CREDENTIALS
 Media wishing to cover UCF volleyball during the 2025 season can submit credential requests by reaching to Alex Clough at aclough@athletics.ucf.edu. Credentials are non-transferrable. The UCF Athletics Strategic Communications office reserves the right to revoke any credential: (1) used by an individual other than the one to whom it was granted; and (2) any individual who refuses to comply with media and/or photography guidelines. UCF Athletics reserves the right to refuse, revoke or terminate a credential at any time. Media will call at The Venue is located at the ticket office on East Plaza Dr. It will open one hour prior to the match.

PARKING
 Media members covering UCF volleyball games park in Garage F, located directly north of Addition Financial Arena, between the arena and John Euliano Park. Parking passes will be emailed to credentialed media that are valid for the entire season.

POSTGAME PRESS CONFERENCE
 Postgame press conferences with head coach Johnny Dawkins and select student-athletes will be held following every game in the media room at Addition Financial Arena. The media room is located in the west hallway, directly next to the media work room. Specific player requests can be made to Ken Landis approximately 10 minutes prior to the end of the second half via email.

After a historic 11 seasons at FGCU, Matt Botsford embarks on his first season leading UCF volleyball... Among the winningest active coaches in the nation, Botsford led the Eagles to a combined 11 Atlantic Sun titles and five NCAA tournament appearances, all while becoming the most successful head coach in FGCU history... .773 (266-78) ranks ninth among active head coaches in career winning percentage... In the four seasons prior to his arrival, Botsford and the Eagles claimed a combined seven conference titles and advanced to the NCAA second round in 2021.

RETURNERS

In the modern era of college athletics, retaining key pieces after staff changes proves vital to a team's competitiveness. For head coach Matt Botsford, UCF's kills and assists leader will return to the fold, reaffirming their belief in the reimagining of the program. Here are the six Knights who will be suiting up in Black and Gold once again:

#1 Abby Schomers / S / R-Jr. / Omaha, Nebraska / 4th Year at UCF

Schomers has served as the setter for UCF in each of its first two campaigns in the Big 12 and will be instrumental for the squad both on and off the court. With over 2,000 career assists to her name, she became the ninth Knight in program history to surpass 1,000 assists in a season (2023). The longest tenured Knight on the roster, Schomers will play under her third staff and has maintained her belief in what the program can achieve, taking on a leadership role to transition into another era. Since taking over the reins as UCF's setter ahead of the 2023 season, Schomers has not missed a match, serving as a reliable figure for the squad.

#3 Sasha Cohen / MB / R-So. / Lakewood, Colorado / 3rd Year at UCF

After redshirting in 2023, Cohen produced a solid debut season with the Knights, ranking among the top five in multiple areas. She was one of six Knights to tally triple-digit kills, ranking fifth with 184. Among players with 400 or more attempts, Cohen was second on the team with a .234 hitting percentage. The Colorado native made her presence known at the net with 71 total blocks, the second-most by a Knight in 2024. Paired with a consistent attacking ability, Cohen finished the season with the fourth-most points on the team and the second-most by a returner (233.5).

#4 Megan Holland / MB / R-Jr. / Nazareth, Pennsylvania / 3rd Year at UCF

Holland featured throughout spells of 2024, providing support for the Knights at the net. The South Carolina transfer didn't play for UCF in 2023, but showed signs of what's to come with four multi-kill performances with limited attempts. In just nine contests, the Pennsylvania transfer tallied 15 total blocks and 12 kills.

#6 Mya Ball / S / So. / Angola, Indiana / 2nd Year at UCF

As a true freshman, Ball appeared in 10 matches for the Knights while shadowing Schomers. With limited playing time, she was impactful when on the floor with 102 assists. A prominent run of contests saw the Indiana native tally a combined 63 assists in three matches against Colorado, West Virginia and Kansas. She produced five outings with double-digit assists while totaling 27 digs. In 2025, she will be one of three setters on the roster, joining the aforementioned Schomers and freshman Mikayla Porter.

#7 Sophia Kotsovolos / L / Sr. / Tampa, Florida / 2nd Year at UCF

In her first season with the Knights in 2024, Kotsovolos played in 18 matches while recording 89 digs and seven service aces. Before returning to the Sunshine State, she was a standout player at Gardner-Webb and was named the Big South Defensive Player of the Year and secured a spot on the All-Conference First Team. She secured three double-digit digs performances last season, including a prominent contest at Florida Atlantic, where she notched 13. In her career, Kotsovolos sits at 912 career digs and 66 service aces. She will be one of four liberos on the roster as the staff welcomes in a trio of freshmen to bolster the position.

#10 Avah Armour / OH / Jr. / Manitou Springs, Florida / 3rd Year at UCF

The junior has been a staple in the Knights' attack over her first two seasons, leading the squad in 2024 with 277 kills after an impressive freshman campaign saw her tally 226. Armour was recently named to the Big 12 Volleyball Preseason Team (one of 18 athletes). Having led UCF in kills per set (3.26), attempts (872) and points (324.5), she will be a welcome returnee for Botsford as he will look to add around the third-year Knight.

TRANSFERS

An already established returning group will be complemented with an exciting group of transfers. Headlined by a pair of former Eagles who will join head coach Matt Botsford in Orlando, each will make an instant impact for the squad ahead of the 2025 season. Based on their 2024 stats, the four transfers totaled 1,071 kills, 268 blocks and 1,328 points. Northwestern State's Reagan Thompson and Orlando native Fallon Stewart (Cincinnati) will be among five outside hitters on the roster. Here are the four Knights who will be making their debuts in Black and Gold:

#5 Fallon Stewart / OH / So. / Winter Park, Florida / Cincinnati

After one of the more productive freshman campaigns in the Big 12 a season ago at Cincinnati, Stewart will return home. The Winter Park native had a prolific career in high school, being named a finalist for the Florida Volleyball Gatorade Player of the Year for a dominating senior campaign. In her first collegiate season with the Bearcats, she appeared in all 29 matches and concluded the season with an even 200 kills. A career-match against Xavier included 16 kills and 16.5 points.

#8 Ella Chapman / MB / Jr. / Greensburg, Indiana / FGCU

The first of two former Eagles who made the jump with Botsford to Orlando, Chapman enjoyed a brilliant sophomore campaign in 2024. Building upon a strong debut campaign, which saw her named Atlantic Sun Freshman of the Year, the Indiana native tallied 167 kills to complement a dominating 116 total blocks on the net. Chapman averaged more than a block per set (1.02) while pacing her team in each blocking category.

#14 Reagan Thompson / OH / Sr. / Kemah, Texas / Northwestern State

One of the premier players in the Southland Conference over the past three years with Northwestern State, Thompson will join her former head coach Sean Kiracofe, who will serve as an assistant with the Knights. After playing as a middle blocker in her first two collegiate campaigns, the Texas native shifted to outside hitter in 2024 and didn't miss a step, leading the Demons in kills with 312. Combining her talents across the court, Thompson was the only player in the conference to rank among the top 10 in kills per set (3.51), points per set (4.08) and digs per set (3.29).

#18 Skylar English / OH / 5th / Naples, Florida / FGCU

Throughout a dominating four-year stretch for Botsford and the Eagles, English was at the forefront of their display that claimed a combined seven Atlantic Sun regular season and tournament titles, along with four trips to the NCAA tournament. Her career totals are highlighted by 916 kills (2.54 per set), 172 service aces, 603 digs and 224 total blocks. In 2024, she ranked second in the NCAA with 0.64 aces per set and third with 75 aces.

FRESHMAN

Fresh faces will be a staple of the 2025 UCF volleyball team, both on the court and among the staff. With head coach Matt Botsford embarking on his first season leading the Knights, he will be joined by five athletes beginning their collegiate journey. Three liberos, a setter, and an outside hitter will each bolster the depth within the squad, as the staff has assembled a very balanced roster with both experience and new energy. Here are the five Knights who will be commencing their collegiate journey this season with the Knights:

#2 Sarah Mendoza / L / Fr. / Bedford, Texas / Colleyville Heritage High School

One of two Texas natives (Reagan Thompson) to join the Black and Gold this offseason, Mendoza enjoyed a prolific career at Colleyville Heritage High School. With 1,400 career digs to her name, she ranked as the fourth overall libero and among the top-50 overall players in the state.

#9 Alexa Haley / L / Fr. / Naples, Florida / Seacrest Country Day School

As one of the premier liberos out of the Sunshine State, Haley was instrumental in a Seacrest Country Day team that claimed four consecutive state titles. Originally committed to FGCU with the goal of playing for Botsford, Haley joined the first-year UCF head coach and will bring a winning attitude to the roster.

#11 Reese Moore / DS/L / Fr. / Franklin, Tennessee / Franklin High School

Moore signed with the Knights in November of last year after a strong career at Franklin High School. Recognized as her high school's high team MVP, she was named 2024 AAU All-American and earned spots on the 2023 District All-Tournament Team and the 2024 All-District Team.

#12 Nygeria Hart / OH / Fr. / Port Charlotte, Florida / Port Charlotte High School

A four-year varsity player at Port Charlotte High School, Hart tallied over 1,000 career kills and was dubbed team MVP three consecutive years. In her class, she ranked 11th in total kills in the state of Florida, while also showing strong defensive instincts with 719 digs.

#20 Mikayla Porter / S / Fr. / Deerfield

A prominent setter from St. Thomas Aquinas in Deerfield Beach, Florida, Porter was named MVP by the Florida Athletic Coaches Association for the 2024 season. The Knight helped lead her team to two state championships and also received multiple other honors, including AVCA High School All-American 2nd Team, AVCA High School All-Region and All-County 7a-6a first team.

THE BOTSFORD FILE

Hometown	--
College	Tri-State, 1998

Matt Botsford, ranked ninth nationally among active Division I coaches in career winning percentage, was named UCF volleyball's 10th head coach by Vice President and Director of Athletics Terry Mohajir.

Botsford spent the past 11 seasons at Florida Gulf Coast where he led the Eagles to four consecutive Atlantic Sun Conference Championships, including four consecutive, and five NCAA tournament appearances. He also guided the Eagles to their first NCAA First Round win (in its first appearance) in 2018.

In Botsford's tenure as a head coach, he has accumulated a 263-78 (.771) career record and was recently named the 2024 America Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Southeast Region Coach of the Year. He has taken the FGCU program to heights it has not seen in the Division I era (2007-present), registering at least 20 wins in nine of the past 10 seasons (excluding COVID 2020) and at least 10 wins in conference play every year.

The Eagles finished the 2024 season with a 27-5 record and ranked third in the NCAA for aces per set (2.11). Botsford's squad tallied 263 aces throughout the season, which ranked sixth in the nation.

FGCU made its fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament after cruising through ASUN conference play with a 15-1 record. His squad led the conference in nearly every statistic, including kills per set (13.66), hitting percentage (.263) and opponent hitting percentage (.168).

In his 11 seasons at FGCU, he garnered three ASUN Coach of the Year honors and mentored a total of 61 players that have earned ASUN All-Conference awards, including seven players tabbed ASUN Player of the Year. Additionally, seven have earned AVCA All-Region selections and three All-America honors.

In 2017, Botsford's first recruit, Amanda Carroll, became the program's first AVCA First Team All-Region selection, while also garnering First Team All-ASUN, ASUN Co-Player of the Year, ASUN Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year and CoSIDA Academic All-District recognition. Snowy Burnam, who also played beach volleyball, became just the second player in NCAA history to be named her conference's freshman of the year in both indoor and beach volleyball.

Botsford, who played at Tri-State University (now Trine University) from 1995-98, has served as an assistant coach at five different collegiate institutions, with the most recent occurring at Colorado State University from May 2012 to February 2014. While there, he helped lead the Rams to two consecutive conference championships and NCAA Tournament berths. On top of that, the program also recorded a program-best 27 consecutive wins in 2013.

Before his time at Colorado State, Botsford was the recruiting coordinator and assistant coach at Notre Dame and Miami, in addition to stints at IUPUI and the University of Indianapolis. Furthermore, he served as an interim head coach at his alma mater at the age of 21 and has international and national coaching experience.

Botsford was the lead recruiter at Notre Dame from February 2008 until July 2011, and his 2010 and 2011 classes were ranked 13th and 15th, respectively, nationally by media outlets. The Fighting Irish advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2009 after winning the Big East title and going undefeated through the conference schedule (14-0). In total, he coached two All-Americans and six All-Big East performers – including the 2010 Big East Freshman of the Year Andrea McHugh – during his time in South Bend.

Prior to his three plus years at Notre Dame, Botsford cultivated relationships with players and coaches throughout Florida, as he served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Miami for nearly four years from June 2004 to February 2008. He helped solidify two of the highest-ranked recruiting classes in the relatively short history of the program, signing at least one top-100 rated player in each of his final three years and the first top-50 recruit for the Hurricanes.

During his time with Miami, Botsford coached two All-Americans and five All-ACC players. In addition, he recruited Lane Carico, who was named the 2011 ACC Player of the Year. Carico supplemented a core group of starters Botsford recruited who led Miami to three straight appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

Botsford got his start in coaching by serving as the interim head coach for both the men's and women's volleyball programs at Tri-State from November 1998 through June 1999. He parlayed his experience in those roles into an assistant position at the University of Indianapolis where he was for one year (June 1999 - May 2000). His final stop before heading to the University of Miami was as an assistant at IUPUI from May 2001 until June 2004, coaching two-time Mid-Continent Conference Player of the Year Rebekah Pallikan.

Outside of the collegiate landscape, Botsford also has a vast array of experience. In the year between his stints at Notre Dame and Colorado State, he was the head coach of Lindesberg Volley as part of Sweden's Elite Series, leading the club to a first-ever league title and automatic representation in European Cup play. While with Lindesberg Volley from August 2011 through May 2012, he coached four players who went on to play for Sweden's National Team.

The foray into Sweden wasn't the first for Botsford as he played professionally with the Vingaker Volleyball Club in the country in 2002-03, the final of his three professional stints. In the collegiate offseason, he also played from 1998-2003 on beach tours with both the MPVA and the EVP, the latter of which named him the league's Rookie of the Year in 2000.

Botsford was selected as an assistant coach for the 2007 USA Select Program, which trains elite volleyball players in preparation for the U.S. National Team. In his one year as part of the program, Botsford guided his team to a bronze medal in the HP Global Championships as the head coach of the USA Silver team.

Botsford was a two-year captain at Tri-State and graduated with a degree in social studies education and a minor in general science. Botsford was a two-year captain who graduated and was the program's all-time leader in kills, digs and blocks when he graduated. He was named an All-American Scholar Athlete as a senior and was inducted into the Tri-State Hall of Fame in 2006. He received a master's degree in business administration from the University of Indianapolis in 2004.

Botsford and his wife, Lindsey, have a daughter, Harper and a son, Cache.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

2024-pres.	UCF	Associate Head Coach
2020-24	FGCU	Associate Head Coach
2017-20	Mercer	Assistant Coach

Kate Morrell, a former professional volleyball player with nine years of coaching experience, will serve as UCF volleyball's associate head coach.

Morrell joins the Knights after completing a five-year standout run as FGCU's associate head coach alongside Botsford. Together, the duo produced 120 program wins with four NCAA Tournament appearances. In 2023, Morrell contributed to the team's 26-7 record with a 15-1 conference mark. She also helped the Eagles clinch both the regular season and conference titles, allowing the squad to qualify for the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in program history.

Her tenure with Botsford at FGCU led the Eagles to several historical milestones, including an exceptional 2021 season where they tied a program record for wins with 27, captured the Atlantic Sun (ASUN) Championship, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Second Round for the first time in program history, where they faced eventual national champion Wisconsin.

Prior to FGCU, Morrell served as an assistant coach for three years at Mercer University where she worked with both the beach and indoor programs. There, she held coaching responsibilities for the beach program while also training and recruiting indoor players. In her time recruiting, two of Morrell's players earned Southern Conference all-freshman team honors in 2018 eventually both earning a spot on the 2019 Southern Conference all-tournament team.

Morrell initially got her coaching start in June 2016 at Texas One Volleyball where she held the title of Master Coach until May 2017.

Before becoming a coach, Morrell played as an outside hitter at UAB after a one-year stint at Hutchinson Community College. In her time at UAB, she was a member of both the school's indoor and beach programs, a three-year letterwinner, and in 2012-13 was named team captain and then named to the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll. Morrell followed up her collegiate career with a successful professional career that allowed her to compete in places such as the Philippines, Switzerland and the Netherlands.

2008-10	Montana State	Assistant Coach
2003-08	SMU	Assistant Coach
2002-03	UTEP	Assistant Coach

Sean Kiracofe, a 10-year head coaching veteran, joins the program as an assistant coach.

He spent the previous 10 seasons as the head coach at Northwestern State, where he was the longest-tenured coach in volleyball history. During the 2022 season, he became the program record holder for career wins and earned his 100th career victory in a 3-0 sweep of Grambling on Sept. 12, 2023.

The Demons recorded their fifth season with a .500 or better record during conference play under Kiracofe in Southland Conference play during the 2023 season, the most by one coach in program history. They earned their seventh trip to the Southland Conference Tournament in nine seasons that year.

Kiracofe's wealth of knowledge as a blocker helped NSU produce six of the top 10 blocking seasons during his tenure. In 2021, Jaylibeth Garcia-Rosa produced the eighth-highest single-season mark at the time in total blocks with 99. A year later, the freshman duo of Reaghan Thompson and Jordan Gamble became the first teammates to record 100 or more blocks in a single season in school history.

Kiracofe became the 14th head coach in NSU program history on April 7, 2015. He brought a decorated resume to the position, having coached at SMU, UNLV, Montana State and UTEP in a career that has spanned more than a decade.

A native Texan, Kiracofe helped lead SMU to a 48-14 record in his final two seasons in Dallas and coached a pair of first-team all-conference middle blockers. Under his direction, SMU's Caroline Young was a three-time, first-team all-conference selection and an honorable mention All-American.

Kiracofe is a 1999 graduate of Texas Tech with a bachelor of arts in political science and a minor in history. He was a four-year starter and a two-year captain for the Red Raiders club team, which he helped lead to top-25 rankings in 1998 and 1999.

He and his wife, Kerri, have two children – a son, Walker, and a daughter, Reese.

Trevor Kennan, who spent the last three seasons with the Virginia volleyball program, joins the staff as assistant coach.

Kennan started his coaching career with UVA in the 2022-23 season as a volunteer assistant coach and not long after was promoted to assistant coach in August 2023. During his time with the Cavaliers, the program won 44 matches. Most recently he helped guide the team to the National Invitational Volleyball Championship in the 2024-25 season, after compiling a 21-11 record.

A three-sport athlete in high school, Kennan pursued an athletic career in volleyball with George Mason. After four years with the team, Kennan graduated with a bachelor's degree in sports management and a minor in coaching in 2022.

The Redington Beach native finds himself back in the Sunshine State to continue his collegiate coaching career.

Quick Facts

- One of the elite volleyball-only facilities in the nation, The Venue at UCF seats 2,000 fans for volleyball matches and is located on the north side of campus. Formerly the UCF Arena, the facility was completely renovated and re-opened in April 2008 as an 87,000-square foot multi-purpose, air-conditioned facility.

- The 31,000-square-foot first floor at The Venue contains locker rooms, player lounges and an equipment room. From the locker room, student-athletes have access to a state-of-the-art sports medicine facility located inside Addition Financial Arena.
- A 2,000-square foot weight room is also located on the first floor. The weight room provides the Knights with access to free weight and machine equipment, cardio and treadmills.

- The second level contains spacious office and meeting space for the women's volleyball and men's and women's basketball staffs.
- The UCF volleyball team opened The Venue on Sept. 2, 2008, when it hosted eventual NCAA national-runner up, Stanford, in front of a record-breaking crowd of 1,568 fans. The capacity crowd in attendance helped the Knights honor members of UCF's 1978 AIAW national championship squad with a banner-dropping ceremony.

University of Central Florida

The University of Central Florida is a metropolitan research university located in Orlando, one of the most visited cities in the world. UCF benefits from faculty and staff who create a welcoming environment, a high quality of life, and opportunities to grow, learn and succeed.

UCF's main campus is 13 miles east of downtown Orlando and adjacent to one of the top research parks in the nation. The university also has an accredited College of Medicine in the Medical City at Lake Nona, Rosen College of Hospitality Management located off International Drive, a campus in downtown Orlando and UCF Connect locations throughout Central Florida.

With nearly 70,000 students, UCF is the largest university by enrollment in Florida and one of the largest universities in the nation. It has more than 13,000 employees and an operating budget of $2 billion. UCF researchers received $229 million in fiscal year 2024 for funded research. In Fall 2024, the freshman class had an average SAT combined score of 1342, the Burnett Honors College enrolled 506 new students, and the number of incoming National Merit Scholars ranked UCF among the top 25 colleges and universities.

The university offers 111 bachelor's, 98 master's, 33 research doctorates, 3 professional doctorates and 3 specialist degree programs, and it leads all universities in Florida in conferring more than 18,000 degrees a year. UCF is committed to innovative community partnerships, world-class research with local impact, and the integration of technology and learning.

Alexander
Cartwright

President / Fifth Year at UCF

Alexander N. Cartwright, Ph.D., UCF's sixth president, is an internationally recognized researcher and scholar in the area of optical sensors, with more than 20 years of higher education leadership experience. He is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, SPIE, and the National Academy of Inventors.

Under Dr. Cartwright's leadership, UCF is growing as Florida's Premier Engineering and Technology University — a place where ambition turns into action and knowledge transforms into breakthroughs. With imagination and collaboration, UCF is boldly inventing the future by advancing industries and technologies that move the world forward. Already recognized as one of the nation's most innovative universities, UCF is committed to academic and research excellence that unleashes the potential of students, faculty, employees, and the community.

As a first-generation college student whose journey to higher education was not traditional, Dr. Cartwright prioritizes creating pathways to student success.

Terry
Mohajir

Athletics Director / Fifth Year at UCF

Terry Mohajir serves as UCF's Vice President and Director of Athletics, where he has demonstrated exceptional leadership in hiring championship-caliber coaches, securing funding for state-of-the-art facilities, and establishing resources that enable UCF's student-athletes to thrive both on and off the field. Under his leadership, UCF guarantees job placement or graduate school admission for every graduating student-athlete — an unparalleled commitment in today's collegiate athletics landscape.

Under Mohajir's leadership, UCF Athletics has raised $157.6 million in gifts and commitments (as of January 2025), including four historic pledges of $5 million or more. These efforts reflect an ambitious fundraising strategy, highlighted by $21 million in major charitable pledge commitments, more than 500 major gifts, and surpassing 420 members in the Shareholders Society. Licensing revenue has also reached new heights, growing from $650,000 pre-COVID (FY20) to over $1 million in FY24, further bolstering the department's financial stability.

5	236-34	.795

UCF HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2006

Lucy McDaniel was the first coach in UCF women's volleyball history and can be credited with five of the most dominant seasons in UCF athletics history from 1975-79. During her tenure she guided the Knights to an impressive 236-34 (.795) mark.

She coached some of the best teams in school history, including the 1978 squad that finished a perfect 55-0 and captured the AIAW Small College National Championship. The 1977 team (56-6) and the 1979 club (54-5) also reached the AIAW Small College Championship games.

McDaniel has the most victories in school history and owns the best winning percentage of any UCF volleyball coach. She also formed and coached UCF's first softball team in 1975 and led the team through the 1978 season, registering nearly 100 wins.

Min. 500 Attempts

>> McKenna Melville in the Knights' 2021 NCAA Second Round bout at UCLA. She is the only player in program history to lead UCF in kills in five consecutive seasons.

>> Anne-Marie Watson was a key figure in the squad's 2018-21 squads that made runs to the NCAA tournament. She is one of six players to feature in 150 or more matches for the Knights.

>> Sasha Cohen is a premier return for the Knights in 2025, she was fifth on the team in kills and second in blocks. The Colorado native will hope to have another impact season.
