big 12 announcement. That vision included significant proposed new elements that will enhance the Knights' ability to compete for football championships:

- a new structure on the south side of the football stadium to be located above the Garvy Center for Student-Athlete Nutrition, featuring all UCF football coaches' offices combined with premium seating in front of the office areas and the Launch Club, a premium area that will serve as a daily club for lunch and/or dinner and also a proposed new UCF faculty/staff club.
- a rebuilt Wayne Densch Sports Center that, in the absence of football staff offices, will feature an expansion and renovation of the locker room and team lounge and meeting area, Bortles and Murray Athletic Training Room, equipment facilities and Gault-Kohn Sports Performance Center as part the Knights' football training facility
- creation of Nicholson Plaza, a football "town square" outside the southwest corner of the football stadium, with the highlight of that location to be McNamara Cove with a recovery river
- movement of one existing football practice field (west field) to the other side of the second (east field), creating additional space for Nicholson Plaza

All those improvements, combined with the Wayne Densch Center for Student-Athlete Leadership on the east side of the stadium, will further refine a state-of-the-art plan for football facilities and support services within a concentrated locale on the northeast side of the UCF campus. The intent is to create a dedicated football campus that will consolidate the Knights' facilities in the areas of housing, nutrition, sports medicine, sports performance, academics and career services.

Those proposed additions combine with several new elements added in the months since Mohajir and Malzahn came on board: replacement of existing synthetic grass in Nicholson Fieldhouse, outside painting of Nicholson Fieldhouse, all-new theming in the UCF football office areas and hallways and new seating and graphics in the Knights' team meeting room.

Still to come are a series of planned facility upgrades and improvements that will affect every other UCF sports program.

Mohajir's tenure at Arkansas State featured delivering on a guarantee that every student-athlete who graduated earned a job opportunity or admission to graduate school. The Red Wolves achieved the 100% guarantee every year for Mohajir's last six years there--and he instituted the same program at UCF under the banner of the Knights Leadership Academy, with 48 spring and summer 2021 graduates taking advantage of those opportunities.

In addition, he prompted rebranding of the Knights' ongoing athletics fundraising and giving platform as the ChargeOn Fund, established excellence funds for each of UCF's sports, helped raise more than $11 million in commitments through the end of 2021, reworked the UCF management team of senior athletic administrators--and attached his imprint to the Knights' future football schedules with creation of a series with Florida. In the classroom, UCF student-athletes in fall 2021 achieved a 28th consecutive semester with a combined grade-point average of at least 3.0. The 2021 spring semester produced 148 dean's list honorees among UCF student-athletes.

Mohajir also has played a major role for UCF Athletics in navigating both ongoing Covid-19 challenges and the adoption of name, image and likeness (NIL) initiatives with Opendorse and Compass via UCF's LAUNCH program.

Mohajir was a member of the prestigious College Football Playoff (CFP) Selection Committee from 2019-21, and he has served on the NCAA Division I Championships Cabinet and the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee. He was appointed to the NCAA Division I Football Ad Hoc Recruiting Working Group which was formed to conduct a comprehensive review of Division I football recruiting legislation. In 2020 he was named one of the top five non-Power 5 athletic directors by Stadium, based on the success of head coaching hires in football and men's basketball.

Mohajir previously was senior associate athletic director for external relations at the University of Kansas in 2011-12 and senior associate director of athletics for external relations at Florida Atlantic University in 2004-11. He served as assistant director of athletics for external relations at the University of Missouri-Kansas City in 1997-2004 and was assistant offensive line and game-day special teams coach with Kansas football in 1993-97.

Mohajir worked at Kansas in a variety of capacities during two different stints. His most recent stop saw him assume responsibility for the Williams Education Fund that totaled more than $22 million in revenue for fiscal year 2012. He supervised athletics areas that generated more than $40 million in revenue, including a multimedia rights partnership with IMG.

His position at Florida Atlantic allowed him oversight of development, marketing, ticket sales, corporate sales and the media relations department. Foremost among his responsibilities was a fundraising campaign for a $70 million on-campus football stadium. During his tenure, Florida Atlantic's athletics department enhanced its major gift program 800 percent, Owl Club giving increased 400 percent and special-events revenue increased 150 percent.

His administrative position with the newly-created Division I UMKC athletics program saw him supervise marketing and promotions, sports information, fundraising, radio and TV contracts, corporate sales, tickets, event operations, sports medicine, strength and conditioning and men's soccer.

During his time as an assistant coach at Kansas, Mohajir was on the staff that beat UCLA in the 1995 Aloha Bowl and had a final ranking of ninth in the Associated Press poll. He was also a football ticket sales and promotions account executive.

Mohajir earned a bachelor's degree in sports management with a minor in business marketing from Arkansas State in 1993 and a master's degree in sports management/psychology from Kansas in 1997. He was a starting safety on Arkansas State's football team from 1990-92--including the Red Wolves' first season competing at the Division I/Football Bowl Subdivision level in 1992.

The Overland Park, Kansas, product was named UCF's vice president and director of athletics on Feb. 9, 2021.

Mohajir is married to the former Julie Hammond and they are parents of three children--Maria (a student at Temple), Molly and Marco

THE AMERICAN

The American Athletic Conference consists of 12 prestigious institutions: the University of Central Florida, the University of Cincinnati, East Carolina University, the University of Houston, the University of Memphis, the U.S. Naval Academy (in football only), the University of South Florida, Southern Methodist University, Temple University, Tulane University, the University of Tulsa, and Wichita State University (in basketball and Olympic sports).

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, the American Athletic Conference has fashioned an impressive list of accomplishments in the competitive arena, in the classroom and in support of student-athlete welfare. The American is firmly established as a Power 6 conference thanks to its collection of national team and individual championships, football and basketball postseason victories, expansive media rights contract with ESPN, and its commitment to providing the highest levels of support for student-athletes.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams in addition to three New Year's Six bowl champions (UCF in 2013 and 2017; Houston in 2015), two NCAA Men's Final Four participants, six Women's Final Four teams, an NIT champion, 13 NCAA individual championships, and a Rhodes Scholar. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered multiple top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country and Outdoor Track and Field championships.

The American has seen a member school claim a spot in a New Year's Six bowl six times in the league's first eight football seasons, including the 2020 campaign, when Cincinnati reached the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. The American finished the 2019 football season with four top-25 teams; among the 10 FBS conferences, only the SEC and Big Ten had more ranked teams in the final polls.

Individual teams in The American have enjoyed some of their best football seasons in program history as members of the conference. UCF finished in the national top 10 twice as a conference member – in 2013 and 2017. Houston went 13-1 in the 2015 football season, setting a school record for wins, while Navy won a program-record 11 games in 2015, its first season in the conference, and matched that mark with its 2019 campaign. Memphis, which had not won 10 games in a season since 1938, has registered three 10-win seasons in the last six years (2015, 2017, 2019), including a school-record 12 wins in 2019. Temple enjoyed its first 10-win season in school history in 2015. South Florida finished in the top 25 for the first two times in program history (2016, 2017). Cincinnati registered its third and fourth 11-win seasons in program history in 2018 and 2019 and was ranked No. 8 at the end of the 2020 season. SMU returned to national prominence in 2019 with a 10-win season, during which the Mustangs were ranked as high as No. 14 nationally. Tulsa returned to the top 25 for the first time in 11 years in 2020. East Carolina earned a top-20 ranking in 2014, while Tulane has played in three consecutive bowl games for the first time in school history.

Since the conference's reconstitution in 2013-14, teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, women's soccer, women's lacrosse, men's golf, men's cross country and men's track and field.

Under The American's banner, Houston's men's basketball team reached the 2021 NCAA Final Four and was ranked No. 3 in the final coaches' poll, while Memphis claimed the 2021 NIT title. Houston's men's track and field team took third place at the 2018 and 2019 NCAA Outdoor Championships. Tulsa has registered top-six national finishes at the 2019 and 2020 NCAA Men's Cross Country Championships.

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Memphis quarterback Brady White was the 2020 winner of the National Football Foundation's James V. Campbell Trophy as the top scholar-athlete in college football. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Tulsa linebacker Zaven Collins repeated that feat in 2020. Houston's Ed Oliver won the 2017 Outland Trophy as the nation's best interior lineman. The American has had three top-10 Heisman Trophy finishes as UCF quarterback McKenzie Milton was eighth in 2017 and sixth in 2018, while Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds was fifth in 2015. Reynolds was also selected as the winner of the 2016 AAU James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete.

Additionally, SMU's Avery Ackers was chosen as the Division I women's volleyball Academic All-America of the Year in 2015, while Tulsa cross country standout Kirk Smith was chosen as a Rhodes Scholar in the fall of 2016.

American Athletic Conference alumni have made their mark in professional and international sports as well, beginning with the selection of UCF quarterback Blake Bortles by the Jacksonville Jaguars with the No. 3 pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. A number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer, including former Memphis center James Wiseman, who was the No. 2 pick in the 2020 NBA Draft, and former Wichita State third-baseman Alec Bohm, the No. 3 selection in the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft. Former SMU standout Bryson DeChambeau, who was the 2014 American Athletic Conference individual champion, went on to win the 2015 NCAA Championship, the 2015 US Amateur title and has since become one of the top players on the PGA Tour, including a win at the 2020 U.S. Open. Former Memphis tennis player Joe Salisbury, a 2014 all-conference selection, has gone on to win the 2020 Australian Open men's doubles championship and the 2021 French Open mixed doubles title. Former Tulane standout Dominik Koepfer has earned a top-50 world ranking in men's tennis. Cincinnati's Jordan Thompson was named to the 12-player United States Olympic volleyball team, which will compete in Tokyo in 2021.

The American announced a lucrative and comprehensive media rights extension with ESPN in May of 2019, providing the conference with a stronger and more extensive presence on ESPN's primary television networks (ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU). Since the extension took effect in the 2020-21 academic year, a minimum of 40 regular-season football telecasts and 60 regular-season men's basketball games per season will appear on those primary networks. Nearly every conference-controlled game in all sports will appear either on an ESPN network or on ESPN+. The football championship game, all rounds of the men's basketball championship, and multiple rounds of the women's basketball championship, will be on linear ESPN television networks.

The first six American Athletic Conference Football Championships were televised by ABC as part of Championship Saturday. Subsequent championship games will appear on either ABC or ESPN through the duration of the 12-year extension.

American Athletic Conference teams have access to the pinnacle of college football's postseason structure. An American representative would be chosen for the College Football Playoff semifinals if it is among the top four teams in the CFP selection committee's final ranking. Otherwise, the league would place its champion in a New Year's Bowl if it is ranked higher than the champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference and the Sun Belt Conference.

Additionally, The American holds primary or secondary partnerships with an expansive group of bowls for the new cycle, which began in 2020, ensuring multiple annual matchups against the nation's top conferences and providing desirable postseason destinations for member institutions.

Away from the competitive arena, The American has established itself as a leader in the area of student-athlete wellness, both through the adoption of NCAA autonomous legislation on matters including full cost of attendance and nutrition. The conference, in conjunction with its Student-Athlete Advisory Committee has also launched the Pow6rful Minds campaign to improve awareness and education on mental issues and recognize the scholarly achievements of the conference's student-athletes.
