- Freshman Mahogany Chandler-Roberts represents one of three players from the state of Oregon who earned a McDonald's All-American nomination, in addition to her selection as the reigning Portland Interscholastic League's Player of the Year after averaging 16.7 points and 8.7 rebounds for Benson Tech.

One Team, One Heartbeat

- This season the team's motto is one team, one heartbeat.
- The motto represents unity, solidarity, and collective effort within our team. It emphasizes that every individual is a vital part of the whole, contributing to a shared goal with a single, unified purpose. Just as a heartbeat symbolizes life and continuity, this phrase conveys that the team moves as one, with each member's actions synchronized and connected. The focus is on collaboration and putting the team's success above personal ambition, reinforcing that they are stronger together than apart.

- The Knights are one of three teams in the Big 12 with five or more internationals represented on their roster as Colorado leads with league with seven and Utah adds five.

Adding Height to the Roster

- Four out of the five freshmen stand at six foot or above.
- The average height of the four newcomers is six-foot-three.
- Looking at the full roster, there are a total of nine players who are six foot or taller as Coach Messer has said before she knows the Big 12 is a conference that focuses on the Bigs and that is part of her recruiting philosophy.
