McCasland selected to USA Basketball position

LUBBOCK, Texas – Texas Tech head coach Grant McCasland has been selected to join the 2024 USA Basketball Men's Junior National Team coaching staff. USA Basketball announced on Feb. 2 the 2024 USA Men's U18 National Team will be led by Arizona head coach Tommy Lloyd who will be assisted by McCasland and Notre Dame head coach Micah Shrewsberry.

"Being a part of USA Basketball is something you dream about growing up," McCasland said. "To represent our country coaching basketball is humbling and a great honor."

Coaching staff selections for the USA Men's U18 National Team were made by the USA Basketball Junior National Team Committee. All selections were approved by the USA Basketball Board of Directors.

Lloyd, McCasland and Shrewsberry will lead the Americans at the 2024 FIBA U18 Men's AmeriCup. The date and location of the tournament will be announced by FIBA at a later date.

McCasland is in his first season at Texas Tech. Previously, while the head coach at UNT, he led the Mean Green to three Conference USA titles (2020, 2021, 2022), their first NCAA Tournament victory and two postseason tournament championships (2018 CBI, 2023 NIT). He enters his first USA Basketball coaching assignment after serving as a court coach for the 2021 U19 National Team.

Lloyd took the reins at Arizona in 2021 and has led the Wildcats to record-breaking success. His 61 victories during his first two seasons set the NCAA record. In his first season with Arizona in 2022, Lloyd was named National Coach of the Year by NABC, USBWA and Associated Press. Lloyd was previously an assistant at Gonzaga University for 22 seasons. He will be serving his first USA Basketball head coaching assignment as he was a court coach for the 2022 USA Men's U18 National Team. He has previously served USA Basketball as a committee member.

"I can't imagine getting to work with better coaches than Tommy Lloyd and Micah Shrewsberry," McCasland said. "Both are amazing basketball minds and great leaders that genuinely care about people."

Shrewsberry is in his first season at Notre Dame after an accomplished career spanning the NBA and college ranks. Shrewsberry's coaching resume includes being the head coach at Pennsylvania State University (2021-23) and Indiana University South Bend (2005-07); and an assistant coach at Purdue (2019-21, 2011-13), Boston Celtics (2013-19), Butler University (2008-11), DePauw University (2001-03) and Wabash College (1999-00). He will also make his USA Basketball coaching debut but was previously a court coach for the 2023 U19 National Team.

The FIBA U18 Men's AmeriCup takes place every two years with the USA winning 10 gold medals, including six straight.

LUBBOCK, Texas – No. 23 Texas Tech begins the second half of Big 12 play with a two-game home stand that starts against UCF at 3 p.m. on Saturday before hosting No. 4 Kansas at 8 p.m. on Monday at United Supermarkets Arena. The Red Raiders (16-6, 5-4 Big 12) are 11-1 on their home court but will be looking to snap a three-game losing streak that was extended with a 79-73 loss at No. 13 Baylor on Tuesday night. The Knights (13-8, 4-5 Big 12) make their first trip to Lubbock after knocking off Oklahoma with a 74-63 win last Saturday in Orlando. The Jayhawks (18-5, 6-4 Big 12) host Baylor on Saturday night before the ESPN Big Monday matchup.

Tech is currently third in home attendance in Big 12 games this season where it averages 14,853 fans through four conference games at the USA with sellouts in the past two games. Texas Tech is currently at No. 23 in the AP Top 25 and USA TODAY Coaches Poll, No. 36 in the NCAA NET Rankings and 35 overall in Kenpom. UCF is at No. 66 in the NCAA NET Rankings. Tech was at No. 15 last week in the AP Top 25 and USA TODAY Coaches Poll after the team was unranked in the preseason and through the first 10 weeks. The Red Raiders are 3-3 against ranked opponents this season with wins over Oklahoma (then No. 11) after beating BYU and Texas when both were at No. 20. The losses came against Houston which was at No. 5, at (then-No. 25) TCU, and No. 13 Baylor. Tech comes into its game against UCF with a 2-4 record as a ranked team this season.

Pop Isaacs leads Tech and the Big 12 with 19.4 points per game in conference games after recording his 13th straight game in double figures with 11 points at Baylor following games where he had 22 against Cincinnati and 25 at TCU. Joe Toussaint led the Red Raiders in scoring for the fifth time this season with an 18-point performance at Baylor where he was 7-for-8 at the free-throw line and also added six assists to take his team-leading assist average to 4.3 for the season. Darrion Williams recorded a career-high 17 points against the Bears after scoring in single-digits in the previous five games, while Chance McMillian continued to shine off the bench with 15 points. McMillian was 3-for-6 on 3-pointers at Baylor and comes into the matchup against UCF with 900 points in his career. Warren Washington, who missed the game at Baylor due to illness, is second in the Big 12 with a 64.5% shooting percentage in conference-only games and in the overall stats is third with 7.6 rebounds and 1.6 blocks per game. Williams leads Tech with four double-doubles this season and is seventh in the Big 12 overall stats with 7.0 rebounds per game.

Texas Tech is averaging 75.0 points per game through nine Big 12 games which is the most for the program since 2001-02 when that team averaged 79.4 in conference play. The Red Raiders are currently the fourth best scoring offense in the Big 12 within conference games, while they are at the top of the Big 12 stats by shooting 41.0 percent on 3-pointers and 76.5 on free throws. Tech is also second with a 46.7 shooting percentage from the field (237-for-498) and is third in the conference by averaging just 10 turnovers per conference game.

UCF has had the week off after its win over the Sooners where Jaylin Sellers went off for 20 points, Antwann Jones had 15, and Darius Jackson scored 14. Sellers was 13-for-14 at the free-throw line in the win and comes into the first matchup against the Red Raiders leading the Knights with 17.2 points per game this season. He is now 40-for-44 (90.9%) at the line in Big 12 games. Omar Payne had four blocks in the game while Shemarri Allen had eight rebounds and nine points. Johnson is averaging 13.1 points per game this season and also added eight assists in the win over OU. He now has 83 assists this season. Ibrahima Diallo leads the Big 12 with 1.6 blocks and is sixth with 6.3 rebounds per game in conference games after he had three blocks against the Sooners. UCF is led by head coach Johnny Dawkins who played nine seasons in the NBA after playing at Duke. Dawkins is a 2023 National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame selection.

The Red Raiders will be playing UCF for the first time in program history with the Knights joining the Big 12 this season. Tech makes the return trip to Orlando on Saturday, Feb. 24.

RED RAIDER REPORT

- Grant McCasland's inaugural roster at Texas Tech has 13 players on it with five returners and eight newcomers. . . McCasland was named the 19th head coach in program history on March 31, 2023, after leading North Texas for six season, culminating in winning the 2023 NIT Championship. . . He is currently in his 10th season as an NCAA head coach and has a 227-95 overall record with head coaching experiences at Midwestern State, Arkansas State, and North Texas. . . He was also an assistant at Baylor from 2011-16 and won the 2007 NJCAA National Championship in his first head coaching role leading Midland College. . . McCasland matched Bob Knight for the best 20-game start for a Tech head coach. . . Knight finished that 2001-02 season with a 23-9 overall record
- Isaacs leads the Big 12 with 19.4 ppg. in conference-only games after his 11 points at Baylor and 22 points against Cincinnati in the past two games. . . Isaacs is followed in the Big 12-only stats by KU's Hunter Dickinson (19.3), Max Abmas who is at 18.3 for Texas, and former Red Raider turned Jayhawk, Kevin McCullar (18.1) . . . McCullar leads the Big 12 overall with 19.5 ppg. for the season while Isaacs is fourth going into this week at 17.3 ppg. through 22 games
- Texas Tech is now 3-2 following a loss this season after falling at No. 13 Baylor. . . The Red Raiders started with a 3-0 record following losses, most recently beating BYU at home after its loss at Houston. . . For the program, the 2022-23 team went the entire season without back-to-back losses
- Texas Tech leads the Big 12 and is 18th nationally with a 77.5 percentage at the free-throw line after going 12-for-16 in Waco and 19-for-24 against Cincinnati in the past two games. . . Tech has shot over 80 percent at

- the line in 10-of-22 games this season... Tech has made 10 or more free throws in 20 of 22 games
- Tech has made 9 or more 3-pointers in 12 of 22 games this season after going 9-for-22 at No. 13 Baylor following a 5-for-15 performance against Cincinnati last Saturday... The Red Raiders were 14-for-28 at TCU for their best 3-point shooting in Big 12 play so far... The Red Raiders had a season-high 15 against Sam Houston in non-conference play... The 15 3-pointers against Sam Houston matched the second most in program history and fell just one shy of the program record of 16 3-pointers which has happened three times – most recently against Kansas in 2019... The Red Raiders are now 193-for-513 (37.6%) for the season on 3-pointers which ranks second in the Big 12 and are currently the conference leaders at 41.0% in-conference games 77-for-188... The team is third in the Big 12 by making 8.8 3-pointers per game this season
- Tech is second in the Big 12 with only 10.8 turnovers per game (14 at Baylor; 11 vs. Cincinnati)
- Historically, the 20-game start with a 16-4 record was the best for the program since starting the 2003-04 season with the same record... The 1995-96 team was 19-1 for the best start and went 30-2 overall... The James Dickey team was 30-1 before falling to Georgetown in the 1996 Sweet 16 in Atlanta
- Texas Tech is currently 11-1 at home, 3-1 in neutral-court games, and 2-4 in true road games with road wins at No. 11 Oklahoma and No. 20 Texas on January 6 to begin Big 12 play... For the program, the 2022-23 team went 18-0 at home to establish the best home record in program history
- Comebacks: Texas Tech trailed by as many as 17 points against BYU and was down 48-32 at halftime before storming back for the win... The comeback followed the team fighting back from an 11-point halftime deficit against Kansas State for a win and a nine-point hole in the second half at Oklahoma to give them three second-half comebacks in Big 12 play where they were down at least nine points... In non-conference play in the Bahamas, Tech trailed by 15 against Northern Iowa before coming back for a win... The 16-point halftime comeback against BYU was the largest for the program since coming back from a 17-point halftime deficit (and as many as 23 points) against Iowa State last season... This season, Tech trailed UNI by as much as 15, Kansas State by 12, and BYU by 17 in games the Red Raiders have fought back and won
- Tech is 2-0 in one-point decisions with the 85-84 win at Oklahoma following its 60-59 win over K-State on Jan. 13 which was its first one-point win of the season... The Red Raiders are 3-1 in games decided by five points or less after falling by three to Cincinnati
- In Big 12 weekly awards, McMillian was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Week for the second time this season after his 27 points at Oklahoma last Saturday... He earned the honor for the first time on December 4 after his 24-point performance at Butler where he made eight 3-pointers... Isaacs was named the Big 12 Player of the Week on January 2 for his 28-point performance against Sam Houston
- Tech has been led in scoring by six different players in its 22 games after Toussaint had a team-high 18 points at Baylor... Isaacs led the team for the 10th time this season with his 22 against Cincinnati after 25 points at TCU last week... Isaacs had a streak of four straight game-high scoring games before Toussaint's team-high 12 points against K-State... McMillian has led Tech in scoring in three games after his career-high 27 points at Oklahoma... He also led Tech with 24 points at Butler and 17 points in the win over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi... Warren Washington was the sixth different leading scorer after he had his game-high 18 points against Oral Roberts in non-conference play following Walton scoring his career-high 22 points against Omaha a game... Toussaint has now led Tech in scoring four times – including scoring his final three points with the game-winning points against K-State
- The Red Raiders returned Lamar Washington, Pop Isaacs, D'Maurian Williams, Kerwin Walton, and Robert Jennings who are each in their second season in the program... Tech returned only 25.4 percent of its scoring from last season with eight departures from last year's roster... Isaacs is Tech's leading returning scorer after going for 11.5 points per game as a true freshman in 25 games played last season
- The list of newcomers includes five players from the transfer portal in Devan Cambridge (Arizona State), Chance McMillian (Grand Canyon), Joe Toussaint (West Virginia), Darrion Williams (Nevada), and Warren Washington (Arizona State)... All five players signed out of the transfer portal played on teams that advanced to the 2023 NCAA Tournament... The transfer portal additions had a combined 492 games of experience and 3,454 points scored coming into the season
- Cambridge suffered a season-ending knee injury in the win over Omaha on December 6 and will miss the remainder of the year... A starter in all eight games before the injury, Cambridge will have the option after the season to file a medical hardship through the Big 12... He averaged 10.5 points and 4.5 rebounds for the Red Raiders and is currently at 983 points and 515 rebounds in his career
- Tech has had only three different starting lineups this season... The starting lineup for the opening eight games was: Cambridge, Isaacs, Toussaint, Warren Washington, Darrion Williams... Kerwin Walton has started since Cambridge's injury, making his first start this season against Vanderbilt... The starting lineup of Isaacs, Toussaint, Warren Washington, Darrion Williams, and Walton is currently 10-3 together with their only losses coming in Big 12 road games at Houston and TCU before the home defeat to Cincinnati... Robert Jennings started in place of Warren Washington who was sick at the Baylor game
- Toussaint scored in double figures in the first eight games of the season before finishing with nine points against ORU for his longest double-figure scoring streak of the season... Jarrett Culver began the 2018-19 season with 13 straight double-figure scoring games for the previous long to start a season
- Showing team balance, Tech matched a season-best with five players in double-figures against Oklahoma State with Isaacs (24), Washington (16), Walton (16), Williams (14), Toussaint (13) - it was the first time all five starters scored in double figures... Tech established a season-high with five players in double-figure scoring for the first time at Butler with McMillian (24), Isaacs (18), Toussaint (18), Cambridge (16), Warren Washington (10)... The Red Raiders had four score in double figures at Oklahoma, at Texas, against K-State, and at Baylor.
- A season-high 11 players scored in the opener against Texas A&M-Commerce... Tech had eight players score against K-State
- Eight players have made their Texas Tech debut this season, including most recently with Jack Francis and KyeRon Lindsay who played for their first time this season against Omaha

POP ISAACS has scored in a career-best 13 straight games and leads the Big 12 with 19.4 points per game midway through the conference schedule after going for 25 points at TCU, 22 against Cincinnati, and 11 at Baylor. . . The streak started with 19 points against Vanderbilt on December 16 and has seven games of 20-plus point performances in it. . . Along with his 25 points at TCU, he also had a career-high nine assists in a game in Fort Worth where he was on the court for all but 31 seconds. . . A 6-foot-2 guard, Isaacs scored a career-high 32 points against BYU where he went 6-for-9 on 3-pointers and leads Tech with 17.3 points per game overall this season to go along with 3.6 assists and 1.1 steals. . . In conference-only games, Isaacs is fifth in the Big 12 by shooting 38.9% on 3-pointers (28-for-72). . . At the free-throw line, he's currently 85-for-104 (81.7%) which ranks 10th in the Big 12. . . His career percentage is at 84.2 with him going 128-for-152 at the line in his two seasons. . . He also has a 1.44 assist-to-turnover ratio which is 20th in the Big 12. . . The 13-game streak of double-figure scoring is his best after having a streak of seven last season as a freshman. . . For the program, Jarrett Culver had two streaks in his sophomore season – one of 13 games before finishing the year with 24 straight double-figure scoring performances. . . Isaacs currently has scored in double figures in 19 games this season and in 35 of his 47 career games. . . Isaacs went off for 24 points with four 3-pointers in the win over Oklahoma State for his fourth straight game with 20 points or more points before scoring 10 points in the win over K-State to break that 20+ streak. . . A starter in all 22 games, he has 15 games with three assists or more with his highest production coming with nine assists at TCU after seven assists against Vanderbilt. . . He also led Tech with 21 points at Texas in its Big 12 opener where he surpassed the 500-point career milestone after going 7-for-15 from the field, 3-for-5 on 3-pointers, and shooting 4-for-4 at the free-throw line. . . A sophomore from Las Vegas, Isaacs was named the Big 12 Player of the Week for the first time in his career after going off for his previous career-high 28 points in the win over Sam Houston on December 28 before also leading Tech with 21 points on New Year's Day against North Alabama to conclude non-conference play. . . Against Sam Houston, Isaacs made five 3-pointers for the fourth time in his career – including last season at Texas when he scored 23 points as a freshman against the Longhorns. . . In his second season at Tech, Isaacs also had 18 points and four assists at Butler, including hitting the game-tying layup as time expired in regulation to force overtime. . . Proving to be a clutch player for the Red Raiders, Isaacs also hit the game-winner against UNI with 0.8 on the clock and finished with 18 points and four 3-pointers for the second straight game in the Bahamas. . . In the preseason, Isaacs also went off for 30 points after going 6-for-10 on 3-pointers in the exhibition win over Texas A&M where he also led the team with three steals. . . Last season, he made 62 3-pointers (37.8%), including making five 3-pointers in games against Nicholls, TCU, and Texas. . . Isaacs scored a previous career-high 24 points in the non-conference game against Nicholls and also had 23 points at Texas after he went off by making 5-of-9 3-pointers against the Longhorns. . . Isaacs made 24 starts last year and earned Big 12 All-Freshman Team honors during his first season at Tech where he averaged 11.5 points, 2.7 assists, 1.1 steals and 2.0 rebounds per game. . . He finished third in scoring among freshmen in the Big 12 and was fourth throughout the conference by averaging 2.5 made 3-pointers per game. . . Isaacs has led the Red Raiders in scoring 10 times this season and goes into the game against UCF with 668 points and 118 3-pointers made through 47 career games

JOE TOUSSAINT is averaging 12.7 points, 4.3 assists, and 1.0 steals per game this season after he led Tech with 18 points and six assists at Baylor. . . A fifth-year senior from the Bronx, he has 1,072 points and 463 assists in his career. . . Toussaint was coming off games where he had four assists against Cincinnati and nine at TCU. . . He is currently eighth in the Big 12 with a 1.93 assist-to-turnover ratio. . . At Oklahoma, Toussaint had 14 points, six assists and four steals. . . His four steals against the Sooners and two more against Cincy now has him with 41 games in his career with two or more steals. . . A clutch player for the Red Raiders, Toussaint made a tough inside shot and added a free throw with 30 seconds remaining for the game-winning points against K-State in a game where he led the Red Raiders in scoring with 12 points. . . Toussaint reached the 1,000-point milestone against Oklahoma State where he finished with 13 points. . . A starter in all 22 games and leading the team at 32.8 minutes per game, Toussaint is 83-for-97 (85.6%) at the free-throw line which is fifth in the Big 12 after he went 7-for-8 at Baylor. . . He is also 12th in the Big 12 with 95 total assists. . . Toussaint has scored in double figures in 16 of 22 games this season, including the first eight of the season and then the first three Big 12 games. . . Toussaint had a career-high 12 assists and scored 18 points for his first double-double of the season in the overtime loss at Butler in the Big 12-Big East Battle. . . To begin the season, he scored the first four points of Tech's season in the opener against Texas A&M-Commerce and finished with 10 points to go along with three rebounds and an assist in his Tech debut. . . A 6-foot guard, he is in his fifth and final season of college basketball after playing his first three seasons at Iowa and then last year at West Virginia. . . The New Yorker played against Texas Tech four times as an opponent in his career, including three times last season while at WVU and once while at Iowa in 2019. . . He scored his career-high 22 points against the Red Raiders in Lubbock after making a career-high 12 free throws and has now scored 20 or more four times in his career (two times this season). . . He had his first career double-double with 11 assists and 11 points against Alabama State back on Nov. 18, 2021, while playing at Iowa. . . His 152 games are the most experience on this year's Tech roster and the fifth most among all active players in the nation. . . Toussaint is coming off a season at WVU where he averaged 9.4 points and had 89 assists. . . He started against Texas A&M in the exhibition game, finishing with a team-high seven assists and having six points and three rebounds in 36 minutes of play. . . Toussaint's 16 games this season in double figures is only behind Isaacs and now has him with 42 double-figure scoring games in his career. . . His points-assist double-double at Butler was the first for Tech since John Roberson had 12 points and 12 assists against Iowa State in 2011. . . Toussaint has had four or more assists in five straight games

DARRION WILLIAMS is coming off a career-high 17 points at Baylor where he went 6-for-9 from the field, 2-for-3 on 3-pointers, and 3-of-4 at the free-throw line in his 55th career game. . . A sophomore from California, Williams

LBK to LA: Texas Tech legend Darwin Ham was named the Los Angeles Lakers head coach on June 3, 2022 after he had helped lead Milwaukee to the 2021 NBA Championship the previous season. Ham, who became an iconic Red Raider nationally by ripping down a rim in the 1996 NCAA Tournament and winning the 1996 NCAA Slam Dunk Contest, played in the NBA from 1996-2005 and was on the Detroit Pistons' 2004 NBA Championship team. Ham was an Atlanta Hawks assistant coach from 2013-18 and had been on the Bucks sideline since the 2018 season where he was the lead assistant. He recently completed his bachelor's degree, earning his Texas Tech degree in 2019 – 23 years after beginning his professional basketball career.

Mac McClung is presented the trophy by Julius Erving after he won the 2023 NBA Dunk Contest. McClung played at Tech during the 2020-21 season.

RECENT PROGRAM NOTES

The Red Raiders are a proud program that has experienced great success with 19 overall NCAA Tournament appearances and advancement to the 2018 Elite 8, 2019 National Championship Final, and 2022 Sweet 16. This is the 99th season in program history and includes recent appearances in the NCAA Tournament in 2016, 2018, 2019, 2021, and 2022, a 2019 Big 12 regular-season championship, 25 NBA Draft selections, and over 1,500 wins. Recently in the NBA Draft, selections of Zhaire Smith (R1-P16), Jarrett Culver (R1-P6), and Jahmi'us Ramsey (R2-P43) were made. Mac McClung represented the program by winning the 2023 NBA Slam Dunk Contest and will once again compete in the 2024 NBA Slam Dunk Contest. Tech went 18-0 at home during the 2021-22 season for the best record nationally two years ago. Last season, the program ranked No. 21 in average attendance with 13,222 per game.

RANKINGS

- At No. 23 nationally, Texas Tech is ranked for the fourth straight week after entering in the Week 11 poll at No. 25 in the AP Top 25 and USA TODAY Coaches Poll (January 15, 2024)... Tech was at No. 15 last week for its highest ranking of the season
- Tech came into the 2023-24 season unranked AP Preseason Poll and had remained unranked in the Nov. 13, Nov. 20, Nov. 27, Dec. 4, Dec. 11, Dec. 18, Dec. 25, Jan. 1, and Jan. 8 polls
- Tech received votes for the first time this season with 62 in the January 8 poll after the Texas win
- Tech is now 3-2 against ranked opponents this season with wins over Oklahoma (11) after beating BYU and Texas when both were at No. 20... The losses came at Houston which was at No. 5 and at No. 25 TCU on Monday
- UConn (18-2) remains at No. 1 in the nation followed by No. 2 Purdue (19-2), No. 3 North Carolina (17-3), No. 4 Houston (18-2, 4-2 Big 12), and No. 5 Tennessee (15-4). Along with Tech and UH, the Big 12 is also represented by No. 8 Kansas (16-4, 4-3), No. 12 Iowa State (16-4, 5-2), No. 18 Baylor (14-5, 3-3), No. 22 BYU (15-5, 3-4), No. 23 Oklahoma (15-5, 3-4), and No. 25 TCU (15-5, 4-3)
- The No. 15 national ranking was the highest since the program was No. 12 in the AP Top 25 at the end of the 2022 season
- The Red Raiders were at No. 25 to begin the 2022-23 season following advancing to the 2022 NCAA Sweet 16... Tech was in the first three polls last season and rose as high as No. 21 before falling out and not returning
- Tech was picked 8th in the 2024 Big 12 Preseason Poll
- Kansas was picked first in the 2024 Big 12 Preseason Poll followed by Houston, Texas, Baylor, and TCU to round out the Top-5
- Texas Tech did not have a player selected in the 2024 preseason awards
- Tech's highest AP ranking in program history came at No. 6 in February of 2018 (16th Week Poll)... The 2018-19 team was No. 8 in the final week of the regular season and No. 7 throughout the postseason that led to the 2019 National

Bob Knight led the Red Raiders from 2001-08 where he had an impressive 138-82 record, including five seasons of 20-plus wins. He earned NABC District Coach of the Year during the 2001-02 season after leading Tech to a 23-9 record in his first season in Lubbock and led his 2004-05 to a 22-11 record and the NCAA Sweet 16. The Red Raiders advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times under Knight, reaching the 2005 Sweet 16 after earning wins over UCLA and Gonzaga to open the tournament. Knight passed former North Carolina coach Dean Smith as the then-winningest Division I men's coach Jan. 1, 2007, getting career win No. 880 with a 70-68 Red Raider win over New Mexico and the United Supermarkets Arena.

"Texas Tech joins college basketball fans across the country who mourn the passing of legendary head coach Bob Knight. Coach Knight, from his 902 career wins, three national titles and 24 NCAA Tournament appearances, will forever be remembered as one of the top coaches in not only Texas Tech history but all of college basketball. He truly changed the game with not only his motion offense but his insistence that his teams be defined by their defense. His impact was felt off the court, too, as he was a profound supporter of student-athletes receiving a quality education, which was evident by his teams annually producing a near-perfect graduation rate. Coach Knight's impact on our basketball program will forever be cherished as one of the greatest tenures in our history. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Knight family during this difficult time."

The Red Raiders are wearing a "BK" patch on their jerseys throughout the season to honor Knight.

Knight was among the winningest coaches in the sport, finishing his career with 902 victories in 42 seasons at Army, Indiana, and Tech. He also coached the U.S. Olympic team to a gold medal in 1984.

HEAD COACH GRANT McCASLAND

A proven winner who began his career as the Texas Tech men's basketball Director of Operations from 1999-2001, Grant McCasland returned to Lubbock as the 19th head coach in Red Raider history after stacking success at various levels for nearly 25 years. Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt announced the hiring on March 31, 2023 along with a six-year contract.

Most recently at the University of North Texas for six seasons, McCasland is 211-89 as a head coach after leading the Mean Green to a 31-7 record this season and the National Invitation Tournament Championship. His teams have led the nation in scoring defense the past two seasons after limiting opponents to just 55.7 points per game in both seasons. UNT held 27 of its 38 opponents under 60 points this season.

"We're excited to welcome in the next era of Red Raider Basketball under the leadership of Coach McCasland," Hocutt said. "This position received tremendous interest nationally as we firmly believe this program is one of the best jobs in college basketball. Our search committee was immediately impressed not only by Coach McCasland and his ability to win at every level of college basketball, all while creating a positive culture built upon toughness, but also his passion for Texas Tech and his vision for our basketball program. We are pleased to welcome Coach McCasland, his wife, Cece, and their entire family back home to Texas Tech."

McCasland started his coaching career as the Texas Tech Director of Operations for two seasons under head coach James Dickey and took his first head coaching job at Midland College where he would win a NJCAA National Championship in 2007. The Red Raiders will be the 46-year-old McCasland's fifth head coaching job in a journey back to Texas Tech which includes leading Midland College from 2004-09, two years as the head coach at Midwestern State (2009-11), five seasons as an assistant coach at Baylor (2011-16), and one as the head coach at Arkansas State (2016-17) before amassing an impressive 135-65 (.675) record at UNT.

An Irving, Texas native, McCasland is a Baylor graduate who played for the Bears from 1995-99 as a walk-on. He earned Academic All-Big 12 honorable-mention honors as a senior and graduated from Baylor in 1999 with a degree in entrepreneurship and management before getting his master's from Texas Tech in 2001.

At North Texas, McCasland led the Mean Green to three straight Conference USA titles (2020, 2021, 2022), their first NCAA Tournament victory, first NIT victories, most single-season victories, and most single-season league victories in program history among other achievements. Along with leading the nation by limiting teams to only 55.7 points per game, UNT ranked seventh nationally by holding opponents to 39.2 percent shooting.

During his final season in Denton, McCasland led UNT to a program-record 31 wins after winning the 2023 NIT Championship with a 68-61 victory over UAB in Las Vegas. The Mean Green were second in the C-USA standings with a 16-4 conference record and a 14-2 record on their home court. The program advanced to the NIT Finals with wins over Alcorn State, Sam Houston, Oklahoma State and Wisconsin to set up its matchup against UAB. The Mean Green earned the postseason championship by jumping out to a 37-27 halftime lead and limiting UAB to only 35.6 shooting throughout the night – capping the season with another dominant defensive performance. The Mean Green reached the NIT finals with a 56-54 win over Wisconsin in the semifinals by holding the Badgers scoreless over the final nine minutes of play and to only 13 second-half points. UNT trailed 41-29 at halftime before locking down on defense and limiting Wisconsin to only 24.0 percent shooting in the second half with its final basket coming with 9:07 still on the clock.

McCasland was named the 2020 C-USA Coach of the Year and has recruited and led UNT men's basketball student-athletes to 19 all-league honors, including two Conference USA Player of the Year selections in Javion Hamlet (2020) and Tylor Perry (2023). The Mean Green won the C-USA regular-season championship in 2020 and 2022 along with winning the C-USA Tournament in 2021. He led UNT to a 12-3 record in postseason games with the program having never won a postseason game before his arrival.

Under McCasland, UNT won its first NCAA Tournament game in program-history with a 78-69 overtime victory over Purdue on March 19, 2021. It was the program's fourth trip to the NCAA Tournament and its first since 2010. They earned their highest ever seeding in a NCAA Tournament with a No. 13 seed and their victory over the No. 20-ranked Boilermakers was their first AP Top 25 win since 1972. They earned the bid into the NCAA Tournament after securing the 2021 C-USA Tournament championship. The Mean Green won four games in four days to win their first league tournament title in 11 years and their first since joining C-USA.

CONFERENCE NEWS & NOTES

To celebrate the start of Black History Month, the Big 12 Conference is partnering with Muhammad Ali Enterprises to introduce an Ali-inspired shooting shirt. Each Big 12 men's and women's basketball team will don the shooting shirt during warmups of select games in February. Each shooting shirt prominently features Ali's celebrated mantra, "If your dreams don't scare you, they aren't big enough."

College GameDay Covered by State Farm will broadcast live at Allen Fieldhouse on Saturday, Feb. 10 in advance of the Baylor at Kansas matchup. This will mark the third-straight season and 12th time that ESPN's College GameDay will broadcast from historic Allen Fieldhouse. The one-hour basketball College GameDay show will begin at 10 a.m. CT.

The Big 12 has the lowest NET average ranking among conferences at 45.6, almost 17 points less than the second-best league.

The Big 12 is the only conference with 10 of the top 36 and 12 of the top 83 teams in the NET rankings: 1. Houston, 7. BYU, 10. Kansas, 11. Iowa State, 15. Baylor, 30. Cincinnati, 31. Texas, 32. Oklahoma, 33. Texas Tech, 36. TCU, 67. UCF, 83. K-State, 139. Oklahoma State and 144. West Virginia.

In Ken Pom ratings, the Big 12 has eight of the top 26 defensive teams: 1. Houston, 5. Iowa State, 9. UCF, 16. Cincinnati, 19. Kansas, 22. Oklahoma, 23. BYU and 26. K-State.

The Big 12 has 12 teams in the top 62 of ESPN's Power Index: 1. Houston, 8. Iowa State, 14. BYU, 15. Kansas, 16. Baylor, 21. Texas, 23. TCU, 26. Cincinnati, 27. Oklahoma, 32. Texas Tech, 55. UCF and 62. K-State.

The Big 12 has 10 of the top 11 teams and all in the top 28 for ESPN's Remaining Strength of Schedule: 1. Oklahoma State, 2. Kansas, 3. Baylor, 4. K-State, 5. West Virginia, 7. UCF, 8. Oklahoma, 9. Houston, 10. Iowa State, 11. Cincinnati, 15. Texas, 17. Texas Tech, 20. TCU and 28. BYU.

The Big 12 leads the nation in ranked teams for the 11th consecutive week (since Nov. 27). The Feb. 4 rankings are No. 4/4 Kansas, No. 5/5 Houston, No. 13/13 Baylor, No. 14/14 Iowa State, No. 21/19 BYU and No. 23/23 Texas Tech. TCU, Oklahoma and Texas received votes. Kansas is one of just three teams nationally with at least five wins over top 25 teams.

27 of 61 conference games (44.3%) have been decided by 5 or fewer points, second nationally and the highest percentage of the six major leagues.

TOUGHEST TEAM WINS.

You've probably heard it when Texas Tech head coach Grant McCasland talks about his vision for the program and what it takes to win championships.

Toughest Team Wins

Each word has a purpose to convey a message of being strong and united. A culture with expectations to win. In our social media society, we can condense the three words into a hashtag of #TTW. But on the court, it can become the personality of a team that has no limitations when it's fully understood and embraced.

After two months of summer workouts, each player on the roster was interviewed for this article to discuss what toughness means to them. What is tough? What is a tough basketball player? As players and people, what made them tough? Is this going to be a tough team? What does Toughest Team Wins mean to them?

Their responses tell this story.

McCasland: "Our saying 'Toughest Team Wins' means a lot to us. We're going to win because we are competitive in everything we do. We believe in each other and are going to give our hearts to each other."

Lamar Washington, sophomore from Portland, Oregon: "Toughness is doing whatever it takes to win."

Kerwin Walton, senior from Hopkins, Minnesota: "Toughness is fighting through everything obstacle, whether it's a physical or mental challenge."

Joe Toussaint, senior from New York: "Toughness to me is being calm, cool, and collected. You have poise. Being an alpha. The head of the snake. You always have your head on straight."

Pop Isaacs, sophomore from Las Vegas: "You don't get phased by anything. You find a way."

Robert Jennings, sophomore from Desoto: "You don't let the circumstances determine who you are. You find ways to push through adversity."

Darrion Williams, sophomore from Sacramento, California: "Man, how do you describe it? Toughness is fighting through no matter what is going on. You have the ability to get through anything."

Chance McMillian, junior from Vallejo, California: "It's having that grit. An edge about you. Toughness gets you through any obstacle in your way."

Devan Cambridge, senior from Nashville, Tennessee: "You never take a rep off in practice. Never rest during a game. You're diving on the floor. Fighting. You put your nose in for every rebound and are always aggressive."

Warren Washington, senior from Escondido, California: "When adversity hits, it doesn't change who you are. That's toughness. You're not affected by adversity."

Jack Francis, sophomore from Austin: "Toughness is being able to do what others aren't willing to do. The little things. Doing them correctly."

KyeRon Lindsay, sophomore from Denton: "You never give up. Even when things aren't going your way."

Eemeli Yalaho, freshman from Jyväskylä, Finland: "It's a mentality. How you pursue the game."

D'Maurian Williams, senior from Phoenix, Arizona: "Toughness is doing hard things for a better purpose."

Toussaint: "A tough basketball player is calm, cool, collected. You have to be very disciplined. A lot of things happen in a basketball game. Tons of ups and downs. Calls don't always go your way. A good, strong mindset, makes a tough basketball player because you can overcome anything."

Walton: "You're hardworking and are willing to do anything. Play anyone. Never back down from coaching or an opponent. Tough players will always do what it takes to win."

Yalaho: "Tough players give their heart out on the court. They do everything they can to win."

McMillian: "You have to be coachable. You have to listen and be ready to do anything to win. A tough player is willing to keep learning and not get distracted by anything."

D'Maurian Williams: "Tough teams play together. They're united. Those are the teams that have a great bond and move as one."

Lindsay: "Tough players live in the moment. They're never too high or too low."

Cambridge: "You hear the message."

Isaacs: "A tough player will do anything for their team to win. There's no ego. Scoring isn't what is the most important thing to them. They make the most sacrifices it takes to win."

Francis: "Someone who is mentally and physically tough. Tough players take coaching. They dive on the floor for 50/50 balls and block-out on every play."

McCasland: "You win in the margins and usually the tough things you do during the course of a game is what separates teams and creates championship culture."

D'Maurian Williams: "We were down 23 against Iowa State last year and came back and won. They were a top-15 in the country but we fought back and beat them in overtime. We were tough in that game. It showed me that if a team never gives up and plays together you can win. We put our unselfishness aside and won. We were the tougher team in that game."

Toussaint: "During my sophomore year of high school I won a state championship. In the semifinals we played against Bishop Loughlin who had Markquis Nowell, Keith Williams, and Julian and Justin Champagnie. They were a pro team basically. No one thought we would win. I was having an awful game. We were down the entire game and I was like 1-for-12. It came down to the last couple possessions though and I hit a 3. My mindset was always straight. I kept positive and tough. I got a steal and a layup to end the game. That was a game when I felt like I could overcome anything to win."

Lamar Washington: "No doubt I'm a tough basketball player. I felt like I was tough as a younger kid too but really started feeling that way my junior and senior year. I had no hesitation to dive on the floor for loose balls. It was never about just scoring for me. I wanted to play defense and rebound. Do the tough things to help us win. That's all I've ever cared about."

Darrion Williams: "I had a sprained ankle last season. It was pretty bad. It happened in the first half and I thought I was done. I came back in the second half though and played. It showed me that I have the mental capacity to push through a limit that I didn't think I could before that."

Jennings: "Being a freshman last year and learning what it takes was tough. You have to break through a freshman barrier. I think last year made me tougher as a person and player. To come back this year with the lessons we learned last year is really going to help us."

Warren Washington: "I played in a game last season against Arizona. It was a big game, huge crowd. People didn't think we had a chance. We fought the entire game and didn't let anything change what we were trying to do. We didn't complain about calls or let the atmosphere become too big. It was about us and staying focused on what we needed to do. We found a way to win and advanced to March Madness."

Walton: "I was a freshman in high school and we won a state championship. We were playing against a great team and the odds were not good that we would win. We came together though and won the game. My teammates were really tough in that game. I was young but saw that and followed their lead. It was a great game where I saw my teammates playing with grit in a tough environment against a great opponent."

TOUGHEST TEAM WINS.

Isaacs: "I knew I was tough early on. My dad made sure of that. He yelled and pushed me to be a better player. That was in middle school. He helped me to develop into a player who doesn't get phased. I take coaching. That's important in this game. Listening to the words. Not the tone. People can try to get you emotional sometimes to weaken you. Staying strong and focused when others are pushing you or trying to beat you in a game shows toughness."

McMillian: "We got to the conference tournament in my freshman year at Grand Canyon and my hip started hurting. I played through that game and the tournament. We won the tournament. When we got back from the tournament, I found out I had torn my labrum. I had played the entire conference tournament and March Madness with a torn labrum. It showed me that you can do anything you want to as long as you put your mind to it and fight through. I was hurt. I knew that. I still pushed through because I wanted our team to keep winning."

Cambridge: "We heard from the 2019 team quite a bit over the last couple weeks. They were a tough team. You can tell that from the stories they talk about. Each guy on that team had adversity that fought through before even getting to Texas Tech. They had adversity in that season but stayed together and made it to the national championship game. I can relate. I was an underdog my freshman year at Auburn with people not thinking I would play. I had to prove myself. Still have that mentality. I think that makes you a tougher player. Feeling like you have something to prove. This team has that for sure."

Francis: "I tore cartilage in my shooting hand wrist as a sophomore in high school. It was the first game of the year. I knew the team needed me that season though and wanted to play through it. I taped it up every game and fought through the pain. It wasn't easy for sure, but it was what the team needed."

McCasland: "In the toughest of times, I always believe we are going to win."

Toussaint: "My mom raised us by herself. She's a single parent. Seeing her work hard and sacrifice for us is something I'm really proud of her for. That's real-life toughness. She showed it every day for us and set a great example."

Lindsay: "When I was 15-years-old, I lost my best friend, my cousin, Jacob. He was also 15. It's really hard to think about. He's my motivation now. I wear 21 because of him. That was his number. I have it tattooed on me. He's always with me. His death showed me that nothing is guaranteed. I step on the court and play for him. I have to play tough because I would be letting him down if I don't. He pushes me to play harder. To play for him. I'm still not through it, but it made me see life and basketball differently. You have to live in the moment and fight for everything. You never know when it's going to be the last possession."

Isaacs: "I came home from prep school after my sophomore year for Christmas break and my mom was having to stay in a weekly hotel. She didn't have a home. Nowhere to stay. My brother, sister and her didn't have anywhere else. That was really tough to see and go through. The fact that we're in a much better situation now shows how strong my family is. Who we are. What we can get through. I was so young when we were going through that, but it motivated me. Made me a stronger person"

Darrion Williams: "My grandpa's passing is the hardest thing that I've ever had to go through. I helped my mom and sister through it too. I stayed as strong as I could. I wanted to be strong for them. Put others before myself but also made sure I was all right. It was tough and taught me a lot about who I am as a person."

Lamar Washington: "My mom is the toughest person I know. She's dealt with a lot in her life and has never given up. I've never seen any weakness in her."

Yalaho: "Even though everything may not be perfect, you still push through. Being away from home for my senior year of high school was tough. I left my family and friends in Finland behind. Getting used to meeting new people. Different languages. It's not easy adjusting to different cultures. It's made me grow faster as a person. I've seen life from different perspectives in a short amount of time."

Francis: "I had a hard time in fourth grade with a knee surgery. I wasn't able to do anything for a while. It was really hard because I loved being active and playing with my friends. I was really young and couldn't do anything. I sat on the sidelines. Looking back, it really makes me grateful and appreciative of what I'm able to do now."

McCasland: "The teams that give the most to each other are the ones that win. They are tough because they are connected and believe in each other. That's how we are going to win."

Jennings: "We came out here all summer ready to compete. We blocked out everything. Mentally and physically. We took coaching and pushed ourselves to the limit because we want to win so bad."

Lamar Washington: "This team is going to be tough. We have been this summer for sure. We are playing hard and pushing each other. Iron sharpens iron. I feel like we all have that approach. We all want to push each other to be better. To play tougher. No matter what, we play with intensity."

Lindsay: "Tough teams don't let emotions negatively affect them. I'm a young player. I know that. We have a lot of young and talented players on this team. We can't be emotional out on the court though. We have to play connected and for each other. Be mature and tough even if we're young"

Warren Washington: "A tough team is disciplined. They have grit."

D'Maurian Williams: "The toughest team is always playing hard. They are competing until the end of every game."

Darrion Williams: "I see us as a team where everyone is bought in to doing whatever it takes to win. We will be the first team on the ground. We are going to sprint back on every play. Disciplined."

Isaacs: "Tough teams buy in. They sacrifice for each other. Not everything is fun, but it's beneficial for the entire team."

McMillian: "A tough basketball team is always together. They believe in each other. They trust each other on and off the court."

Francis: "Toughest Team Wins means doing all the little things correctly. Doing what the other team isn't willing to do. Diving for balls. Rebounding. Getting the best shot possible. Trusting each other for the benefit of the team."

Toussaint: "We have to be connected. If a play is messed up we have to have each other's backs on the next one. Having trust in each other is important. Calm, cool, collected. It always go back to that for me. Staying composed and tough at all times is what can take this team to where we want to go."

Jennings: "Whether you're in the film room, weight room, at home, or on the court, you always have to have a tough mindset. You can't let down. When you have a team that puts it all together, that's the team that usually comes out on top. Being locked in at all times is what toughness is about."

Walton: "Tough teams play together. For each other. Same goals and aspirations. Every day and game is different. You'll have ups and downs, but if you're a team full of tough players then you can go against any challenge. Other teams don't want to play that team."

McCasland: "Tough teams win."
