Sun Belt Conference

2023-present

The UCF men's soccer team enjoyed significant and immediate success throughout the program's inaugural season in the Sun Belt Conference in the fall of 2023. Joining Kentucky, South Carolina and West Virginia as men's soccer-only members, the Knights recorded their third 10-plus-win season under head coach Scott Calabrese, and earned hosting honors for the 2023 Sun Belt Conference Men's Soccer Championship as a top two seed, as well as the second round of the NCAA Tournament, representing the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since the 2020-21 campaign.

After beginning the season unranked in the United Soccer Coaches' preseason poll, the Knights made a statement in their season-opener, downing the then-No. 9 and eventual national champion Clemson Tigers by a 2-1 final score on the road. The top 10 win aided the Knights in becoming a ranked squad for the remainder of the season, later earning the first No. 1 national ranking in a regular-season poll in UCF Athletics history.

For their efforts during the season, the Knights were duly recognized in their first post-season conference awards as members of the Sun Belt. Calabrese was named Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, sophomore Clarence Awoudor earned conference Newcomer of the Year honors, and freshman Saku Heiskanen garnered conference Freshman of the Year recognition. Lucca Dourado and Zane Bubb were both tabbed to the Sun Belt's All-Conference First Team, while Heiskanen, AJ Seals and Anderson Rosa were all added to the Sun Belt's All-Conference Second Team as well.

American Athletic Conference

2013-2022 (10 seasons)

The Knights enjoyed massive success as part of The American, reaching the conference final in five of their final six seasons in the league. The Black and Gold earned three regular seasons titles and one tournament championship as members of The American. In total, UCF qualified for the conference's postseason tournament in nine straight seasons, only missing the 2022 postseason by two points.

Three of UCF's NCAA Tournament appearances came while in The American, qualifying in 2018, 2019 and 2020. The Knights punched their first ticket into the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16 in 2019, and then did the same for the 2020 tournament, which was held in the spring of 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Plenty of Knights stood out in UCF's time in The American. A member of the Black and Gold was named Offensive Player of the Year six times out of the team's 10 years in the league. Matias Pyssalo and Cal Jennings won the honor twice while Romario Williams and Hadji Barry were honored once each. UCF collected three Midfielder of the Year honors and three Goalkeeper of the Year awards; Oetli collected all three goalkeeping honors while Yoni Sorokin took two of the three midfielder awards along with Louis Perez who won the other. Gino Vivi was honored as UCF's lone Freshman of the Year award, earning the nod in 2019.

The Black and Gold had 11 First Team All-Conference honorees, including nine that were named on the top squad multiple times. In total, UCF earned 36 nods to the All-Conference First or Second Teams while 16 rookies graced the All-Freshman Team while in The American.

Conference USA

2005-2012 (8 seasons)

UCF had a new conference and a new head coach for the 2005 season. Brent Erwin and the Knights went 13-17-3 over their first two seasons as members of Conference USA. Fast forward to UCF's sixth season in the league, fourth year head coach Bryan Cunningham led UCF to its first NCAA Tournament appearance as members of C-USA, winning 12 matches with a 12-5-3 record. The team followed suit the next year, winning a dozen games again and making the NCAA Tournament second round for the second straight year.

The Knights won 32 matches in their final three seasons as part of C-USA, more than first five seasons in the league combined. The Black and Gold won no major honors as C-USA members, but saw nine nods to the All-Conference First Team and a total of 30 nods across the First, Second, Third and Freshman Teams.

Atlantic Sun Conference

1993-2004 (12 seasons)

After making the D-I jump in 1984, the Black and Gold didn't join their first Division I conference until 1993. Despite going 4-10-1 in their first year in a conference, the Knights made the A-Sun Semifinals in just their second year as part of the A-Sun. The Knights found success quickly and carried that momentum with them throughout their time in the A-Sun, tallying eight appearances in the conference tournament in 12 total seasons.

The Knights finished their time in the A-Sun on a high note, winning the tournament championship in three consecutive seasons from 2002-04. The championship runs led to UCF's first three NCAA Tournament appearances. The Black and Gold were turned away from their first NCAA Tournament victory in their first two tries by FIU, but were able to beat the Panthers in 2004 for the program's first tournament win.

Three Knights earned four major honors during the program's tenure in the A-Sun. Heikki Ritvanen scored 88 career goals from 1996-99, UCF's most in program history, and was honored as the A-Sun's Player of the Year in 1999. Alejandro Gessen was named Freshman of the Year while Ryan McIntosh was a two-time Defensive Player of the Year. In all, 54 nods were recieved to the A-Sun First, Second, Third and Freshmen Teams in UCF's 12 years in the league.

THE STAFF

2025 UCF MEN'S SOCCER

Through two seasons as members of the Sun Belt Conference, UCF men's soccer head coach Scott Calabrese has firmly entrenched his squad within the upper echelon of the program's new league.

The Knights in 2024 concluded their second campaign with at least seven wins since joining the Sun Belt prior to the 2023 season, and in just two years in the conference have accumulated one MLS SuperDraft selection (Anderson Rosa), three major conference post-season award winners (Calabrese - 2023 Coach of the Year; Clarence Awoudor - 2023 Newcomer of the Year; Saku Heiskanen - 2023 Freshman of the Year), seven All-Conference selections, four United Soccer Coaches All-Region appointments, and two top-three regular-season conference finishes.

UCF has also demonstrated its ability to compete with the nation's best in that span, going undefeated in four of its eight contests against ranked opponents with each match finishing with a score margin of two or fewer goals.

On the heels of the team's seven-win 2024 slate, UCF boasts an aggregate .609 win percentage in its first two seasons in the Sun Belt, accompanied by a dominant 10-4-2 mark in 2023 that saw the Black and Gold, most notably, earn the first national No. 1 ranking, and later unanimous national No. 1 ranking, in a regular-season poll of any athletics program in school history.

The Knights' depth was on display throughout the fall '24 campaign, as 13 different players scored at least one goal, highlighted by a pair of braces by players in their first collegiate seasons and a hat trick by one of the more prolific goal-scorers in program history, Lucca Dourado.

Dourado and fellow senior Jonas Fritschi both earned in-season league honors as well, garnering Sun Belt Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week for their efforts in UCF's 4-0 win over South Carolina on Senior Night. The pair joined Zane Bubbs, Juanvi Muñoz and Robbie Soronellas as the fourth and fifth players in the last two seasons to be recognized in the league's weekly honors.

Calabrese, who played a pivotal role in bringing Dourado and Rosa to Orlando prior to their respective collegiate debuts in the 2020-21 season, saw Rosa complete his college career without missing a single match. The defender finished the 2024 season as the program's all-time leader in career games played, appearing in each of the Knights' 76 matches over his five seasons.

The Knights kicked off their inaugural season in the Sun Belt in 2023 with an immediate statement victory, toppling the eventual 2023 National Champion and then-No. 9 Clemson Tigers on the road in their Aug. 24 season-opener by a 2-1 final score.

The winning effort, coupled with UCF's 4-0-2 start overall, would help vault the Knights into the United Soccer Coaches national rankings from week one through the end of the season.

En route to earning the program's first NCAA Tournament berth since the 2020-21 season, the Black and Gold also earned ranked draws with then-No. 4 West Virginia (2-2) and then-No. 11 FIU (2-2) before rattling off a season long six-game win streak Sept. 29-Oct. 27. Rosa aided in keeping his program within national headlines even after the conclusion of the season, when he became the 13th in program history to be selected in the MLS SuperDraft with his second-round selection by the Colorado Rapids Dec. 19, 2023. He was also the sixth to be drafted in Calabrese's UCF tenure, joining Gino Vivi (2023, LA Galaxy), Nick Taylor (2022, Orlando City), Yanis Leerman (2022, Chicago Fire), Cal Jennings (2020, FC Dallas) and Jonathan Dean (2020, Orlando City).

The early and immediate success for Calabrese's Knights in the Sun Belt comes on the heels of a strong final six years as members of the American Athletic Conference from 2017-2022. UCF earned four AAC conference titles (three regular season, one tournament) under Calabrese, while authoring two double-digit win seasons, four seasons with at least nine wins and five with at least eight wins.

The most successful era of Calabrese's run in The American came between the 2018 and 2019 seasons, when UCF produced 13-3-3 and 15-3-2 records, respectively, en route to consecutive AAC regular-season championships and NCAA Tournament berths. With Calabrese's guidance, the Knights earned two Offensive Player of the Year awards (Jennings 2x), two Midfielder of the Year awards (Louis Perez, 2018; Yoni Sorokin, 2019), two Goalkeeper of the Year awards (Yannik Oetli 2x), one Freshman of the Year award (Gino Vivi, 2019), and two Coaching Staff of the Year awards (2018-19) in that span.

Calabrese spent the previous three seasons before coming to UCF at FIU, taking the program to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in over 10 years by capturing the 2015 Conference USA Championship. He helped the Panthers to consecutive appearances in the finals at the C-USA Championship.

The Newton, Conn., native has been known for building programs and started the program at East Tennessee State in 2008. In three short years, he guided the Bucs to the 2010 Atlantic Sun Championship behind 10 shutout victories, earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. The 2010 NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year tallied four seasons with 10-or-more victories and aided ETSU to the 2013 NCAA Tournament.

Prior to taking the head coaching position at ETSU, Calabrese served four seasons as an assistant at Clemson from 2003-06. He aided the Tigers to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 2005 College Cup and a No. 1 national ranking. He additionally worked as the director of the Clemson Soccer Academy, which hosts over 1,800 youth soccer players a year.

As a part of the coaching staff at North Carolina from 2000-01, he helped the Tar Heels to a pair of Elite Eight appearances, which included the 2001 National Championship and 2000 ACC Championship.

He has ties to the central Florida area, beginning his career as an assistant coach at Stetson from 1998-99.

Calabrese also has a connection to UCF women's soccer head coach Tiffany Roberts-Sahaydak, who he coached professionally as a member of the Carolina Courage (WUSA) coaching staff in 2002. He helped guide the Courage as an assistant coach to the Founder's Cup that season.

Calabrese graduated from Bryant College with a degree in business administration. He also holds an "A" coaching license and is a Level I and II certified goalkeeping instructor with the NSCAA.

In his eighth season alongside head coach Scott Calabrese, associate head coach Paul Souders played a key role in further solidifying UCF's status as a top three program in one of the nation's premier men's soccer conferences throughout the 2024 campaign.

The Knights in 2024 concluded their second campaign with at least seven wins since joining the Sun Belt prior to the 2023 season, and in just two years in the conference have accumulated one MLS SuperDraft selection (Anderson Rosa), three major conference post-season award winners (Calabrese – 2023 Coach of the Year; Clarence Awoudor – 2023 Newcomer of the Year; Saku Heiskanen – 2023 Freshman of the Year), seven All-Conference selections, four United Soccer Coaches All-Region appointments, and two top-three regular-season conference finishes.

UCF earned four AAC conference titles (three regular season, one tournament), while authoring two double-digit win seasons, four seasons with at least nine wins and five with at least eight wins.

The most successful era of UCF's run in The American came between the 2018 and 2019 seasons, when the Knights produced 13-3-3 and 15-3-2 records, respectively, en route to consecutive AAC regular-season championships and NCAA Tournament berths. With Souders' guidance, the Knights earned two Offensive Player of the Year awards (Jennings 2x), two Midfielder of the Year awards (Louis Perez, 2018; Yoni Sorokin, 2019), two Goalkeeper of the Year awards (Yannik Oetli 2x), one Freshman of the Year award (Gino Vivi, 2019), and two Coaching Staff of the Year awards (2018-19) in that span.

Assistant Coach Austin Nyquist - 2nd Season

After spending his previous seven seasons as an assistant coach with Grand Canyon and Portland, Austin Nyquist returns for his second year on head coach Scott Calabrese's staff in 2025.

With his guidance, UCF clinched its second top three finish as a member of the Sun Belt Conference in 2024, producing a 5-4-0 league record, good for 15 points in the conference table, with wins over Georgia State, Old Dominion, Kentucky, South Carolina and Coastal Carolina.

The Black and Gold, who climbed as high as No. 10 in the United Soccer Coaches top 25 poll, also notably played to respective 1-1 draws at home with then-No. 23 Seattle and Wake Forest during their non-conference slate.

With Nyquist's help, program greats Lucca Dourado and Anderson Rosa completed their collegiate careers on a high notes, earning All-Sun Belt Conference First Team honors before continuing their careers at the professional level. Rosa, who was previously drafted by the Colorado Rapids in the MLS SuperDraft 2024, signed his professional contract to join the Colorado Rapids 2, while Dourado joined the USL's Birmingham Legion.

Before joining the Knights, Nyquist most recently served as an assistant coach with the Grand Canyon Antelopes from 2021-23, also as the program's assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. With Nyquist's help, the Lopes recorded a 29-19-7 aggregate record in three seasons, including two WAC Tournament berths and the program's first home NCAA Tournament match against Denver Nov. 18, 2021.

The Lopes also saw two players drafted in the first round of the 2022 MLS SuperDraft following Nyquist's first season with Grand Canyon, in Esai Easley (22nd overall to Sporting Kansas City) and Justin Rasmussen (27th overall to the Portland Timbers). Easley won WAC Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2021, while Rasmussen earned All-WAC First Team honors.

In his second season with the Lopes, Nyquist saw two players earn MLS Next Pro contracts in Shaun Joash with Huntsville City and Ben Awashie with New England Revolution II.

Prior to joining GCU, Nyquist spent three seasons with Portland from 2018-21 as an assistant coach and the director of performance analysis. The Pilots recorded an aggregate 24-15-7 record in his tenure in the Pacific Northwest, including a 12-4-3 record and an NCAA Tournament Second Round berth in 2018.

During his time with Portland, Nyquist also recruited a pair of eventual 2024 MLS SuperDraft selections in Jacob Babalai (41st overall to Charlotte FC) and Buba Fofanah (81st overall to Seattle Sounders FC).

In 2018, the Pilots climbed as high as No. 7 in the nation in the United Soccer Coaches' top 25 poll with a 10-0-3 record, representing one of two teams in the country without a loss through their 13 matches. The unbeaten streak was the longest for Portland since 1995 when the team put together 14 games without a loss.

Portland was rewarded when it received a postseason berth and a first-round home match against a UCLA squad making its 45th playoff appearance. The game in mid-November was the first home playoff contest for the Pilots since 2002, and the win was Portland's first in the playoffs since 2009 and its first at home since 2002.

In 2019, Nyquist's Pilots saw six players earn All-WCC honors, and three earned All-West Region selections.

In his recruiting role, Nyquist has had four top 15 recruiting classes via TopDrawerSoccer. With Portland, his classes ranked 8th in 2019, 4th in 2020 and 3rd in 2021. His first season at GCU during the summer of 2021, Nyquist brought the 14th best recruiting class to Phoenix en route to an NCAA Tournament berth. The 2022 GCU class ranked 21st in the country as well, with a group that went 2-1-1 against teams ranked or receiving votes in the United Soccer Coaches poll. A part of that class was Bright Nutornutsi, who has garnered All-WAC Freshman Team (2022) and All-WAC First Team (2023) honors as a Lope.

Nyquist has coached multiple players who have advanced to the professional ranks, including Benji Mitchell (2018/ Orlando City Homegrown), Rey Ortiz (2020 FC Cincinnati draft pick), Delentze Pierre (2023 Real Salt Lake Homegrown) and Brandon Cambridge (2023 Charlotte FC draft pick) while at Portland. In addition, he coached goalkeeper Nico Campuzano at Portland who signed an MLS Next Pro contract with New England Revolution II.

Prior to joining Portland during the summer of 2018, Nyquist spent the 2017 season scouting collegiately for Chicago Fire of the MLS, as well as coaching for North Carolina FC. During the 2016 season he worked as the director of performance analysis for the University of North Carolina's men's soccer program.

For the 2015-16 season Nyquist was an assistant coach at Robert Morris University, in Chicago, Ill. He was responsible for developing and leading training sessions, scouting and presenting technical/video reports on future opponents, conducting analysis of both individual and team performance, game day coaching, and management.

Nyquist has also spent time in youth development programs, including coaching with New York Red Bulls and Chicago Fire.

He played collegiately at Seton Hall (2006-08) and Wisconsin (2008-10). Owner of a Bachelor of Arts degree in religious studies from Wisconsin, Nyquist earned the A License from the United States Soccer Federation (USSF), and the Premier Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).

An experienced mentor among the professional ranks, Nick Jaramillo has joined the UCF men's soccer team as its newest assistant/goalkeepers coach ahead of the fall 2025 season.

"I had the opportunity to come to a university with as high as standard as UCF," Jaramillo said. "As a coach recruiting in the professional game, you always knew UCF was always a big program, soccer-wise."

He joins head coach Scott Calabrese's staff on the heels of, most recently, two years with One Knoxville SC as an assistant coach and the team's Head of Goalkeeping.

With One Knoxville SC, Jaramillo oversaw the development of back-to-back USL League One Golden Glove winner Sean Lewis, who also earned league Goalkeeper of the Year honors in 2024 and was a finalist for the award in 2023. The netminder posted a league-best 0.73 goals-against average last season and made 53 total saves, good for sixth most in the league.

The squad produced 15 clean sheets overall between the 2024 USL Jägermeister Cup and the regular season, seven from Lewis and eight more courtesy of Johan Garibay.

Garibay led all netminders in clean sheets, with four, during the 2024 USL Jägermeister Cup as well, on the strength of a 0.59 goals-against average.

"Interacting with the staff was the biggest thing as well. Within my networking circles, everybody had nothing but great things to say about Calabrese, Paul Souders and Austin Nyquist," Jaramillo continued. "It was good knowing that I'm going to be around great individuals but still have to perform at a really high level. That was something that I really wanted to prioritize, because for me, that translates to the family life too."

Prior to his time with One Knoxville SC, Jaramillo served as the Assistant Director of Goalkeeping with NCFC Youth from 2021-22. There, he was responsible for training and developing goalkeepers for NCFC (USL League One) and the NC Courage (NWSL).

From 2019-21, Jaramillo coached with Tormenta FC, assisting with USL League One, USL League Two and USL Academy Training on a daily basis while also training goalkeepers for League One and Two programs. He spearheaded the USL Academy program as well, running and managing player pools to help develop and identify players as prospects for USL Academy contracts with USL League One.

Jaramillo's USL experience also includes time spent with the Des Moines Menace in 2019 and the Mississippi Brilla from 2016-18.

He brings extensive collegiate coaching experience to his role with the Knights as well, beginning with his most recent tenure with Young Harris College in Young Harris, Georgia, from 2016-2020. In addition to serving as a goalkeepers coach during that time, he graduated from Young Harris with a bachelor's degree in psychology in 2018.

Jaramillo served as an assistant coach with the women's team at Barry University in the fall of 2019, and also aided in the development of the goalkeepers at Palm Beach Atlantic University from 2015-16.

"I hope to continue doing what I've done in the past," Jaramillo added. "Building relationships with the individuals first is the biggest piece, because then you can bring out the best in them. That's something that I've learned with the head coach that I've been with for ages, Mark McKeever. The relationship aspect is the biggest, and hopefully me building that with the keepers will then translate onto the field with them performing at the highest standard that they can."

Nick and his wife, Laura, have four children, Landon, Noah, Alexis and Oliver.
