Who Are These Guys?

Due to graduation, the transfer portal, and the draft head coach John McCormack and staff had to restock 50% of the roster for this season. Only three regular starters from 2023 remain. One of them -- John Schroeder -- played mostly right field last season but will now be the full-time No. 1 catcher. Christian Adams and Spencer Rich are also back but both missed a significant portion of last season due to injury.

Heating Up with the Weather

The Owls enter Tuesday on a season long five-game winning streak matching their longest streak of 2023 (three separate times). The last streak of six or more came in 2022 when the Owls won seven straight in early March.

Adams Earns Weekly Honors

Christian Adams was named to the AAC Weekly Honor Roll for the second time this season on Monday after going 6-for-12 in the Maine series with 7 RBI. His biggest hit came in the bottom of the ninth on Saturday. With the bases loaded and no outs, Adams connected on an 0-1 slider for a walk-off grand slam to give the Owls a 6-4 victory. It was his third home run of the season and his first hit off a lefthanded pitcher. Since Adams was moved to the third spot in the order, the Owls are 6-1. The senior second baseman is 9-for-24 (.375) with 11 runs scored when hitting in the three-spot.

Abbey Gets the Call

Zach Abbey will make his third start of the season on Tuesday. The junior lefty has pitched three innings in each of his first two starts two first on Feb. 28 against UNF and last time out last week against Miami. The Owls will hope to stretch him out for four or five frames this time out with a pitch count somewhere in the 60s. Expect Danny Trehey or Steven Andrews to be the first man out of the pen.

Facing Ranked Opponents

The Owls were mostly undeterred when facing Top 25 teams last season racking up wins over Miami (No. 22 and No. 17) and Florida Gulf Coast (No. 15 twice).

That trend continued in the opening weekend in Nashville when FAU defeated No. 6-ranked Vanderbilt 5-4 in the middle game on Saturday.

The Owls have defeated at least one Top 25 team six of the last eight seasons. The win over No. 6 is the fourth-highest in program history behind No. 1 Miami in 2016, No. 1 Florida in 2018 (Gainesville Regional), and No. 1 North Carolina in 2013 (Chapel Hill Regional).

A New Conference to Rep...

2024 will be the Owls' debut season in the American Athletic Conference after nine seasons in Conference USA.

... But Several Familiar Faces

Charlotte, UTSA, Rice, and UAB also made the move from C-USA to the AAC joining Memphis, East Carolina, Wichita State, Tulane, and USF.

Year 16 for Coach Mac

2024 is John McCormack's 16th season as head coach and 34th overall with the program. The 1990 graduate of Lynn University (in Boca Raton) recorded his 500th career victory on April 11 last season.

A Return to Regionals

Not counting the shortened 2020 campaign, it's been three full seasons since the Owls' last regional appearance in 2019 -- the program has not gone longer than three seasons without a regional appearance since qualifying in 2005 and then not again until 2010.

Easier on Sunday Mornings

The Owls have combined to outscore their opponents 70-10 in the last four Sunday series finales. Last Sunday in a 24-2 win over FIU, the Owls scored in all but one inning with the most damage done in an 11-run third inning that included two grand slams. This past Sunday against Maine, it took just seven innings to rack up 10 runs and a complete a series sweep on the run rule.

Shuffling the Order

John McCormack has tinkered with the batting order for the last several games but hopes to have found the magic formula with Andrew McKenna succeeding in the leadoff spot and Brando Leroux and Christian Adams rounding out the top of the order. The lineup decisions may get more difficult soon with the imminent return of Spencer Rich combined with the hot hitting of Jalen DeBose.

High Marks for the Bullpen

The Owls' bullpen has been a major strength in the current five-game winning streak. 10 different relievers have been used to cover 21.1 relief innings -- in that span, just two earned runs have crossed the plate for opponents. The bullpen has also accumulated 26 strikeouts and conceded just two extra base hits.

In Saturday's win over Maine, the combination of Max Martzolf and Brandon Smith combined for 4.2 innings and kept the Owls in the game with just a 4-0 deficit.

Other strong performers this season include senior Danny Trehey and junior Steven Andrews. Andrews is a local product from Delray Beach but pitched the last two seasons at Kansas where he found limited opportunities. After appearing in just 20 games for the Jayhawks, the former standout at American Heritage HS made the move to be closer to home. In Andrews' last five appearances (9.2 innings) he's held opponents to four hits and one earned run.

Rally Time

The Owls trailed 4-0 entering the bottom of the ninth on Saturday vs. Maine. They'd accumulated just two hits through the first eight frames. But pinch hitters Jake Millan and Nick Garagozzo came off the bench and sparked a rally with back-to-back singles to start the ninth. Jalen DeBose then singled to load the bases. Andrew McKenna hit a line drive to the outfield which the Maine centerfielder trapped bringing home one run. Brando Leroux was hit by a pitch to make it 4-2. The Black Bears went to their bullpen for a lefthanded pitcher to face Christian Adams. The Owls' second baseman picked a perfect time for his first hit of the season off an LHP -- a walk-off grand slam clinched the series for the Owls.

Lefty Specialists

Senior lefthander Sam Drumheller had an impressive 2023 finishing with a 3.51 ERA in 33.1 innings. The Owls added fifth year senior Ben Gilbert this season to fill a similar role. Both Drumheller and Gilbert will be called upon for short stints, often with men on base or in high pressure situations.

The Great White North to Paradise

Including Leroux, the Owls have three players hailing from Canada on this year's roster. Sophomore Dylan Osborne is from Richmond Hill, Ontario and David Alvarez is from Toronto.

The FAU Giants

Standing 6 foot 7, reliever Justin Gay is the Owls' tallest player since Ryan LaCross in 2006. All total, this year's team has eight players 6-3 or taller.

Conversely, the Owls' shortest player is a full foot shorter than Gay... 5'7" Brando Leroux.

Kansas City's Own...

Danny Trehey missed the start of the 2023 season due to injury and found himself playing catchup when he returned in April. This season, the native of Kansas City, Kan. is fully healthy and thriving. He is yet to allow a run and is second of the team in strikeouts despite having pitched just 14.1 innings.

Key Stat to Know

The Owls are 10-0 this season when taking a lead into the 7th inning. They were 26-3 in that scenario last season with all three losses coming at the hands of Western Kentucky, including twice in the C-USA Tournament.

HEAD COACH #3 JOHN MCCORMACK

16TH SEASON / LYNN UNIVERSITY '90
523-328-2 (.613)

John McCormack completed his 15 year atop Florida Atlantic University baseball as head coach in 2023, and 33rd season with the program. He had previously served 11 years as associate head coach and seven years as an assistant coach, beginning in 1991.

The Owls have finished in a top four conference position in 11 of 14 seasons since McCormack took over in 2009 (not including the shortened 2020 season)

Coach Mac has lead FAU to four regular season conference championships (C-USA: 2016 & 2019, SBC: 2010 & 2012) and one postseason conference championship (SBC: 2013). The Owls have qualified for NCAA Regionals six times (2010, '13, '15, '16, '18, '19) in the McCormack era.

To this point, a total of 134 FAU players that McCormack has recruited or coached at FAU have continued their professional baseball careers, including Austin Gomber, who was selected in the fourth round of the 2014 MLB Draft by the St. Louis Cardinals. Additionally, 33 of the 36 draftees were not drafted out of high school, continuing McCormack's outstanding track record of developing players after they come to Boca Raton. This past June, Nolan Schanuel was selected by the Angels with the 11th overall pick, making him the highest drafted student-athlete in Florida Atlantic history. Schanuel made his MLB debut 40 days later.

McCormack was promoted to associate head coach in 1998, working with long-time FAU coach Kevin Cooney. Together, Cooney and McCormack won 658 games, appeared in seven NCAA regional tournaments, captured a regional championship in 2002 and advanced to the super regional that season. He joined the staff in 1991 after approaching Cooney about assuming the duties of recruiter. He has focused his attention on the pool of talent in the South Florida area. His first FAU recruiting class (1993) finished the season 41-17 and made a trip to the South Regional, where they fell to the eventual national champion.

Other accomplishments under McCormack include tying a national record for consecutive games won (34), and winning the Tuscaloosa Regional by defeating the nation's No. 3-ranked team, Alabama, in 2002. McCormack was recognized with the AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year Award in 2003.

Before joining FAU, McCormack played for nearby Lynn University, where he received his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1990. At Lynn, McCormack earned All-Conference honors his junior year as a catcher and his senior season as a third baseman. He was named the All-Area Team MVP during his junior season. Prior to Lynn, he attended Indian River Community College and Pope John Paul II High School in Boca Raton.

Born in New York, McCormack has lived in South Florida for more than 30 years. He and his wife, Katrina, reside in Boca Raton and have two sons, Conor and Shane.
