BYE-SONS

We are the "BYE-SONS" at Lipscomb. Don't confuse us with North Dakota State where they are pronounced the "BYE-ZIN". Act like you are from the south.

The most commonly accepted plural of "bison" is bison, but at Lipscomb we are the BISONs with an S. The unabridged Oxford English dictionary includes Bisons as a proper usage.

RETURNING BISONs

Lipscomb returned starters Will Pruitt, Derrin Boyd and Jacob Ognacevic. Other contributing returners are AJ McGinnis, Grant Asman, Jack Ingold, Jason Montgomery and Hank Hutcheson.

The returning players contributed 62.6% of last year's scoring with Ognacevic leading last year's scoring with 583 total points.

Lipscomb's returning starters were last year's top three scorers and scored nearly 50% of the Bisons' points.

JO

Jacob Ognacevic was a weapon for Lipscomb last year and was named 2023 ASUN Preseason All-Conference. Ognacevic earned Preseason All-ASUN honors after being named a 2022-23 ASUN First Team All-Conference member. The forward was also named 2022-23 NABC Second Team All-District after a breakout sophomore campaign. The Sheboygan, Wisconsin native led Lipscomb in scoring last season with 17.7 points per game, good for second in the ASUN last season. Always consistent, Ognacevic connected at a 67.7-percent clip which was a top-20 mark in the NCAA and the top mark in the ASUN. One of the most consistent scorers in the country, Ognacevic ranked 45th in the nation in total field goals (221) last season and shot 85.2-percent from the free throw line. In addition, he averaged 4.4 rebounds per game a season ago and added nine blocks and seven steals with 19 assists.

ACUFF FINDS SUCCESS

Last season was coach Acuff's most successful season at the helm of the Lipscomb program. For the first time in his tenure with the Bisons, Acuff achieved 20 wins and led the Bisons all the way to the ASUN Semifinal game where the squad lost to the eventual ASUN Champion, Kennesaw State.

A NEW ERA

In his fifth year at Lipscomb, head coach Lennie Acuff is coaching a team full of athletes that he recruited.

Lipscomb is without record-breaker Ahsan Asadullah for the first time since the 2018-19 season. Asadullah was the first person in ASUN history to score 1400 points, notch 800 rebounds and dish out 300 assists. He was an ASUN First Team Selection for three-consecutive seasons. Last season, he became the ASUN All-time Leading Rebounder with his 1,121st rebound.

TRANSFER ADDITIONS

Lipscomb added a pair of powerful transfers to the roster in Owen McCormack and Joe Anderson.

Center Owen McCormack comes from Presbyterian where he was the 22-23 Big South Scholar Athlete of the Year. He connected on 41 three-pointers as a big man. He led the blue hose in scoring and rebounding three times last seasons and assists eight times.

Anderson logged time in 29 games off the bench last season and averaged 4.7 points, 1.3 assists and 1.1 rebounds. The guard will make an immediate impact on the Lipscomb roster.

MR. 1000

Head coach Lennie Acuff coached his 1,000th career game last season against Jacksonville and got the win in dramatic fashion on a last-second three-pointer.

PRESEASON ACCOLADES

Ognacevic was named to the 2023-24 ASUN Preseason All-ASUN Team after being a First Team selection last season. The Bisons were picked to finish fifth in the ASUN Preseason Coaches Poll and third in the Preseason ASUN Media Poll.

HISTORY LESSON

Lipscomb University was established in 1891 by David Lipscomb and James A. Harding as the Nashville Bible School. Nearly 30 years later, the school was renamed David Lipscomb College after Lipscomb passed away.

In 1988, Lipscomb became known as David Lipscomb University, but in 1994, the "David" was legally dropped. The school joined the NCAA as a full member in 2004-05. Lipscomb is affiliated with the Churches of Christ

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Hank Hutcheson, the son of Lipscomb Athletic Director Philip Hutcheston transferred from D-II Trevecca last season to don the same uniform that his dad did when he was a star at Lipscomb during the NAIA days. Philip was a member of the Bisons from 1986-1990 when he attracted national attention as he approached and broke college basketball's all-time scoring record, scoring 4,106 points during his career. Philip's record was broken four years later by fellow Bison John Pierce, whose record remains unbroken. Philip Hutcheson is in the NAIA Hall of Fame, Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame and the Small College Basketball Hall of Fame. He was a four-time All-American and the 1990 NAIA Player of the Year and a two-time College Sports Information Director Academic Player of the Year. He graduated from Lipscomb with a 4.0.

There is another father-son duo in the program with head coach Lennie Acuff welcoming his son, Will Acuff to the staff this season as the Director of Basketball Operations. Will Acuff spent one season under his father as a graduate assistant at Lipscomb before becoming a high school head coach. He returned to the program this season for his second season with his father.

LET'S SCORE 4,000+

The top two all-time leading scorers in college basketball history (NCAA or NAIA) belong to the Lipscomb Bisons.

John Pierce is college basketball's all-time leading scorer with 4,230 career points and current Lipscomb AD Philip Hutcheson, who concluded his career as the nation's all-time leading scorer, ranks second alltime with 4,106 career points.

The NCAA record for career points is held by LSU's "Pistol" Pete Maravich, who totaled 3,667 points.

HIGH OCTANE OFFENSE

Lipscomb has been on fire offensively early in the season. Scoring at one of the best clips in the country, the squad ranks 19th in the nation in effective field goal percentage (57.6). Other top marks include bench points per game (28.89, 47th), field goal percentage (49.7 31st), scoring offense (84.2, 35th), three point attempts per game (26.2, 55th) and three pointers per game (10, 24th).

Individually, Derrin Boyd leads the squad with 17.3 points per game, which ranks fourth in the conference. AJ McGinnis has been lethal from three-point range, connecting at a 46.0 percent clip which is third in the conference and ranks fourth in the conference in total three point field goals made (23).

BENCH CONTRIBUTIONS

Lipscomb has gone deep into its bench early this season with nearly all of its rostered athletes getting minutes in the opening games of the season. The Bisons are third in the ASUN this season in bench points per game (28.89) which is also ranked 4th in the nation.

NORTHERN CLASSIC

Over the Thanksgiving weekend, Lipscomb competed in the Northern Classic in Montreal, Canada. The Bisons went 2-1 on the week in an incredibly tough field, defeating both UNC Asheville, a 2023 NCAA Tournament Team and Wofford.

LENNIE ACUFF

Lennie Acuff was named the 19th head men's basketball coach at Lipscomb University on April 23, 2019.

With a 32-year storied coaching career, Acuff has established himself as a proven winner that was highlighted with his 600th career win in last year's ASUN tournament. A veteran to the industry, Acuff coached in his 1,000th career game this past season. Acuff was recently inducted as the National President of the NABC at the Final Four in Houston.

Acuff owns a career record of 620-384 career and a 65-60 record (44-36 in ASUN play) since arriving at Lipscomb. The most recent 2022-23 season marked Acuff's first 20-win season with the Bisons as he led Lipscomb to a 20-13 record (11-7 in ASUN play) and an ASUN Semifinal berth.

In the most recent season with the Bisons, Lipscomb had its most successful season to date under the direction of Acuff. The Bisons played a tough non-conference schedule that was highlighted by a win at Louisville. The Bisons also played a hard-fought game at Michigan and fell at Notre Dame by just a point. Marquee non-conference victories in Allen Arena came when the Bisons defeated crosstown rival Belmont and when Lipscomb downed Navy. The Bisons picked up 11 wins in ASUN play, highlighted by victories at home against Eastern Kentucky and Liberty, who sat at the top of the conference. The Bisons ended its season on a three game winning streak to end the regular season before picking up an ASUN Quarterfinal win at Stetson. Lipscomb eventually fell to Kennesaw State in its ASUN Semifinal matchup at Kennesaw State, who went on to win the ASUN Tournament. Jacob Ognacevic emerged as one of the ASUN's top players during the season, earning First Team All-Conference honors after leading the conference in field goal percentage and ranking top-five in a number of statistical categories.

Acuff's third season at the helm, the Bisons experienced challenges brought on by injuries that plagued the team throughout the year. A November upset of Dayton University was the highlight of a difficult non-conference schedule that was made more challenging by the loss of three time ASUN all conference post player Ahsan Asadullah for a significant time with a knee injury. After finishing fourth in the ASUN eastern division, the Bisons knocked off North Florida in the first round of the conference tournament before seeing the year come to a hard fought loss at Liberty University.

In his second season at the helm of the Bisons, Acuff and company finished third in ASUN regular season play that condensed due complications with the Covid pandemic. After making the conference championship game the previous three years, Lipscomb was knocked out in the first round of the ASUN tournament with a loss to FGCU. In his first season leading the Bisons' program, Acuff guided a team that lost more than 7,700 career points and 3,000 career rebounds from the previous year to a birth in the ASUN championship game after being picked to finish fifth in the preseason poll. The 16 total wins in 2019-20 were the most by a first-year head coach in Lipscomb's NCAA Division I era.

Prior to arriving in Nashville, Acuff spent the previous 22 years as the head coach at The University of Alabama in Huntsville where he built the Chargers into a national power with a 437-214 overall record. Acuff is the all-time winningest coach in Gulf South Conference history as well as being at the top of the UAH career wins list. Acuff was honored as the GSC Coach of the Year a league record eight times and the NABC South Region coach of the year four times. Under Acuff, UAH won eight regular season championships and three GSC tournament titles and 11 NCAA tournament appearances.

Two of Acuff's trips to the NCAA tournament resulted in Elite Eight appearances as well as five births in the Sweet 16. The Chargers were ranked in the national polls for 44 consecutive weeks including a No. 2 national ranking in 2011-12. The programs consistent success was recognized when UAH was selected as the first NCAA Division II team to be invited to NCAA Division I NIT Season Tip-Off tournament which was highlighted by the Chargers upsetting North Texas in the opening round of the prestigious event.

Acuff was inducted to the Huntsville-Madison County Athletic Hall of Fame in 2018 and was recently named to the UAH Athletic Hall of Fame that will be inducted in the fall of 2023.

Highly respected by his peers, Acuff has served on the National Association of Basketball Coaches Board of Directors for over a decade and is currently holds the title of First Vice President of the coaches association.

Prior to his time in Huntsville, Acuff was the head coach at Berry College in Rome, Georgia four seasons where he established Berry as a premier NAIA program. At the age of 25, he began his coaching career at Belhaven College in Jackson, Mississippi. While being the youngest head coach at a four-year college, his three year stint proved to be the rebirth of a struggling program.

Acuff graduated from Shorter College where he enjoyed an outstanding playing career that led to his induction into the Shorter College Athletic Hall of Fame. He stills holds school records for single game, season and career assists.
