SEASON OPENER

UCF home page

UNH begins its 128th football season Aug. 29 at UCF of the Big XII. It will be the first meeting between these programs.

The Wildcats are led by third-year head coach Rick Santos, which also includes the 2019 season as interim head coach. Santos, the 2022 CAA Football Coach of the Year, has guided UNH to a 21-14 record.

For the third consecutive year, UNH senior defensive end Josiah Silver was named to the Buck Buchanan Award Preseason Watch List. The award recognizes the top defensive player in FCS football.

Grad student defensive back Wande Owens, a first-year Wildcat, was named to the Reese's Senior Bowl Watchlist.

UNH owns a 6-13 all-time record vs. FBS opponents and will face a Big XII team for the first time in program history.

On defense, there are five returning starters but seven starters from last year's finale are projected starters for the 2024 opener. That includes three defensive linemen (Josiah Silver, Dylan Ruiz, Neil Politano), a linebacker (Ryan Toscano), two safeties (Brendan Tighe, Zedane Williams) and one cornerback (Noah Stansbury).

New Hampshire has a 14-9 record in season openers in the 2000's.

UNH was picked seventh in the CAA Football predicted order of finish that was released in late July.

Last year, quarterback Max Brosmer (now with the University of Minnesota) finished as runner-up for the Walter Payton Award as the FCS offensive player of the year and running back Dylan Laube (now of the Las Vegas Raiders) placed sixth in that voting.

SEASON OPENERS: New Hampshire has a 15-9 record in season openers in the 2000's. UNH was a 51-17 winner last year at Stonehill College.

WE'RE BACK: UNH returns five starters on both offense and defense, as well as five on special teams -- the kickoff specialist, placekicker, holder, punter and kickoff returner.

The Wildcat starters back on offense are offensive linemen Dylan Poirier and Mason Davis and wide receivers Caleb Burke, Joey Corcoran and Logan Tomlinson.

The returning starters on defense are linemen Neil Politano, Flex Ruiz and Josiah Silver, as well as linebacker Ryan Toscano and cornerback Noah Stansbury.

THE 'CATS vs. FBS OPPONENTS: UNH owns a 6-13 all-time record vs. FBS opponents and will face a Big XII team for the first time in program history.

The Wildcats have lost five consecutive matchups against FBS schools since defeating Georgia Southern, 22-12, in the 2017 season.

New Hampshire won five straight games against FBS teams spanning the 2004-09 seasons. The five consecutive wins were against Rutgers, Northwestern, Marshall, Army and Ball State.

THE CAPTAINS: Five Wildcats will captain the 2024 team: offensive lineman Dylan Poirier, defensive end Josiah Silver, wide receiver Logan Tomlinson, linebacker Ryan Toscano and safety Zedane Williams. As a grad student and second-year 'Cat, Tomlinson is the only non-senior in the quintet.

100 TACKLES: Five current 'Cats have surpassed 100 career tackles. Senior linebacker and captain Ryan Toscano, who has been UNH's leading tackler each of the past two years (74 in 2023 and 72 in 2022), leads all current Wildcats with 213 career tackles.

Senior defensive end and captain Josiah Silver is next with 180 and fellow senior defensive end Flex Ruiz has also eclipsed 100 career tackles with 104.

Senior CB Noah Stansbury enters the season with 145 tackles.

Senior safety and captain Zedane Williams has made 128 career tackles.

SILVER NAMED TO BUCK BUCHANAN AWARD WATCH LIST:

For the third consecutive year, UNH senior defensive end and captain Josiah Silver was named to the Buck Buchanan Award Preseason Watch List. The award recognizes the top defensive player in FCS football.

Silver has started all 35 games in three seasons at UNH.

PAIR OF PRESEASON ALL-AMERICA SELECTIONS: Senior defensive end and captain Josiah Silver was named to the Stats Perform FCS Preseason All-America First Team as well as the Phil Steele FCS Preseason All-America Second Team.

REESE'S SENIOR BOWL WATCHLIST: Grad student defensive back Wande Owens, a first-year Wildcat, was named to the Reese's Senior Bowl Watchlist.

Owens helped lead the 2023 Yale Bulldogs to a 7-5 overall record that included 5-2 in the Ivy League. The captain ranked second on the team with 55 total tackles (42 solo, 13 assisted). Owens tied for the lead with seven pass breakups and made five tackles behind the line of scrimmage. Owens was named to both the All-Ivy First Team and All-New England Team twice at Yale.

This is the second consecutive year a Wildcat has been named to the Reese's Senior Bowl Watchlist. Dylan Laube went on to play in the game and was selected by the Las Vegas Raiders in the sixth round of the NFL Draft this past April.

The Reese's Senior Bowl is widely regarded as the preeminent college football all-star game and the first stage in the NFL Draft process. The longest continual-running all-star game has taken place in Mobile, Alabama the past 75 years.

TWO WILDCATS PICKED TO CAA PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE TEAM: Senior defensive linemen Flex Ruiz and Josiah Silver were both named to the CAA Football Preseason All-Conference Team.

CAA PRESEASON POLL: UNH placed seventh in the 16-team CAA Football predicted order of finish. Villanova topped the list and was followed by Richmond, UAlbany, William & Mary, Delaware, Elon and UNH.

BLOCK THAT KICK: In the 2023 season, UNH led FCS football in both blocked kicks (11) and blocked punts (five); included among those 11 blocked kicks were five field goal attempts and one PAT kick.

New Hampshire blocked a kick in 7 of 11 games last season.

NATIONAL LEADERBOARD: In the 2023 season, UNH led the nation in blocked kicks (11) and blocked punts (five).

The Wildcats ranked in the Top 10 in four other stats: #3 in passing offense (322.5); #7 in scoring offense (36.8); #8 in kickoff returns (24.94); and #10 in 3rd down conversion defense (.317).

The 'Cats were also in the Top 20 in four more stats: #11 in total offense; and #13 in first downs offense (227), punt returns (14.18) and punt return defense (3.33).

THE SIGNAL CALLER: UNH will have a new starting QB this season with the departure of Max Brosmer, the 2023 Walter Payton

Award runner-up (FCS offensive national player of the year), to the University of Minnesota.

Senior Seth Morgan, who joined the UNH football program in the spring 2024 semester, has been named the starting quarterback coming out of camp.

In the spring intrasquad scrimmage, Morgan completed 14 of 21 passes for 188 yards and three touchdowns (of 41, 4 and 25 yards).

Morgan started all 12 games last season at Shepherd University (Shepherdstown, W. Va.), where he had a 149.91 QB rating by completing 239 of 264 passes for 2,970 yards and 24 touchdowns; he was also intercepted 11 times.

On the Division II leaderboard, Morgan ranked 13th in the nation in passing yards, 14th in completion percentage, 15th in completions per game, 18th in passing yards per game, and 22nd in passing TDs.

Morgan's 2023 accolades included All-American Honorable Mention, All-Super Region One Second Team and all-conference First Team.

Prior to his year at Shepherd, Morgan was at VMI (Virginia Military Institute) for four years (2019-22). He threw for 4,852 yards and 28 TDs.

Sophomore Barry Kleinpeter and redshirt freshman Matt Vezza are listed as co-No. 2 on the depth chart heading into the season opener at UCF.

Kleinpeter saw action in three games a year ago and completed 1 of 5 passes for nine yards. His career stats: four games, 1-for-5, 9 yards; one rushing TD.

Veza made his debut late in the Nov. 11, 2023 game at Monmouth and completed a 38-yard TD pass to Myles Thomason with 2:18 remaining in the fourth quarter to lift UNH to a 31-24 victory.

TOP TARGETS: Dylan Laube -- last year's leader in receptions (68), receiving yards (688) and TD receptions (seven) out of the backfield as a running back -- is currently on the Las Vegas Raiders' roster.

The corps of wide receivers has plenty of experience and talent returning led by grad student and captain Logan Tomlinson as well as juniors Caleb Burke and Joey Corcoran.

Tomlinson tied atop the team leaderboard in TD catches (seven), was the leader in yards per catch (14.7) and ranked second in both receiving yards (618) and catches (42) last year, his first as a UNH Wildcat. Tomlinson had a pair of 100-yard receiving games: nine catches for 144 yards and two TDs vs. UAlbany and eight catches for 121 yards and a TD vs. Maine.

Tomlinson was a team captain at Wesleyan University in 2022 and finished the season with 72 catches for 979 yards and 10 TDs in nine games. Also of note, he received two Arthur Ashe awards for academic and athletic achievement as well as devotion to the community.

Burke finished with 34 catches for 425 yards and three TDs in 2023. He had season highs of seven catches and 84 yards vs. Towson.

Corcoran, who led the 2022 squad in receiving yards, had 30 catches for 324 yards and one TD a year ago.

Sophomores Josh Fillion and Noah Cundiff, as well as junior transfer Casey McKinney, are each listed as a backup on the depth chart.

Fillion saw action in all 11 games last year and had 13 catches for 159 yards. McKinney was at St. Francis for three seasons (2021-23); in 17 games, he had 23 catches for 322 yards and three touchdowns. McKinney also returned punts and kickoffs at St. Francis.

GROUND GAME: The graduation of Dylan Laube, who led FCS in all-purpose yards in 2022 and 2023 before going on to join the Las Vegas Raiders, leaves opportunity for junior Myles Thomason and senior Isaac Seide to see an increased role in UNH's offense this season.

Thomason ranked third on the team in all-purpose yards (506). He ranked second among running backs in rushes (48) and rushing yards (215) and had one rushing TD. Thomason also had 12 catches for 103 yards and two TDs.

Seide carried the ball 28 times for 122 yards and two TDs.

PAVING THE WAY: Only two of the five starting offensive linemen return from the 2023 season.

Senior captain Dylan Poirier (6-4, 304) will anchor New Hampshire's offensive line. Poirier, who started all 11 games at left tackle last season and has made 24 consecutive starts (25 overall starts), is shifting to the role of center in 2024.

As a mainstay in the 2023 offensive line, Poirier paved the way for UNH's offense that ranked No. 5 in the nation with a CAA-leading 37.5 points per game.

The only other returning starter is junior Mason Davis (6-3, 299). Davis started 9 of 11 games at right tackle a year ago and is slotted as this year's starting right guard.

Sophomore Beau Riley (6-7, 332), who started the last two games of the '23 season at left guard, will line up at right tackle for the 2024 opener at UCF. Riley played in 9 of 11 games overall last year.

Senior Tolu Olajide (6-5, 298) is the starting left tackle in his first year as a Wildcat. He earned All-Conference First Team honors last year and Second Team in 2022 while at Stonehill.

Sophomore Luke Swain (6-4, 315) is stepping into the left guard starting position. He saw action in three games last season.

In 2023, UNH used four different starting O-line combinations in 11 games.

BOOKEND ALL-AMERICANS: New Hampshire boasts a pair of All-Americans on defense, and both can be found at the ends of the defensive line with juniors Josiah Silver (6-2, 247) and Flex Ruiz (6-1, 260) wreaking havoc on opposing offenses.

Silver built on the success of his 2021 CAA Football Defensive Rookie of the Year award to earn four All-America Team selections in 2022.

His 2024 preseason honors include Stats Perform All-America First Team, Phil Steele All-America Second Team and CAA Football All-Conference Team.

Silver started every game in the 2023 season and finished with 23 solo stops and 20 assisted tackles for a total of 43. He led all UNH defensive linemen in those three stats and ranked fourth on the team in total tackles. Silver led all Wildcats in both tackles for loss (9.5) and sacks (five), as well as quarterback hurries (eight). He was also credited with a blocked kick.

Ruiz started all 11 games last season with 19 solo tackles and 16 assisted tackles for a total of 35, all of which ranked second among UNH defensive linemen. He ranked second on the team in both tackles for loss (eight) and sacks (four). Ruiz was also credited with a pair of quarterback hurries.

Ruiz was named to three All-America teams in 2022.

THE D-LINE: In addition to the return of All-Americans Josiah Silver and Flex Ruiz on the ends, senior Neil Politano (6-3, 300) returns as a starting defensive tackle to strengthen the trenches.

Politano, who has 24 consecutive starts and 26 career starts, recorded 17 total tackles with three tackles for loss, including two sacks, last season.

Sophomore Cameron Garner-Young is listed as a starting defensive tackle alongside Politano. He saw action in two games last season.

Junior Zach Garron (6-3, 232) and redshirt freshman Jordan Mcallister (6-3, 231) are on the 2-deep at defensive end. Garron had 17 tackles with 4.5 tackles for loss, including two sacks, a year ago. His other stats included three pass breakups, four QB hurries, a forced fumble, one fumble recovery and a blocked kick.

Junior Tim Bonagura (6-1, 290) and grad student Jacoby Sherard (6-0, 303) are the backups on the interior of the D-Line. Bonagura has 5.5 tackles for loss, including 2.5 sacks, as part of his 20 total tackles; he also has one pass breakup. Sherard comes to UNH from Shippensburg University, where he recorded 96 tackles (50-46-96) with 23 tackles for loss, 15.5 sacks, four pass breakups, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

WE'RE TALKING ABOUT LINEBACKING: UNH's defensive scheme has two linebackers on the field and there is plenty of talent to fill those two spots.

Grad student and captain Ryan Toscano and junior Brandon Perkins are the two starters. Toscano has started 31 consecutive games with 33 career starts and Perkins has two career starts.

Toscano has been UNH's top tackler each of the past two seasons with 74 last year and 72 in 2022. His other '23 stats included 4.5 tackles for loss with three sacks, as well as two pass breakups and two QB hurries. Toscano also forced a fumble and had a fumble recovery.

Perkins was credited with 24 tackles (9-15-24) and a pair of quarterback hurries; he played all 11 games with two starts.

Grad student Mateo Vandamia and true freshman Trevor Barry are next in line. Vandamia was at CAA rival Delaware for four years before coming to New Hampshire in the offseason; he made his collegiate debut against UNH in the 2019 season. Vandamia converted to linebacker (from RB) in the 2022 season. In 20 games as a linebacker, he recorded 39 tackles with seven tackles for loss and a pair of pass breakups.

STRENGTH IN SAFETY: UNH's safety corps will be strengthened by the addition of grad student Wande Owens from Yale. He has been named to the Reese's Senior Bowl Watchlist.

Owens helped lead the 2023 Yale Bulldogs to a 7-5 overall record that included 5-2 in the Ivy League. The captain ranked second on the team with 55 total tackles (42 solo, 13 assisted). Owens tied for the lead with seven pass breakups and made five tackles behind the line of scrimmage. Owens was named to both the All-Ivy First Team and All-New England Team twice at Yale.

Senior captain Zedane Williams made the transition from linebacker to safety last season and is the starting strong safety heading into the 2024 season. He ranked fifth on the team in tackles with 42 (26-16-42). Williams tied for third on the team in tackles for loss (5.5) and tied for fourth in sacks (2.5). He also had two quarterback hurries and a pass breakup.

Senior Brendan Tighe played all 11 games with two starts a year ago, when he recorded 22 tackles. Tighe's interception in the end zone in the last minute of the game secured UNH's 38-31 win against UAlbany on Oct. 14.

CORNERING: Seniors Noah Stansbury and Caleb Mead are the starting corners with classmate Jonathan Collins, Jr. and redshirt freshman Sean Webb as the backups.

Stansbury ranked third with 49 tackles (33-16-49) and also had two INTs, as well as a team-high seven pass breakups. He started all 11 games last season and has 31 career starts.

Mead recorded eight tackles, two pass breakups and a fumble recovery in 10 games; with Villanova kicking away from Dylan Laube on kickoffs, Mead had an 87-yard return for a touchdown. Mead finished with 14 kickoff returns for 305 yards (21.8 yards per return).

Collins, Jr. made 17 tackles with two pass breakups in 11 games last season.

KICKING THE BALL AROUND: Junior Nick Mazzie solidified UNH's placekicking in the 2022 season as he made 11 of 13 field goal attempts and 45 of 46 PAT kicks to rank second on the team in scoring with 78 points. His mark of 84.6% on field goal attempts ranked No. 9 in the nation.

Mazzie once again ranked second in scoring last year with 88 points. He made 14 of 20 field goal attempts, including a career long of 47 in the season opener, and 46 of 48 PAT kicks.

Fifteen of Mazzie's 73 kickoffs were been touchbacks, and the opponent's average starting position was the 27 yard line.

Senior Sean Lehane will be the primary punter for the third consecutive year. In 2023, he punted 38 times with an average of 37.7 yards per punt. He recorded four punts of 50+ yards, including a season long of 53. Lehane pinned the opponent inside the 20 yard line 13 times, and has punted into the end zone four times for a touchback.

BACK DEEP FOR THE WILDCATS: Senior Caleb Mead has been tabbed atop the depth chart as both the kickoff returner and punt returner. With opponents frequently kicking away from All-American Dylan Laube, Mead returned 14 kickoffs (Laube had 15) with an average of 21.8 yards. He had an 87-yard TD return. He did not have a punt return in his career.

IT'S A SNAP: Junior Kevin Gallic stepped into the role of long snapper in his first year as a Wildcat in 2022, reprised that role last season and will continue that in '24.

WILDCAT STADIUM: New Hampshire has a 27-13 lifetime record for a .675 winning percentage at Wildcat Stadium, which opened in the 2016 season, and that includes 19-10 (.655) against CAA opponents.

HOME SWEET HOME: Since 2008, UNH has a 69-18 home record (.793 win percentage) in Durham, which includes 48-13 (.787) against CAA conference teams.

NAME CHANGE: The CAA is now the Coastal Athletic Association (previously the Colonial Athletic Association); the name change was officially announced in July 2023.

The league will still be referred to as the CAA as the new name reflects the CAA's recent expansion, with members spanning the Atlantic coast from Maine to South Carolina.

WILDCAT SPORTS RADIO NETWORK: Wildcat Sports Properties, a property of Learfield Sports, is the multimedia rights holder for UNH Athletics. The Wildcat Sports Network consists of flagship station WGIRAM 610 (Manchester), which has been the headquarters for UNH play-by-play since 2008, as well as affiliates WQSO-FM 96.7 (Portsmouth) and WPKX-AM 930 (Rochester). Each game is streamed live online at www.unhwildcats.com. All games will be broadcast live, with the pregame show beginning 30 minutes prior to kickoff.

This is the eighth year in the UNH Football Radio booth for Justin McIsaac and second as "Voice of the Wildcats" after spending six years as the analyst. McIsaac is a three-time NSMA New Hampshire Sportscaster Of The Year. He is also the radio voice of UNH men's basketball. A life-long New Hampshire resident, McIsaac lives in Rochester, N.H. with his family. UNH football alum Brian Espanet will be joining McIsaac in the analyst role this year.

RICK SANTOSHEAD COACH

Rick Santos '08 was named the 20th head coach in UNH football history on Dec. 7, 2021. Santos, a record-setting quarterback from 2004-07 and a 2016 UNH Athletics Hall of Fame inductee, served as associate head coach and quarterbacks coach for three seasons (2019-21) in his return to the Wildcats' staff before being elevated to head coach.

In the 2023 season, UNH was the only FCS school that could boast having two players finish in the top six of the Walter Payton Award voting. Quarterback Max Brosmer finished as the runner-up while Dylan Laube, who went on to be selected by the Las Vegas Raiders in the sixth round of the 2024 NFL draft, finished sixth. Brosmer was a repeat honoree as the CAA Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

The Wildcats finished the '23 season with a 6-5 overall record that was capped by a 44-25 win against border rival Maine to retain the Brice-Cowell Musket. Two of the losses were in overtime and another was to FBS' Central Michigan by three points.

New Hampshire returned to national prominence in Santos' first year at the helm in the 2022 season, when the Wildcats won a share of the CAA title with a 7-1 conference record, advanced to the second round of the FCS playoffs and peaked at No. 15 in the national polls before finishing with a 9-4 record that marked a six-game improvement in the win column from the previous year. Three 'Cats received a total of 14 All-America Team honors in 2022 and sophomore quarterback Max Brosmer was named the CAA Football co-Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

In March 2019, Santos was hired as New Hampshire's associate head coach and quarterbacks coach, which brought him back to his alma mater in a coaching capacity for the second time. With head coach Sean McDonnell stepping aside for health reasons on Aug. 26, 2019, Santos was promoted to interim head coach.

In the 2019 season, the Wildcats finished 6-5 overall with a perfect 5-0 home record. UNH knocked off nationally-ranked teams Stony Brook and Villanova to enter the top 25 polls, and brought the Brice-Cowell Musket back to Durham by defeating Maine in the regular-season finale. That season saw the rise of Max Brosmer as the team's first true freshman to start at quarterback in more than four decades, as well as that of running back Dylan Laube, who was a HERO Sports Freshman Honorable Mention All-American.

Santos resumed the position of associate head coach/quarterbacks coach for the 2020-21 season. He also took the lead on increasing alumni engagement and enhancing fundraising initiatives, highlighted by record-setting donations secured by UNH football in April 2021 during The (603) Challenge, which is an annual University-wide fundraising drive.

In his first tenure as a Wildcat assistant coach from 2013-15, Santos coached wide receivers. In 2015, he mentored R.J. Harris to the single greatest WR statistical season in program history. Harris tallied a school-record 100 catches and led the nation with 1,551 receiving yards, which tied the program's all-time single-season benchmark. In 2013, Harris and Justin Mello became the first WR duo in school history to each register 1,000 yards in a single season.

Santos, a native of Bellingham, Mass., worked three seasons (2016-18) as the QB coach/passing game coordinator at Columbia University of the Ivy League between his two stretches as an assistant coach and associate head coach at his alma mater.

Santos, whose uniform No. 2 is one of four jerseys retired by the UNH football program, compiled a 37-14 record and directed the Wildcats to four NCAA Division I-AA/FCS playoff appearances. He guided UNH to its first-ever postseason victory at Georgia Southern (Nov. 27, 2004), was part of the 2005 Atlantic 10 championship team that was ranked No. 1 in the country, and he won two A-10 Northern Division titles (2004, 2006).

Santos passed for 13,212 yards and 123 touchdowns while accumulating 14,615 yards of total offense. The three-time Walter Camp All-American connected with UNH's all-time leading receiver and fellow University Hall of Famer David Ball for 53 touchdowns from 2004-06 to set an FCS record that still stands for most career TD connections for a QB-WR duo. Santos also owns the FCS single-game record for highest percentage of passes completed (96.2 percent) when he went 25 of 26 for 306 yards and five TDs in a 52-21 defeat of Northeastern on Oct. 22, 2005.

In 2006, Santos won the Walter Payton Award as the most outstanding offensive player in FCS football when he threw for 3,125 yards and 29 touchdowns. He was a three-time Atlantic-10/CAA Offensive Player of the Year (2005-07) and four-time All-Conference First Team QB. In 2004, he was named the ECAC Rookie of the Year, Atlantic 10 co-Rookie of the Year, set the FCS record for most yards gained by a freshman in a game (538, at Villanova, Oct. 2, 2004) and freshman TD passes in a season (31).

Santos possesses school career records in pass attempts (1,498), completions (1,024) and passing yards (12,189). He holds the top two and four of the top six single-season records in completions, headlined by 301 in 2005. His '05 season included a school all-time high 3,797 passing yards.

Following his graduation with a bachelor's degree in Kinesiology: Sport Studies with a concentration in sports management, Santos played football professionally for five years. He signed as an undrafted free agent with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2008 before moving north to play in the Canadian Football League from 2009-12.

COACHING STAFF

ED BORDEN*co-Offensive Coordinator / Tight Ends / Recruiting Coordinator*

The 2024 season will be Ed Borden's sixth as an assistant coach for the UNH football program, first as co-Offensive Coordinator and fifth year as tight ends coach; he was also named the recruiting coordinator during the staff reorganization in spring 2022.

In 2023, junior tight end Kyle Lepkowski ranked third on the team in both catches (39) and receiving yards (492).

Lepkowski was also one of the Wildcats' top targets in the 2022 season. He ranked second on the team in receiving yards (542) and third in receptions (42) to mark the most receptions by a UNH tight end since 2015 and most receiving yards since 2014.

The 2021 season saw the emergence of Lepkowski, who ranked third on the team in both receptions and receiving yards.

Prior to his current roles, Borden assisted co-offensive coordinator Michael Ferzoco with coaching wide receivers in 2019.

In 2018, Borden worked under head coach Mark Whipple at UMass as an offensive analyst for the Minutemen. He worked primarily with the team's quarterbacks.

A 2009 graduate of Bentley University, Borden also worked under Jim Fassel with the Las Vegas Locomotives of the United Football League.

DREW BELCHER*co-Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks*

Drew Belcher enters his first year as co-Offensive Coordinator, third year as QB coach and four season overall as an assistant coach with the Wildcats. Belcher became quarterbacks coach in 2022 after serving as the UNH running backs coach in his first year (2021).

In 2023, pupil Max Brosmer finished second in the voting for the Walter Payton Award, which is presented to the FCS offensive player of the year. He also earned All-America honors from the American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, Stats Perform, FCS Football Central, and Phil Steele.

Brosmer completed 294 of 459 passes for 3,464 yards and 29 touchdowns in 11 games. Those numbers rank second on UNH's list of single-season superlatives in completions, pass attempts and passing yards.

He led FCS football in two statistics: passing yards per game and total offense (325.0 yards/game). He also ranked #2 in passing yards, passing touchdowns and points responsible for per game (18.9), as well as #4 in completions per game (26.64) and points responsible for (208).

In the 2022 season, Brosmer had a breakout passing year by completing 263 of 420 passes (62.6%) for 3,157 yards and 27 TDs; those numbers ranked No. 9 in the nation in both passing yards and passing touchdowns.

In the 2021 season, UNH's top three running backs combined for 1,230 yards and six rushing TDs on 233 carries for an average of 5.3 yards per carry.

Belcher had a standout career at the University of Maine (2014-18) as a quarterback and tight end, and played one season in the NFL.

In 2019, Belcher broke into the NFL by signing an undrafted free agent contract with the Arizona Cardinals to compete for a roster spot on the squad at tight end.

At Maine, Belcher played a pivotal role in the Black Bears' historical 2018 season, which ended in the longest postseason run in program history. During that season, Maine captured the CAA championship, appeared in the FCS national semifinals, and finished the year with a No. 4 FCS national ranking. Individually in 2018, Belcher earned All-CAA Second Team honors at tight end and received the Jack Cosgrove Leadership Award.

Belcher's career accolades at Maine also included four Maine Scholar-Athlete awards and the 2016 Maine Football Strength and Conditioning Award.

Belcher graduated from Maine with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in Management.

TOMMY HERION*Running Backs*

Tommy Herion enters his second season as running back coach in 2024. He joined the staff as a student assistant coach entering the 2021 season but returned to the sidelines as a quarterback. He returned to the staff in 2022.

In 2022 and 2023, running back Dylan Laube led the FCS in all-purpose yardage.

Herion was a four-year quarterback for the Wildcats spanning the 2018-21 seasons. He came to New Hampshire as a transfer from the University of Iowa in January '18.

CHARLES WATKINS*Wide Receivers*

Charles Watkins joined the UNH football staff as a wide receivers coach in spring 2023. He was previously at St. Thomas, where he served as running backs coach for two seasons (2021-22).

He began his coaching career as the secondary coach at Coe College (Iowa) for three years (2015-17) before moving on to Southeastern Oklahoma State as wide receivers coach and academic coordinator in 2018.

Later that year, Watkins went on to serve as a grad assistant coach at Rutgers University, where his responsibilities included wide receivers and special teams. In 2019, he became defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Concordia University (Chicago).

Watkins was a wide receiver at both Wagner and then Duke, where he was a multi-time All-ACC academic selection. He also played professionally in the Arena Football League.

Watkins graduated from Duke in 2013 with a Sociology degree.

RYAN WILSON*Offensive Line*

Ryan Wilson comes to Durham from Saint Francis University, where he coached the offensive line for four years. In 2023, he mentored a pair of All-NEC First Team linemen. Wilson's offensive line ranked second in the NEC with 360.1 total yards of offense per game. The unit also paved the way for 168.6 rushing yards per game, which ranked third in the NEC.

In 2022, the Saint Francis offensive line led the NEC with an FCS 11th-ranked 13 sacks allowed. The unit paved the way for an offense that set a program record in total touchdowns (54), passing touchdowns (30) and total points (431). The team produced an NEC best 246.7 passing yards per game and second-ranked 182.2 rushing yards per game behind the line.

Wilson previously worked at the University at Buffalo where he was a graduate assistant offensive line coach. Wilson was a four-year starter for Edinboro University where he was also a two-year captain. He also has coaching stops at Utica College and the University of Rochester.

GARRETT GILICK*Associate Head Coach / Defensive Coordinator / Linebackers*

Garrett Gillick enters his 11th season on the UNH coaching staff in 2024. He was promoted to associate head coach and defensive coordinator prior to the Spring 2022 season. Gillick has been the Wildcats' linebacker coach since 2014.

In the 2022 and 2023 season, linebacker protege Ryan Toscano was the team's top tackler with 72 and 74, respectively. He also tied for the team lead in pass breakups in '22.

In the 2021 season, the young linebacking duo of Toscano and Bryce Shaw ranked 2-3 on the team in tackles with 67 and 65, respectively.

The 2019 season's linebacking unit helped UNH to the No. 2 ranking in scoring defense, total defense and pass defense efficiency, as well as No. 3 in rush defense. The two starting LBs were the top two Wildcats in tackles for loss; they also ranked 1st and 3rd in sacks as well as 1st and 5th in total tackles, and they were credited with five of the team's 11 forced fumbles. The LBs helped New Hampshire's defense to CAA conference rankings of first in pass defense, second in total defense, tied for second in sacks, and fourth in scoring defense.

In 2017, a UNH linebacker led the CAA with 124 tackles. In 2016, the LBs ranked 3-4-5 on the team in tackles and those three combined for 23 of the team's 76 tackles for loss.

Prior to coming to Durham, Gillick had a three-season stint (2011-13) at Bentley University, including two years as defensive line coach and one as secondary coach.

SCOTT JAMES*Defensive Pass Game Coordinator / Safeties*

Scott James returned to Durham in 2024 after six seasons as the defensive coordinator for Holy Cross. During his tenure in Worcester, he led a defense that was #1 in the country in total offense, he coached numerous All-Americans and won four league championships.

Prior to joining the Crusaders, James spent five seasons as the safeties coach at UNH from 2013-17. During that time, he helped the Wildcats to an overall record of 46-22 with five trips to the NCAA playoffs. New Hampshire won the Colonial Athletic Association championship in 2014, while advancing to the NCAA semifinals in 2013 and 2014. James also coached a pair of All-CAA selections in Manny Asam (2013) and Pop Lacey (2016).

Previously, James served as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of New Haven from 2009-2012, with the team posting an overall record of 34-10 during that time. In 2012, he helped the Chargers to an undefeated regular season, as they beat all of their Division II opponents for the second-straight year and claimed a third consecutive Northeast-10 Conference championship. James' defense ranked third nationally in total defense (274.4 yards/game), fourth in scoring defense (14.0 points/game) and fourth in rushing defense (81.7 yards/game).

Other coaching stops for James include time at Northeastern (2005-2007 / outside linebackers), Boston College (2003-2004 / defensive graduate assistant), Holy Cross (2002 / defensive line), Albany (2001 / defensive tackles) and Norwich (1999-2000 / defensive line).

James is a 1999 graduate of Norwich with a bachelor's degree in sports medicine. He went on to earn master's degrees from Albany in 2002 and Boston College in 2005.

RANDALL JETTE*Cornerbacks*

Randall Jette joined the UNH football staff as cornerbacks coach in spring 2023.

In the 2023 season, Noah Stansbury had a team-high seven pass breakups and ranked third on the team in tackles with 49.

Jette came to UNH from Wagner College, where he served in the role of running backs coach in 2019. Prior to Wagner, he was part of the Howard staff as quality control for the offense.

Jette was a standout cornerback at UMass, where he started 44 games spanning the 2011-15 seasons. He earned All-Mid-American Conference Second Team honors as a junior and finished his career with 210 tackles, nine interceptions and 36 pass breakups. Jette had the distinction of being named to the Jim Thorpe Award Watch List, which is awarded to the top Football Bowl Championship (FBS) defensive back.

Jette signed as an undrafted free agent with the Green Bay Packers.

He graduated from UMass in 2016 and went on to earn a Master's of Business Administration at Wagner.

MATT ELSKER*Linebackers / Special Teams / Video Coordinator*

Matt Elsker is in his ninth season coaching college football in 2024, and this will be his third year as part of the Wildcat coaching staff.

He spent 2018 and 2023 in support staff roles at UNH. In 2018, assisting the offense, and in 2023 assisting the defense and special teams.

Prior to UNH, Matt spent six seasons at Plymouth State University, where he served in a variety of roles including Video Coordinator, In-season Recruiting Coordinator, Running Backs Coach and Offensive Coordinator. During his time as OC the Panthers were one of the most well-disciplined offenses in all of Division III, having three consecutive seasons of top ten national rankings in fewest penalties, fewest penalty yards, fewest turnovers, and fewest interceptions thrown. In the 2022 season, they were also ranked as the top red zone offense in the country and top ten in fewest sacks allowed. This success led to a 9-2 season and victory in the New England Bowl.

NICK DELLA JACONO*co-Special Teams Coordinator / Strikes*

Nick Della Jacono joined the Wildcats as co-special teams coordinator, strikes in July 2024. Della Jacono previously worked at Holy Cross as defensive line coach for two seasons (2022-23) and previously in the role of defensive quality control (2020-21).

In 2023, Della Jacono mentored an All-Patriot League defensive tackle for a Crusaders team that captured their fifth consecutive conference championship.

In 2022, the Holy Cross defense ranked atop the Patriot League in total defense and scoring defense. They went 11-0 during the regular season for the third time in program history and first time since 1991, recorded the most single-season wins (12) in program history and advanced to the NCAA FCS quarterfinals for the first time since 1983.

During the 2021 season, he helped lead the nation's top defense at the FCS level, with Holy Cross allowing just 254.5 yards per game.

In 2020, Della Jacono was selected on behalf of the Chicago Bears to be a participant in the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship.
