SCOTT CALABRESE

Head Coach - 7th Season

Scott Calabrese was named the sixth head men's soccer coach at UCF on Dec. 5, 2016.

In six seasons at the helm of the Black and Gold, Calabrese and staff guided the Knights to three consecutive American Athletic Conference regular season titles and NCAA Tournament appearances, as well as a conference tournament title in 2020-21. During his first four years, Calabrese's teams compiled a 45-16-8 record, including a 26-5-6 mark at the UCF soccer complex.

Calabrese has seen five of his student-athletes get selected in the MLS SuperDraft during his tenure, two of which were first round selections. Gino Vivi was taken in the first round, 23rd overall in 2023. Nick Taylor and Yanis Leerman were selected in 2022. Cal Jennings was a first round selection with the 17th overall pick in 2019, followed by Jonathan Dean with the 39th overall pick.

The sixth season of Calabrese's tenure saw the Knights earn a ranked win over No. 13 Charlotte, the fourth straight year in which UCF had beat a ranked opponent and the fifth straight in earning a result. 2022 saw Lucca Dourado and Anderson Rosa receive nods to the All-Conference First Team while Vivi was a member of the Second Team and Juanvi Muñoz was named to the All-Rookie Team. Dourado, Rosa and Vivi were named to the 2022 All-East Region Second Team.

Dourado and Vivi were also members of the 2021 All-East Region Second Team and were two of six total All-Conference selections in 2021. Dourado was the lone Knight on the First Team while Vivi, Rosa, Yanis Leerman, Nick Taylor and Mauricio Villalobos all earned Second Team nods.

The fourth campaign of Calabrese's tenure was delayed due to the global pandemic of COVID-19. The 2020 fall season was pushed to the spring of 2021 with a shortened, 10-match, conference-only schedule. The team got off to a slow start, coming out of the gates 1-3. UCF quickly rebounded as they won six consecutive matches to earn their third straight American regular season crown. The unbeaten streak didn't stop there, as the Knights topped SMU in penalty kicks in the conference tournament semifinals before going on to defeat Tulsa 1-0 in the championship match, earning the program's first conference tournament title in The American and securing an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, which had been cut from 48 teams to 36 for the season due to COVID-19. The Knights sat dormant in the first round of the NCAA Tournament as they had earned a bye for the third straight season. They met James Madison in the second round, besting the Dukes 2-1 to advance to the team's second straight Sweet 16 appearance.

Year number three of the Calabrese era was the most successful thus far and could arguably be tabbed as the best season in program history. The Knights posted a record of 15-3-2 and reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament, the farthest the team has ever gone. The 15 victories ties a program high and was the highest win total in UCF's Division I tenure. The Black and Gold posted a 6-0-1 record in conference play, making them just the third team in the history of The American to go unbeaten in conference play.

For the second straight season, Calabrese and staff earned the American Athletic Conference Coaching Staff of the Year. The squad went 16 straight matches without a loss, obliterating the previous record of 10 straight matches unbeaten which was achieved last season. The program earned their second straight national seed ahead of the NCAA Tournament, checking in at No. 9. In the second round, the Knights defeated Missouri State by a score of 2-1 in overtime. The victory marked the first time that UCF had advanced to the third round of the tournament.

Calabrese had the offense clicking on all cylinders in 2018 and 2019 as they were one of the top scoring teams in all of Division I. During those two seasons, the Knights had been ranked top 10 in the nation in almost every offensive category including total assists, total goals, total points, scoring offense, points per game, assists per game and goals per game. They were the top team in shots per game and shots on goal per game in 2018 and led the nation in corners in 2019. UCF was also the top team in The American in all of those categories.

The accolades have piled up over the past three seasons. The Knights took home four major conference accolades in 2019. Jennings won his second consecutive Offensive Player of the Year while Yannik Oetli earned his second straight nod as goalkeeper of the year. Yoni Sorokin was dubbed as the Midfielder of the Year while Vivi was honored as the Rookie of the Year. The Black and Gold had five All-Conference selections in The American, including four on the First Team. Two freshmen made their way onto the All-Rookie squad. The awards kept coming during the 2020-21 season as Oetli three-peated as the conference's Goalkeeper of the Year and Sorokin repeated as the Midfielder of the Year. Five Knights made the All-Conference First Team and another made the cut for the Second Team. Three rookies were named to the American's All-Rookie Team, and the team was tabbed with the conference's Fair Play Award.

Calabrese and company have had a hand in coaching two All-Americans throughout their tenure. Jennings was named to the All-American First Team in 2018 and 2019 while Leerman earned a nod to the All-American Second Team in 2020-21.

Three of UCF's eight NCAA Tournament nods have come from Calabrese, with the first two including hosting privileges as the Knights were the No. 14 national seed in 2018 and No. 9 in 2019. The team shattered their highest rankings in the United Soccer Coaches poll those seasons, as the team set a personal best of No. 7 in 2018 and went on to climb as high as No. 5 in 2019.

Calabrese also produced a two-time MAC Hermann Trophy semifinalist in Cal Jennings who scored 20 goals in 19 games including three hat tricks in 2018. The following season saw Jennings post 18 goals in 20 games and tally a hat trick in The American tournament semifinals.

2018 saw UCF win their first conference title since 2011 as they took the regular season crown with a 5-1-1 record in conference play. Overall, the Knights finished 13-3-3 and put together an impressive 8-2-3 record at the UCF Soccer Complex scoring 29 goals and grabbing 86 points. Three major award winners were produced (Offensive, Midfielder, Goalkeeper of the Year), seven All-Conference selections, and eight Player of the Week awards from The American. They also produced five All-Region selections and two All-Americans (Cal Jennings and Louis Perez). In addition to all the awards, the Knights capped off the regular season with a ranking of No. 9, which was the third highest in program history at the time.

In his first season with UCF, the Knights went 8-6-2 overall and 4-2-1 in conference play. The team went undefeated at home posting four wins and finished second in the American Athletic Conference under Calabrese's leadership. During the 2017 season, the Knights were awarded The American Player of Week five times, earned five all-conference selections, two all-rookie honors, and two all-region winners. Also during his first season in The American, the Knights finished first in points (39), goals (13), and assists (13), while senior Matias Pysyalo dominated the offensive game taking Offensive Player of the Year honors.

Calabrese spent the previous three seasons before coming to UCF at FIU, taking the program to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in over 10 years by capturing the 2015 Conference USA Championship. He helped the Panthers to consecutive appearances in the finals at the C-USA Championship.

"I am very excited about the pedigree that Scott Calabrese brings to UCF," White said. "The soccer culture in Orlando has grown exponentially over the last several years, and I believe Coach Calabrese can help us add to that culture here at UCF. Scott has had great success in his coaching career. He was the region coach of the year at FIU in 2015 and won two conference championships at East Tennessee State, where he started the program from scratch. I look forward to watching him build the Knights into a national power in the soccer capital of the south."

The Newton, Conn., native has been known for building programs and started the program at East Tennessee State in 2008. In three short years, he guided the Bucs to the 2010 Atlantic Sun Championship behind 10 shutout victories, earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. The 2010 NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year tallied four seasons with 10-or-more victories and also aided ETSU to the 2013 NCAA Tournament.

"I would like to thank Dr. Daniel J. White and the search committee for providing me with the opportunity to be the next head men's soccer coach at UCF," Calabrese said. "I am beyond excited to join this incredible and growing athletic department that is investing in its student-athletes and programs."

"I had an opportunity to meet the team and talk with the players individually this morning. They are very committed to seeing this program succeed, improve and progress. I can't wait to get started on the field in January and begin building personal relationships with these young men."

Prior to taking the head coaching position at ETSU, Calabrese served four seasons as an assistant at Clemson from 2003-06. He aided the Tigers to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 2005 College Cup and a No. 1 national ranking. He additionally worked as the director of the Clemson Soccer Academy, which hosts over 1,800 youth soccer players a year.

As a part of the coaching staff at North Carolina from 2000-01, he helped the Tar Heels to a pair of Elite Eight appearances, which included the 2001 National Championship and 2000 ACC Championship.

He has ties to the central Florida area, beginning his career as an assistant coach at Stetson from 1998-99.

Calabrese also has a connection to UCF women's soccer head coach Tiffany Roberts-Sahaydak, who he coached professionally as a member of the Carolina Courage (WUSA) coaching staff in 2002. He helped guide the Courage as an assistant coach to the Founder's Cup that season.

Calabrese graduated from Bryant College with a degree in business administration. He also holds an "A" coaching license and is a Level I and II certified goalkeeping instructor with the NSCAA.

PAUL SOUDERS

Associate Head Coach - 7th Season

Paul Souders joined the men's soccer staff in the spring of 2016 as an assistant coach and was promoted to Associate Head Coach in the fall of 2018.

Souders has seen five of the student-athletes he's coached at UCF get selected in the MLS SuperDraft during his tenure, two of which were first round selections. Gino Vivi was taken in the first round, 23rd overall in 2023. Nick Taylor and Yanis Leerman were selected in 2022. Cal Jennings was a first round selection with the 17th overall pick in 2019, followed by Jonathan Dean with the 39th overall pick.

The sixth season of Souder's tenure with Calabrese and staff saw the Knights earn a ranked win over No. 13 Charlotte, the fourth straight year in which UCF had beat a ranked opponent and the fifth straight in earning a result. 2022 saw Lucca Dourado and Anderson Rosa receive nods to the All-Conference First Team while Vivi was a member of the Second Team and Juanvi Muñoz was named to the All-Rookie Team. Dourado, Rosa and Vivi were named to the 2022 All-East Region Second Team.

Dourado and Vivi were also members of the 2021 All-East Region Second Team and were two of six total All-Conference selections in 2021. Dourado was the lone Knight on the First Team while Vivi, Rosa, Yanis Leerman, Nick Taylor and Mauricio Villalobos all earned Second Team nods.

The fourth campaign of Souders' tenure was delayed due to the global pandemic of COVID-19. The 2020 fall season was pushed to the spring of 2021 with a shortened, 10-match, conference-only schedule. The Knights sat dormant in the first round of the NCAA Tournament as they had earned a bye for the third straight season. They met James Madison in the second round, besting the Dukes 2-1 to advance to the team's second straight Sweet 16 appearance.

Souders helped guide UCF to their best season in program history in 2019. The Knights posted a record of 15-3-2 and reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament, the farthest the team had ever gone. The 15 victories ties a program high and was the highest win total in UCF's Division I tenure. The Black and Gold posted a 6-0-1 record in conference play, making them just the third team in the history of The American to go unbeaten in conference play.

The program earned their second straight national seed ahead of the NCAA Tournament, checking in at No. 9. In the second round, the Knights defeated Missouri State by a score of 2-1 in overtime. The victory marked the first time that UCF had advanced to the third round of the tournament.

In 2018 and 2019, Souders has helped coach one of the best offenses in all of Division I. For the entirety of those two regular seasons, the Knights have been ranked top 10 in the nation in almost every offensive category including total assists, total goals, total points, scoring offense, points per game, assists per game and goals per game. They were the top team in shots per game and shots on goal per game in 2018 and led the nation in corners in 2019. UCF was also the top team in The American in all of those categories.

2018 saw UCF win the conference regular season title with a 5-1-1 record in conference play. Overall, the Knights finished 13-3-3. Since becoming a Division I program, it is the fourth best record the Knights have garnered. UCF put together an impressive 8-2-3 record at the UCF Soccer Complex scoring 29 goals and grabbing 86 points. The Knights also went on a 10-match unbeaten streak, which at the time was their best in program history.

Souders and the staff produced three major award winners in 2018 (Offensive, Midfielder, Goalkeeper of the Year), seven All-Conference selections, and eight Player of the Week awards from The American. They also produced five All-Region selections and two All-Americans (Cal Jennings and Louis Perez). In addition to all the awards, the Knights capped off the regular season with a ranking of No. 9, which is the third highest in program history. Throughout the season, the Knights reached as high as No. 7.

During the 2017 season, Souders helped produce nine All-Conference selections, Offensive Player of the Year, and two NSCAA All-East Region honorees while finishing the season 8-6-2 with a 4-2-1 conference record. The Knights went on an eight-match unbeaten streak to make it to The American Conference Tournament finals. During his first year, the Knights never lost a match at home.

Souders also oversaw student-athlete academics where Matias Pyysalo was named The American's Men's Soccer Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

The two-time NSCAA Far West Region Assistant Coach of the Year spent eight seasons at New Mexico before coming to Orlando, Fla.

During a nine-year stint with the Lobos, Souders helped the program to three NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, including a run to the 2013 NCAA College Cup in Philadelphia, Pa. New Mexico's success includes qualifying for five NCAA Tournaments, four conference championships and an undefeated (18-0-4) campaign in 2011. The Lobos posted a 101-42-21 overall and 45-18-7 league mark during that span.

While serving as associate head coach over the past seven campaigns, Souders was responsible for recruiting, academics, scheduling and coaching the offensive attack.

Academics are a point of emphasis for Souders, who aided the Lobos to a program-record 3.43 grade point average in the fall of 2013. He mentored two-time COSIDA Academic All-America selection Levi Rossi and NSCAA Scholar Athlete Kyle Venter. Lobo student-athletes have also earned eight COSIDA Academic All-Region and 27 academic all-conference honors under his guidance.

Prior to arriving at New Mexico, Souders spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Dayton, helping the Flyers to a 27-18-11 overall record. During his tenure, four former Flyers who have played professionally in North America and Europe.

Dayton finished the 2007 campaign 10-4-5 overall and advanced to the opening round of the 2007 Atlantic 10 Men's Soccer Championship. The Flyers completed the season on a six-game unbeaten streak, had two players selected to the All-Atlantic 10 and NSCAA Middle Atlantic Region teams and finished No. 8 in the regional rankings.

The Dallas, Texas, native earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education at Clemson. Calabrese coached Souders during his senior campaign, which led to Souders playing in his fourth NCAA Tournament. He was a part of two NCAA Sweet 16 berths with the Tigers.

Souders also played in the U-23 United States Olympic Pool. He also has coaching experience with the New Mexico State U-16 team and served as a graduate assistant in 2004.

Souders and his wife, formerly Lindsey Gramley, have two daughters Kya and Tegan.

JAMIE DAVIES

Associate Head Coach - 6th Season

Jamie Davies joined the UCF men's soccer coaching staff in January 2018 as an assistant coach and was later promoted to Associate Head Coach in April 2023. Davies came to UCF after four seasons as an assistant coach at Georgia State. He spearheads the team's recruiting efforts.

The Knights have been wildly successful during Davies' first five seasons, collecting a 43-17-6 record, including a 29-12-5 mark at the UCF Soccer Complex. The Black and Gold were ranked in the top 10 in multiple offensive categories during the 2018 and 2019 seasons, which were years in which the Knights won the first two of their three straight American Athletic Conference regular season titles. The Knights went to three straight NCAA Tournaments, starting in Davies' first season, and proceeded to make back-to-back Sweet 16 appearances in 2019 and 2020-21. The Black and Gold reached the final of The American's postseason tournament in four of Davies' five seasons with the Knights prior to the program's move to the Sun Belt ahead of the 2023 season. UCF earned The American tournament title during the 2020-21 season, beating Tulsa 1-0 in the championship match after winning the program's third consecutive regular season title.

Two UCF student-athletes were named as All-Americans during Davies' tenure, with Cal Jennings earning First Team honors in 2018 and 2019 and Yanis Leerman earning Second Team honors in 2020-21.

Prior to UCF, Davies was the top assistant coach at Georgia State. He brought a wealth of playing and coaching experience at the high school, collegiate and professional levels.

In 2017, Davies helped lead the Panthers to a runner-up finish in both the Sun Belt regular season and tournament championship. Georgia State had the No. 1 scoring offense in the Sun Belt and ranked No. 28 in the nation. In 2016, Georgia State reached the conference tournament final, outscored its opponents 42-25, leading the Sun Belt and ranking No. 11 in the nation.

In 2015, the program ranked in the final Top 10 NSCAA Southeast Region and advanced to the championship match of the Sun Belt Conference. The Panthers ranked in the top five in the NCAA in scoring (2.28 goals per match). He helped four GSU players earn All-Sun Belt honors with Eddie Wilding also earning All-Region. In his first year at GSU, Davies helped the team finish in second place in the conference with four players earning All-Sun Belt recognition, along with Stephen McGill earning All-Region.

Prior to his time at Georgia State, Davies spent four years at Division II Limestone (Gaffney, S.C.), where he helped develop the Saints into one of the better offenses in the country. Limestone won back-to-back Conference Carolinas regular-season and tournament championships in 2012 and 2013 and finished with a combined 28-9-1 overall record and a 15-2-1 mark in league play. The Saints were nationally-ranked both years, including a No. 21 ranking in the NSCAA/Continental Tire Division II poll in 2013 after reaching the NCAA tournament.

Before his time at Limestone, Davies spent four seasons in the Premier Development League (PDL) with the New Orleans Jesters and the West Virginia Chaos. He earned PDL Team of the Week honors twice with the Jesters before returning to school to earn a master's of business administration in entrepreneurship.

Davies served as a Graduate Assistant coach at the University of Rio Grande (Ohio) and during his tenure with the Red Storm, the team reached the NAIA final four twice and finished as the NAIA national runner-up with a 20-4-1 final record in 2008. Davies then returned to the PDL to play one season with the Chaos in 2008. In his second season with West Virginia, he took over as the assistant coach and helped guide the team to a franchise best record in 2009.

Davies completed his USSF A License in September 2019 under Steffen Siebert Technical Lead instructor for the A-Senior License. Davies played college soccer at NAIA member William Woods and graduated in 2007 with a degree in sports management and a minor in business. He was named academic all-conference following his freshman and sophomore campaigns.

A native of London, England, Davies played for Crystal Palace F.C. and Leyton Orient F.C. at the youth level.

Davies is married to Alexis Amador-Davies.

DEVALA GORRICK

Goalkeeper Coach - 2nd Season

Devala Gorrick joined the UCF staff in the summer of 2022 as a goalkeeping coach for the men's soccer team.

Gorrick's Professional playing career extends over 12 years in over 6 different countries, competing in over 350 professional games. Along with playing, Gorrick has coached at all different levels of the game including college, professional, PDL, academy, youth and more.

When Gorrick was 15 he was sent to the Bundesliga's Bayer Leverkusen Academy for training and trials, gaining professional exposure and experience while playing for the youth academy. Gorrick started his professional career playing as a backup for Miami FC while the team was coached by the infamous 'Zinho'. This led to his first starting position at Bayamon FC in Puerto Rico. Gorrick played an important role in helping lead Bayamon to be Puerto Rico Soccer League Champions in 2009

In 2010, Gorrick signed a one-year contract with Thailand football club Pattaya United FC. During this season, he played in the top division of Thai football, the Thai Premier League, starting for Air Force United F.C. for the 2011 season. In 2012 & 2013, Gorrick was chosen to the Thai Premier League All Star team.

Following a trial at IK Frej in the Swedish Division North, Gorrick was offered a two-year contract, on the recommendation of Goalkeeper Coach and former Sweden Goalkeeper Magnus Hedman. Gorrick immediately established himself as the club's first choice keeper. In his second competitive start for the club, Gorrick started against Swedish Champions League giants Malmö FF.

Gorrick returned to North America in 2014 and signed for Ottawa Fury FC and started 14 league games for the NASL league. In 2015 he signed with the Colorado Springs USL Championship team, the Switchback FC and started their first two seasons, receiving the 2016 'Goalkeeper of the Year' nominee.

2017 saw Gorrick get acquired by Saint Louis FC of the USL and started 21 games. After leaving St. Louis Gorrick moved back to Colorado to retire as a full time goalkeeping coach. He is also the founder and creator of Futbox Company, a soccer subscription box.

His experience as a long time pro player along with the knowledge he gained from coaching with some of the best goalkeeper coaches in the sport makes him a passionate coach with the goal of helping players realize their path to the next level, whatever level that may be.

Gorrick grew up in Gainesville, FL and played most of his competitive youth soccer in Orlando FL.

CONFERENCE AFFILIATION HISTORY - DIVISION I

Sun Belt Conference 2023-present

UCF men's soccer's move to the Sun Belt Conference was made in tandem with the rest of UCF's sports moving to the Big 12 Conference in 2023-24, a league which does not sponsor men's soccer. The Sun Belt recently re-emerged as a conference, resuming play in 2022 after previously sponsoring men's soccer from 1976-1995 and 2014-20. The Knights will join Kentucky, South Carolina and West Virginia as men's soccer members only. Those four teams will join James Madison, Marshall, Old Dominion, Coastal Carolina, Georgia Southern and Georgia State.

"I'm very excited to be partnering with Commissioner Keith Gil and Deputy Commissioner Kathy Keene. They are great people and I'm excited to work with them again," said UCF Vice President and athletics director Terry Mohajir. "We believe the move to the Sun Belt positions our men's soccer program for great success in the coming years. Coach Calabrese has shown his teams can compete with the best of the best in The American, and we can't wait to see the program continue to grow and compete in the very strong Sun Belt Conference."

"We are very excited to accept the invitation to join what will clearly be an incredible conference for men's soccer," said head coach Scott Calabrese. "I love that the Sun Belt will be the home of both the Big 12 and the SEC for men's soccer along with 2020 National Champions Marshall and so many top soccer programs as well. It's an exciting new challenge for our program and we can't wait to be a part of it in 2023."

American Athletic Conference 2013-2022 (10 seasons)

The Knights enjoyed massive success as part of The American, reaching the conference final in five of their final six seasons in the league. The Black and Gold earned three regular seasons titles and one tournament championship as members of The American. In total, UCF qualified for the conference's postseason tournament in nine straight seasons, only missing the 2022 postseason by two points.

Three of UCF's NCAA Tournament appearances came while in The American, qualifying in 2018, 2019 and 2020. The Knights punched their first ticket into the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16 in 2019, and then did the same for the 2020 tournament, which was held in the spring of 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Plenty of Knights stood out in UCF's time in The American. A member of the Black and Gold was named Offensive Player of the Year six times out of the team's 10 years in the league. Matias Pyssalo and Cal Jennings won the honor twice while Romario Williams and Hadji Barry were honored once each. UCF collected three Midfielder of the Year honors and three Goalkeeper of the Year awards; Oettl collected all three goalkeeping honors while Yoni Sorokin took two of the three midfielder awards along with Louis Perez who won the other. Gino Vivi was honored as UCF's lone Freshman of the Year award, earning the nod in 2019.

The Black and Gold had 11 First Team All-Conference honorees, including nine that were named on the top squad multiple times. In total, UCF earned 36 nods to the All-Conference First or Second Teams while 16 rookies graced the All-Freshman Team while in The American.

Conference USA 2005-2012 (8 seasons)

UCF had a new conference and a new head coach for the 2005 season. Brent Erwin and the Knights went 13-17-3 over their first two seasons as members of Conference USA. Fast forward to UCF's sixth season in the league, fourth year head coach Bryan Cunningham led UCF to its first NCAA Tournament appearance as members of C-USA, winning 12 matches with a 12-5-3 record. The team followed suit the next year, winning a dozen games again and making the NCAA Tournament second round for the second straight year.

The Knights won 32 matches in their final three seasons as part of C-USA, more than first five seasons in the league combined. The Black and Gold won no major honors as C-USA members, but saw nine nods to the All-Conference First Team and a total of 30 nods across the First, Second, Third and Freshman Teams.

Atlantic Sun Conference 1993-2004 (12 seasons)

After making the D-I jump in 1984, the Black and Gold didn't join their first Division I conference until 1993. Despite going 4-10-1 in their first year in a conference, the Knights made the A-Sun Semifinals in just their second year as part of the A-Sun. The Knights found success quickly and carried that momentum with them throughout their time in the A-Sun, tallying eight appearances in the conference tournament in 12 total seasons.

The Knights finished their time in the A-Sun on a high note, winning the tournament championship in three consecutive seasons from 2002-04. The championship runs led to UCF's first three NCAA Tournament appearances. The Black and Gold were turned away from their first NCAA Tournament victory in their first two tries by FIU, but were able to beat the Panthers in 2004 for the program's first tournament win.

Three Knights earned four major honors during the program's tenure in the A-Sun. Heikki Ritvanen scored 88 career goals from 1996-99, UCF's most in program history, and was honored as the A-Sun's Player of the Year in 1999. Alejandro Gessen was named Freshman of the Year while Ryan McIntosh was a two-time Defensive Player of the Year. In all, 54 nods were received to the A-Sun First, Second, Third and Freshmen Teams in UCF's 12 years in the league.
