KNIGHT KICKS

SEASON OPENERS UNDER ROBERTS SAHAYDAK

The Knights will enter Thursday's season opener holding to a 6-5-0 record in season-opening matches under Roberts Sahaydak. UCF has also won four straight season openers and has outscored its opponents by an impressive 11-0 score. During the stretch, the Knights have shutout Temple (3-0), Texas (4-0), Florida (3-0), and Purdue (1-0).

ALL-TIME VS. FAU

Thursday's opener will mark the 25th all-time contest between the Knights and Owls. The Black and Gold will enter play holding to a commanding 18-5-1 series advantage. UCF has also won three straight and four of the last five meetings, which includes a 2-1 victory in Orlando last September. The series is split at 4-4 with contests played in Boca Raton, however.

PRESEASON RECOGNITION

A trio of Knights earned Preseason All-Big 12 Team honors in 2024 in senior forward Chloe Netzel, sophomore defender Jessica McCullen, and freshman forward Edidiong Etim. Netzel earned Big 12 Conference All-Tournament Team accolades a season ago, while McCullen was named to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team. Etim is a true freshman from Nigeria that previously played with Nigeria's U17 team.

AIR NETZEL

Senior forward Chloe Netzel made an immediate impact with the Knights a season ago, as the Xavier transfer led the team in goals with seven, points with 17, and game-winning goals with four during her first season in Orlando. The St. Louis, Missouri, native capped her 2023 campaign by earning Big 12 All-Tournament Team honors en route to being named to the Preseason All-Big 12 Team this season. Netzel netted goals last season against Georgia, North Florida, South Florida, West Virginia, Baylor, No. 7 BYU, and TCU. During her time at Xavier, she earned NCAA Third Team All-East Region, BIG EAST All-Freshman Team, and BIG EAST All-Tournament Team accolades.

OH CAPTAIN! OUR CAPTAIN(S)!

Head coach Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak announced the Black and Gold's 2024 Team Captains prior to the season in senior midfielder Annika Huhta, senior forward Chloe Netzel, and redshirt junior Mia Asenjo. All three upperclassmen are returning starters for the Knights. The three combined to start 38 matches in 2023 with Huhta leading the way by starting all 18 games. Netzel led the team last season in goals (7), points (17), and game-winning goals (4), while Asenjo tied for the team lead in starts and matches played (18), and finished fifth in minutes played (1325), and Huhta played key minutes for the Knights in the middle. All three are true leaders and will look to help guide the Knights throughout the season.

NEW YEAR, NEW FACES

UCF welcomes 13 new faces to the squad in 2024 in six transfers and seven freshmen. The six transfers are senior defender Kayla Chatman-Haggerty (Ole Miss), senior defender Taylor Jacobson (South Carolina), senior forward Caitlyn Matthews (Houston), senior forward Emily Thompson (West Virginia), sophomore midfielder Honoka Hamano (Memphis), and sophomore midfielder Grace Thao (Colorado). The seven freshman are midfielder Katsi Bengoa (San Juan, Puerto Rico), midfielder Gabi Berchon (Porto Alegre, Brazil), midfielder/defender Lisa Elovaara (Richmond, Va.), forward Edidiong Etim (Uyo, Nigeria), defender Guta Franke (Porto Alegre, Brazil), midfielder Ella Hollaran (Wellington, Fla.), and goalkeeper Sami Lipcon (Miami, Fla.). Coach Roberts Sahaydak is expecting key contributions from a number of newcomers this season.

SOLID YEAR ONE IN BIG 12. UCF PICKED TO FINISH SIXTH OUT OF 16 TEAMS IN 2024

After recording a sixth-place finish in its first season of competition in the Big 12 last year with a 5-4-1 record, UCF has been picked to finish sixth out of 16 teams in the new-look Big 12. UCF was picked to finish sixth behind BYU, Texas Tech, TCU, Colorado, and Arizona State. The Knights were projected to finish ahead of West Virginia, Oklahoma State, Baylor, Arizona, Utah, Cincinnati, Kansas, Houston, Iowa State and Kansas State. Last season UCF picked up conference wins over Cincinnati, Houston, Kansas, Oklahoma, and West Virginia, and drew with the league champion Texas Tech Red Raiders. The Knights then went on to defeat the third-seeded TCU Horned Frogs at the quarterfinals of the Big 12 Championship before falling to the second-seeded BYU Cougars in the tournament's semifinal round.

GUTA FRANKE TO TAKE PART AT U20 WOMEN'S WORLD CUP

Freshman defender Guta Franke has been called up to take part at the 2024 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup for her home nation of Brazil. The 2024 U-20 Women's World Cup will take place in Colombia and will run Aug. 31-Sept. 23. Franke hails from Porto Alegre, Brazil, and has previously taken part of Brazil's U17 and U20 squads. Redshirt freshman keeper Genesis Perez Watson too has been training with Costa Rica's U20 team and is expected to also be called up to take part at the 2024 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup for Costa Rica.

THE ROBERTS SAHAYDAK ERA

The Knights have experienced tremendous success under Roberts Sahaydak, as the program has made the NCAA Tournament five times during her tenure here in Orlando as well as won four conference championships. Under Roberts Sahaydak's leadership, UCF has made the NCAA Tournament in 2013, 2014, 2015, 2017, and 2022. The Knights also won conference titles in 2013, 2014, 2017, and 2022. Roberts Sahaydak has recorded a winning season in 10 of her 11 years here in Orlando and will enter the season with a 118-55-26 career record at UCF.

UCF IN THE BIG 12

The University of Central Florida officially joined the Big 12 Conference on July 1, 2023, and will enter its second season of competition in the league in 2024-25. UCF entered the Power 4 as the youngest school, having been founded in 1963 to supply NASA with engineers. UCF, who finished sixth in its first season of Big 12 competition last season with a 5-4-1 clip, is 35-18-5 against current Big 12 teams all-time.

TO BE THE BEST, PLAY THE BEST

Head coach Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak has stressed the importance of playing a tough schedule and the Knights 2024 slate is no different. Georgia (No. 14) is currently nationally ranked in the United Soccer Coaches preseason poll as well as a pair of Big 12 Conference foes in BYU (No. 3) and Texas Tech (No. 8). In 2023, UCF faced four ranked opponents, which included No. 7 BYU twice--BYU went on to reach the Final Four at the NCAA Tournament. The Knights also recorded a 1-1 draw against No. 6 Texas Tech, the 2023 Big 12 Champions, and also faced No. 4 Penn State early in the year.

TIFFANY ROBERTS SAHAYDAK

Head Coach - 12th Season

An Olympic gold medalist, World Cup champion and two-time NCAA champion, Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak was named head women's soccer coach at UCF in May 2013.

A four-time American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Roberts Sahaydak has wasted no time in putting her stamp on UCF's successful program. Under her guidance, the Knights have earned five NCAA Tournament bids and four American Athletic Conference Championships while boasting 18 Conference Player of the Year awards and 67 all-league and tournament selections.

An integral member of the 1999 United States World Cup winning squad, Roberts Sahaydak returned to the fold as an assistant coach under Vlatko Andonovski in 2022. At the 2023 FIFA World Cup in Australia and New Zealand, Roberts Sahaydak became the first champion as a player to transition into a coaching role with the team, propelling the USWNT to knockout round qualification for the ninth consecutive edition.

Ushering in a new era in the Big 12, the Knights' inaugural campaign as a member of one of the nation's premier conferences was historic, resulting in a trip to the Big 12 Championships semifinals. Under the guidance of Roberts Sahaydak, UCF secured a 10-7-1 (5-4-1 Big 12) record and the second-most wins of any conference newcomer. In Austin, Texas, the Knights defeated the 2022 conference runner-ups, TCU, 3-2 to garner UCF Athletics its first postseason win in the Big 12. In the program's inaugural conference home match at the UCF Soccer Complex, the Knights defeated reigning champions, West Virginia, 4-2. Following the squad's sixth-place finish in conference play, Dayana Martin earned second-team honors on the Big 12 All-Conference team, while Jessica McCullen secured a spot on the all-freshman team. Martin would also be named to the United Soccer Coaches All-Midwest Region Third Team following yet another dominating 13-point season leading the Knights attack. For the second consecutive season, Roberts Sahaydak and her staff produced an NWSL draft pick as Talia Garbarra was selected by the Orlando Pride with the 14th pick in the fourth round.

In their final season in the AAC, the Knights boasted a 9-2-7 (7-0-1 AAC) record, going undefeated in conference play and picking up nine clean sheets along the way to becoming AAC Regular Season Champions. With the first victory of the season, Roberts Sahaydak earned her 100th win at UCF as a head coach. The Black and Gold collected a bid to the NCAA Tournament and advanced past NC State in the first round to face eventual national champion UCLA, where they fell in penalty kicks. Kristen Scott picked up Offensive Player of the Year honors, while Caroline DeLisle earned her second-straight Goalkeeper of the Year award. DeLisle and Scott were joined by Dayana Martin and Darya Rajae on the All-Conference First Team, with Georgia Eaton-Collins being named to the All-Conference Second Team and Mia Asenjo earning unanimous selection to the All-Rookie Team. Scott would later be drafted by the Orlando Pride with the 41st overall pick in the 2023 NWSL draft.

In 2021, Roberts Sahaydak coached the Knights to an 8-7-1 (3-4-1 American Athletic Conference) and entered the American Athletic Conference Championship tournament as a six seed. With the Knights sixth victory of the season, Roberts Sahaydak earned her 150th career win as a collegiate head coach. Under Roberts Sahaydak, Caroline DeLisle and Darya Rajae earned their first selections to the All-Conference First Team. In total, four Knights earned conference awards with Caroline DeLisle also earning Goalkeeper of the Year and Darya Rajae also earning Midfielder of the Year while Ariel Young earned All-Rookie team honors and Kristen Scott earned All-Conference First Team.

In an unconventional 2020-21 campaign due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Roberts Sahaydak led the Black & Gold to picking up five all-league selections as the Knights finished the spring season with a 2-4-1 mark. Four Knights picked up honors, with Sarai Linder representing the Knights on the First Team All-Conference and All-Rookie Teams, Ellie Moreno and Madsion Murrin were named to the Second Team All-Conference, and Katie Bradley joined Linder on the All-Rookie Team.

In 2019, Roberts Sahaydak led the Knights to a 11-4-4 (5-2-2 American Athletic Conference) and earned a No. 3 seed to the American Championship. The Knights posted a six-game unbeaten streak and climbed to as high No. 21 in the United Soccer Coaches Polls. Under Roberts Sahaydak, Konya Plummer was named First Team All-Region by the United Soccer Coaches Association, as well as the AAC Defensive Player of the Year. In total, six student-athletes were recognized by the Conference coaches with Plummer also earning First Team All-Conference, while Senior Zandy Soree and sophomore Kristen Scott earned Second Team All-Conference honors. Caroline DeLisle, Ally Gudorf, and Ellie Moreno picked up All-Rookie accolades.

The Knights finished the 2018 campaign at 10-7-1 (6-3 American Athletic Conference) and entered the American Athletic Conference Championship tournament as a third seed. Under Roberts Sahaydak, three Knights earned All-Southeast Region honors - Stefanie Sanders earned second team all-region, while Vera Varis and Carrie Lawrence collected third team all-region recognition. Vera Veris was named Goalkeeper of the Year and named to First Team All-Conference. Stefanie Sanders joined Veris with First Team All-Conference honors while Dina Orschmann and Carrie Lawrence earned Second Team All-Conference accolades and Kristen Scott was named to the All-Rookie team.

In 2017, Roberts Sahaydak coached the Knights to a 13-2-3 record, the most wins since the 2014 campaign. UCF climbed as high as No. 6 and finished the regular season ranked eighth. The Knights posted a 16-match unbeaten streak, the longest since the 2013 campaign, captured the American Athletic Conference regular season championship and made their 21st NCAA Tournament appearance.

Under Roberts Sahaydak's tutelage, five members of the team received All-Southeast Region recognition and goalkeeper Vera Varis was named to the United Soccer Coaches Association All-American Third Team. In addition, five of her starters were recognized as American AAC Players of the Year, including Morgan Ferrara (Offensive), Kathellen Sousa (Co-Defensive), Vera Varis (Goalkeeper), Kayla Adamek (Midfielder), and Dina Orschmann (Rookie). A total of seven Knights were placed on the All-American Athletic Conference Teams, and three were recognized on the all-tournament team.

In 2016, four student-athletes were named to the All-American Athletic Conference Teams. Saga Fredriksson was named to the All-Northeast Region Team and recognized as the American Athletic Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year. Off the field, the Knights earned recognition for their academic success as they received the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Team Academic Award.

Roberts Sahaydak tackled the 2015 season with team that featured more newcomers (14) than returners (12) and lost three key members due to injury for the year before the season-opening weekend was in the books. Eight of their starters, including their American Athletic Conference Offensive Player, Defensive Player and Goalkeeper of the Year, had moved on from the year before. But the Knights earned a berth to their ninth-straight NCAA Tournament (20th overall) and nabbed a hosting gig for the first round for the fifth straight season. In addition, Carol Rodrigues was named the American's Co-Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2014, she guided the Knights to their second NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in four years and the American regular season title. Under her direction, three Knights were recognized as conference Players of the Year: Tatiana Coleman (Co-Offensive), Carleigh Williams (Defensive); and Connie Organ (Goalkeeper). UCF posted its first undefeated home slate (11-0) since 1999, matched the school record for wins in a season (18) and was nationally ranked through much of the year.

In her first season (2013), she led UCF to a school-record unbeaten streak (18 matches), an NSCAA national standing through much of the year and the program's first undefeated conference season since 1999. In addition, UCF made history as the first program to win an American Athletic Conference Championship. Roberts Sahaydak came to Orlando after serving six seasons at VCU alongside her co-head coach, husband and current UCF associate head coach Tim Sahaydak.

Roberts Sahaydak spent a decade with the U.S. National Team from 1994-2004, earning 110 caps (with 60 starts). Her career was highlighted by three women's World Cups - among them, the unforgettable 1999 championship - and a gold medal with the 1996 Olympic team.

After retiring from the USWNT, she has served as an ambassador for U.S. Soccer with the U.S. Department of State Sports Envoy Program since 2007, promoting the power and benefit of sport internationally. With the program, she has visited Indonesia, Uganda, the Philippines, Thailand, Namibia, Brazil and France. In 2014, she was appointed to President Barack Obama's Presidential Delegation to the Federative Republic of Brazil at the opening of the FIFA World Cup in Brazil.

She is a native of San Ramon, Calif., and was selected as the 1994 California High School Player of the Year. She was a three-time Parade High School All-American, a three-time NSCAA All-American and was the two-time National Girl's High School Player of the Year. She debuted for the Stars and Stripes in 1994 when she was only 16 as one of the youngest players ever to suit up for the National Team. She played in her first FIFA Women's World Cup a month after her 18th birthday and won Olympic gold before she was out of her teens (USSoccer.com).

As a collegian, Roberts Sahaydak was a standout midfielder for North Carolina (1995-98) as a three-time All-ACC First Team selection. She led the Tar Heels to two NCAA titles (1996, 1997) during her tenure, was voted the 1998 ACC Tournament MVP and finished third in voting for collegiate soccer's highest honor, the Hermann Trophy. She still ranks among the top five for career starts in UNC's record book.

She was a two-time captain for the Carolina Courage in the first fully professional U.S. women's league (Women's United Soccer Association). She helped the Courage win the 2002 title after finishing last in the team's inaugural campaign one year prior.

Roberts Sahaydak took over VCU's program in 2007 and led the Rams to three conference championship game appearances. She was voted as the 2011 Colonial Athletic Association Co-Head Coach of the Year, along with her husband Tim. The duo mentored two CAA Defenders of the Year, one CAA Rookie of the Year and 20 all-conference players, including six first-team honorees. The Sahaydaks reside in Orlando with their two daughters, Layla and Evie
