THE VENUE

One of the elite, volleyball-only facilities in the nation, The Venue at UCF seats upward of 2,000 fans and is located on the north side of campus, right by the UCF soccer and track complex and Burger U. Formerly the UCF Arena, the facility was completely renovated and re-opened in April 2008 as an 87,000-square foot multi-purpose, air-conditioned facility.

The 31,000-square-foot first floor at The Venue contains locker rooms, player lounges and an equipment room. From the locker room, student-athletes have access to a state-of-the-art sports medicine facility located inside Addition Financial Arena. A 2,000-square foot weight room is also located on the first floor. The weight room provides the Knights with access to free weight and machine equipment, cardio and treadmills to help keep the UCF volleyball program in top form.

The UCF volleyball team opened The Venue on Sept. 2, 2008, when it hosted eventual NCAA national-runner up, Stanford, in front of a crowd of 1,568 fans. The capacity crowd in attendance helped the Knights honor members of UCF's 1978 AIAW national championship squad with a banner-dropping ceremony.

Notable games played at The Venue in recent years include the inaugural American Athletic Conference Championship in 2019, when the Knights secured the conference title in front of their home crowd, and the NCAA Championship first round in 2018.

Jenny Maurer

Head Coach - Second Season / Eighth at UCF

Jenny Maurer, a key cog for the UCF volleyball program that has won the last five American Athletic Conference titles (regular season or tournament or both) and competed in the NCAA Championship each of those years, was named the Knights' head coach on May 18, 2023.

In her first year as head coach, Maurer helped lead the Knights to a 5-0 start marking the second best start by a first year UCF head coach just behind Lucy McDaniel who went 7-0 in the inaugural season (1975).

Maurer was the UCF associate head coach and recruiting coordinator for seven years after joining the Knights' staff in January 2016—and her resume features nine years as an NCAA Division I head coach and 16 total years as a head coach. Her role at UCF has included overseeing recruiting efforts, serving as offensive coordinator and training the setters.

In seven seasons in Orlando, Maurer has helped the UCF attack maintain a season hitting percentage over .250.

The Knights posted five 20-win seasons, including a trip to the 2017 National Invitational Volleyball Championship, and the 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021 and 2022 NCAA Championships with two second-round appearances. Maurer has mentored AVCA All-American McKenna Melville and American Volleyball Coaches Association all-region selections Kia Bright, Jale Hervey, and Anne-Mare Watson during her time in Orlando. She also helped guide Amber Olson to UCF's first AAC Setter of the Year honor.

Maurer's commitment to academics is exhibited by the volleyball team's combined 3.64 grade-point average in the 2022 fall semester—best by any UCF team—followed by a 3.653 in the 2023 spring semester. Over the course of her seven seasons with the Knights, the volleyball program has achieved a combined 3.621 GPA (paced by a 3.7 in 2021-22) and twice had the top team GPA.

Maurer joined the Knights after spending five seasons as the head volleyball coach at Bradley University, from 2011-2015. In her first three seasons at Bradley, she led the Braves to 34 wins, the program's most victories in a three-year stretch since the 2005 season. In 2012, Maurer led Bradley to the first 5-0 start in program history, and in 2013, the Braves advanced to the Missouri Valley Tournament for the first time since 2005.

Prior to her stint in Peoria, she served as the head coach at Lehigh University (Bethlehem, Pennsylvania). During her four years with the Mountain Hawks (2007-10), Maurer improved her squad's record each season and in 2009 coached Lehigh into the Patriot League Tournament for the first time since 2003. She improved her squad's RPI by 130 spots during her four-year tenure.

Athletic Association first-team selection and the team leader in aces as a sophomore and digs as a junior and senior as a right-side hitter and setter. She helped the Bears to a combined 85-9 record during the 1995 and 1996 NCAA Division III title seasons. In 1997 Washington finished fourth nationally and in 1998 advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

She went on to earn a master's degree in education from Lindenwood University (St. Charles, Missouri) in 2003. Maurer spent seven years coaching volleyball at St. Joseph's Academy in St. Louis, three times taking the Angels to the championship game of the Missouri Class 3-4A state tournament and four times playing in the final four. She also played with USA Athletes International in Belgium and Holland in the summer of 1999.

Maurer has two children: son Hudson and daughter Chaney.

Michaela Franklin

Associate Head Coach/Recruiting Coordinator - Second Season with the Knights

Michaela Franklin enters her second season with the Knights. In her first year, she helped guide the UCF volleyball program in their first year in the Big 12 as well as coordinated recruiting efforts.

The former Big 12 volleyball champion, was hired as the associate head coach in May 2023.

Franklin will stay in the Sunshine State after a one-year stint at USF as the associate head coach.

Prior to USF, Franklin served as the head volleyball coach at Clemson from 2017-2020. At Clemson, she mentored four different players who earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference accolades on five occasions and had three different players earn spots on the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team.

Franklin guided the Tigers from a 7-25 record in her first season at Clemson in 2017 to a 19-15 mark the following season as the team reached the National Invitational Volleyball Championship quarterfinals – the program’s first postseason appearance since 2009 and the team’s most wins since 2012.

A nationally recognized recruiter, Franklin recruited a pair of the nation’s top recruiting classes to Clemson, including the No. 24-ranked overall class in 2020. Additionally, all players on her 2020 roster were named to the ACC Academic Honor Roll. The team’s 2019 fall grade point average stood as the highest in program history, followed by the second highest in the spring of 2020.

Preceding Clemson, she was the associate head coach at the University of Iowa for the 2014-16 seasons and the head coach at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay for the 2013 campaign. At UW-Green Bay, Franklin’s squad finished with the second-best record in program history and recorded its best finish in the Horizon League in a decade.

Franklin also served as an assistant coach at Marquette University from 2009-12 and Northern Illinois University from 2006-08.

As a player at Kansas State from 2002-04, Franklin helped lead the Wildcats to a Big 12 Championship and three NCAA Championships appearances, including a berth in the Sweet 16.

The Lincoln, Nebraska, native graduated from Kansas State with a bachelor’s degree in family studies and human services in 2006 and went on to earn her master’s in sports management from Northern Illinois.

Erin Olson

Director of Operations - Third Season with the Knights

Erin Olson enters her third season as the director of operations with UCF volleyball, after she was hired in May 2022.

In 2019, Olson helped the Knights win the inaugural American Athletic Conference Championship tournament. The Knights finished the season 28-2 overall and 19-1 in conference play and UCF reached the second round of the NCAA Championship for the second year in a row.

Olson joined the Knights after a stint with the USA Women’s Senior National Team. During her time with USA National team, she was a member of the training camp roster and was given the opportunity to participate in joint training sessions with the Japan National Team.

Prior to the USA National Team, Olson was a setter for UCF from 2017-2019. She was a part of the 2018 and 2019 AAC Championship teams along with two NCAA Championship appearances in back-to-back years.

Jason Tanaka

Associate Head Coach - Second Season with the Knights

Jason Tanaka enters his second season with the Knights, where he assisted the UCF volleyball program in their inaugural season in the Big 12.

Tanaka, a 25-year collegiate coaching veteran with Big 12 experience, was hired as the associate head coach in May 2023.

Tanaka makes the move to Orlando after spending the past 21 years in the Dallas/Fort Worth metroplex. He joins UCF following a one-year stint as head volleyball coach at Southlake Carroll High School in Southlake, Texas, where the Dragons finished the season as the Bi-District champion and area champion. Before Southlake Carroll, he helped lead SMU to back-to-back conference championships and NCAA Championship appearances in 2015 and 2016. In 2016, the Mustangs recorded their first NCAA Championship victory over Texas A&M. He served as the assistant coach from 2015-2022.

Preceding SMU, Tanaka spent 13 seasons at TCU as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator. While working with TCU, Tanaka was selected to work with USA Volleyball and its developmental programs. He helped TCU reach its first-ever NCAA Championship in 2009 and the Horned Frogs garnered second-place finishes in Conference USA in 2004 and Mountain West in 2009.

Prior to arriving at TCU, Tanaka spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons as an assistant coach at Pittsburgh. With the Panthers, Tanaka's responsibilities included coordinating the team's training and assisting with the recruiting efforts.

He also served two seasons as an assistant coach at Baylor (1998-99). He helped lead the Bears to their first-ever NCAA Championship berth and a school-record 26-9 mark in 1999. Baylor finished the season ranked 20th nationally and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Championship before falling to eventual champion Penn State.

Before his two-year stint at Baylor, Tanaka spent one season at his alma mater, Arizona, as a volunteer assistant. Tanaka served as a manager for head coach David Rubio from 1994-1997 during his undergraduate studies.

Tanaka began his coaching career in 1991 when he was appointed head coach of the Huntington Beach High School freshman volleyball team in Huntington Beach, California. He later went on to serve as an assistant for the school's boys and girls varsity squads. The boys won back-to-back California Interscholastic Federation championships in 1993 and 1994.

Tanaka graduated from the University of Arizona in 1997 with a degree in communications.

Cameron Stevens

Assistant Coach - First Season with the Knights

Cameron Stevens, a familiar face to the UCF volleyball program, has rejoined the Knights as an assistant coach ahead of their 2024 season, head coach Jenny Maurer announced on Tuesday, June 4.

Stevens spent the last two years as assistant coach at High Point, where he helped lead the Panthers to consecutive Big South Tournament Championships. In his two seasons with the program, HPU recorded two 20-win seasons with overall records of 24-7 (2022) and 23-8 (2023).

Before his time at High Point, Stevens was a part of three straight American Athletic Conference titles at UCF. He helped the Knights advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament twice during his first stint with the Black and Gold.

Stevens has coached both boys and girls at Timber Creek High School over the last 10 years. He spent seven years as the head girls' coach, reaching the regional playoffs six times. He led the Wolves to the regional finals in 2014 and the regional semifinals in 2018. He captured district championships in 2014 and 2018, as well as a Metro Conference championship in 2018.

Leading the boys' volleyball program, he won district titles in 2015, 2016, and 2022 in addition to Metro Conference championships in 2014 and 2015. He compiled a record of 188-64.

Stevens coached boys club volleyball with the Orlando Gold Volleyball Club from 2012-2016 and Ocean Bay Volleyball from 2016-2017.

He graduated from the University of Findlay in May 2011 with a bachelor's degree in digital media. He was a four-time all-conference and honorable mention All-America placekicker on the football team while at Findlay.

He graduated from the University of Findlay in May of 2011 with a bachelor's degree in digital media. He was a four-time all-conference and honorable mention all-America placekicker on the football team while at Findlay.

He and his wife Ginny live in Oviedo with their three kids and two hound dogs.
