#21 JAMES MADISON DUKES | 3-0-3, 0-0 SUN BELT

Head Coach: Paul Zazenski (UNC Greensboro, '05)
Record at JMU: 63-31-22 (Seventh Season)
Career Record: 133-54-26 (12th Season)

SCOUTING THE KNIGHTS

- UCF returns to the pitch after a 0-1-1 week, falling 4-3 at FIU on Sept. 11 before drawing South Florida, 0-0, on Sunday.
- Clarence Awoudor leads the side in points with nine, as he is tied for the goals lead (three) with Emmanuel Bam and has sole possession of the lead in assists (three).
- Spending the majority of time in goal for the Knights is Shane Wright. He has 360 minutes between the posts under his belt with a 1.50 GAA and 15 saves. He's recorded one shutout this season.

SCOUTING THE DUKES

- James Madison pushed its win streak to three as it knocked off Mount St. Mary's, 2-1, on Tuesday night for its first road win this season.
- Nikolai leads the team in goals with a pair, while Evan Southern has three assists to lead the team. Nikolai's four points are a team-high.
- Sebastian Conlon has spent all 560 minutes this season between the post. He has made 19 saves to go with a 0.50 GAA and four shutouts.

SERIES HISTORY

- James Madison and UCF have split the four matches evenly in the all-time series.
- The two sides last met in the regular season finale a season ago in Orlando, with the Dukes knocking off the #1 Knights, 2-1. After going down a goal in the seventh minute, the Dukes used a 72nd minute equalizing goal from Rodrigo Robles and an 88th minute go ahead goal from Cameron Arnold to leave with a win.
- This will be the first time the Dukes will be the home side against the Knights, with the first three matches being held at neutral sites before last season's match at UCF.
- Three of the four matches have been one-goal affairs. The exception being a 5-0 JMU win in 1990.

JMU vs. UCF Match Notes

SUN BELT POLL AND AWARDS

- James Madison was picked to finish fifth in the Sun Belt by a vote of 10 head coaches in the league. Marshall was picked to win the league and received eight first-place votes, followed by West Virginia, UCF and Kentucky. West Virginia received the remaining two first-place votes.
- Kevin Larsson and Luca Nikolai were both selected to the Preseason All-Sun Belt Team. Larsson was named to the All-Sun Belt Second Team last year while Nikolai earned first team honors and was a two-time First Team Freshman All-American.

HONORS WON

- The Dukes received conference and national recognition after a pair of shutout wins last week.
- The Sun Belt Conference announced Enrique Garcia Barelles as this week's Defensive Player of the Week after the center back anchored the JMU backline.
- Right back Luca Nikolai was named an honorable mention to the TopDrawerSoccer National Team of the Week for his defensive play and goal scored last week.

BACK IN THE RANKINGS

- After a three-week hiatus, the Dukes are back in the United Soccer Coaches National Rankings for Division I.
- JMU took down then-#14 Georgetown and Liberty with a pair of shutout wins to reemerge at #21 in the national poll.
- Five programs from the Sun Belt are recognized this week, with #5 West Virginia and #10 Marshall joining the Dukes in the top 25 and UCF and South Carolina both receiving votes.

STICKING WITH THE BEST OF THE BEST

- With the win against then-#14 Georgetown on Sept. 9, the Dukes are now 3-1-1 in their last five matches against ranked opponents with four of the five matches coming on the road.
- The win is the highest ranked win in the regular season for the Dukes since knocking off #1 UCF in the regular season finale last season.

UNDEFEATED START

- For the second straight season, the Dukes have started off undefeated through their first six matches.
- There have been 14 previous instances of JMU beginning the season undefeated through six matches. Of the 14 times, seven have been with a 6-0 record, five with a 5-0-1 record and two occurrences of a 4-0-2 record (including last season).
- It is the third time in five seasons the Dukes have begun undefeated through six matches.

SHUT OUT SEBBY MOVING UP

- Goalkeeper Sebastian Conlon is up to 13 shutouts in his career after recording his fourth of the season against Liberty on Sept. 14.
- Conlon is within shouting distance of enter the career top 10 in program history, with Russ Fant (1987-90) sitting in 10th place with 15 career solo shutouts.

SECOND HALF SCORERS

- All seven goals scored by the Dukes this season have come in the second half.

TOP NOTCHED DEFENSE

- Through games on Sept. 18, the JMU defense has been stepping up as one of the best in the country.
- The Dukes rank tied for third in goals against average (0.50), tied for fourth in shutout percentage (.667), tied for fifth in save percentage (0.864) and is one of 21 teams in the country to be undefeated.
- Individually, Sebastian Conlon is tied for third in shutouts (four), tied for seventh in goals against average (0.50) and tied for ninth in save percentage (0.864).

THE ZAZENSKI EFFECT

- Paul Zazenski enters his seventh season as the head coach for the Dukes, returning after a second appearance in the NCAA Round of 16 and the fourth season of at least 10 wins out of five full fall seasons.
- Among active Division I men's soccer head coaches, Zazenski ranks 13th in win percentage entering 2024 with a career .684 win percentage.
- Zazenski picked up win No. 60 of his JMU head coaching career in the final win of the 2023 season.
- With the pair of NCAA Championship wins last season, Zazenski became the first JMU head coach to win five tournament matches.
- The Dukes have faced five seeded sides in the national tournament with three wins, all coming with Zazenski at the helm of the program.

RANKED RECRUITING CLASS FOR THE DUKES

- The Dukes welcome eight additions to the roster for 2024, ranking as the 42nd best class in the country by TopDrawerSoccer in its final recruiting class rankings.
- Seven freshman will begin their college careers in Milo Wray, Agustin Donoso, David Lee, Smith Halloran, Manuel Lolos, Jackson Carlyon and Justin Enamorado. Aidan Melville transfers in with two years of eligibility left after tenures at Providence and Coastal Carolina.

Paul Zazenski

Education: UNC Greensboro, '05

Record at JMU: 63-31-22 (Seventh Season)

Career record: 133-54-26 (12th Season)

James Madison men's soccer Head Coach Paul Zazenski signed a contract extension through the 2026 season, as announced by former Director of Athletics Jeff Bourne on October 17, 2022.

The Dukes have seen team and individual success under the tutelage of Zazenski during his tenure, as the program has won a trio of conference championships, multiple major awards and all-conference accolades earned by individuals and, with Tyler Clegg's selection in the 2023 Major League Soccer SuperDraft, four draft picks in the past five seasons.

A return to the NCAA tournament was in store for the Dukes in Zazenski's sixth season. The Dukes finished with a 10-5-5 record and made the program's fifth ever appearance in the round of 16 of the NCAA Championship. The Dukes took down No. 1 UCF on the road to end the regular season and toppled No. 3 Georgetown in Washington, D.C. in the second round of the tournament. JMU was ranked 18th in the final poll of the season, but were ranked as high as eighth in the United Soccer Coaches for its highest ranking since 1997. Under his tutelage, the Dukes had their first Freshman All-American as Luca Nikolai was named one by TopDrawerSoccer and College Soccer News. Clay Obara and Rodrigo Robles were tabbed All-Region by United Soccer Coaches while all three were joined by Kevin Larsson as All-Sun Belt selections.

Zazenski's fifth season leading the Dukes came in JMU's first season in the Sun Belt Conference, where they fared 8-8-4 overall. Despite earning a seven-seed in the conference tournament, the Dukes avenged both regular season losses to Marshall and Georgia State in the quarter and semifinal rounds to make it to the conference championship match. The Dukes won or drew in eight of their nine final matches leading to the championship appearance, with the win against Marshall in the quarterfinals the program's first top-five win since 2019. Alex Krakowiak earned All-Conference Second Team honors, while Tyler Clegg was selected to the All-Southeast Region Third Team.

In his fourth season, Zazenski led the Dukes to one of their best starts to the season since 2004 before finishing 11-5-1 and third in the standings in the CAA with a 5-3 record in league play. The Dukes received votes or were ranked inside the United Soccer Coaches Top 25 Poll every week except for one, being ranked as high as 15th in the country. They were awarded with six players named to the All-Conference Team, with three placed on the First Team.

The Dukes were ineligible for postseason play in the fall due to conference realignment.

Zazenski's third year at the helm was during a shortened spring 2021 season, earning his second CAA Coach of the Year honor as he guided the Dukes to a 5-1-3 overall record and 4-0 in CAA play, becoming the third season in program history where the Dukes never lost or tied a conference game. The Dukes took their regular season conference play into the playoffs, winning their third consecutive conference title and making their 15th NCAA Tournament appearance.

Zazenski and his staff earned Atlantic Region Staff of the Year honors from United Soccer Coaches for the second time in three years, as the team either received votes or were included in the top 25 in every Coaches poll during the spring. The Dukes were ranked as high as seventh in the nation in the national weekly polls.

Under Zazenski, the Dukes received Defender and Rookie of the Year honors from the CAA, and had seven players on All-Conference teams. They earned success across the state of Virginia as well, having earned Defensive Player and Rookie of the Year honors and placing five on All-State teams. From the tutelage of Zazenski, JMU saw two players drafted in the MLS SuperDraft for the first time ever.

In his second season at the helm of the Dukes, Zazenski guided JMU to another 11-win season, winning the program's seventh CAA championship. The Dukes went on to host a first round match of the 2019 NCAA Tournament. The match at Sentara Park was the first for the venue and was the first time that JMU hosted Men's Soccer NCAA Tournament matches since 2011.

In his first year at the helm, Zazenski was named the Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year after leading his team to the 2018 regular-season title and the program's sixth CAA championship. The Dukes went on to play in the 2018 NCAA Championship where they reached the Quarterfinals for the first time since 1995.

Zazenski and his staff were named the Regional Staff of the Year for the Atlantic region by United Soccer Coaches while five student-athletes earned All-Atlantic Region honors after posting a 15-5-3 overall record in the 2018 campaign. Fifteen wins on the season inks Zazenski in the record book as the winningest first-year coach in JMU men's soccer history. He was also named the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Coach of the Year and the VaSID Coach of the Year.

JAMES MADISON SOCCER

Under Zazenski's leadership, JMU made it in to the United Soccer Coaches Poll for the first time since 2011, earning a spot at No. 25 on October 23. The Dukes were recognized in the poll for six straight weeks. Following a stellar year, James Madison finished the season ranked No. 8 in Top Drawer Soccer, No. 9 in College Soccer News and No. 10 in the United Soccer Coaches Polls.

The Dukes won their second consecutive regular-season title after going 6-2 in conference action this season. Zazenski headlined the CAA postseason honors as JMU snagged a program-record ten awards while nine student-athletes were All-CAA Team selections.

Before being named head coach on August 8, 2018, he had been the associate head coach and an assistant coach of JMU men's soccer since the 2015 season, coordinating aspects of both program operations and player development. In 2017, Zazenski helped the Dukes to a 9-7-3 overall record and 5-1-2 in CAA play to take the regular-season conference championship. JMU captured a program-record eight players on the All-CAA teams, headlined by Manuel Ferriol earning a spot on the First Team.

Zazenski came from the University of Great Falls (Providence) where he had served as the head men's soccer coach for the past five seasons and earned an impressive 70-23-4 record. He has led the team to four conference championships, two NAIA National Tournament appearances in 2010 and 2011 where his team advanced to the Sweet 16 both times. He was recognized as the conference Coach of the Year three times, including this past season, and was named NAIA Regional Coach of the Year and National Coach of the Year Finalist in 2010 after a 16-4-1 record. His teams have been ranked in the NAIA Top 25 during four seasons while also coaching at least one NAIA All-American in each of those four seasons. His teams also were successful in the classroom, sporting a cumulative team GPA of at least 3.2 for the past four years and ranking as the top NAIA school with nine Academic All-Americans in 2014.

In addition to his college duties, Zazenski spent six years as the head coach of the Montana United Showcase U16 and U19 teams that developed players from all over the state. He also worked as the Electric City Soccer Club Director of Coaching from 2011-2013.

Prior to his time as head coach at Great Falls, Zazenski served as the top assistant with the program, with specific duties regarding goalkeeper coaching and recruiting. Prior to that, he spent three years as a high school soccer coach at Southwest Guilford High School in Jamestown, North Carolina.

Zazenski holds a United Soccer Coaches Premier Diploma Coaching License. Zazenski played four years of college soccer at UNC Greensboro from 2002-05, helping the Spartans to a pair of Southern Conference championships and back-to-back NCAA Sweet 16 appearances.

He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise, sports and science from UNC Greensboro in 2005 and finished his master's in organizational development with a management concentration in 2013 from Great Falls. He and his wife, Donna, have two sons, Calen and Davis, and a daughter, Cora.
