UTRGV Battles to Scoreless Draw With San Jose State

Nov. 3, 2024 at Spartan Soccer Complex - The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UTRGV) Vaqueros men's soccer team battled to a scoreless draw with the San Jose State (SJSU) Spartans Saturday at the Spartan Soccer Complex in their season finale. UTRGV (4-7-5, 2-3-4) started fast as they took the first four shots of the match with two on goal. The first scoring chance came in the 18th minute as freshman Abel Ador fired a shot that was wrangled in by SJSU (4-7-7, 3-3-3) keeper Ronin Axelson. SJSU had an opportunity in the 32nd minute after a few deflections created an opening but sophomore goalkeeper Fernando Carreon made the save. The second half was played at a faster pace as both teams looked to take advantage in the match. UTRGV was the aggressor offensively early, taking a pair of shots in the first 10 minutes of the half delivered by sophomore Jaime Carillo and junior Kgodiso Sukati. Within the span of two minutes, the Vaqueros created two more opportunities as senior Jason Robles fired a shot aimed for the top of the net and then a turnover by the Spartans led to a shot by sophomore Keaviano Francis that were both saved by Axelson. When the Spartans were in possession, the Vaqueros swarmed to any threat that entered the box and only allowed one shot in the second half. The Vaqueros outshot the Spartans 13-4 and 6-2 on goal. Carreon ended the match with two saves.

UTRGV Falls at Seattle U

Oct. 31, 2024 at Championship Field - The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UTRGV) Vaqueros men's soccer team fell 3-1 to the Seattle University Redhawks on Thursday at Championship Field. The Vaqueros (4-7-4, 2-3-3 WAC) and Redhawks (9-4-3, 6-1-1 WAC) battled through a constant rain from the very first kick. It was Seattle U who came out and took control of the match early on as Mo Mohamed scored in 2nd minute giving them the 1-0 lead. The Redhawks added another goal in the 15th minute as Andre Philibbosian scored to make it 2-0. The Vaqueros defense settled down the rest of the first half as sophomore Fernando Carreon made four saves in the half. Seattle U added another goal quickly in the second half as Richy Lapointe-Guevara scored in 47th minute to make it 3-0 Redhawks. The Vaqueros had some fight in them in the final 20 minutes of the match as senior Jason Robles scored his third goal of the season in the 21st minute but the Redhawks kept them at bay the rest of the way. Carreon finished the night with six saves. The Redhawks outshot the Vaqueros 22 to 7 and 9 to 2 on goal.

UTRGV Defeats California Baptist in Home Finale

Oct. 27, 2024 at UTRGV Soccer and Track & Field Complex - The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UTRGV) Vaqueros men's soccer team picked up an impressive 2-0 victory Sunday in the home finale against the California Baptist (CBU) Lancers in a Western Athletic Conference (WAC) match at the UTRGV Soccer and Track & Field Complex. UTRGV (4-6-4, 2-2-3 WAC) didn't waste any time putting its offense on display, taking a trio of good shots in the first 15 minutes of action. The Vaqueros used their speed and passing to create scoring opportunities and took the 1-0 lead in the 22nd minute. A throw-in created traffic in the box, and sophomore forward Keaviano Francis headed the ball into the net on a feed from junior defender Kimito Fritz, who got the assist. UTRGV outshot CBU 10-1 in the first half. The lone Lancers (4-6-5, 3-3-1 WAC) shot came in the 10th minute of action, then the Vaqueros defense and consistent offensive possession prevented the visiting squad from getting on a roll during the remaining time. The Vaqueros continued to overpower the Lancers in the second half. They played fast, physical defense to stifle any offensive rhythm CBU tried to gather, holding the Lancers to two shots in the half and three overall. Francis, Fritz, freshman midfielder Abel Ador, senior forward Jason Robles and others kept UTRGV's offense pressing and in control. In the final five minutes, with the Lancers playing desperate for the equalizer, junior midfielder Cade Erickson forced a turnover that helped UTRGV put the match away. Possession flipped in favor of the Vaqueros, and McAllen native freshman forward Pablo Torre sent a long shot into the net to extend the lead to 2-0. Francis finished the match with four shots, putting two on goal including one score. Ador had three shots as UTRGV outshot the Lancers 16-3. CBU keeper Hugo Do Rego recorded three saves.

Bryheem Hancock

Head Coach

Date Named: 11/20/20 • Head Coaching Experience: 9th Season

Bryheem Hancock is the fourth head coach in NCAA Division I program history.

The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UTRGV) Department of Intercollegiate Athletics announced Bryheem Hancock, who spent the last three seasons as the head coach at Radford University, as the new head coach of the UTRGV men's soccer team on Nov. 24, 2020.

In 2024, Hancock saw his program post a 3-2-3 record at home and saw Keaviano Francis and Pablo Torre earn All-WAC honors as Francis was named to the All-WAC Second Team and Torre was named to the WAC All-Freshman Team.

In his fourth season, Hancock saw his program post a 4-2 record at home with a couple of wins over Xavier and UNLV. Hancock also saw Bryant Farkarlun earn All-WAC First Team honors and Keaviano Francis be named to the All-WAC Freshman Team.

In 2022, Hancock guided the program to a 7-7-3 record with wins against Bryant, Omaha, UNLV, California Baptist, and Grand Canyon. Hancock saw his team post a 6-2-2 record at home which included a three-match win streak to close out the season.

Under Hancock's guidance, Yusuf Cueceoglu earned All-WAC Second Team honors.

In his second season at the helm, Hancock guided the program to an 8-9 record while clinching a spot in the Western Athletic Conference Tournament for the second-straight season.

Under his watch, Reshawn Walkes was named to the All-WAC Second Team while Jan Engels was named to the COSIDA Academic All-District Team.

In his first season with the program, Hancock helped the Vaqueros to their first-ever United Soccer Coaches Top-25 ranking while earning the second seed in the Western Athletic Conference Tournament.

Hancock guided William Akio to WAC Offensive Player of the Year and All-WAC First Team honors while seeing Elyad Shojaei earn First Team All-WAC honors, Reshaun Walkes, Moiad Ankir, and Trevor Schneider earn All-WAC Second Team honors, Jan Engels earn Honorable Mention All-WAC, and Javier Chavez named to the All-WAC Freshman Team.

Hancock's defense led the WAC in fewest goals allowed (9) while posting the WAC's best goals against average (0.86).

In 2019, Hancock guided Radford to its 25th consecutive appearance in the Big South Tournament, which is the longest streak of any program in the Big South. Hancock coached Victor Valls and Octavio Ocampo to Second Team All-Big South honors while Ocampo and Mouhameth Thiam were named to the All-Freshman Team.

Hancock led Radford to a second-place finish in the Big South in 2018 and helped the program reach the semifinals of the Big South Tournament for the seventh time. Hancock saw his team earn nine postseason conference awards, including freshman Macky Diop earning Big South Freshman of the Year, All-Big South First Team and United Soccer Coaches All-South Region Third Team honors.

In his first season at the helm, Hancock led Radford to a 10-win season, including five wins in Big South play, and its sixth consecutive appearance in the semifinals of the Big South Tournament. Hancock's offense ranked eighth in the nation in goals (2.11) and 10th in points (6.28) per match. Hancock also coached Keiran Roberts to Big South Attacking Player of the Year and Fraser Colmer to Co-Defensive Player of the Year honors. Overall, his team earned nine all-conference honors.

Prior to his time at Radford, Hancock spent eight seasons as an assistant coach at the University of South Florida (USF) where he helped the team finish with double-digit wins in five seasons while advancing to the NCAA Tournament seven times.

Under Hancock's guidance, USF's Jeff Attinella was named the Big East Goalkeeper of the Year and was also named to the National Soccer Coaches Association of American All-American First Team.

Hancock played collegiately at the University of Connecticut, where he guided the Huskies to four NCAA Tournament appearances, two Final Four appearances, and the 2000 NCAA National Championship. As a senior, Hancock was named Big East Goalkeeper of the Year and an NSCAA All-American.

Hancock graduated from UConn in 2001 with a Bachelor of Science in Communications.

Hancock was the first goalkeeper selected in the 2001 Major League Soccer Draft, getting picked by the L.A. Galaxy before playing with the Atlanta Silverbacks and Toronto Lynx.
