HEADLINES

- The Owls are in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history
- Mamadou Diarra scored twice in the American Conference Championship to bring his season total to eight
- The two-time American Conference Offensive Player of the Year has 16 goals and 46 points in 33 games at FAU
- Diarra was named Most Outstanding Offensive Player in the American Conference Tournament
- Fabrizio Cubeddu was named Most Outstanding Defensive Player
- Cubeddu has played right back, center mid, and center back this season... his first start at center back was in the semifinals vs. Tulsa (a 3-0 shutout)
- GK Alfred Mikkelsen needs one clean sheet to set the program single season record
- With one more win, the Owls would tie the 1996 team for most wins in a season (13)

NOTES

DIARRA EARNS TOP BILLING

Mamadou Diarra was named American Conference Offensive Player of the Year for the second straight season. He is the fourth player in conference history to repeat. The Mali-born striker leads the team with eight goals and 24 points. He's started all 17 matches.

TRAORE AND MOLLER-JENSEN EARN SECOND TEAM HONORS

Aboubacar Traore and Oliver Moller-Jensen were named to the second team after finishing tied for second on the team in goals and points. Moller-Jensen led the American in assists with six. Traore was also named to the Preseason All-Conference team. The Ivorian had three matches this season with both a goal and an assist. The pair will play on opposite sides of the field as attacking wing-midfielders when the Owls are in a 4-4-2.

MIKKELSEN BACK BETWEEN THE PIPES

Alfred Mikkelsen returned from a four-game absence vs. Tulsa and recorded his sixth solo shutout of the season. Excluding the September 4 match vs. UNF, the junior has conceded just seven goals in the other 12 matches combined.

OTHER NAMES TO WATCH

- Eli Conway is a senior transfer from UConn where he appeared in 36 matches in three seasons. Conway scored eight goals and added six assists in his time in Storrs.
- Josh Ainge is a sophomore transfer from Belmont Abbey College (DII), where he made 19 starts in 2024.
- Fabrizio Cubeddu started his collegiate career at FAU playing 22 games in 2020-21. The Davie, Fla. native transferred to Northeastern where he started 32 games in three seasons for the Huskies. Cubeddu now returns home for a sixth season of college soccer as finishes his MBA. He was named to the American First Team All-Conference.
- David Roberts and Kerfalla Toure have formed a solid center back partnership. Toure is a 6'4" Canadian who also played ice hockey for two seasons at Elmira College (DII) in New York before transferring to FAU and focusing on soccer.
- Felipe Santos scored his first career goal vs. USF. The Brazilian-born midfielder spent two seasons at Marshall but did not appear in any games.

Joey Worthen
Head Men's Soccer Coach
9th Season: 56-71-16

Joey Worthen was named Florida Atlantic University's head men's soccer coach in February of 2017. Approaching his eighth season, Worthen assumed the helm of one of FAU's oldest programs and is just the fifth head coach in what will be the program's 45th season. The team began competing in the American Athletic Conference in 2022.

In the spring of 2022, four-year All-Conference player Alonso Coello Camarero signed with Toronto FC, becoming the second ever FAU men's soccer player to sign with an MLS team and first since 2006. Worthen was instrumental in the Coello Camarero's development from freshman to senior year.

Worthen has turned around the men's soccer program in a short amount of time. The Owls began the 2021 season with a 3-0 record, which marked the program's best start since 1996. The team continued to realize uncharted territory, as the sixth-seeded Owls made their way to the C-USA Championship title game. Worthen's Owls defeated tournament-host Charlotte with a 5-3 edge in penalty kicks in the opening round. In the semifinals, the Owls made national headlines by upsetting the defending College Cup Champions in No. 4 Marshall, 3-1, to earn a spot in the title game against No. 15 Kentucky.

Worthen came to FAU from the University of South Carolina where he was a part of the Gamecock staff since 2012. Over his five seasons on staff, the Gamecocks posted a 39-33-6 record. His tenure was highlighted by a trip to the C-USA Championship final in 2014. The team also hosted back-to-back NCAA Tournament first round games, and made an appearance in the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2015 and 2016.
