QUICK KICKS

OWNING OCTOBER

- The Knights have been historically good in October under Coach Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak.
- During Roberts Sahaydak's tenure, UCF has had a 46-13-5 record through the month of October, highlighted by three unbeaten months and one perfect month.
- 2022 marked the first perfect streak in the month of October through Roberts Sahaydak's time at UCF, a 7-0 record.
- The Black and Gold started the month off with a 2-1 victory over Oklahoma, before falling in two consecutive home matches for the first time since 2021.

ON THE BRINK OF HISTORY

- Caroline DeLisle is just one shutout away from setting a new program record.
- The Tampa native currently holds 30 to her name, sitting in a tie for second with former Knight Alyssa O'Brien (1995-98) and trailing current Auburn head coach Karen Richter (now Hoppa) in first with 30.5.
- DeLisle is currently fourth in program history in saves (289) and seventh in goals-against average (.867).
- The 5th-year is tied for 6th nationally in active career shutouts, with the second-most in the Big 12, only Madison White from Texas Tech ahead of her with 35.
- DeLisle garnered her first Big 12 Goalkeeper of the Week honor following two consecutive clean sheets at Houston on Sept. 21 and against Kansas on Sept. 24. The fifth year collected eight while in the AAC.

FIRST-TIMERS

- During the match against Texas on Oct. 5, Maggie Jenkins scored her first career goal.
- The senior had played 35 matches for the Knights before scoring the opening goal against the Longhorns in the eighth minute of the match.
- Jenkins has already beaten her single-season points record, previously two in 2021, recording five points this season.
- UCF will try to secure its first win against the Bearcats on the road, as the Knights are currently 0-4-2 in Cincinnati.

ADDITIONAL KNIGHT KICKS

OFF THE MARK IN THE BIG 12

- The Knights defeated defending Big 12 tournament champions, West Virginia, 4-2, in their inaugural conference match last Thursday night at home.
- Of the four new conference members, UCF was the only team to earn its first victory in the first slate of Big 12 matches.
- The win marked the first time three Knights notched a goal since Martin, Kristen Scott, and Mallory Olsson opened up the season with goals vs. Florida on Aug. 18, 2022.
- UCF went on the road for its second conference match, taking on Houston Thursday.
- Katie Bradley capitalized on a corner kick late in the first half to give the Knights a 1-0 lead and the backline locked it down to secure the shutout and the victory.

THE SET PIECE MAESTRO

- Katie Bradley's set piece prowess has been on full display this season, netting two winning goals at Houston and against Kansas.
- Bradley's first half corner kick ended up finding the back of the net to eventually give the Knights their first ever Big 12 road victory. The England native eventually netted a penalty kick in the 84th minute to move UCF to a perfect 3-0 in conference play.
- Bradley was named to the College Soccer News National Team of the Week as the senior netted two goals in two matches for the second time in her career (first in 2019 vs. East Carolina on Oct. 21 and vs. Temple on Oct. 24).
- The senior collected an assist on Maggie Jenkins' goal against No. 6 Texas Tech, putting the corner kick into play to help put the ball into the back of the net.

OUR SUPER NUMBER 5

- Fifth year Ellie Moreno notched her second career brace against North Florida on Sept. 3. Her first came almost two years ago versus Temple on Oct. 24.
- Moreno became the first Knight to bag five goals during non-conference play since Kristen Scott notched five in 2019.
- Moreno matched her single-season career high of five with her fifth goal in four home matches vs. West Virginia.
- With two more assists, Moreno will join Martin (11 goals/12 assists) in becoming the only active Knights to have both double digits in goals and assists (O'Connor had 19 goals/11 assists at Ole Miss).

AIR NETZEL

- Xavier transfer Chloe Netzel has made an instant impact with the Knights, collecting five goals, two assists, and 12 points through her first season in Orlando.
- Against North Florida, Netzel headed in the match-winning goal to give the Knights the 2-1 advantage. The score was her second consecutive match with a heading goal.
- She gave UCF a first-half lead at Georgia in her second match with the Knights on a corner kick from Katie Bradley, marking her 30th career point.
- Netzel netted a stunning goal vs. West Virginia as she is just two goals away from matching her single-season career high.

NEW YEAR, NEW FACES

- UCF welcomes nine new faces to the squad in 2023, four transfers and five freshmen.
- Transfers Daniella Chung from South Florida, Chloe Netzel from Xavier, Kyleigh Thelen from Stetson and Morgan O'Connor from Ole Miss will all add valuable experience to the squad.
- Netzel garnered Big East All-Freshman honors along with a nod to the All-Tournament team. O'Connor was named to the All-SEC Second Team her senior season.
- The five freshmen include Genesis Perez Watson, Lilly Nava, Natalia Ballinas, Jada Silvest and Jalen Haas.
- Jessica McCullen and Audrey Buck will look to add versatility to the squad after redshirting their freshman seasons.

UCF IN THE BIG 12

- The University of Central Florida officially joined the Big 12 Conference on July 1, 2023.
- UCF enters the Power 5 as the youngest school, having been founded in 1963 to supply NASA with engineers.
- The Knights, along with Cincinnati, Houston and BYU, push the conference 14 programs.
- UCF is 28-13-4 against current Big 12 teams all-time.

PRESEASON ACCOLADES

- Dayana Martin was named to the Preseason All-Big 12 team, the first Knight in program history to receive Big 12 honors.
- In 2022, Martin led the squad with five assists and was second in goals with five, both career highs, landing her on the All-Conference First Team.
- Four of her five goals came on the road, with her last of the season in the NCAA Second Round at UCLA.

EXPECTATION NOTED

- The Knights were tabbed sixth on the preseason Big 12 poll, voted upon by the coaches.
- UCF was the highest among the former American Athletic Conference competitors, slotting in ahead of Houston (10) and Cincinnati (13).
- Full poll: BYU (1), TCU (2), Texas (3), West Virginia (4), Texas Tech (5), UCF (6), Oklahoma State (7), Kansas (8), Oklahoma (9), Houston (10), Baylor (11), Kansas State (12), Cincinnati (13), Iowa State (14).
- For the first time since 2018, the Knights were among the top 25 on the preseason United Soccer Coaches poll, slotting in at No. 24. UCF was also featured on the preseason College Soccer News poll at No. 28.

TO BE THE BEST, PLAY THE BEST

- Head coach Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak has stressed the importance of playing a tough schedule and the Knights 2023 slate is no different.
- Three opponents are currently ranked in the United Soccer Coaches week 1 poll (BYU, Penn State and Texas).
- In 2022, UCF faced four ranked opponents, including No. 2 North Carolina, No. 14 Ole Miss and No. 20 Texas during in the regular season, before facing eventual National Champions UCLA in the NCAA Tournament Second Round.

KNIGHTS ON THE GLOBAL STAGE

- UCF was well represented at the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup. Freshman Genesis Perez Watson (Costa Rica), along with former Knights Kathellen Sousa (Brazil) and Konya Plummer (Jamaica) all represented their nations at the global event.
- In 2019, Plummer captained Jamaica to its first-ever World Cup appearance. In 2023, Jamaica advanced to the knockout round, becoming the first Caribbean nation to do so.
- Head coach Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak served as an assistant coach with the United States Womens National Team. A member of the historical 1999 United States squad that won the World Cup, Roberts Sahaydak began coaching with the national team in 2022.

THE MANAGER

TIFFANY ROBERTS SAHAYDAK

Head Coach - 11th Season

An Olympic gold medalist, World Cup champion and two-time NCAA champion, Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak was named head women's soccer coach at UCF in May 2013.

A four-time American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Roberts Sahaydak has wasted no time in putting her stamp on UCF's successful program. Under her guidance, the Knights have earned five NCAA Tournament bids and four American Athletic Conference championships while boasting 18 Conference Player of the Year awards and 67 all-league and tournament selections.

In their final season in the AAC, the Knights boasted a 9-2-7 (7-0-1 AAC) record, going undefeated in conference play and picking up nine clean sheets along the way to becoming AAC Regular Season Champions. With the first victory of the season, Roberts Sahaydak earned her 100th win at UCF as a head coach. The Black and Gold collected a bid to the NCAA Tournament and advanced past NC State in the first round to face eventual national champion UCLA, where they fell in penalty kicks. Kristen Scott picked up Offensive Player of the Year honors, while Caroline DeLisle earned her second-straight Goalkeeper of the Year award. DeLisle and Scott were joined by Dayana Martin and Darya Rajaei on the All-Conference First Team, with Georgia Eaton-Collins being named to the All-Conference Second Team and Mia Asenjo earning unanimous selection to the All-Rookie Team.

In 2021, Roberts Sahaydak coached the Knights to an 8-7-1 (3-4-1 American Athletic Conference) and entered the American Athletic Conference Championship tournament as a six seed. With the Knights sixth victory of the season, Roberts Sahaydak earned her 150th career win as a collegiate head coach. Under Roberts Sahaydak, Caroline DeLisle and Darya Rajaei earned their first selections to the All-Conference First Team. In total, four Knights earned conference awards with Caroline DeLisle also earning Goalkeeper of the Year and Darya Rajaei also earning Midfielder of the Year while Ariel Young earned All-Rookie Team honors and Kristen Scott earned All-Conference First Team.

In an unconventional 2020-21 campaign due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Roberts Sahaydak led the Black & Gold to picking up five all-league selections as the Knights finished the spring season with a 2-4-1 mark. Four Knights picked up honors, with Sarai Linder representing the Knights on the First Team All-Conference and All-Rookie Teams, Ellie Moreno and Madsion Murnin were named to the Second Team All-Conference, and Katie Bradley joins Sarai Linder on the All-Rookie Team.

In 2019, Roberts Sahaydak led the Knights to a 11-4-4 (5-2-2 American Athletic Conference) and earned a No. 3 seed to the American Athletic Conference Championship. The Knights posted a six-game unbeaten streak and climbed to as high as No. 21 in the United Soccer Coaches Polls. Under Roberts Sahaydak, Konya Plummer was named First Team All-Region by the United Soccer Coaches Association, as well as the American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year. In total, six student-athletes were recognized by the Conference coaches with Plummer also earning First Team All-Conference, while Senior Zandy Soree and sophomore Kristen Scott earned Second Team All-Conference honors. Caroline DeLisle, Ally Gudorf, and Ellie Moreno picked up All-Rookie accolades.

The Knights finished the 2018 campaign at 10-7-1 (6-3 American Athletic Conference) and entered the American Athletic Conference Championship tournament as a third seed. Under Roberts Sahaydak, three Knights earned All-Southeast Region honors - Stefanie Sanders earned second team all-region, while Vera Varis and Carrie Lawrence collected third team all-region recognition. Additionally, five student-athletes were recognized by the league coaches at the conclusion of the regular season. Vera Varis was named Goalkeeper of the Year and named to First Team All-Conference. Stefanie Sanders joined Veris with First Team All-Conference honors while Dina Orschmann and Carrie Lawrence earned Second Team All-Conference accolades and Kristen Scott was named to the All-Rookie team.

In 2017, Roberts Sahaydak coached the Knights to a 13-2-3 record, the most wins since the 2014 campaign. UCF climbed as high as No. 6 and finished the regular season ranked eighth. The Knights posted a 16-match unbeaten streak, the longest since the 2013 campaign, captured the American Athletic Conference regular season championship and made their 21st NCAA Tournament appearance.

Under Roberts Sahaydak's tutelage, five members of the team received All-Southeast Region recognition and goalkeeper Vera Varis was named to the United Soccer Coaches Association All-American Third Team. In addition, five of her starters were recognized as American Athletic Conference Players of the Year, including Morgan Ferrara (Offensive), Kathellen Sousa (Co-Defensive), Vera Varis (Goalkeeper), Kayla Adamek (Midfielder), and Dina Orschmann (Rookie). A total of seven Knights were placed on the All-American Athletic Conference Teams, and three were recognized on the all-tournament team.

In 2016, four student-athletes were named to the All-American Athletic Conference Teams. Saga Fredriksson was named to the All-Northeast Region Team and recognized as the American Athletic Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year. Off the field, the Knights earned recognition for their academic success as they received the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Team Academic Award.

Roberts Sahaydak tackled the 2015 season with team that featured more newcomers (14) than returners (12) and lost three key members due to injury for the year before the season-opening weekend was in the books. Eight of their starters, including their American Athletic Conference Offensive Player, Defensive Player and Goalkeeper of the Year, had moved on from the year before. But the Knights earned a berth to their ninth-straight NCAA Tournament (20th overall) and nabbed a hosting gig for the first round for the fifth straight season. In addition, Carol Rodrigues was named the American's Co-Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2014, she guided the Knights to their second NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in four years and the American regular season title. Under her direction, three Knights were recognized as conference Players of the Year: Tatiana Coleman (Co-Offensive); Carleigh Williams (Defensive); and Connie Organ (Goalkeeper). UCF posted its first undefeated home slate (11-0) since 1999, matched the school record for wins in a season (18) and was nationally ranked through much of the year.

In her first season (2013), she led UCF to a school-record unbeaten streak (18 matches), an NSCAA national standing through much of the year and the program's first undefeated conference season since 1999. In addition, UCF made history as the first program to win an American Athletic Conference Championship. Roberts Sahaydak came to Orlando after serving six seasons at VCU alongside her co-head coach, husband and current UCF associate head coach Tim Sahaydak.

Roberts Sahaydak spent a decade with the U.S. National Team from 1994-2004, earning 110 caps (with 60 starts). Her career was highlighted by three women's World Cups - among them, the unforgettable 1999 championship - and a gold medal with the 1996 Olympic team.

After retiring from the USWNT, she has served as an ambassador for U.S. Soccer with the U.S. Department of State Sports Envoy Program since 2007, promoting the power and benefit of sport internationally. With the program, she has visited Indonesia, Uganda, the Philippines, Thailand, Namibia, Brazil and France. In 2014, she was appointed to President Barack Obama's Presidential Delegation to the Federative Republic of Brazil at the opening of the FIFA World Cup in Brazil.

She is a native of San Ramon, Calif., and was selected as the 1994 California High School Player of the Year. She was a three-time Parade High School All-American, a three-time NSCAA All-American and was the two-time National Girl's High School Player of the Year. She debuted for the Stars and Stripes in 1994 when she was only 16 as one of the youngest players ever to suit up for the National Team. She played in her first FIFA Women's World Cup a month after her 18th birthday and won Olympic gold before she was out of her teens (USSoccer.com).

As a collegian, Roberts Sahaydak was a standout midfielder for North Carolina (1995-98) as a three-time All-ACC First Team selection. She led the Tar Heels to two NCAA titles (1996, 1997) during her tenure, was voted the 1998 ACC Tournament MVP and finished third in voting for collegiate soccer's highest honor, the Hermann Trophy. She still ranks among the top five for career starts in UNC's record book.

She was a two-time captain for the Carolina Courage in the first fully professional U.S. women's league (Women's United Soccer Association). She helped the Courage win the 2002 title after finishing last in the team's inaugural campaign one year prior. Roberts Sahaydak took over VCU's program in 2007 and led the Rams to three conference championship game appearances. She was voted as the 2011 Colonial Athletic Association Co-Head Coach of the Year, along with her husband Tim. The duo mentored two CAA Defenders of the Year, one CAA Rookie of the Year and 20 all-conference players, including six first-team honorees.
