CONFERENCE AFFILIATION HISTORY - DIVISION I

Sun Belt Conference 2023-present

The UCF men's soccer team enjoyed significant and immediate success throughout the program's inaugural season in the Sun Belt Conference in the fall of 2023. Joining Kentucky, South Carolina and West Virginia as men's soccer-only members, the Knights recorded their third 10-plus-win season under head coach Scott Calabrese, and earned hosting honors for the 2023 Sun Belt Conference Men's Soccer Championship as a top two seed, as well as the second round of the NCAA Tournament, representing the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since the 2020-21 campaign.

After beginning the season unranked in the United Soccer Coaches' preseason poll, the Knights made a statement in their season-opener, downing the then-No. 9 and eventual national champion Clemson Tigers by a 2-1 final score on the road. The top 10 win aided the Knights in becoming a ranked squad for the remainder of the season, later earning the first No. 1 national ranking in a regular-season poll in UCF Athletics history.

For their efforts during the season, the Knights were duly recognized in their first post-season conference awards as members of the Sun Belt. Calabrese was named Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, sophomore Clarence Awoudor earned conference Newcomer of the Year honors, and freshman Saku Heiskanen garnered conference Freshman of the Year recognition. Lucca Dourado and Zane Bubb were both tabbed to the Sun Belt's All-Conference First Team, while Heiskanen, AJ Seals and Anderson Rosa were all added to the Sun Belt's All-Conference Second Team as well.

American Athletic Conference 2013-2022 (10 seasons)

The Knights enjoyed massive success as part of The American, reaching the conference final in five of their final six seasons in the league. The Black and Gold earned three regular seasons titles and one tournament championship as members of The American. In total, UCF qualified for the conference's postseason tournament in nine straight seasons, only missing the 2022 postseason by two points.

Three of UCF's NCAA Tournament appearances came while in The American, qualifying in 2018, 2019 and 2020. The Knights punched their first ticket into the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16 in 2019, and then did the same for the 2020 tournament, which was held in the spring of 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Plenty of Knights stood out in UCF's time in The American. A member of the Black and Gold was named Offensive Player of the Year six times out of the team's 10 years in the league. Matias Pyysalo and Cal Jennings won the honor twice while Romario Williams and Hadji Barry were honored once each. UCF collected three Midfielder of the Year honors and three Goalkeeper of the Year awards; Oettl collected all three goalkeeping honors while Yoni Sorokin took two of the three midfielder awards along with Louis Perez who won the other. Gino Vivi was honored as UCF's lone Freshman of the Year award, earning the nod in 2019.

The Black and Gold had 11 First Team All-Conference honorees, including nine that were named on the top squad multiple times. In total, UCF earned 36 nods to the All-Conference First or Second Teams while 16 rookies graced the All-Freshman Team while in The American.

Conference USA 2005-2012 (8 seasons)

UCF had a new conference and a new head coach for the 2005 season. Brent Erwin and the Knights went 13-17-3 over their first two seasons as members of Conference USA. Fast forward to UCF's sixth season in the league, fourth year head coach Bryan Cunningham led UCF to its first NCAA Tournament appearance as members of C-USA, winning 12 matches with a 12-5-3 record. The team followed suit the next year, winning a dozen games again and making the NCAA Tournament second round for the second straight year.

The Knights won 32 matches in their final three seasons as part of C-USA, more than first five seasons in the league combined. The Black and Gold won no major honors as C-USA members, but saw nine nods to the All-Conference First Team and a total of 30 nods across the First, Second, Third and Freshman Teams.

Atlantic Sun Conference 1993-2004 (12 seasons)

After making the D-I jump in 1984, the Black and Gold didn't join their first Division I conference until 1993. Despite going 4-10-1 in their first year in a conference, the Knights made the A-Sun Semifinals in just their second year as part of the A-Sun. The Knights found success quickly and carried that momentum with them throughout their time in the A-Sun, tallying eight appearances in the conference tournament in 12 total seasons.

The Knights finished their time in the A-Sun on a high note, winning the tournament championship in three consecutive seasons from 2002-04. The championship runs led to UCF's first three NCAA Tournament appearances. The Black and Gold were turned away from their first NCAA Tournament victory in their first two tries by FIU, but were able to beat the Panthers in 2004 for the program's first tournament win.

Three Knights earned four major honors during the program's tenure in the A-Sun. Heikki Ritvanen scored 88 career goals from 1996-99, UCF's most in program history, and was honored as the A-Sun's Player of the Year in 1999. Alejandro Gessen was named Freshman of the Year while Ryan McIntosh was a two-time Defensive Player of the Year. In all, 54 nods were received to the A-Sun First, Second, Third and Freshmen Teams in UCF's 12 years in the league.

THE STAFF

2024 UCF MEN'S SOCCER

SCOTT CALABRESE

Head Coach - 8th Season

In the Knights' first season as members of the Sun Belt Conference, head coach Scott Calabrese and his squad wasted no time making a statement.

Headlining the achievements collected by the UCF men's soccer team throughout the fall 2023 season, the Knights earned the first No. 1 national ranking in a regular-season poll by any team in UCF athletics history on the strength of the team's third 10-plus-win season under Calabrese (10-4-2).

The Knights' seventh-year head coach was recognized as the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year in his first season in the league after overseeing a dramatic turnaround in the program after it went 6-7-0 overall and missed postseason play entirely in 2022. The honor marked the third individual coach of the year award in his career, and joined the Knights' two AAC Coaching Staff of the Year honors in the American Athletic Conference (2018-19).

Calabrese also saw six of his players recognized in post-season conference honors, including the Newcomer of the Year (Clarence Awoudor) and Freshman of the Year (Saku Heiskanen), while four Knights (Lucca Dourado, AJ Seals, Anderson Rosa and Zane Bubb) were selected to the United Soccer Coaches All-Region teams. Rosa also became the sixth Knight under Calabrese to be selected in the MLS SuperDraft when he saw his name chosen by the Colorado Rapids with the 14th pick of the second round Dec. 19.

The plethora of individual honors and awards all factored in to a dominant fall 2023 campaign authored by the Black and Gold, beginning with a season-opening 2-1 upset victory on the road against the eventual 2023 Division I National Champion and then-No. 4/9 Clemson Tigers (TopDrawerSoccer/United Soccer Coaches).

UCF's upset victory in its season-opener Aug. 24 kicked off a six-match unbeaten streak to begin the season, and the Knights later earned downed Kentucky on the road (1-0) while playing to 2-2 draws against then-No. 11 Florida International and then-No. 4 West Virginia.

In authoring its strong fall regular season, UCF also earned hosting honors for the 2023 Sun Belt Conference Tournament, and later the No. 12 national seed and the right to host the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

After he was named the sixth head men's soccer coach at UCF Dec. 5, 2016, Calabrese and staff guided the Knights to three consecutive American Athletic Conference regular season titles and NCAA Tournament appearances, as well as a conference tournament title in 2020-21 throughout his first six seasons at the helm of the Black and Gold. During his first four years, Calabrese's teams compiled a 45-16-8 record, including a 26-5-6 mark at the UCF soccer complex.

Calabrese has seen six of his student-athletes selected in the MLS SuperDraft during his tenure, two of which were first round selections. Most recently, Anderson Rosa was selected in the second round of the 2024 SuperDraft by the Colorado Rapids, but he elected to return to UCF for his final season of eligibility in the fall of 2024. Gino Vivi was taken in the first round, 23rd overall in 2023, Nick Taylor and Yanis Leerman were selected in 2022, Cal Jennings was a first round selection with the 17th overall pick in 2019, and Jonathan Dean with the 39th overall pick.

The sixth season of Calabrese's tenure saw the Knights earn a ranked win over No. 13 Charlotte, the fourth straight year in which UCF had beat a ranked opponent and the fifth straight in earning a result. 2022 saw Lucca Dourado and Anderson Rosa receive nods to the All-Conference First Team while Vivi was a member of the Second Team and Juanvi Muñoz was named to the All-Rookie Team. Dourado, Rosa and Vivi were named to the 2022 All-East Region Second Team.

Dourado and Vivi were also members of the 2021 All-East Region Second Team and were two of six total All-Conference selections in 2021. Dourado was the lone Knight on the First Team while Vivi, Rosa, Yanis Leerman, Nick Taylor and Mauricio Villalobos all earned Second Team nods.

The fourth campaign of Calabrese's tenure was delayed due to the global pandemic of COVID-19. The 2020 fall season was pushed to the spring of 2021 with a shortened, 10-match, conference-only schedule. The team got off to a slow start, coming out of the gates 1-3. UCF quickly rebounded as they won six consecutive matches to earn their third straight American regular season crown. The unbeaten streak didn't stop there, as the Knights topped SMU in penalty kicks in the conference tournament semifinals before going on to defeat Tulsa 1-0 in the championship match, earning the program's first conference tournament title in The American and securing an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, which had been cut from 48 teams to 36 for the season due to COVID-19. The Knights sat dormant in the first round of the NCAA Tournament as they had earned a bye for the third straight season. They met James Madison in the second round, besting the Dukes 2-1 to advance to the team's second straight Sweet 16 appearance.

Year number three of the Calabrese era was the most successful thus far and could arguably be tabbed as the best season in program history. The Knights posted a record of 15-3-2 and reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament, the farthest the team has ever gone. The 15 victories ties a program high and was the highest win total in UCF's Division I tenure. The Black and Gold posted a 6-0-1 record in conference play, making them just the third team in the history of The American to go unbeaten in conference play.

For the second straight season, Calabrese and staff earned the American Athletic Conference Coaching

SCOTT CALABRESE

Head Coach - 8th Season

Staff of the Year. The squad went 16 straight matches without a loss, obliterating the previous record of 10 straight matches unbeaten which was achieved last season. The program earned their second straight national seed ahead of the NCAA Tournament, checking in at No. 9. In the second round, the Knights defeated Missouri State by a score of 2-1 in overtime. The victory marked the first time that UCF had advanced to the third round of the tournament.

Calabrese had the offense clicking on all cylinders in 2018 and 2019 as they were one of the top scoring teams in all of Division I. During those two seasons, the Knights had been ranked top 10 in the nation in almost every offensive category including total assists, total goals, total points, scoring offense, points per game, assists per game and goals per game. They were the top team in shots per game and shots on goal per game in 2018 and led the nations in corners in 2019. UCF was also the top team in The American in all of those categories.

The accolades have piled up over the past three seasons. The Knights took home four major conference accolades in 2019. Jennings won his second consecutive Offensive Player of the Year while Yannik Oettl earned his second straight nod as goalkeeper of the year. Yoni Sorokin was dubbed as the Midfielder of the Year while Vivi was honored as the Rookie of the Year. The Black and Gold had five All-Conference selections in The American, including four on the First Team. Two freshmen made their way onto the All-Rookie squad. The awards kept coming during the 2020-21 season as Oettl three-peated as the conference's Goalkeeper of the Year and Sorokin repeated as the Midfielder of the Year. Five Knights made the All-Conference First Team and another made the cut for the Second Team. Three rookies were named to the American's All-Rookie Team, and the team was tabbed with the conference's Fair Play Award.

Calabrese and company have had a hand in coaching two All-Americans throughout their tenure. Jennings was named to the All-American First Team in 2018 and 2019 while Leerman earned a nod to the All-American Second Team in 2020-21.

Three of UCF's eight NCAA Tournament nods have come from Calabrese, with the first two including hosting privileges as the Knights were the No. 14 national seed in 2018 and No. 9 in 2019. The team shattered their highest rankings in the United Soccer Coaches poll those seasons, as the team set a personal best of No. 7 in 2018 and went on to climb as high as No. 5 in 2019.

Calabrese also produced a two-time MAC Hermann Trophy semifinalist in Cal Jennings who scored 20 goals in 19 games including three hat tricks in 2018. The following season saw Jennings post 18 goals in 20 games and tally a hat trick in The American tournament semifinals.

2018 saw UCF win its first conference title since 2011 as the team took the regular-season crown with a 5-1-1 record in conference play. Overall, the Knights finished 13-3-3 and put together an impressive 8-2-3 record at the UCF Soccer Complex scoring 29 goals and grabbing 86 points. Three major award winners were produced (Offensive, Midfielder, Goalkeeper of the Year), seven All-Conference selections, and eight Player of the Week awards from The American. They also produced five All-Region selections and two All-Americans (Cal Jennings and Louis Perez). In addition to all the awards, the Knights capped off the regular season with a ranking of No. 9, which was the third highest in program history at the time.

In his first season with UCF, the Knights went 8-6-2 overall and 4-2-1 in conference play. The team went undefeated at home posting four wins and finished second in the American Athletic Conference under Calabrese's leadership. During the 2017 season, the Knights were awarded The American Player of the Week five times, earned five all-conference selections, two all-rookie honors, and two all-region winners. Also during his first season in The American, the Knights finished first in points (39), goals (13), and assists (13), while senior Matias Pyysalo dominated the offensive game taking Offensive Player of the Year honors.

Calabrese spent the previous three seasons before coming to UCF at FIU, taking the program to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in over 10 years by capturing the 2015 Conference USA Championship. He helped the Panthers to consecutive appearances in the finals at the C-USA Championship.

"I am very excited about the pedigree that Scott Calabrese brings to UCF," White said. "The soccer culture in Orlando has grown exponentially over the last several years, and I believe Coach Calabrese can help us add to that culture here at UCF. Scott has had great success in his coaching career. He was the region coach of the year at FIU in 2015 and won two conference championships at East Tennessee State, where he started the program from scratch. I look forward to watching him build the Knights into a national power in the soccer capital of the south."

The Newton, Conn., native has been known for building programs and started the program at East Tennessee State in 2008. In three short years, he guided the Bucs to the 2010 Atlantic Sun Championship behind 10 shutout victories, earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. The 2010 NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year tallied four seasons with 10-or-more victories and also aided ETSU to the 2013 NCAA Tournament.

"I would like to thank Dr. Daniel J. White and the search committee for providing me with the opportunity to be the next head men's soccer coach at UCF," Calabrese said. "I am beyond excited to join this incredible and growing athletic department that is investing in its student-athletes and programs."

"I had an opportunity to meet the team and talk with the players individually this morning. They are very committed to seeing this program succeed, improve and progress. I can't wait to get started on the field in January and begin building personal relationships with these young men."

Prior to taking the head coaching position at ETSU, Calabrese served four seasons as an assistant at Clemson from 2003-06. He aided the Tigers to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 2005 College Cup and a No. 1 national ranking. He additionally worked as the director of the Clemson Soccer Academy, which hosts over 1,800 youth soccer players a year.

As a part of the coaching staff at North Carolina from 2000-01, he helped the Tar Heels to a pair of Elite Eight appearances, which included the 2001 National Championship and 2000 ACC Championship.

He has ties to the central Florida area, beginning his career as an assistant coach at Stetson from 1998-99.

Calabrese also has a connection to UCF women's soccer head coach Tiffany Roberts-Sahaydak, who he coached professionally as a member of the Carolina Courage (WUSA) coaching staff in 2002. He helped guide the Courage as an assistant coach to the Founder's Cup that season.

Calabrese graduated from Bryant College with a degree in business administration. He also holds an "A" coaching license and is a Level I and II certified goalkeeping instructor with the NSCAA.

PAUL SOUDERS

Associate Head Coach - 7th Season

In his seventh season alongside head coach Scott Calabrese, associate head coach Paul Souders played a key role in coaching the Knights through their historic first season as members of the Sun Belt Conference in 2023.

For just the third time in program history, the Black and Gold earned a top 16 national seed in the NCAA Tournament, slotting in at No. 12 overall and earning a bye through the first round, as well as hosting honors for the second round. The team's No. 12 seed marked the second-highest tournament seed in program history, behind only the squad's No. 9 spot in 2019.

The Knights' lofty tournament placing represented the culmination of one of the more dominant seasons of Souders' first seven years in Orlando, as the team's season-opening 2-1 upset victory over the then-No. 4/9 Clemson Tigers (TopDrawerSoccer/United Soccer Coaches) boosted the Black and Gold into the national top 25 ranking from week one through the remainder of the fall slate.

UCF's road upset ignited a season-opening three-match win streak, as well as a six-match unbeaten streak that also featured draws with two ranked foes: then-No. 11 Florida International and then-No. 4 West Virginia. The Black and Gold's final 10-4-2 record represented the third campaign with at least 10 wins under Calabrese and Souders, and the first since UCF notched back-to-back such seasons in 2018-19.

The then-third-ranked Knights suffered one of just two regular-season losses against the then-No. 1 Marshall Thundering Herd by a narrow 1-0 margin Sept. 23, and responded with six consecutive victories during which the team outscored its opposition by an aggregate 16-5.

Calabrese credited his Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year selection to his whole coaching staff, and the honor was one of three major conference post-season awards won by the Knights, joining Clarence Awoudor's Newcomer of the Year and Saku Heiskanen's Freshman of the Year honors. Lucca Dourado and Zane Bubb also earned selections to the Sun Belt's First Team All-Conference, while Heiskanen, AJ Seals and Anderson Rosa garnered Second Team recognition as well.

Souders has seen six of the student-athletes he's coached at UCF selected in the MLS SuperDraft since he joined the program Feb. 13, 2017 as an assistant coach, two of which were first round selections.

Anderson Rosa was most recently selected with the 14th pick of the second round in the 2024 draft by the Colorado Rapids, and Gino Vivi was taken in the first round, 23rd overall in 2023. Nick Taylor and Yanis Leerman were both selected in 2022, while Cal Jennings was a first-round selection with the 17th overall pick in 2019. Jonathan Dean was the 39th overall pick by Orlando City in 2020 as well.

The sixth season of Souders' tenure with Calabrese and staff in 2022 saw the Knights earn a ranked win over then-No. 13 Charlotte, the fourth straight year in which UCF had earned a ranked win and the fifth straight in earning a result. The 2022 slate saw Dourado and Rosa receive nods to the All-Conference First Team while Vivi was a member of the Second Team and goalkeeper Juanvi Muñoz was named to the All-Rookie Team. Dourado, Rosa and Vivi were named to the 2022 All-East Region Second Team, as well.

Dourado and Vivi were also members of the 2021 All-East Region Second Team and were two of six total All-Conference selections in 2021. Dourado was the lone Knight on the First Team, while Vivi, Rosa, Leerman, Taylor and Mauricio Villalobos all earned Second Team nods.

The fourth campaign of Souders' tenure in 2020 was delayed as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. The fall season was pushed to the spring of 2021 with a shortened 10-match, conference-only schedule. UCF bounced back from a slow start to the year, winning six consecutive matches to earn its third straight American regular-season crown.

The unbeaten streak didn't stop there, as the Knights topped SMU in penalty kicks in the conference tournament semifinals before going on to defeat Tulsa 1-0 in the championship match, earning the program's first conference tournament title and securing an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, which had been cut from 48 teams to 36 for the season.

The Black and Gold met James Madison in the second round following their first-round bye, besting the Dukes 2-1 to advance to the team's second straight Sweet 16 appearance.

Souders helped guide UCF to its best season in program history in 2019. The Knights posted a record of 15-3-2 and reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament, the furthest the team had ever gone. The 15 victories tied a season high and marked the highest win total in UCF's Division I tenure. The Black and Gold posted a 6-0-1 record in conference play, becoming just the third team in the history of The American to go unbeaten in conference play.

For the 2018 and 2019 campaigns, his first two as an associate head coach under Calabrese, Souders and staff earned the American Athletic Conference Coaching Staff of the Year. The squad went 16 straight matches without a loss in 2019, shattering the previous record of 10 straight matches unbeaten in 2018. The program earned its second straight national seed ahead of the NCAA Tournament, checking in at No. 9. In the second round, the Knights defeated Missouri State by a score of 2-1 in overtime, clinching UCF's first berth to the NCAA Tournament's third round in program history.

In 2018 and 2019, Souders has helped coach one of the best offenses in all of Division I. For the entirety of those two regular seasons, the Knights were ranked within the top 10 in the nation in almost every offensive category, including total assists, total goals, total points, scoring offense, points per game, assists per game, and goals per game. They were the top squad in shots per game and shots on goal per game in 2018, and led the nation in corners in 2019. UCF also ranked first in The American in each category.

The Knights took home four major conference accolades in 2019 as well. Jennings won his second consecutive Offensive Player of the Year, while Yannik Oettl earned his second straight nod as Goalkeeper of the Year. Yoni Sorokin was dubbed Midfielder of the Year while Gino Vivi was honored as the Rookie of the Year. The Black and Gold had five All-Conference selections in The American, including four on the first team, and a pair of freshmen made their way onto the All-Rookie squad.

The awards kept coming during the 2020-21 season as Oettl three-peated as the conference's Goalkeeper of the Year and Sorokin repeated as the Midfielder of the Year. Five Knights made the All-Conference First Team and another made the cut for the Second Team. Three rookies were named to the American's All-Rookie Team as well, and the team was tabbed with the conference's Fair Play Award.

Souders and company also had a hand in coaching two All-Americans in 2018-19. Jennings was named to the All-America First Team in 2018 and 2019, while Leerman earned a nod to the All-America Second Team following the spring 2021 campaign.

Four of UCF's nine NCAA Tournament nods have come with Souders as a member of the staff, with the first two including hosting privileges as the Knights earned the No. 14 national seed in 2018 and No. 9 in 2019. The team shattered their highest ranking in the United Soccer Coaches poll during the 2018 and 2019 campaigns, as the team set a personal best of No. 7 in 2018 and went on to climb as high as No. 5 in 2019.

Souders helped produce a two-time MAC Hermann Trophy semifinalist in Jennings, who scored 20 goals in 19 games including three hat tricks in 2018. The following season saw Jennings net 18 goals in 20 games and tally a hat trick in The American tournament semifinals.

2018 saw UCF win the conference regular season title with a 5-1-1 record in conference play and an overall 13-3-3 mark. Since becoming a Division I program, it represented the fourth-best record the Knights have earned. UCF put together an impressive 8-2-3 record at the UCF Soccer Complex, scoring 29 goals and grabbing 86 points. The Knights also went on a 10-match unbeaten streak, which at the time set a new program best.

Souders and the staff produced three major award winners in 2018 (Offensive, Midfielder, Goalkeeper of the Year), seven All-Conference selections, and eight Player of the Week awards from The American. They also produced five All-Region selections and two All-Americans (Cal Jennings and Louis Perez). In addition to all the awards, the Knights capped off the regular season with a ranking of No. 9, which marked the third highest in program history. Throughout the season, the Knights reached as high as No. 7.

During the 2017 season, Souders helped produce nine All-Conference selections, the Offensive Player of the Year, and two NSCAA All-East Region honorees while finishing the season 8-6-2 with a 4-2-1 conference record. The Knights went on an eight-match unbeaten streak to make it to The American Conference Tournament finals, and during his first year the Knights never lost a match at home.

Souders also oversaw student-athlete academics where Matias Pyysalo was named The American's Men's Soccer Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

The two-time NSCAA Far West Region Assistant Coach of the Year spent eight seasons at New Mexico before coming to Orlando, Fla.

During a nine-year stint with the Lobos, Souders helped the program to three NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, including a run to the 2013 NCAA College Cup in Philadelphia, Pa. New Mexico's success includes qualifying for five NCAA Tournaments, four conference championships and an undefeated (18-0-4) campaign in 2011. The Lobos posted a 101-42-21 overall and 45-18-7 league mark during that span.

While serving as associate head coach over the past seven campaigns, Souders was responsible for recruiting, academics, scheduling and coaching the offensive attack.

Academics are a point of emphasis for Souders, who aided the Lobos to a program-record 3.43 grade point average in the fall of 2013. He mentored two-time COSIDA Academic All-America selection Levi Rossi and NSCAA Scholar Athlete Kyle Venter. Lobo student-athletes have also earned eight COSIDA Academic All-Region and 27 academic all-conference honors under his guidance.

Prior to arriving at New Mexico, Souders spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Dayton, helping the Flyers to a 27-18-11 overall record. During his tenure, four former Flyers who have played professionally in North America and Europe.

Dayton finished the 2007 campaign 10-4-5 overall and advanced to the opening round of the 2007 Atlantic 10 Men's Soccer Championship. The Flyers completed the season on a six-game unbeaten streak, had two players selected to the All-Atlantic 10 and NSCAA Middle Atlantic Region teams and finished No. 8 in the regional rankings.

The Dallas, Texas, native earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education at Clemson. Calabrese coached Souders during his senior campaign, which led to Souders playing in his fourth NCAA Tournament. He was a part of two NCAA Sweet 16 berths with the Tigers.

Souders also played in the U-23 United States Olympic Pool. He also has coaching experience with the New Mexico State U-16 team and served as a graduate assistant in 2004.

Souders and his wife, formerly Lindsey Gramley, have two daughters Kya and Tegan.

AUSTIN NYQUIST

Assistant Coach/Recruiting Coordinator - 1st Season

After spending the last seven years as an assistant coach with Grand Canyon and Portland, Austin Nyquist joins the UCF men's soccer team as its newest assistant coach and recruiting coordinator ahead of the fall 2024 season.

Nyquist most recently served as an assistant coach with the Grand Canyon Antelopes from 2021-23, also as the program's assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. With Nyquist's help, the Lopes recorded a 29-19-7 aggregate record in three seasons, including two WAC Tournament berths and the program's first home NCAA Tournament match against Denver Nov. 18, 2021.

The Lopes also saw two players drafted in the first round of the 2022 MLS SuperDraft following Nyquist's first season with Grand Canyon, in Esai Easley (22nd overall to Sporting Kansas City) and Justin Rasmussen (27th overall to the Portland Timbers). Easley won WAC Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2021, while Rasmussen earned All-WAC First Team honors.

In his second season with the Lopes, Nyquist saw two players earn MLS Next Pro contracts in Shaun Joash with Huntsville City and Ben Awashie with New England Revolution II.

Prior to joining GCU, Nyquist spent three seasons with Portland from 2018-21 as an assistant coach and the director of performance analysis. The Pilots recorded an aggregate 24-15-7 record in his tenure in the Pacific Northwest, including a 12-4-3 record and an NCAA Tournament Second Round berth in 2018.

During his time with Portland, Nyquist also recruited a pair of eventual 2024 MLS SuperDraft selections in Jacob Babalaj (41st overall to Charlotte FC) and Buba Fofanah (81st overall to Seattle Sounders FC).

In 2018, the Pilots climbed as high as No. 7 in the nation in the United Soccer Coaches' top 25 poll with a 10-0-3 record, representing one of two teams in the country without a loss through their 13 matches. The unbeaten streak was the longest for Portland since 1995 when the team put together 14 games without a loss.

Portland was rewarded when it received a postseason berth and a first-round home match against a UCLA squad making its 45th playoff appearance. The game in mid-November was the first home playoff contest for the Pilots since 2002, and the win was Portland's first in the playoffs since 2009 and its first at home since 2002.

In 2019, Nyquist's Pilots saw six players earn All-WCC honors, and three earned All-West Region selections.

In his recruiting role, Nyquist has had four top 15 recruiting classes via TopDrawerSoccer. With Portland, his classes ranked 8th in 2019, 4th in 2020 and 3rd in 2021. His first season at GCU during the summer of 2021, Nyquist brought the 14th best recruiting class to Phoenix en route to an NCAA Tournament berth. The 2022 GCU class ranked 21st in the country as well, with a group that went 2-1-1 against teams ranked or receiving votes in the United Soccer Coaches poll. A part of that class was Bright Nutornutsi, who has garnered All-WAC Freshman Team (2022) and All-WAC First Team (2023) honors as a Lope.

Nyquist has coached multiple players who have advanced to the professional ranks, including Benji Mitchell (2018/Orlando City Homegrown), Rey Ortiz (2020 FC Cincinnati draft pick), Delentze Pierre (2023 Real Salt Lake Homegrown) and Brandon Cambridge (2023 Charlotte FC draft pick) while at Portland. In addition, he coached goalkeeper Nico Campuzano at Portland who signed an MLS Next Pro contract with New England Revolution II.

Prior to joining Portland during the summer of 2018, Nyquist spent the 2017 season scouting collegiately for Chicago Fire of the MLS, as well as coaching for North Carolina FC. During the 2016 season he worked as the director of performance analysis for the University of North Carolina's men's soccer program.

For the 2015-16 season Nyquist was an assistant coach at Robert Morris University, in Chicago, Ill. He was responsible for developing and leading training sessions, scouting and presenting technical/video reports on future opponents, conducting analysis of both individual and team performance, game day coaching, and management.

Nyquist has also spent time in youth development programs, including coaching with New York Red Bulls and Chicago Fire.

He played collegiately at Seton Hall (2006-08) and Wisconsin (2008-10). Owner of a Bachelor of Arts degree in religious studies from Wisconsin, Nyquist earned the A License from the United States Soccer Federation (USSF), and the Premier Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).
