- For the third time under Head Coach Kelvin Sampson, the Cougars enjoyed an international trip, heading to Australia in August 2023.
- The 12-day trip featured four games in three cities and covered more than 17,000 air miles total with a 19.5-hour flight from San Francisco to Sydney.
- Under NCAA rules, teams are allowed one international trip every four years.
- Cougars began using their allowable 10 team practices inside Fertitta Center in late July before leaving Houston for Sydney on the afternoon of Aug. 4
- Houston opened its game schedule with a 93-52 win over East All-Stars in Sydney.
- Following a 99-65 loss to an Australia National Team which featured several NBA stars, the Cougars returned to the win column with back-to-back victories against Frankston Blues (109-56) and AUSA Select (88-50) with both of those games in Melbourne.

- In addition to the basketball competition, the Cougars enjoyed visits to Australian cultural sites, including the iconic Sydney Opera House, Manly Beach, an excursion to the Great Barrier Reef, a Melbourne Football Club Australian Rules Football Game, Melbourne Zoo and a cruise of Sydney Harbor.
- The Cougars returned to the Lone Star State on the afternoon of Aug. 15 with the start of classes less than a week later.

 Houston Athletics has worked with Team IMPACT for the past 2+ years, matching children across its Men's Basketball, Football, Soccer and Swimming and Diving programs.

The University of Houston Men's and Women's Basketball programs began play in a new game arena during the 2018-19 season when the Fertitta Center officially opened with a 65-61 win over No. 18/21 Oregon on Dec. 1, 2018, in front of a sellout crowd of 7,039.

With the completion of the 2016-17 season, Hofheinz Pavilion underwent a $60 million renovation. The renovation was made possible through a generous $20 million donation from University of System Board of Regents Chairman Tilman J. Fertitta and his family in late August 2016.

The facility features a premium club area and a courtside club. The reconfigured bowl moved move mid-court seating locations closer to game action with floor-level seating opposite the team benches for UH students. Renovations included a new audio system, sports lighting and video boards as well as new concession stands and expanded restrooms. The facility's exterior also was refreshed.

Prominent to the center's exterior, the renovation will preserve the legacy of the Hofheinz family and its contributions to both UH and the city of Houston.

In December 2019, a statue of former Harris County Judge Roy Hofheinz was dedicated with members of his family outside the Fertitta Center Club lower entrance off Holman Street. Fans can learn more about Hofheinz and his contributions to the University, city and state at the Roy Hofheinz Wall, located on the concourse near Section 107.

The University of Houston will request that city officials rename a portion of Holman Street in front of the arena after the Hofheinz family. In addition, Roy Hofheinz's records will be permanently archived and publicly accessible as a special collection in the UH library, and the Alumni Center will house an area describing the lives and public service of Roy and Irene Hofheinz.

"This gift is personal. It represents a commitment from my family and me to support the University of Houston in its quest to strengthen our nationally competitive institution both in academics and athletics," Fertitta said. "Upgrading our athletics facilities shows we are serious about competing at the highest levels of collegiate sports for many years to come. I'm proud of where the University of Houston is today and I'm proud to make this investment in my university's future."

"I am proud and grateful that our administration recognized how important the Guy V. Lewis Development Facility is. We now have a place where our players can practice, work out, shoot, develop chemistry and improve their work ethics 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, with this facility. This is a game-changer."

QUICK FACTS

Head Coach Kelvin Sampson

The University of Houston Men's Basketball program moved into its new home during the 2015-16 season following completion of construction of the Guy V. Lewis Development Facility.

The near-53,000-square-foot facility provides the environment that University of Houston Men's and Women's Basketball student-athletes need to excel throughout the season in all areas.

Named after 592-game winner and Hall of Fame Head Coach Guy V. Lewis, the Development Facility is located adjacent to Hofheinz Pavilion at the corner of Cullen Boulevard and Holman Street on the UH campus.

Construction on the $25-million facility began in September 2014. Austin Commercial served as the construction manager for the project, which was designed by DLR Group and Page.
