RED RAIDER QUICK HITS

CLIFF NOTES PREVIEW:

Tony Graystone enters his 10th season at the helm of the Red Raiders and has a roster that features nine freshmen, the most he's had on a team in his tenure. Graystone is looking to repeat the success he had in 2021 when Tech made it to the NCAA Tournament for the ninth time in program history. To accomplish this feat he has gone back to his roots, building a roster that has continuity and in this case that means loading up on a talented freshmen class and developing them to be great as he did with his 2018 freshmen class that led the team to the 2021 postseason.

Addie Kanouff has been Tech's best and most consistent hitter throughout the season. The 6'5 sophomore has taken a huge leap in her second season after appearing in just five sets last year. Kanouff leads the team in kills and points and is second in hitting percentage, boasting an efficient .249 clip. Defensively she has also made an impact, recording 44 blocks on the year, good for second best on the team.

MILESTONE WATCH

→ Peyton Dunn eclipsed 2,000 assists and 500 digs for her career on Sept. 5.

→ Sierra Grizzle eclipsed 1,000 career digs on Sept. 19

→ Aliyah McDonald enters the week with 367 blocks, 553 kills and 765.5 points.

→ Reagan Engler enters the week with 378 kills and 146 blocks.

→ Katelyn Cochran enters the week with 839 career assists.

RED RAIDERS IN THE RANKINGS

→ Sierra Grizzle ranks 1st in the Big 12 for digs per set (4.70) and total digs (348). Grizzle is also 28th in the country for total digs.

Big 12 Week 4 Recap

Tech had a break after a tough road-heavy start to the Big 12 schedule as they played just one match last week against No. 19 BYU in Lubbock. The Cougars swept the Red Raiders in what was a closely contested three-set match thanks to the offense of Kalli Jiosvhili Ravva, Kenna McKenzie and Addie Kanouff. The underclassmen had some good success against a strong BYU squad, but were not able to get Tech over the hump.

Kalli Breaks Out

Freshman outside hitter Kalli Jiosvhili Ravva was incredible in her first weekend in Lubbock, Texas. She recorded back-to-back double doubles against Ole Miss and Incarnate Word. The French native tallied 54 kills in the Red Raider Classic including 22 against Ole Miss, which made her the first Red Raider this season to eclipse the 20-kill mark. She got it done on defense as well, recording a career-high 21 digs against Incarnate Word to help her finish the weekend with 40 digs.

For most players, a "sophomore slump" is a common occurrence. For Addie Kanouff, her sophomore year has been a welcomed sight for the Red Raiders. After appearing in just four matches last season, the 6'5 rightside has taken on a much bigger role this year and she has performed brilliantly. Kanouff is currently first on the team in kills (172), points (197.0) and second on the team in hitting percentage (.249), attacks (449) and blocks (44.0). She recorded a career-high 16 kills in Tech's win over UAlbany and has recorded five matches where she has hit over .300 with 10+ kills.

Bellamy Ballin'

After seeing limited time in her last two seasons at Houston, Ashlyn Bellamy has made an immediate impact for the Red Raiders this year and her contributions were highlighted by a career performance in Tech's comeback win over Incarnate Word. Against the Cardinals, Bellamy recorded a career-high 23 kills to go along with a career-high 20 dig and did it all while hitting just under .300. The junior has played in 18 matches this season, starting 14 of them and has been one of the team's best backrow defenders, attackers and servers this season.

Engler = MVP

Reagan Engler is a star. The junior has moved to outside hitter this offseason in an effort to convert her to a six-rotation player, something she's never done in her career. In her first match in this new role she recorded her first career double-double and notched career highs in kills (16) and digs (10). Engler was named the MVP of the FAU Tournament after totaling 42 kills, 24 digs and 5.0 blocks. Her impact was felt both in her play and leadership as she was vocal in correcting her teammates when needed and also praising them when they made the adjustments.

Notable Performers

Freshmen Kenna McKenzie and Shelby Ignash have seen increased playing time over the course of the preseason as they continue to take advantage of their opportunities. Setters Peyton Dunn and Katelyn Cochran have done a stellar job of setting up their hitter for success as Cochran recently recorded 52 assists in a match, a career best. Sierra Grizzle is top 30 in the country in total digs (348) and currently leads the Big 12 in digs per set (4.78) and total digs.

Unique Roster

The Red Raiders are the only team in the country to have at least nine freshmen while also having zero true seniors. Tech has three graduate seniors and are one of just four teams in the country that has zero true seniors joining Princeton, Villanova and Memphis in this unique feat. Tech's nine freshmen are also the second most in the country behind St. Mary's, Pacific, Holy Cross and Wichita St. who all have 10.

Back to Basics

Head coach Tony Graystone enters his 10th season with Texas Tech volleyball. He has the third-most wins in program history (134) entering the season and led Tech to an appearance in the 2021 NCAA Tournament. He did that because of the recruiting class he got in 2018 that he was able to develop and build around and after a few seasons of using the portal to fill holes in the roster, Graystone went back to what he does best this season - developing talent. The Red Raiders will have nine freshmen on their roster - the most in Graystone's tenure - who he expects to be the core of the team for years to come to get them back to the postseason.
